SUMMARY OF THE GENERAL NEWS.

Russia Declares War.

The czar's manifesto to the people and the army was promulgated on the 24th; the following is its text: "Our faithful and beloved subjects know the strong interest we have constantly felt in the destinies of the oppressed Christian population of Turkey. Our desire to ameliorate and assuage their lot has shown itself ready to bear fresh sacrifices to alleviate the position of the Christians in the Balkan peninsula. The blood and property of our faithful subjects have always been dear to us, and our whole reign attests our constant solicitude to preserve to Russia the benefits of peace. This solicitude never failed to actuate us during the deplorable events in Herzegovina, Bosnia and Bulgaria. Our object here all was to effect their liberation in the position of the Christians in the East by means of pacific negotiations, and in concert with the great European powers, our allies and friends, for two years we have made incessant efforts to induce the Porte to effect such reforms as would protect the Christians in Bosnia, Herzegovina and Bulgaria from the arbitrary measures of local authority. The accomplishment of the reforms was absolutely stipulated by anterior engagements contracted by the Porte to the whole of Europe. Our efforts, supported by diplomatic representations, made in common with the other governments, have not, however, attained their object. The Porte has remained unshaken in its formal refusal of any effective guaranty for the security of its Christian subjects, and has rejected the conclusions of the Constantinople conference. Wishing to essay every possible means of conciliation in order to persuade the Porte, we proposed to the other cabinets to draw up a special protocol comprising the most essential conditions of the Constantinople conference and to invite the Turkish government to adhere to this international act which states the extreme limit of our peaceful demands; but our expectation was not fulfilled; the Porte did not defer to this unanimous wish of the Christians of Europe and did not adhere to the provisions of the protocol. Having exhausted pacific efforts, we are compelled by the haughty obstinacy of the Porte to proceed to more decisive acts, feeling that our equity and our own dignity require it. By her refusal Turkey places us under the necessity of having recourse to arms. Profoundly convinced of the justice of our cause, and humbly committing ourselves to the grace and help of the Most High, we make known to our faithful subjects that the moment for us to take up arms has arrived. We have the intention to act independently when we deemed it necessary and when Russia's honor should demand it. I now, invoking the blessing of God upon our valiant armies, give them the order to cross the Turkish frontier."

originated, but they find as follows: The first department and salvage corps did their duty with efficiency and promptness, as also did the police. Both the lessees of the hotel, in our opinion, are censurable in several particulars: First, while providing the necessary materials for extinguishing fires, they had provided no means for their use; second, in keeping in the store room and wine cellar a large amount of inflammable material without adequate watching; third in removing from their office the gang necessary to alarm the inmates of the hotel in case of fire; fourth, in employing only one watchman, and being a very inefficient man; and supplementing his duties as such with other matters; fifth, in lack of rules and instructions to their employees as to their conduct and duties in case of fire; sixth, in their making no efficient efforts on the night of the fire to awaken their guests and employees.

Report of the Indian Commissioners.

The eighth annual report of the Board of Indian Commissioners is made public. The report reviews what has been done under the peace system, and deprecates the want of good faith of the government in its treatment of the Indians. It concludes with the following recommendations: Immediate compliance on the part of the government with the terms of existing treaties with all Indians; appropriations for consolidating agencies; generous appropriations for educational purposes; discontinuance of tribal relations; extension of the allotment of land for the protection of life and property; allotments of land; establishment of industrial and agricultural boarding schools; compelling the attendance of all between seven and eighteen years of age; issue of supplies to be made to the heads of families; increased salaries to Indian agents.

England and Austria Missing In.

The Liverpool Courier's London correspondent telegraphs that the British government has resolved to interfere between Russia and Turkey, and has the highest authority for stating that Her Majesty's government has just been called upon by Austria to fulfil her engagement under the tripartite treaty of 1856 for protecting the integrity of the Ottoman empire, and that a decision has been come to at a Cabinet meeting. The Cabinet resolved as a first step, to make a formal request to the Russian government to state the object of military operations now being undertaken against the Ottoman government, and define the extent to which it is proposed to carry those operations. The correspondent also learns that the Austrian government will address an inquiry of the same purport to Russia.

The Wheat Situation Has Recovered.

