

DEATHS

REV. G. W. LUTZ.

Rev. G. W. Lutz, for several years pastor of the M. E. church in this city was drowned in Winona lake. His body was found by a passer by about 5 o'clock Tuesday morning. The Lutz family have been living at Stockton, about six miles from Winona. Rev. Lutz was one of Austin's very best ministers. He worked hard for his church and his people. He was about 55 years of age and leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters. Not many of the particulars are known but it is expected that his body will be brought here for burial this evening or tomorrow.

JOHN NELSON SATERBO.

John Nelson Saterbo, 78 years of age, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. John Christopherson on Division street, Tuesday evening. He had been sick but a few days. John Saterbo was born in Norway in 1836. He came to this country when a young man and in 1878 came to Austin and later bought a farm with his brother, Ole, two miles from Brownsdale. He was a hard working man and kept a good farm. He was single and leaves one sister, Mrs. Christopherson, with whom he has made his home for some time. His brother, Ole Nelson Saterbo died eight years ago on the 7th of last May. Funeral services were conducted from the Lutheran church Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. A. Shefelund of Hayfield officiating.

FRANK ULWELLING.

Another old resident of Mower county passed away Friday noon, Frank Ulwelling of Rose Creek, was 79 years old on January 8. He was born in Luxemburg, Germany in 1835. At the age of 19 he came to America. He was married to Frances Washetka and they first lived at Beloit, Wis. In 1867 they came to Mower County and settled on a farm at Johnsonburg which was their home for thirty-five years. Mrs. Ulwelling died nine years ago. Five years ago he and his daughter Genevieve moved to Rose Creek. A son, Louis, lives at Johnsonburg. Three brothers and three sisters also survive. George Russell, the well known colored man, who has lived in or near Austin for 40 years, died at his home on Medary street Thursday afternoon. He had been sick for a few weeks previous to his death. He was 69 years old and came to Mower county from the South. He was born a slave at Jefferson City, Mo., and was a servant to Gen. Sibley when a boy and a young man. He assisted the general in many ways and George was a soldier during the Indian war in 1862. Although not a member of the G. A. R., he always marched with that body on celebration days. He was faithful and a good citizen. Previous to his living in Austin, Mr. Russell owned and operated a farm of forty acres near Lansing. He lived alone on the farm and at times worked for his neighbors. He attended the Congregational church here and the funeral was held here Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Knopf conducting services.

ELMER ANDERSON.

Another home is grief stricken on account of the drowning of a child. Elmer Anderson, 12 years old, son of Chris Anderson living on the East side, was drowned Monday morning in the river just below Campbell's mill. He with several playmates were fishing and playing about the dam. He walked out on the edge of the dam to about the center of the river and slipped and fell into the water. The other boys gave an alarm for help which called J. E. Crippen, Dave Reimer, A. N. Kinsman and Mr. Ashton and after twenty minutes of work by good swimmers and the use of hooks, his body was recovered. Elmer's mother died a year ago and a brother died 3 years ago. The father and two sisters, Mabel and Helen survive. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the home of E. S. Selby on Kenwood avenue. Services will be conducted by Rev. Stout of the M. E. church.

Ambidextrous Metaphor.

An eloquent Irish candidate, speaking of a certain eminent statesman, said: "His smooth tongue is that of a serpent which lures but to destroy, and which holds out sugar plums in one hand, while in the other it holds an unsheathed dagger behind its back."—Current Opinion.

Feds May Finance Minnesota League.

P. S. Jansen of St. Louis, representing Federal baseball league interests, visited Owatonna Saturday and began an investigation of the circuit of clubs known as the Interstate league, with announced intentions of next season establishing baseball farms in this territory. Jansen says the Federals propose establishing connections with Mason City, Austin, Owatonna, Albert Lea, Fort Dodge and Mankato and to that end will finance a league here next summer.

He was much pleased with the parks and other conditions running into a crowd of over 3,000 a game here.

As scout for the Federals, Jansen is watching the work of Wais, catcher; Lyndall, infielder; and Klein, outfielder of Owatonna; and of Barrett, Owatonna; Gettins, Albert Lea. Crouch, Austin; all pitchers.—Minneapolis Journal.

MARRIAGES

GILBERTSON-CRONAN.

Wedding at St. Peter's church, Rose Creek, Minn., at 7:00 a. m. July 22nd, Ruth V. Cronan became the bride of Albert Gilbertson of Grand Marais, Minn. Monsignor E. H. Devlin of Austin performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Helen and the groom by Reginald Cronan the bride's brother.

The bride was attired in a going-away suit of tan with hat to match. The bride's maid in Alice blue. A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the bride's home to relatives and a few of the bride's most intimate friends. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbertson left on the afternoon train for Grand Marais, Minn., their future home amid showers of rice.

