

BROWNSDALE

C. M. & ST. P. TIME TABLE AT BROWNSDALE

No. 23, passenger, westbound, 2:51 p. m.
 No. 1 passenger, westbound, 11:51 a. m.—midnight.
 No. 22, passenger, eastbound, 11:37 a. m.—noon.
 No. 8, passenger, eastbound, 7:28 p. m.
 No. 91, freight, westbound, 4:10 p. m.
 No. 90, freight, eastbound, 7:50 a. m.

The three year old son of George Colby died Sunday. Mrs. Colby and the little fellow have been visiting here.

Be sure and hang your lantern out on the trees. The village cannot afford street lights.

Anthony Madison of Palermo, N. D., is here called by the serious illness of his mother, who is gradually growing weaker.

W. S. Woodward has not been so well of late. He was taken worse Saturday night.

The Kokomos camp fire girls will give an entertainment at the Masons' opera house on Friday evening, Jan. 23 at eight o'clock. Attendance 25c and 15c. Everybody come.

Miss Ida Sperry was operated upon at St. Olaf hospital in Austin on Friday for appendicitis.

George Jarvis returned from New Albion, Iowa on Thursday where he had his tonsils removed.

Clyde Pace of Idaho has been visiting for a few days at the home of his brother, Roy.

Frank Vroman of Rochester returned on Wednesday after a few days visit with his sister, Mrs. Burt Webb.

Telephones were put in for Dr. Trumbauer and Herman Bast during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Shortt entertained the Baptist Sunday school nominating committee with their wives and husbands on Tuesday evening of last week. A very pleasant evening was spent after which refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake, sandwiches, olives, salads and coffee were served.

Considerable corn is being shipped out of here by the carload of late.

C. M. Syck had a bad fall on Tuesday at the elevator. He was standing on a plank between the elevator and a car when the plank slipped and he fell to the ground striking on his back. Arthur Wicks has been looking after the business at the elevator for him.

Friends and relatives gave a shower in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Grunwaldt on Wednesday. The bride and groom received many beautiful and useful gifts. They left on Thursday for their home at Stuart, Iowa.

Louie Grunwaldt after a short visit at the home of his parents returned to New Richland on Thursday.

Little Frank Colby, aged three years, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Colby of Plenty, Can., died Sunday evening at J. M. Tanner's of anemia after a brief illness. He was an only child and was born at Bagley Minn., Oct. 23, 1910. Funeral will probably be held at the Baptist church here on Friday afternoon at one o'clock.

The annual meeting of the Baptist church was held in the church parlors on Thursday afternoon. The reports read from all the departments showed the church to be in a flourishing condition. The following officers were elected for the Sunday school: Supt., L. L. Quimby; asst. supt., C. O. Sleeper; secretary, Mrs. P. H. Drummond; asst. secy., Julia Gillette; treas., Edna Sleeper; chorister, M. H. Kenaston; organist, Marie Shortt; asst. organist, J. H. Thompson; librarian, Martha Nelson. Officers for the church were elected as follows: Trustee, T. B. Johnson; treasurer, C. O. Sleeper; clerk, L. L. Quimby; organists, Ethel Svck, Edna Sleeper; chorister, G. M. Shortt.

James Ford of Waltham was in the village on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Merrill left for Stillwater on Friday for a few days stay. They expect to go into business there after March 1st.

Five auctions in this vicinity are scheduled for February. George Foster, E. P. Merrill, H. E. Woodward, Wm. Saterbo, E. White.

For sale cheap, if taken at once, a Williams typewriter. Inquire of L. L. Quimby, Brownsdale.

A spelling contest was held in the Eagen district schoolhouse on Monday. A number of Brownsdale scholars went out.

ROSE CREEK.
 Dance at Weinert & Jensen's hall next Friday evening.
 Rose Creek Grange will meet Wednesday evening of this week.
 Amanda Swenson returned Thursday from St. Olaf hospital where she had an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Fink of Kenmare, N. D., are making an extended visit with relatives in this vicinity.

Andrew Felton has gone to Saskatchewan in search of land. He will return thru Washington to visit relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinartz were Austin visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Wm. Cress returned home Wednesday from St. Olaf hospital where she received medical treatment.

