NEWS OF THE WEEK.

TUESDAY, Sept. 15.—Maine was carried by the Republicans yesterday by an increased majority. The Governor, Legislature and five Congressional districts were carried. The South Carolina Republicans adopted a platform which thanks the federal government for its military intervention in that State, deprecates lawlessness in any form, pledges reduced public expenses and the enforcement of financial reform, entreats Congress to pass the civil rights bill, pledges to maintain the settlement of the State debt, and endorses Grant for the third term. The Democrats have gained a victory in the city election of Portsmouth, N. H. The Republican Central Committee of New York last night adopted a resolution favoring the re-nomination of Gov. Dix, and subsequently reconsidered and will draw it as being premature. The General Convention of the Universalist Church was opened last evening in New York. It is reported that large numbers of white men are entering the Black Hill region from Montana and the west. Frank P. Blair is recovering from his recent severe illness. The Treasurer of the United States has issued a call to the national banks for an additional redemption deposit of five per cent. Gov. Kellogg has called upon the President for federal aid to support the State authorities in suppressing the revolution in New Orleans. There is no truth in the rumor that Germany is seeking territorial possessions on this continent. Baron Schwarz-Senborn, the new Austrian minister, presented his credentials to the President yesterday, when the usual interchange of complimentary speeches occurred. A special to the London Times says the Spanish Republican troops had mutinied against Gen. Lazera and cheered for Moriones, whose restoration to the command they demanded. The voting in the department of Maine of Louis has resulted in no election. The following are the full returns: De Maille, Republican, 45,000; Braces, government candidate, 26,000; Berger, Bonapartist, 25,000. A second ballot is ordered for the 27th inst. Bancroft Davis presented his credentials to the King of Saxony at Dresden, and returned to Berlin. He has taken a fine house on Behrenstrasse, which he will make his rendezvous of Americans, and where he will give weekly soirees. An attempt was made to assassinate the President of Peru in Lima, on Aug. 22, without success; the assassins were arrested. In Chicago last evening, two young Italians, Francisco Dejurany and Genaro Baroni, quarreled about some trifling matter, when the former drew a dirk and stabbed Baroni in his breast, inflicting a wound which proved fatal in less than half an hour. Sixty State Guards were levied at Louisville, Ky., Wednesday morning, by order of the Governor, for Breathitt county, about 200 miles east of that city, to clear the town of Jackson of a band of outlaws, under command of one named Strong, who has possession of the place and rules the county. No court has been held for many months, and the troops will remain to support the Judge through the term. Yesterday morning, about 4 o'clock, Samuel Haslam was murdered with an axe at the boarding house of Wm. Gustin in Nashville, Tenn. Another indictment for murder has been found against Jesse Romero, the Boston boy murderer, for the murder of Kate Carran. Jas. Tozier yesterday shot his wife and then committed suicide in Philadelphia. Gov. Dix declines to remove Mayor Havemeyer.
