

The Question That Concerns Users of Roofing

IS: NOT "How little can I pay for Roofing", BUT "How little it will cost me?"

They may pay little and get a poor roof that soon leaks, but it costs less in the end to put on a good roof that is water proof and will stay fixed. If you are undecided how to fix that roof, tell us your troubles, we will make you happy.

A Subscription Bee

The suggestion has been made that during the absence of the editor, Rev. C. D. Belden in the Bethesda hospital in St. Paul on heavy expense, that it would be an excellent way for his friends to show their appreciation of his long continuous services in various directions in this community by giving him a generous Subscription Bee, present subscribers to bring up past dues and renew in advance and hundreds of other friends to send in new ones. We are sure it would greatly cheer Mr. Belden and we think the suggestion is a good timely one.