J. Reckenthaler visited his son Lew in Adams Wednesday.

An Ideal Woman's Laxative.
 Who wants to take salts, or castor oil, when there is nothing better than Dr. King's New Life Pills for all bowel troubles. They act gently and naturally on the stomach and liver, stimulate and regulate your bowels and tone up the entire system. Price 25c. At all druggists. H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. Adv.

LANSING

The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. Stanley Vaughan Thursday afternoon. All are cordially invited to attend.

Jimmie Hanson celebrated his third birthday last Tuesday. His grandpa and grandma, McCulloch and Dr. A. M. Lewis and wife came up from Austin for the occasion.

Mrs. E. M. Vaughan arrived from Hayward Tuesday and visited friends until Thursday morning, when she went on to Simpson to spend a few months with her sister, Mrs. Harris. Dr. B. Vaughan, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Carl attended the funeral of Mrs. Mary Truesdell at Austin last Wednesday.

Miss Francis Meyers of Austin was a guest of Miss Edith Carl last week. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Picketts visited C. Maas of Brownsdale, Wednesday.

Mrs. Brady gave a very helpful talk to an appreciative audience at Sunday school, Sunday afternoon. By means of a model of the tabernacle, she explained its spiritual meaning to the Israelites of that day and also its teachings to us of this day. On Tuesday she gave the same exposition to the members of the Home Department at the home of Mrs. E. Summy.

Next Sunday at about 2 P. M. we will be favored with another Scripture reading by Mrs. H. S. McIntyre. All are cordially invited. Help to make it an "Everybody-at-Church-Sunday" movement.

Mrs. Geo. Enney went to Pratt Friday and reports the birth of a son to Mrs. Mary Hart of Pratt.

Mesdames Chas. Bowers and Chas. Dickerson were entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner at Mrs. H. B. Roe's Friday.

John Ullwelling went to Rochester Monday to see his mother who has recently undergone an operation at St. Mary's hospital.

Charles Stimson of Winnebago visited relatives here the last of the week.

Mr. Heimke's brother-in-law returned to Grafton, N. Dak., Saturday. Geo. Enney has sold his house and lot to B. R. Summy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gregson were up from Austin Sunday the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Carl.

Geo. Enney made a business trip to Owatonna last week.

A representative of the State Sunday School Work canvassed the village Thursday.

The members of class No. 3 were entertained at the home of Mrs. Mary Carl, Tuesday evening. After a business meeting and songs chocolate parfait and marguerites were served.

M. E. Hessler returned Saturday from a three week's visit at Independence, Kansas with his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Hanson went to Austin Saturday evening to spend Sunday.

Mr. Williams of Faith, S. D. visited his daughter, Mrs. Geo. Hunter last week.

Dan Balstorf went to Davenport, Ia. Thursday, returning Saturday.

Mrs. H. Lyons and Mrs. Maud Thompson called at the Hopfe homes Friday.

The creamery ice house is being filled this week. The winter so far, has been so mild that ice is only twelve inches thick.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Stevenson of Winnebago visited her brother, Stanley Vaughan and family from Tuesday evening until Wednesday afternoon.

August Anderson became a member of the Grange which met at Ramsey Hall, Friday evening.

L. L. Quimby was doing phone work here Friday.

Changes are being made in the McIntyre store. The back rooms are being remodeled and the inter-state phone 25-J-16 has been installed in the store building.

DEXTER.
 Theo. Kramer was in Austin Thursday.

Clausen's five piece orchestra will play for the dance in Medbery's hall Friday evening, Jan. 23.

Mrs. Will Rahilly was shopping in Austin Saturday.

Mrs. T. H. Waffle returned Friday from Grand Meadow where she has been with her mother who is sick.

Mrs. Jesse Vermilyea spent Saturday afternoon in Austin.

The Ladies' Aid cleared about $12.00 at their supper at the G. H. McNeir home Wednesday evening.

Richard Rahilly spent Sunday with his wife at the George King home in Austin.

Jim Kirkwood is on the sick list. Ed Kramer spent a few days in Cresco last week.

Mrs. Hunt of Grand Meadow was in town between trains Saturday.

George Mielke has sold his farm north of town, and intends to move to town in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Rindy spent Sunday in Austin.

