

BROWNSDALE

C. M. & ST. P. TIME TABLE AT BROWNSDALE

No. 23, passenger, westbound, 2:51 p. m.
 No. 1 passenger, westbound, 11:51 p. m.—midnight.
 No. 22, passenger, eastbound, 11:37 a. m.—noon.
 No. 8, passenger, eastbound, 7:28 p. m.
 No. 91, freight, westbound, 4:10 p. m.
 No. 90, freight, eastbound, 7:50 a. m.

Twin boys arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Foster on Wednesday night.

O. A. Sleeper arrived from St. Paul on Wednesday for a few days stay. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Edwards of Mankato have been visiting at the Butterfield home on their way home from LaCrosse. Burt returned on Thursday and Mrs. Edwards and Esther on Saturday.

Mrs. Don Daigneau of Mankato is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sleeper. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sperry and Mrs. Eugene Sperry and Ida returned from a visit at Osage and other points in Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie Jr. of Minneapolis are guests at the home of their parents.

Silas Danley returned last week to Sleepy Eye after a few days' visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Danley.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Braun and children returned on Thursday from a few days visit in LaCrosse.

Chas. Hoy was down from St. Paul looking after the shipment of some hay he purchased here.

Nearly forty of the friends of Miss Mattie Harrington drove out to her place one evening recently and gave her a merry surprise. Miss Mattie expects to leave next month for Kalspell, Mont., where she expects to remain indefinitely. Her sister, Mrs. Fred Colby, lives there.

Both the churches had Christmas trees with appropriate exercises.

Tom McClellan is now hauling cream in place of Ray Clark.

Miss Winnifred Cole has been spending the holidays at the home of her uncle, E. P. Merrill. She expects to return to Minneapolis again in a few days to resume her study of music.

Miss Edna Sleeper has been spending the holiday vacation visiting with friends in Minneapolis.

Telephones have been put in for the following during the past week: Elton Luckey, A. Hamilton, John Knox and M. H. Kenaston.

Wedding Bells—On Jan. 1, 1914, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. A. Kuester, at Atlantic, Iowa, occurred the marriage of Otto Grunwaldt of Stewart, Iowa, and Miss Elsie Dussler of Atlantic. After the ceremony the happy pair went on a trip to Omaha, Neb. after which they went to Brownsdale, Minn., where the groom's parents reside. It was the biggest surprise ever worked on the Grunwaldt family. The groom's parents who were the only ones who knew of the coming event for nearly a year confessed it to be the most straining secret they ever promised to keep. The newly-weds will visit in this community about two weeks, after which they will return to Stewart, Iowa, where they will be at home after Feb. 1, 1914.

Mrs. John Schieck and two daughters, Elma and Christine and two sons, Herbert and Benhardt of Jenkins, Minn., are here visiting at J. C. Schieck's and Herman Grunwaldt's.

The Ladies Aid society of the Baptist church will hold a business meeting at the home of Mrs. L. L. Quimby on Friday afternoon.

CONCORD.

The S. E. Jacobson, J. A. Jensen and F. C. Bemis families spent New Year's day at the Frank Smith home.

Miss Mildred Burnett spent the week end at the Fred Christensen home.

Fred Hansen of Manning, Iowa is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hockett returned Monday evening from Manning, Iowa.

Seven (7) couples from Concord attended the dance in the Lyle New Year's night.

Regular Grange meeting Wednesday evening, Jan. 14, outside granges are welcome.

Mrs. Austin French and Mr. Guy Powers are visiting their sister, Mrs. Austin Felch.

ADAMS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram of Towners, N. D. who spent part of the holidays with his parents here left for their home Thursday.

The Firemen will give a ball at Sabell's hall, Wednesday evening, 7th. Carpenter's harp orchestra.

Most of the Adams stores will close during the short days at six o'clock every evening except Saturday.

Ed Howells, who spent Christmas here, left for Montana Tuesday to resume his work with the Milwaukee railroad company as bridge builder.

A son was born to Mrs. Henry Osmundson Tuesday, Dec. 30.