Many beautiful and useful wedding gifts were received. On July 8th at the home of Miss Keeffe, friends and school mates of the bride to be numbering about forty gave her a genuine shower with all the preliminaries that school girls can invent. On July 11th at the home of Miss Addie Cronan the bride to be was again showered and at the home of Miss Lottie Wheelock the coming bride was again showered by a large number of friends.

Ruth Cronan graduated from Rose Creek school and also from the University of Southern Minnesota. She taught successfully in Mower County as well as two years in Grand Marais. Our best wishes go with her to her new home.

Home Influence.

Our home influence is not a passing but an abiding one, and all-powerful for good or evil, for peace or strife, for happiness or misery. Each separate home has been likened to a central sun around which revolves a happy and united band of warm loving hearts, acting, thinking, rejoicing and sorrowing together. Which member of the family group can say, "I have no influence?" What sorrow or what happiness lies in the power of each!—Selected.

BEAN RUST AND WET VINES

"Do not cultivate or walk through the bean field or pick beans while they are wet with dew or rain." This is the remedy which was suggested by R. E. Vaughn of the College of Agriculture, University of Wisconsin, when questioned as to preventing the spread of bean blight or "bean rust," as it is sometimes called. This disease, in common with one or two other spot diseases of garden beans, is most successfully controlled by a careful selection of healthy seed and by following a short rotation. Even if these diseases are already present in a field they can be prevented from doing much damage if a few simple control measures are adopted.

"Avoid all possibility of carrying the disease from sick to healthy plants and aim to keep other portions of the field from becoming infected," says Mr. Vaughn. "Keep roaming animals out of the field and stay out yourself when the plants are wet. When in a dry condition there is not so much danger of spreading the contamination."

TO THE FARM PURCHASING PUBLIC:—

The above farms have been placed in my hands to be sold at public sale in Dexter, Mower County, Minnesota, THURSDAY, AUGUST 6th, 1914, the sale commencing at 1:00 o'clock sharp and if you are in the market for a home or from a speculative standpoint, here is an opportunity you should not overlook. I have looked these farms over personally and do not hesitate to pronounce them good enough to please the most exacting farm buyers, for the reason that the soil is a deep, black loam with clay subsoil. It is a country of never failing crops. It is the land of corn and clover. Prosperity is staring them in the face and if you will make it a point to attend this sale you will have an opportunity to buy as good a farm as can be found in the states of Iowa or Illinois, where land is selling very high. These farms will not cost you half as much and in a very short time they will be sure to double in value for the reason that they are productive. Every acre of them is good. The soil is as fertile as the Valley of the Nile. There is no sand, no rock, no gravel, no ponds or sloughs on the farms to be sold.

JUST ONE WORD: Dexter is located on the main line of the Milwaukee Railroad, 15 miles east of Austin, between Austin and LaCrosse, and is just 4 miles north of Elkton, Minnesota.

SOMETHING FURTHER. REMEMBER, the above listed farms will positively be sold THURSDAY, AUGUST 6th. The sale will take place at Dexter, Minnesota, commencing at 1 o'clock SHARP. There is no set price. Your price is mine. Come to the sale prepared to buy as this is an opportunity of a life time. THERE WILL BE GOOD MUSIC IN ATTENDANCE.

TO INTENDING PURCHASERS: We will have automobiles in readiness the forenoon of the sale to show intending purchasers the farms. You will have an opportunity to look over every one of them free of charge. All trains on the Great Western will be met at Elkton. There will be free automobile service to the sale.

FURTHER INFORMATION regarding the farms can be had by addressing SAM GOETSCH DEXTER, MINNESOTA, or William Holland, Auctioneer, Waterloo, Iowa.

George Wuerst, Auctioneer, Dexter, Minn.

First State Bank of Dexter, Clerk of Sale.

N. B. We will pay $1.00 per acre to any man sending us the name of a purchaser of either of the above listed farms. Parties sending in names must be on the ground on day of sale.

THE EXPRESS IS IN THIS TOWN AND IN TO STAY

FOR seventy-five years—three-quarter of a century—the express has been the right-hand of the shippers of commercial America. The Express came to Austin, Minnesota, in 1867 and it came to stay. For 47 years it has been the right-hand of commercial Austin.

It is here to stay. The other day when reports went out that the express companies might retire from business, a protest went up. From whom this protest—the express companies? No! The merchants of the country—shippers everywhere—petitioned congress that no action be taken that might have the effect of forcing the express companies to retire. Commercial organizations all over the land have joined in this appeal to Washington.

For seventy-five years in the past and for a good many more years in the future Express Service will mean.