Mrs. F. Wolfgram is quite sick again. She is under the care of Dr. Mitchell of Grand Meadow.

Plans are being made for a Farmer's Institute which will be held sometime in February. Watch these items for further announcements.

LE ROY.
 Otto Hickok of Austin visited his grandmother, Mrs. T. J. Bishop last week.

The Odd Fellows and the Rebekahs had their joint installation of officers Tuesday evening and enjoyed a fine musical and elocutionary program in connection. Refreshments were served.

A Sunday school institute will be held at the Presbyterian church Friday afternoon and evening, 23rd, with speakers from away.

The Dorcas society will serve lunch in the church basement Wednesday, 21st.

Both banks here re-elected their old officers at their annual meetings last week.

F. W. Sprung went to Northfield Wednesday to visit his daughters at Carlton, Colorado and then went to Minneapolis to attend the Implement Dealers convention.

A daughter was born to Mrs. Cleve Frisbie Jan. 10.

Chris Karlen went to Austin Tuesday to make final proof of citizenship.

The Ladies' Guild will meet with Miss Sarah Hopp Wednesday afternoon, 21st.

For Frost Bites and Chapped Skin.
 For frost bitten ears, fingers and toes; chapped hands and tips, chilblains, cold sores, red and rough skins, there is nothing to equal Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Stops the pain at once and heals quickly. In every home there should be a box handy all the time. Best remedy for all skin diseases, itching eczema, tetter, piles, etc. 25c. All Druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia & St. Louis.—Adv.

GRAND MEADOW.
 German Lutheran Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. Berg, Wednesday, 21st.

E. O. Sorben of Boise, Idaho, a former Grand Meadow boy, is visiting relatives here.

T. J. Grimes has been appointed postmaster of Grand Meadow.

The M. E. Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday, 21st, with Mrs. I. A. Kums.

Dr. R. S. Mitchell attended the meeting of the Mower County Medical association in Austin Wednesday.

As John Rother crawled thru a barb wire fence last week hunting, the gun was discharged and John's wrist and arm were injured. It is hoped that no permanent injury will follow.

The surplus account of the Exchange State Bank has just been increased $2,000.

Miss Isabel Hoppin arrived home Tuesday evening from Minneapolis, where she had an operation for appendicitis. She is getting along favorably.

Hon. C. F. Greening was an Austin caller Friday.

Worms The Cause of Your Child's Pains.
 A foul, disagreeable breath, dark circles around the eyes, at times feverish, with great thirst; cheeks flushed and then pale, abdomen swollen with sharp cramping pains are all indications of worms. Don't let your child suffer—Kickapoo Worm Killer will give sure relief. It kills the worms—while its laxative effect aids greatly to the health of your child by removing the dangerous and disagreeable effect of worms and parasites from the system. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a health producing should be in every household. Perfectly safe. Buy a box today. Price 25c. All druggists or by mail, Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis. Adv.

BLOOMING PRAIRIE.
 A Sunday school institute will be held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon and evening, 21st. Several speakers from away will be present.

The remains of Mrs. Thomas R. Symes were brought here from Owatonna on Saturday for interment. She was a former resident here.

C. W. Treat's house caught fire Monday from sparks lighting on the roof, but the fire was extinguished with little damage.

John C. Brainerd and Miss Blanche Ilie were married Thursday morning by Father Murray. They were attended by Kenneth Brainerd and Miss Irene Cummings. The groom is the oldest son of Geo. S. Brainerd.

The last number of the lecture course will be given Feb. 9 by the Townsend Concert company.

At the annual meeting of the Farmers and Merchants State Bank, E. O. Habberstad was elected president.

Ed Morton attended the State Implement Dealers meeting at Minneapolis Wednesday and Thursday.

The members of the Book club will meet with Mrs. Robt. Nelson Thursday evening, 22nd, to consider the new constitution and by-laws.

ADAMS.
 The funeral of Nick Wagner, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Wagner was held at Sacred Heart church Thursday morning. He died of pneumonia Monday night, Jan. 12. Justice P. H. Carr was in Austin Wednesday on business.

A new boiler for heating will be put in the United Lutheran church and radiators will also be put in the basement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Olson spent Sunday with relatives in Albert Lea. Now comes an ordinance requiring the pool rooms of Adams as well as the saloons to close at ten o'clock in the evening. Good.