LANSING

The Ladies Aid will be entertained at the home of Mrs. O. W. Cummings Thursday afternoon. All are cordially invited.

The Bible Study Class meets at the B. Hanson home Wednesday afternoon.

Harvey Vaughan of Wymdrene, N. Dak. arrived Saturday from Minnecabaw and is visiting his brother, Stanley Vaughan.

Miss Elizabeth Field and Dr. Fiester were guests at the C. L. Rice home southeast of Austin last Wednesday.

Miss Veta Johnson has returned to Marietta where she is engaged in teaching.

Mrs. Brady spent Friday and Saturday in Austin.

Herbert Jr. announces his arrival at the home of Bert A. Wiseman of Little Rock, Ark. on January 2nd.

S. Seavey is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Larson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Vaughan entertained Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carril at New Year's dinner.

Mrs. Jos. Reinhart went to Waseca Wednesday to spend a few days with her daughter, Annie who is a sister in a school there.

Leland Vermilyea and Miss Leach of Dexter were guests of Mrs. A. J. Pollock Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Ohm nee Ella Revo of Waltham was a caller at Mrs. O. C. LaBar's last Wednesday.

Miss Uwellling of Leeds, N. Dak. and Dr. Frank Phillips of Richardsville, Wis., were up from Austin Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. LaBar and Clinton spent New Year's Day with Mr. and Mrs. O. C. LaBar.

Mr. and Mrs. McCulloch and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fairbanks and children of Austin spent Jan. 1st at the B. Hanson home.

Mrs. Clarence Conditt and daughters came up from Austin Friday to visit a few days at the A. J. Pollock and B. F. Tucker homes.

Earl Bates was reminded Friday evening that it was his birthday when a gathering of young people came upon him unexpectedly. The evening was spent in music and games. Refreshments were served.

Geo. Larson and R. T. Parkins went to St. Paul Monday as delegates to M. W. A.

H. M. McIntyre who has been in business here for the past forty years and feels disposed to retire from it, on Jan. 1 leased his store to his son Harry S. McIntyre who will continue in the business. He will appreciate the patronage of all.

H. M. McIntyre went to Minneapolis Saturday to spend a few weeks with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Johnson of Brownsdale visited at Mrs. E. Summy's Friday.

Mabel and Gladys Summy were up from Austin last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hopfe entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Beadell and family at Sunday dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Lane and Edna visited at the Matt Uwellling home in Austin Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson and daughters of Austin partook of New Year's dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. Lyons.

Miss Bates sang a pleasing solo, "Face to Face" at church services Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Lewis Pickett and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pickett spent New Year's day with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Davis of Udolpho.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Ramsey and son, Donald leave Wednesday for Hartley, Ia., where they will spend a couple of weeks with relatives and friends. LeRoy Hopfe will take charge of the work. Good for Le Roy.

Ask a couple of the Lansing girls what was the matter with the party in Blooming Prairie Friday night. We wonder.

John Cerney and wife of St. Ansgar, Ia., are visiting his parents.

Mr. Prehoda of London was a guest at John Cerney's last week.

Dr. C. F. Lewis was called Saturday to attend little Ruth Frazier who is ill with pneumonia.

C. H. McIntyre returned last Wednesday to Minneapolis, where his wife is visiting Mrs. H. M. McIntyre.

Mr. Scott of Hartley, Ia. is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Frazier.

H. A. Vaughan went to Blooming Prairie Monday to visit relatives.

School opened Monday after the holiday vacation.

Geo. Dreller of Hartley, Iowa is spending a few days with his brother, Fred.

VARCO.

Enterprise Grange will hold open meeting Friday night the 9th for the installation of officers. There will be a fine program of music, recitations etc. Supper will be served. All are most cordially invited, especially those who wish to join the Grange.

The boarding house at the cement works has changed hand and now W. D. Baker is the proprietor.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Brooks entertained at dinner for New Year's, Grandma Jane Lott, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Moreland, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Hart and children.

