

MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day Exercises in Austin Saturday, May 30, 1914.

Saturday, May 30, was an ideal and an unusually large company attending the G. A. R. exercises held in this city. The procession formed at G. A. R. hall soon after ten o'clock and marched to Lafayette park, where the program was given. There were 100 flower girls in white with sashes of the national colors and each carried a small flag.

ARRANGEMENTS OF PROCESSION.

City Police, Chief Marshal, Major N. Nicholson, Austin Band.

FIRST DIVISION.
 Marshal, F. Bump.
 Co. G. 2nd Inf., M. N. G., Capt. C. F. Cook, Commander.
 McIntyre Post G. A. R. Ira Snyder, Commander.
 Spanish War Veterans, N. K. Christopherson, Commander.
 Sons of Veterans Camp No. 3, L. A. Sherman, Commander.
 Woman's Relief Corps, Mrs. A. H. Davison, President.
 Ladies of the G. A. B., Mrs. Grace C. Ardell, President.

SECOND DIVISION.
 Marshal, Geo. Hessler.
 Mayor and Members of City Council.
 Orator and Committee on Arrangements.
 Fire Department.

THIRD DIVISION.
 Marshal, C. N. Hesseker.
 Faculty and Students of University of Southern Minnesota.
 Teachers and Scholars of the City Schools.
 Civic Societies in order of arrival, including Ladies Societies.
 Citizens in Carriages.

The exercises at the park were unusually good. The Masonic quartet, J. H. Anderson, J. L. Mitchell, W. M. Crane and F. C. Wilbour sang patriotic selections and a ladies quartet led national songs by the audience. The Salute to the Flag was given by four very small boys dressed in regulation military dress and carrying small muskets. They were attended by a diminutive Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia. The oration by Co. Attorney Baudler was listened to with the closest attention and we print it substantially as given. It is well worth reading.

PROGRAM AT LAFAYETTE PARK.
 Mayor A. C. Page, presiding.
 Music by the Band.
 Invocation by Rev. C. D. Belden.
 Music by Quartette.
 Salute to the Flag.
 Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, Mrs. Carl Johnson.
 Music by the Band.
 Decoration of Chairs of Departed Comrades.
 Music by Quartette.
 Address by County Attorney Otto Baudler.
 Music by Band.

In the afternoon 65 autos of the Austin Auto club took the G. A. R. veterans and the flower children to both cemeteries where the graves of deceased soldiers were decorated with flowers. The 1914 observance of Memorial Day was one of the most successful ever held.

We have Mr. Baudler's address in full set up in type to run this week, but it is crowded out until next week.

Complete List for County Offices

The time for filing for candidates for county office expired Wednesday night and there is no way of any other names getting on the general ticket at November election by petition or otherwise. In the primary there will be no contests where there are only two applicants for the same office. Therefore at the county primaries June 16 the only contests will be on county treasurer, representative to the legislature and member of the County Board from the Fourth district. The contest on senator for the two counties Dodge and Mower will also come into the primary as there are more than two candidates. J. J. McCaughey has withdrawn leaving the contest to the three Mower county men.

The complete list of filings is as follows:

For Senator:
 R. E. Craue of Grand Meadow.
 Geo. Gilbertson of Austin.
 Alex S. Campbell of Austin.

For Representative:
 Gilbert Sorflaten, Austin.
 Hubbard Carey, Adams.
 Frank H. Reed, Racine.

For County Clerk:
 George Burnham, Austin.
 George M. Shortt, Brownedale.

For County Auditor:
 Geo. Robertson, Austin.
 F. C. J. Christie, Austin.

For County Treasurer:
 S. A. Smith, Austin.
 Lew Lewis, Austin.
 J. G. Handke, Austin.

For Sheriff:
 Nick Nicholson, Austin.
 Art A. Anderson, Austin.

For Judge of Probate:
 Henry Weber Jr., Austin.

For Register of Deeds:
 Eugene Wood.

For County Supt. of Schools:
 Eunice L. Rice, Austin.

For County Attorney:
 Otto Baudler, Austin.

For Commissioner Second District:

For Commissioner Fourth District:
 Sylvester D. Thompson, Windom.
 Peter Lausen, Nevada.
 Peter Heffner, Rose Creek.

