

Better Service

Another year has flown away.
As we look back upon each day
To trace our errors to the end,
Our resolution is, to mend
Our ways as best we can.

Our customers we have tried to please
Still knock a plenty we receive,
But it with us you will bear
Another year, we'll do our share
To serve as best we can.

Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

ECLIPSE LUMBER CO.

J. J. CLEMENS, Mgr.

Both Phones 47

Austin, Minn.

The Transcript

AUSTIN, WEDNESDAY, Dec. 16, 1914

—F. B. Porten and wife are spending Christmas week with her parents in St. Paul.

—Miss Frances Campbell spent Friday and Saturday with friends in St. Paul.

Wanted—Girls to learn to do their own dressmaking and to go to other towns and open up shops. You will get the most thorough course in the shortest possible time at the dressmaking school. Terms reasonable. Austin school opens first Monday in January. Address all inquiry to Nellie Hand, 215 Cambridge St., Fairmont, Minn.

—C. N. Beiseker has gone to Pesenden and Portal, N. D., to join Mrs. Beiseker. They will spend several weeks with their children at these places.

—Mrs. A. O. Anderson and son of St. Peter are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mills for two weeks.

—E. S. Marton has taken the management of the Grand Hotel and will conduct a first class hotel.

—We want to buy 4 or 5 good farms. Price and terms must be right. Prefer German neighborhood, will deal with owners only. Write or see us at once. —E. S. Babcock Land Co., across the street from Postoffice, Austin, Minn. adv 15-1

—Mrs. Roy Furtney very nicely entertained the M. E. Epworth League Wednesday evening and a fine meeting was held with about twenty-five young people present. Mrs. Lee Edson and Ben Ferris assisted Mrs. Furtney in serving refreshments.

—Mrs. Ida Ferris-Waterman went to Albert Lea Friday to attend a meeting of the W. C. T. U. and give a report of her trip to Atlanta, Ga., and the National W. C. T. U. Convention.

—Send your hides to J. M. Briebach, the meat man. Adv.

—Miss Jeanette Elliott of Grand Meadow spent Sunday in Austin with Mrs. W. W. Tolles.

—H. L. Wilkin was operated upon at St. Olaf hospital Thursday.

—Ralph Daigneau, traveling for the Geo. A. Hormel Co., is home for holiday vacation.

—Have Hare save you a Christmas Tree. He has the largest assortment in town. Come in and pick out your tree while the assortment is good to 75c. Adv. 41-2

—At the regular meeting of the Lady Maccabees held last Tuesday evening, a class of nine was initiated. The ladies served lunch.

—Miss Ora Fortch, the well known nurse and Edward Morton proprietor of the Grand Hotel dining room and restaurant were married Tuesday in Minneapolis.

—A Special line of Pictures just received for Christmas.

—Donovan & Goslee. Adv.

—Born to Mr. and Mrs. John Stern Jr., Tuesday, Dec. 15 a son.

—Mrs. Mary Burns has moved into her new house on Slaven street. The Claud Dickens family will also occupy a part of the home.

—Mrs. N. Serres gave a 25c supper at her home Friday evening from which the Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian church realized the sum of $14.

—George W. Orton and Jessie C. Heath of New Lisbon, Wis., were married by Justice of the Peace Hurlbut Wednesday afternoon.

—J. W. Hare has received a consignment of Holly, Mistletoe, Galax wreaths and Trees for Holiday decorations. Prices and quality are right.

—The Mothers' meeting of Lincoln school held Wednesday afternoon was very well attended. The sixth grade pupils gave a short program followed by a reading by Miss Mifflin Daigneau, after which a piano solo was given by Miss Avery. Refreshments were served after the business meeting. The proceeds were $3.20.

—Send your hides to J. M. Briebach, the meat man. Adv.

—John Williams of Waterloo, Ia., a former Austin resident, died at his late home. He is a brother of Mrs. Joseph Campbell and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell of this city.

—Gents traveling sets, handkerchiefs, shoe bags, card cases, bill books, coat hanger sets and an exceptional line of Ladies hand bags and mesh bags, vanity cases, party cases, etc., any of which would make a substantial Xmas gift at Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Mrs. W. L. French, teacher of the Home Builders Class of the M. E. Church, entertained the class Thursday evening at her home. There were about forty present. Mrs. French served light refreshments.

—The Boy Scouts held their first annual banquet Friday night in the basement of the Presbyterian church. The mothers of the Scouts served the banquet to a dozen Boy Scouts and as many girls. Miss Bessie Todd gave a reading which was much enjoyed.