Emma and Jay Bennett of Flaudreau, S. D. returned home Saturday after spending the holidays at the C. H. Lott home.

Miss Dora Hall returned Monday to her school duties at Jackson, Minn., after spending her two weeks vacation with her mother.

Miss Minnie Nickels of Adams has been visiting her sister Mrs. Arle Parmenter.

Chris Hansen's young people spent one evening last week with Avery and Dora Hall.

An Ideal Woman's Laxative.

Who wants to take salts or castor oil, when there is nothing better than Dr. King's New Life Pills for all bowel troubles. They act gently and naturally on the stomach and liver, stimulate and regulate your bowels and tone up the entire system. Price 25c. At all druggists, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. Adv.

ROSE CREEK.

Chas. Johnson has bought the Thon residence in Adams village and will move there in the spring.

Miss Hafnes visited Mrs. Reckenthal in Adams last week.

Miss Lottie Wheelock, who is teaching at Mabel, spent holiday vacation at home.

Harry Felton was home for the holidays from Bayless Business college at Dubuque.

Geo. W. Phillips attended the installation of the G. A. R. officers in Austin Saturday.

Mrs. Lena Hart of Austin came from Austin Monday for a brief visit.

Mrs. Ed Barr of Austin came Wednesday to spend New Year's with her son. She returned Monday.

There was a big surprise farewell party at the town hall for Misses Mary Cress and Kate Thill who have returned to their school studies.

About 85 were present. Games and other recreation were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

Teachers and pupils were on hand again Monday morning to begin school after holiday vacation.

The Rose Creek pupils who were home for the holidays have returned to studies: Ed Smith to St. John's college, St. Paul; Mary Winert and Alberta O'Halloran to Bethlehem academy, Faribault; Mary Cress to Milwaukee. Kate Thill has just started in at Bethlehem academy with the new year.

Grand ball at the auditorium Thursday evening, 8th. Carpenter's orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Uwellling spent the holidays with her folks at Farmington.

Miss Elizabeth Meany arrived home Sunday night from Milwaukee where she attended the funeral of a former pupil.

Miss Dollie Brock arrived home Sunday night from Milwaukee where she spent two weeks with her folks.

The Centennial grange held election of officers Tuesday evening, 6th.

Big time at Rose Creek grange meeting Wednesday evening of this week. Installation of officers, fine program, refreshments.

Mrs. C. A. Anderson is visiting her sister at Madelia. She has been there the past two weeks.

LYLE.

E. O. Eastlee of Wrightsville, Sask. spent New Year's week with friends here.

Iewet H. Sherman, aged 62 years, died Monday night, Dec. 29, 1913 of cancer of the lip. He had suffered from epilepsy for about twenty years. He was born in New York state, March 4, 1851. He moved when a child with his folks to Edgerton, Wis. and came to Lyle about 40 years ago. He assisted his brother L. W. in the elevator business here and later had charge of the Hunting elevator. He was married in 1880 to Miss Hanson who survives him with seven children.

The Congregational Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. A. George Thursday, 8th.

The Woodbury Willing Workers will meet with Mrs. Louis Machacek Wednesday, 7th.

Robert L. Kemple gave his lecture on "The American Boy" at the city hall Tuesday evening, 6th, in the regular lecture course.

Farmers Short Course here Jan. 27-31. Do not miss it.

Chas. Volstad has moved into his fine new home in an Austin visitor Saturday afternoon.

LE ROY.

Ernest Boyd of Livermore, Iowa, visited relatives here last week.

G. S. Palmer and family left Tuesday, 6th, for Hollywood, Cal. to spend the winter with the Palmer families there.

The Married Folks Dance will be held at the opera house Friday, 9th, Carpenter's orchestra.

The Ladies Guild will meet Wednesday, 7th, for election of officers.

Union service was held at the Baptist church Sunday evening.

Mrs. Lynn Porter and son returned Monday from Minneapolis where she spent Christmas.

The Masonic and the Eastern Star lodges held joint installation Tuesday evening. A seven o'clock dinner was enjoyed at the Sweet hotel.