Cattle in Brazil.
 While there are no reliable statistics of the pastoral industry in Brazil, it is estimated that there are 30,000,000 cattle in the country.

Dumping On Our City Parks.

All persons are forbidden to dump manure or garbage of any kind within the limits of any public park of this city. All offenders will be prosecuted. Those having ashes or dirt will have the privilege of dumping at such places as may be designated within the park.

A. H. S. Commencement Exercises.

The Thirty-eighth annual Commencement exercises of the Austin High School were held at the Methodist Episcopal church Wednesday evening, May 27th, 1914.

The church was elaborately decorated in class colors, green and white. The juniors escorted the graduates as they entered. The class was an unusually good one. The program was all by home talent and all the better for that. The honor pupils did exceptionally well. The diplomas were presented by F. G. Sasse, Esq., president of the board, who made very fitting remarks in connection. He spoke very highly of the work of Supt. H. E. Wheeler. The scholarships at Hamlin Macaulay and Carlton were given to Zella Chamberlain and Neil Christopherson, the honor students.

St. Augustine's Commencement.

The final graduating exercises of St. Augustine's High School with conferring of diplomas took place on Friday, May 29.

In the morning High Mass was solemnized by Monsgr. E. H. Devlin who gave a sermon to the graduates. He spoke from the text "Man goeth forth to labor until the evening." He spoke of the great purpose of this life to prepare for Eternity. Mere earthly possessions and honors count for little. There is no success without work. Recreation and pleasures to a certain point are beneficial to brain and body. Beyond that, they are detrimental.

In the evening the following program was given before a large audience:

For Treasurer.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for treasurer of Mower County subject to the decision of the voters of said county at the primaries June 16, 1914.
 adv.
 JOHN G. HANDKE.

For Representative.

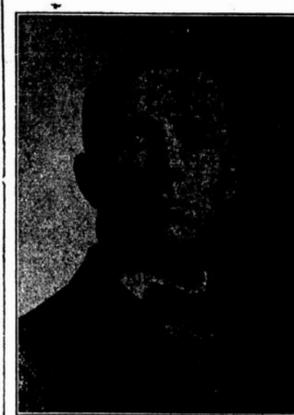

I hereby announce myself as candidate for the office of Representative for Mower County.
 GILBERT SORFLATEN,
 adv. Austin, Minn.

For Representative.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of representative from Mower County to the legislature.
 10ct HUBBARD CAREY,

For County Commissioner.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for member of the County Board of Mower county from the Fourth district subject to the action of the June primary.
 adv. PETER LAUSEN.

For County Treasurer

Having received such a large vote for county treasurer in the primaries of two years ago, I have decided to file for the same office in the present primaries. The time is now so short that it will be impossible for me to see all my friends personally but I shall surely appreciate their aid and support at the Primaries June 16.
 LEW LEWIS, adv.

FOR COUNTY TREASURER.

I have filed for the nomination of the office of County Treasurer, Mower County, Minn., on the Non-Partisan ticket. I have lived in this county since 1884; was raised on a farm and for the last twenty years I have been actively engaged as manager for different concerns, have been in business for myself and am now with the W. D. Bassler Clothing Store, and with such experience I feel that I am qualified to fill the office of County Treasurer. As the time is short, it will be impossible for me to get around to see you all personally and I take this one means of putting myself before you voters and would appreciate your support at the Primaries, June 16th, 1914, and now is the time for you voters to use your good judgment in securing a clean campaign.
 JOHN G. HANDKE,
 adv. Austin, Minn.

LITTLE PIGS.

Or big pigs should have a feed that will produce bone, muscle and fat. You want the little fellows to grow and mature quickly, the older ones to keep strong and vigorous. In order to do this they should both have a feed that is rich in food values, such a feed is sold by J. W. HARE, the Feed Man and some of the largest feeders in the county are using his flour white Middlings for this purpose. It sells for $1.35 per hundred and is better adapted to the feeding of hogs than some of the higher priced feeds. Comes in hundred pound sacks. Have you tried it? Carload just in. J. W. HARE, the Feed Man.