—A consignment of Xmas Trees, Holly wreaths, Mistletoe, Galax wreaths and Evergreen coils was received by J. W. Hare a little late for the early buyers accordingly he is making you some very attractive prices. Adv. 41-2

—Helen Sutton who attends Bethlehem Academy at Faribault, came home Friday evening.

—Rev. A. E. Von Still of the Presbyterian church, has been at Oakland the past two days doing pastoral work.

—Red Cross Christmas Seals for sale at this office.

—Mrs. Anna Downey left Saturday for Chester, Ia., to visit her son, Roy.

—Mrs. Thos. Riley spent a few days last week with her daughter, Stasia in St. Paul.

—Miss Genevieve Gillette entertained Miss Hattie Campbell of Calmar last week. Miss Campbell lived here some years ago.

—Gillette Safety Razors in Xmas package, $5.00 at Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. George Nierling of Jamestown, N. D., are guests of their aunt, Mrs. Anna Ferris.

—Mr. and Mrs. I. Lien and children of Albert Lea will spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. J. Regner.

—The fire department was called to the home of H. R. Campbell on West Maple street Saturday morning. The blaze which had started on the roof from sparks from the chimney was extinguished before the department arrived.

—J. W. Hare quotes Holly wreaths at 25c, Holly at 15c per lb. Trees from 10c to 75c, Galax wreaths 25c. Adv. 41-2

—Louis DeWitt of Chicago arrived Sunday to be with his wife and her parents at the J. Weisel home for the holiday season.

—Harry Emery is down from Carleton college for vacation. He is assisting at Bassler's store for the Christmas rush.

—Beautiful Cedar River pearl rings. A large stock of these rings on hand mounted in every style setting and ranging in price from $7.50, $10.00, $12.00 and up. All 14K solid gold mountings. Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Zelsdorf of Rochester are guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Newman for a week.

—Miss Dora Roble arrived Thursday evening from Sioux Falls, S. D., to spend ten days with her mother.

—Jay Kinney, an old Austin boy was a visitor here from Minneapolis Sunday.

—Henry Martin and wife have gone to Des Moines, Iowa, to visit their daughter, Clara Martin Nelson and family.

—A Special line of Pictures just received for Christmas.

—Donovan & Goslee. Adv.

—Dr. Ethel Becker of Preston came Saturday to spend a week with her mother and sister, Nora.

—Misses Tena Johnson of Botkin, N. D. and Ella Johnson of Tenstrike, Minn., are home from their school teaching to be with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Maxson and Mrs. and Mrs. Jason Burdick went to Dodge Center Monday, called to attend the funeral of Mr. Maxson's sister. The sister died Sunday evening.

—Full line of Matting Boxes for Christmas. Good present for your wife or daughter. Donovan & Goslee. Adv.

—The United States Commercial Travelers' first annual ball will be given Tuesday, Dec. 29 at the Armory. It is hoped that the attendance will be very large as the proceeds will go to the widows and orphans fund.

—The Firemen will hold their annual ball in the Armory New Year's eve. The proceeds of this event will be added to the Relief Association fund and will be expended for worthy causes.

—Send your hides to J. M. Briebach, the meat man. Adv.

—Will Pierce, former manager of the Princess, now owner and manager of the Lyric theatre, opened his show house to the children of the city this Wednesday morning and gave them a Christmas treat. After the show the children were made happy again at the Elk's Christmas tree.

—Mrs. Moehn and two children of Burlington, Ia., are guests at the home of her brother, Roy Woodward and family. Mrs. Moehn was Miss Sadie Woodward.

—La Valliers. One of the most fashionable articles in the jewelry line and a beautiful Xmas gift. We carry La Valliers in every conceivable style and pattern, set with precious and semi-precious stones, also an exceptional line of chains and pendants. Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Jay Hormel left Friday evening for Topeka, Kansas, where he will spend the holiday season with his uncle, Rev. W. H. Hormel and family.

—Send your hides to J. M. Briebach, the meat man. Adv.

—Christmas exercises will be held at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening. A good program has been prepared. Even though the children of the Sunday School voted to go without candy and give $10 to the Belgium Relief Fund.

—Rev. C. W. Burgess of Lime Springs, Iowa, a brother of Mrs. L. D. Carter and very well known in Austin, is here on a visit.

—Fancy Eastern Holly, full of red berries at Hare's Store Phone Interstate 276—N. W. 420. Adv. 41-2

—Mrs. Frances Lewis is enjoying a vacation from her school teaching and is assisting at the post office during the busy season.

—Mrs. Maud Richards of Charles City, Iowa, was the guest of Mrs. Geo. A. Hormel for a short time last week.

—Mrs. Maud Wayne of Minneapolis is home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Bowers.

—Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. F. Runner are receiving a visit from their daughter, Miss Olive Runner, a teacher in Andover Academy in Massachusetts.