The box social at the Princess netted the Library association $26.75. They held their annual meeting Monday of this week with Mrs. F. E. Garner.

Gib Miller came near a serious accident at the elevator the first of last week. His trousers caught in some of the machinery but fortunately the belt was thrown off before he was injured.

LYLE CENTER.

Ben Johnson from Saskatoon, Canada is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson.

Mr. Robertson has been quite sick with a cold for a few days.

D. C. Aultfather is hauling sand for the new house he expects to build in the spring.

Edith and Maud Vest have each returned to their school work at Northfield and Taopi.

RACINE.

The Men's club will meet at the M. E. church Friday evening, 9th. Prof. C. W. Hendryx of Spring Valley will give an address on "A Young Man's Aim." A social session will follow.

W. C. Durham of Pleasant Valley went to Rochester Monday for treatment for injuries sustained from a recent bad fall from a ladder.

Rev. C. B. Frank went to Rochester Monday to assist in special meetings at the Evangelical church.

Prof. W. A. Wilson and daughter, Stella went to St. Paul Tuesday to spend New Year's with his mother and sister.

Miss Clara Finley spent New Year's Day in Rochester.

Earl Hazelton of Jamestown, S. D. spent the holiday vacation with his parents here.

The Spring Valley Electric Light company is trying to interest Racine capitalists to the amount of $2,500 to have their service installed here. It would be fine.

Mrs. Oscar Solsrud went to Rochester Tuesday to consult the Mayo.

SARGEANT.

School began Monday after a two weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Schaefer ate their New Year's dinner with relatives in Dexter.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Grimm entertained Mr. Peterson, Jennie and Arthur and Albert, Jacob Martin and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heydt and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Grimm on New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Heydt served a New Year's dinner and entertained Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Heydt and the Heydt brothers and their families on the first day of the year 1914.

Mrs. Henry Hahn spent a few days with relatives in Kenyon last week. Geo. Siegel is still under the Drs. care.

Mr. and Mrs. Kezar and Lylly were Sunday guests at the Scott Bennett home.

Otto Grunwaldt and bride who are visiting relatives here, was given a jolly old charivari by his former boy friends.

Oscar Weistkopf who has been the faithful and efficient clerk of H. Hahn & Co.'s for the past two years, has resigned. He has not fully decided what he will do the coming year. Oscar will be greatly missed by his many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Arntzen and children have returned home, after spending the holidays with relatives in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Kezar took in the Eastern Star supper at Brownsdale, last Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hahn were guests at the Reuben-Keller home on New Year's day.

N. J. Sargeant and family spent New Year's Day at the John Gordy home in Pleasant Valley.

Reuben Keller has bought him a fine farm just half way between Dexter and Elkton, where he and his family will move about March 1st, while we are sorry to lose this nice family, we are glad for them, that they will have such a nice new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Anderson entertained at a family dinner on New Year's consisting of the Anderson families and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm, and Mr. and Mrs. Hegstrom.

James Stoddard of Olwein is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. Henry Hahn.

Miss Louise Larson and Elmer Drogseth were married at Evangelist church at 3 o'clock on New Year day relatives were present.

Mrs. Ferdinand Schwartz is entertaining her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fish and son, Floyd of Elgin, North Dakota.

MR FARMER, living in the vicinity of Sargeant, shake hands with yourself, for Mr. L. Granger of Hayfield, will make it possible for you to deliver your stock to Sargeant, every Thursday, EVERY WEEK. Mr. Granger needs no introduction to you. A recommendation would add but little towards the good will you have already spoken for him. You bet, you need Mr. Granger and Mr. Granger needs you. He has come to STAY and the rumors may be floating around that the air that Sargeant will have a stock buyer for only a week or two for the benefit of the doubting ones, let it be said that this proposition is backed by the good will of all our business men and they are confident that Mr. Granger will stay by them to the finish. Remember, the devil lived in heaven, until he was kicked out for "knocking." So keep competition alive, sell at least part of your stock to Mr. Granger, and BE A BOOSTER for YOUR OWN GOOD.