It is reported that the liquor license issue will be a live issue at our coming village election.

Several dealers here have already filled their ice houses for next summer and we believe they are wise in not waiting for thicker ice.

J. O. Fardahl has returned from his trip in western Minnesota.

LYLE CENTER.
 Mrs. Olsen who has been visiting here for some time, went to Dakota Saturday, where she will visit relatives before returning to her home in Canada. Her mother, Mrs. Peter Johnson accompanied her as far as St. Paul.

Guy Powers came home Friday from a two-weeks' visit at Austin and vicinity.

A party of boys of this neighborhood were wolf hunting Sunday.

Andrew Aultfather went to Colebridge, Neb. Monday to attend a sale of Poland China hogs.

Adam Duerst has bought a car load of tile, which he wants to haul while these good roads last.

Ben and Palmer Johnson went to Austin Monday where they will attend the U. S. M.

A few from this neighborhood are attending the Short Course this week.

SARGEANT.
 Mrs. Edward Anderson spent last week here with her parents.

Miss Jennie Peterson spent Saturday evening with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Kezar autoed to Blooming Prairie, Sunday afternoon and visited at the C. E. Symes home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wachlin were Sunday visitors at the Leo Meyer home.

Gertrude and Blanche Keller visited Thursday afternoon at the Franklina Grimm home.

Leroy Grimm spent Sunday at home from his duties as one of the jurymen in Austin.

Several of the school boys are sporting a new watch earned by getting good spelling lessons in school.

The Evangelical Ladies' Aid will meet with Dora Heydt Thursday afternoon, Jan. 23, everyone cordially invited, especially those in her neighborhood.

The people of the evangelical church went with well laden baskets last Wednesday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Grunwaldt to surprise their son, Otto and bride before their return to Stuart, Iowa. Many useful presents were left as a token of esteem and all went home wishing these young people a very long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Oscar Weitstock is taking care of the station during the absence of Arthur Cowles who spent Sunday in Omaha.

Levi Granger bought hogs and cattle as usual last Thursday.

Lois Grove our genial and accommodating shoemaker is having plenty of work and is now prepared to oil and repair your harnesses, bringing them in early before the rush.

A very peculiar thing happened last week. The Walter brothers living near town had three valuable horses stabbed on different nights in their barn. This is certainly a very cowardly act and we hope the rogue will be discovered and dealt right by.

Hans Welken was a caller in town last week.

J. E. Heydt, A. D. Schaefer, Geo. Barte and Wm. Heydt attended meetings at Pleasant Corners several evenings the past week.

H. F. Kezar attended an insurance meeting in St. Paul last week.

LYLE.
 Mr. and Mrs. F. Beach visited in Austin Sunday.

The Misses Buena Bliem and Agnes Rezap of Plymouth spent Sunday with Mrs. M. Johnson.

Don't forget the short course, beginning Jan. 27 to Jan. 31. The agricultural course will be held in the city hall and the Domestic Science course in the Woodman hall.

Lyla Hildebrand and Charlotte Hinton spent Sunday at the fluent home in Otranto.

The Congregational Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. Gibson at her home, Thursday afternoon, Jan. 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Murphy Sundayed at the Hoban home in Austin.

The Hawthornes will give a literary program at the school house Friday afternoon, Jan. 23rd.

Clinton Clausen Sundayed in Otranto.

The Helping Seniors gave a party at the home of Mrs. A. M. Wilson Friday evening.

The Misses Vida and Phoebe Peterson from Rose Creek and Dexter, spent Sunday at home.

A number of young folks enjoyed buggy riding Friday evening.

John Eggen has purchased a new typewriter.

Mrs. J. O. Johnson will entertain the Norwegian Ladies' Aid at her home, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 21st.

P. Hildebrand purchased a new five passenger auto last week.

Wonderful Cough Remedy.
 Dr. King's New Discovery is known everywhere as the remedy which will surely stop a cough or cold. D. P. Lawson of Edison, Tenn., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the most wonderful cough, cold and throat and lung medicine I ever sold in my store. It can't be beat. It sells without any trouble at all. It needs no guarantee." This is true, because Dr. King's New Discovery will relieve the most obstinate of coughs and colds. Lung troubles quickly helped by its use. You should keep a bottle in the house at all times for the members of the family. 50c and $1.00. All druggists or by mail, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Philadelphia or St. Louis.—Adv.