—Misses watches guaranteed for one year $2.00 at Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Mrs. S. Rice is home from Eden Valley, Minn., where she has been on an extended visit with her brother who has been very sick.

—One A. C. Hanson jumped from a moving Great Western train near Omaha one night last week and when found was almost overcome by the cold. He had broken his parole from the Minnesota prison and was being brought back from California. Hanson is not the man sent up from this county as was at first thought by Austin people.

—Mrs. R. S. Holmes and Mrs. A. Thon and children went to the cities Monday.

—Special on Pedestals for Christmas.

—Donovan & Goslee. Adv.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Brenner are entertaining Prof. and Mrs. Detamore and children of Good Thunder, Minn.

—Mrs. Wm. Maston and little son of Kasson are visiting her mother, Mrs. M. E. Chapman.

—Mrs. P. D. Beaulieu gave a dinner party to ten guests Saturday evening, the occasion being Mr. Beaulieu's birthday. The table was decorated with holly and poinsettias.

—Miss Caroline Ovsalon, who attends college, left Friday for her home in Goodhue, to spend two weeks with her parents.

—Our line of hand painted china far exceeds anything that we have ever shown before. Many new patterns in cake sets, berry sets, plates, spoon trays, dresser sets, bon bonis, bowls, salts and peppers, etc., Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Mrs. E. C. Reberman went to Pipestone to remain this week with her parents.

—Little Perry Reynolds has gone to Minnesota Lake to spend two weeks with his grandpa.

—Miss Bessie Skinner of South Hadley Falls, Mass., spent a few days of last week with her brother, John H. Miss Skinner was enroute home from Sioux Falls, S. D., where she had been called to attend the funeral of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Derome.

—Special on Pedestals for Christmas.

—Donovan & Goslee. Adv.

—C. E. Fairbanks of Stettler, Alberta, Canada is visiting in Austin. Mrs. Fairbanks came a month ago for an extended visit with her mother, Mrs. Abbie Hilker and sister, Mrs. C. E. Pitzer and Mrs. Dell Roberts.

—Robert Laird, Ervin Lowry, Wm. Logas and Miss Dorothy Dornberg, students at Macalester are enjoying vacations at home.

—Donald Hormel of Shattuck, Fairbault, came home Friday.

—The meeting of the Floral Club at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hegge Tuesday evening was enjoyed by many hands as well as members of the club. The past presents of the club were housed at this musical and social gathering. Fraips was served.

—Jas. Barret, Allan Edson, Donald Campbell and Verna Smith are home from the state U. for Christmas.

—Miss Rehman acted as Chaperone at the Junior High School party held at the gymnasium Wednesday evening. Christmas decorations were in evidence and each girl received her allotment of toys, candies, apples, etc.

—Ever-Ready Safety Razors, $1.00 at Schleuder's Jewelry Store.—Adv.

—Misses Ethel Urbatch and Viola Piester of the Spring Valley schools, Stella Smith of Owatonna, Marie Sterling from Mankato, Floy Edson of Ames and Helen Banfield who has been in the east, are all at the parental homes until after New Years.

—Miss Florence Crane of Wesley college and Gertrude Banfield ofassar college, came home for Christmas. —Richard Banfield is home from Amherst.

—The Baptist church will soon be ready for use.

—The Baptist Sunday school exercises will be held Wednesday night.

—Rev. C. H. Ten Broeck preached a fine sermon in the Baptist church Sunday night while the pastor was in Oakland.

—435 attended the rabbit supper at Eagles' hall Thursday night.

—Beeman and S. A. Smith prepared and served over 100 rabbits with all the accessories for a good spread. The social time which followed was delightful to all.

—Misses Ruby Reynolds and Isabel Dinsmoor and Alex. Hirsch, who attend Northwestern University in Chicago arrived home Saturday.

—Glenn Brown who is training in athletics for an instructor, is visiting his parents.

—Harold Fairbanks of Hamline University is among students at home for holiday season.

—The Motor Inn on Water street has changed hands. Elmer Honie having purchased the business from Albert and parties W. J. Skelley has purchased a half interest and the new firm will take possession January 1st. The Duholm brothers will move their shop to the building west across the street.

—The extension of the department of agriculture, University of Minnesota, is sending out letters to all Guernsey breeders, calling their attention to a meeting of the Minnesota breeders of Guernsey at University Farm, Thursday, January 7, to organize a Guernsey Breeder's Association.

—Tuesday Dec. 22 was the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Young. They spent the afternoon with them and left some pretty presents.

—Miss Sara Will returns to her old home at Osceola, Wis. to reside, after spending Christmas at Stillwater. She has been a dressmaker here for several years and leaves many warm friends. A surprise farewell party was given for her Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. G. Baker on South Main St. A social afternoon was enjoyed and a purse of money and other gifts were presented to Miss Will.