DEXTER.

Fred Medbery and family returned to their home in Stanley, N. Dak. Thursday.

Mrs. T. H. Waffle went to Grand Meadow Tuesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Seaburn.

Miss Lillian Kramer returned Monday to resume her school work at Mankato.

Grace Wakefield spent New Year's day with the Will Brooks family in Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. George King came from Austin Tuesday.

Alice Daily returned to the University of Minnesota Monday.

Fisk's orchestra will play for the masquerade dance in Medbery's hall Friday evening, January 9.

Mrs. Grigsby who is very sick has been taken to St. Olaf's hospital at Austin for treatment.

The Directors of the Telephone Company held a business meeting at the usual place Tuesday.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. D. C. March is quite sick with rheumatism of the nerves.

John Eppard has charge of the work at the Tow mill which began work Monday.

Hans Brue has been sick for several days with La Grippe.

A play, The Girl & The Gawk, will be held at the opera house Monday evening, January 12.

The wedding of Jen Miller of Grand Meadow town and Miss Edith Root took place on New Year's day at the residence of the bride's folks in Pleasant Valley. Only relatives were present. They will reside on the farm east of Dexter. The bride has been a successful teacher. Both are very worthy young people.

Big Masquerade Ball, Friday evening, Jan. 9.

WEST LANSING.

Quite a few from this vicinity attended the party at N. Young's New Year's eve.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Dugaw and Vera Dugaw spent New Year's day with Mr. and Mrs. John Noble.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Dugaw and daughters, Viola and Florence spent last week with relatives in Blooming Prairie.

Mrs. S. Ranunn and daughter, Minnie and Olaf Olson spent Sunday at the H. Karsrud home.

Mrs. P. G. Peterson, Helen, Esther and George Peterson, spent Sunday at the Otto Pellerud home.

Mrs. C. Smith and daughter, Mary are visiting in Iowa.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Frazer is very ill.

Mrs. J. Jcha and daughter, Mary were Austin callers Tuesday.

Mr. Jones returned from Iowa Wednesday evening.

George, Elvin and Morris Peterson spent New Year's day with Howard Lerud.

Olaf Olson spent the past two weeks at the S. Ranunn home.

OAKLAND.

Fred Jerred of Millboro, S. D., arrived Sunday to accompany his wife home. She has been visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Ellen Hare of Albert Lea is visiting Oakland friends.

Miss Elizabeth Bennett left Tuesday for Davenport, Iowa, to take up treatments again at the Chiropractic College.

C. L. Freeman and family visited at James Bennett's Sunday evening.

The Baptist Ladies Aid Society meets Thursday afternoon at the church for the purpose of electing officers.

The Anti-Saloon League will have choice of the preaching service at the Baptist church Sunday, the 11th.

Election of Sunday School officers will take place at the Sunday school hour next Sunday, 11th.

Annual meeting of the Baptist church congregation will be held Friday the 9th at 2 p. m. at the church.

A dance was held at the home of Peter Peterson Friday night.

Miss Elizabeth Bennett was given a surprise by a party of friends Thursday evening. A pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present and a fine supper served.

Miss Mary Dumphy spent Saturday and Sunday here, returning to Albert Lea Monday to start her school again.

Mrs. Geo. Dearmin returned Saturday from Alden where she spent the holidays with her parents.

Mrs. Uri Young has been very sick with appendicitis.

Mrs. Claywell returned Saturday from Chicago and Milwaukee.

The Farmers Elevator Company took in a car of hogs Monday.

School began Monday in district No. 30 after the holiday vacation.

The Woodmen will hold installation of officers at their hall Thursday.

Mrs. James Taylor Jr., spent Sunday at the E. O. Anderson home in Rose Creek.

Laird Guy and wife of Dodge Center, Todd Guy of Chicago, Robert Guy and wife; Mrs. James Guy and Virginia Guy, of Austin, also Wm. Taylor and wife, were entertained at Jas. Taylor's New Year's.