STATE NEWS BITS

Minor Happenings of the Week Throughout Minnesota.

Donald Smith, Lord of Strathcona and Mount Royal, one of the builders of the Great Northern railway, owned 43,340 shares of the stock of that corporation at the time of his death, Jan. 21, valued at $5,567,000, on which his heirs will pay an inheritance tax to Minnesota of more than $100,000. The exact amount has not yet been fixed by Attorney General Lyndon A. Smith and John W. Sterling of New York, executor of the estate. The attorney general has received from Mr. Sterling a proposal that $75,000 be paid on account.

Six persons from Virginia lost their lives when the Empress of India sank in the St. Lawrence river. They were Louis Toma and Angelo Vagui, miners of the Mesaba range, returning to the old country, and Vagni's four children. A party of Eveleth miners, mostly Austrians, are believed to have perished. The mines had closed and thrown them out of work, so several were going back to their homes in Virginia.

John Hingston, ninety-five years old, said to be the oldest pioneer of St. Anthony at the time of his death, and a relative of Sir William Hingston, mayor of Montreal, former premier of Canada, is dead at Minneapolis. Hingston settled in St. Anthony in 1849, when he was a young man of thirty years. He was born in Skibereen, Ireland, May 2, 1819.

Professor C. M. Andrist of the department of romance languages of the University of Minnesota, has resigned to take effect at the end of the college year. Professor Andrist has been connected with the university for six years. It is understood that his activities in his coming campaign for lieutenant governor are responsible for his action.

George F. Wedge, former president of the city council of Plainview and vice president of the First National bank, committed suicide by taking laudanum. He had been prominent in the business life of the place many years, his residence dating back forty-seven years. He had been sick and unable to sleep and was no doubt temporarily insane.

Mrs. Anna Marie Schultz, seventy-eight years old, who reached St. Paul in 1850 when it was only a village, is dead at the home of her granddaughter in that city. Mrs. Schultz was born in Rengen, Germany, coming to Minnesota with her parents when fourteen years old. The last stage of the journey to St. Paul was made on the Mississippi river.

Three women narrowly escaped death at Duluth when an electric automobile in which they were riding plunged from Boulevard drive into a ravine. The car was stopped by several saplings after a thirty-foot drop, otherwise the passengers would have been dashed 100 feet to the bottom of the chasm.

Paul D. Boutell, seventy-seven years old, long a resident of Minneapolis and founder of Boutell Bros' furniture establishment, is dead. He had been in poor health for three years. Mr. Boutell was prominent in the lodge of Elks. He was born in Barkersfield, Vt., and came to Minnesota in 1872.

Bernard Lynch, aged seven years, was drowned in the Mississippi river at St. Paul while swimming with several companions. Harry Lynch, aged eleven years, brother, was almost drowned attempting to save Bernard.

He carried the latter ashore, but physicians failed to revive him.

Congressman W. S. Hammond, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, has placed Stan D. Donnelly of St. Paul in charge of his primary campaign. It is expected that Hammond headquarters will be opened in St. Paul at once.

Less than two hours before she was to have ascended the throne as "Queen of the May" in the pageant of 600 high school girls at Minneapolis, Miss Alice Glemmestad of Tyler, this state, died of a hemorrhage of the brain.

Dr. E. Y. Chilton is dead at Howard Lake after a short illness. He had resided there about thirty-three years. He was state senator from that district at one time, and had held other positions of trust and influence in the community.

Richard Cahill, thirty-eight years of age, is dead at Janesville as the result of injuries received while operating a gasoline engine. He was struck by a whirling belt.

Charles Skeat, a farmer residing near Litchfield, was struck by lightning and instantly killed. He leaves a wife and nine children.

Mrs. Elizabeth Overpeck, eighty-six years old, a resident of St. Paul forty-three years, is dead.

Ostriches, Please Note.

"They say that when an ostrich is surprised he hides his head in the sand." "I wish he'd hide his tail there!" remarked a man who had just settled his wife's millinery bill.

Deep Devotion.
 "Is there anything as strong as a mother's love for her child?" "I guess not. The only thing that approaches it is a baseball fan's devotion to the national game."