—Will H. Gleason has resigned as secretary of the Minnesota Brick & Tile Co. to take effect Jan. 1.

—Golda Greog and Dorothy Pooler arrived home Saturday morning from Colorado Springs College for a two weeks' vacation. Their train ran off the track at Mason City and was derailed there.

—A little more snow fell yesterday and the sleighing around the city is good. Many from the country are also coming in on sleighs.

—Mrs. H. G. Baker went to Minneapolis yesterday morning called by the unexpected death of her sister.

—Editor N. S. Gordon of the Barrington Journal is in partnership with him. The young man will have charge of the mechanical department.

—The St. Paul papers say that John J. Furlong of this city will not be a candidate for re-election as president of the State Agricultural society. His friends are seeking to have him elected the member of the Board of Directors from the First District.

—City school vacation this week and next and the pupils are enjoying it greatly.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

—Three candidates were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. C. Fenton's condition remains about the same.

—Frank Abbott came from Chicago to see his aunt, Mrs. Nancy McMillan who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and who did not seem to improve for several days.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

—Three candidates were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. C. Fenton's condition remains about the same.

—Frank Abbott came from Chicago to see his aunt, Mrs. Nancy McMillan who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and who did not seem to improve for several days.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

—Three candidates were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. C. Fenton's condition remains about the same.

—Frank Abbott came from Chicago to see his aunt, Mrs. Nancy McMillan who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and who did not seem to improve for several days.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

—Three candidates were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. C. Fenton's condition remains about the same.

—Frank Abbott came from Chicago to see his aunt, Mrs. Nancy McMillan who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and who did not seem to improve for several days.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

—Three candidates were baptized at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

—Mrs. C. Fenton's condition remains about the same.

—Frank Abbott came from Chicago to see his aunt, Mrs. Nancy McMillan who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week and who did not seem to improve for several days.

—The Elks gave their Christmas tree and free show this morning. Show at Lyric at 10:30 and the distribution of gifts at Elks hall right after.

—The Koterie of the Presbyterian church are grateful to Prof. W. W. Tolles for the gift of $10. The Koterie have pledged a sum toward the church and this gift is highly appreciated.

—Students who are home for the week are Nina Hegge from St. Olaf, Northfield; Dorothy Pooler, Colorado Springs; Hazel Williams of Winona Normal; Alta Fisch from Winona Seminary and Frances Carter from Carleton.

SALARIES REDUCED.
Under the new ruling of the post-office department, the salary of the Austin postoffice has been reduced from $2700 to $2500; Albert Legg, $2500; Owatonna from

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS.
Ivory, Perfumes, Pocket-books, Toilet Water, Tobacco Jars, Traveling Cases, Stationery, Safety Razors, Statuary, Games, Garratt's Candies, etc. Pooler Drug Co. Adv.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS

Don't fail to see our store full of Christmas Gifts for young or old

| | |
|--|--|
| in fancy packages at 25c and 50c Hudouts 50c and $1.00 | Toilet Sets 3-piece sets, Ivory $2.25 2-piece sets $1.25 Ivory sets $4.75 Sets made to order, any style, any size |
| Books A great variety of books for Children, Boys, Girls and grown-ups 500 Copyrights 50c each | Stationery Eaton and Crane's fancy Stationery in Christmas boxes from 25c to $3.00 100 Holly Boxes Crane's Stationery 25c |

Gifts Kodaks WOLD'S Drugs Books
Economical Drug Store

We Make the Watch Business

OUR BUSINESS and have some specials that will interest you.

A 15 jeweled movement with 20 year guaranteed case for $9.00 is only one of them. Come in and we will show you more.

RINGS

of all kinds and Prices from the small children sizes as low as 75c in solid gold, to the most beautiful ones set with DIAMONDS and other precious stones.

We are showing several new patterns in STERLING SILVER this year. We want you to see them whether you wish to buy or not.

Toilet Sets

in Silver, China and French Ivory from $2.00 to $25.00

Gleason & Johnson

AUSTIN, MINN.

Specials for Xmas and New Year

Never before have we offered such an immense Stock of Christmas Goods in

| | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| Prepared Ludefish 10c | Flat Bread pkg. . . . 25c |
| Lingon Berries qt. 15c | Yule-Kager, cake . . . 15c |
| Cranberries qt. . . . 10c | |

Fancy China Dinner Sets

Cut Glass
Fancy Groceries
Fresh Fruits
Xmas Candies and Nuts

(Highest Prices paid for Butter and Eggs)

DALAGER'S

White Front Grocery
See Holiday Window Display