RACINE.
 At the annual meeting of the Racine State Bank the old officers were re-elected. They report a prosperous year.

H. N. Hansen, a representative of the Anti-Saloon league, spoke at the evangelical church Sunday.

Amundson's store building caught fire in the roof Tuesday afternoon. The fire alarm was quickly turned in by Geo. Chamberlain and the department made short work in extinguishing it.

O. R. Steffens went to Aitkin Thursday on a business trip.

Word comes from Mrs. Oscar Solsrud who is at Rochester hospital for treatment that she is getting along favorably.

TAOPI.
 A son was born to Mrs. Fred Howe Jan. 10 and a son was born to Mrs. Clarence Burke, Jan. 11. We are getting ready for the next census.

Geo. Lukens was in St. Paul last week for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell returned to St. Ansgar Monday after spending a few days with relatives here.

Lynn Folger visited friends in Sioux City last week.

The new Taopi Lumber Co. which bought out M. H. Miller is just completing immense sheds so as to cover their stocks from the weather.

The State Bank reports increased business as their statement this week will show. With the breaking up of the surrounding country into small farms we are sure to grow.

OAKLAND.
 There will be a dance at Moscow Hall Friday night.

Grange will meet Wednesday the 28th. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Wm. Cornelius is in Albert Lea caring for her grandson who has scarlet fever.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Torrens.

Lily Carlson and Charles Benson were married in Albert Lea, Jan. 14, by Rev. Haupt.

They are putting on the finishing touches to the school house.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Esterby last Saturday.

Mrs. John McCourt is improving very slowly.

Miss Jane Morgan has just returned from an extended visit in Evansville, Wisconsin.

Miss Mabel Jones spent Wednesday in Albert Lea.

Rev. W. L. Riley will preach next Sunday the 25th on courtship and desires a full house. He will preach here every Sunday for the present.

John Roulston has a new five passenger Ford auto, purchased in Albert Lea.

The Baptist Aid society will hold a hard times social Friday, Feb. 13, the program will be the last full day of a country school.

Miss Lucy Bennett is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. L. Freeman.

Several from here are attending the Farmers Short Course in Austin.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church last week elected the following officers: Mrs. Frank McCulloch, president; Mrs. C. L. Freeman, vice president; Mrs. Wm. Torrens, Secretary; Mrs. C. H. Lightly, Treasurer.

The Baptist Sunday school Sunday elected C. L. Freeman, Supt.; Wm. Bennett asst. Supt.; C. H. Lightly, sec.; Dorothy Bennett, treas.; Rose Lightly organist. Pearl Reynolds Librarian.

The Grange will install its officers Wednesday the 28th.

The Farmers Elevator has taken in and shipped several cars of hogs recently.

WALTHAM.
 Mrs. Henry Matter, Sr. went to Austin Saturday.

Mrs. Edw. Buck and Mrs. Lena Minutz were callers in Austin Wednesday.

Campbell's Peerless Flour, "Better than ever." J. A. Stephan.

Harp orchestra of Spring Valley played for the dance in Palace Hall Tuesday night, to a small crowd.

Mrs. J. A. Stephan went to LeRoy Thursday to visit, returning Saturday evening.

Jno. Reber of Mayville attended the dance Tuesday night.

Mr. J. A. Stephan sells the very best articles, among them, Peerless Flour.

We are pleased to say, there is no diphtheria in town, and school opened Monday as usual. The suspected case did not prove to be diphtheria.

Mrs. Alb Paape went to Austin Saturday.

Herman Bast was an Austin caller Saturday.

Little Edna Condo, daughter of C. J. Condo is well and out, after a few days' illness.

Buy your flour from J. A. Stephan of Waltham as Peerless is always guaranteed by the Mill.

Waltham Village school and outside Rural Dist., will have a spelling contest in the school house at Waltham, Friday night. Everybody cordially invited to come and help.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Matter of Milwaukee, Wis., and Mrs. Edw. Buck went to Mayville Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Mrs. H. D. Ludwig and children went to Austin Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dultz.

Jno. Felty went to Austin Tuesday to attend the Mower Co. Short Course.