The following statement of the Bureau of Statistics shows the imports of wheat into the United Kingdom during the fifteen months ending March 21st, 1877: From the United States, hundred weight, 34,290,163; from Russia, 10,112,444; from British India, 3,980,200; from Germany, 3,228,018; from France, 571,267; from Egypt, 2,452,970; from Turkey, Wallachia and Moldavia, 1,441,183; from British North America, 2,482,009; from Chili, 904,619; from other countries, 3,883,691. Total, 52,956,358 or nearly one hundred million bushels, and the value of 228,085,007. During the same period there was imported 749,051 hundred weight of wheat flour, of which, 2,749,579 was received from the United States.

Anna Eliza Thrown out of the Court.

The following is the decision of the Court in the suit of Brigham Young's nineteenth wife for divorce: That the alleged marriage was null and void, and therefore null and void; that during the time plaintiff was with defendant as polygamist wife, she was serving him as a menial servant, and was entitled to reasonable compensation for her services. Having received in this instance, in the form of alimony, more than such services are shown by the proof to be reasonably worth, she should go hence without further compensation.

French and Austrian Missions.

The appointment of ex-Governor Noyes, of Ohio, as Minister to France has been agreed upon, and he has formally accepted the position. He will not sail for that country until his nomination shall have been confirmed by the Senate at the approaching extra session. No one has yet been selected for the Austrian mission, though several gentlemen are named in connection therewith, among them ex-Governor Fletcher of Missouri.

Hayes' Indian Policy.

The extra session of the Board of Indian Commissioners, now in session in Washington, accompanied by Secretary Schurz and Indian Commissioner Smith, called on the President for the purpose of learning his views on the Indian peace policy. The President said he knew no reason why the Indian policy of the administration should not be continued. Secretary Schurz remarked that while in private life he has given his earnest support to this policy, and he saw no reason why he should not sustain it as Secretary of the Interior.

Sworn In With Apologies.

In the South Carolina Senate D. T. Walker, Republican Senator from Chester, under indictment of larceny and breach of trust sent in his resignation. This leaves the Senate sixteen Democrats, sixteen Republicans and one independent. In the House twenty-one contumacious members, who refused to recognize the constitutional House, were admitted to seats and sworn in, after first being brought to the bar and made to apologize for contempt. There are still about thirty Republicans in contempt.

Protecting Our Interests.

The Secretary of the Navy now has under consideration the question of asking Congress to appropriate $500,000 for the approach of extra session for the purpose of fitting out eight vessels, to be held in readiness for service in case of an emergency. It is feared the eastern troubles may possibly jeopardize American interests, and it is proposed to have these vessels ready to join the European and Asiatic stations.

Safuet Pasha Has Addressed the Following.

Safuet Pasha has addressed the following dispatch to the Turkish Ambassador at London, on the 26th: "The first engagement has just been fought at Tebruzkonk, near Batoum. After some fighting the enemy was defeated and put to rout, with a loss of 800."

Nominations for Senator.

Judge L. M. Spofford has been nominated by the Democrat caucus for United States Senator from Louisiana. In an interview Judge Spofford said: "The policy of President Hayes, as outlined by his inaugural address and his official action since he was declared President by constitutional authority, has met my hearty approbation, and so long as he stands squarely up to that policy he will have my humble support."

The First Battle Won by Turks.

Safuet Pasha has addressed the following dispatch to the Turkish Ambassador at London, on the 26th: "The first engagement has just been fought at Tebruzkonk, near Batoum. After some fighting the enemy was defeated and put to rout, with a loss of 800."

No Official Notification.

The State Department has not yet received any official notification from either the Russian or Turkish Ministers of the declaration of war. It is probable our government will send two or three officers abroad to observe military operations between Russia and Turkey.

RUSSIA'S WAR WITH TURKEY.

APRIL 28.—A dispatch from London says advice from Turkish sources report the battle at Belhorosk was fought yesterday. The Russians, commanded by Grand Duke Michael, were repulsed with heavy loss. The Turks, under Hassan Pasha, suffered slight losses. The Russians remained at Belhorosk and were again defeated and driven across the frontier. Other dispatches say the Turks crossed the Danube on the 26th, where an engagement is expected. The Italian government has issued the declaration of neutrality. A dispatch from Kischineff says the Russian army were they all to be taken to the Christians and Mussulman populations of Turkey ordering them to remain quiet and attempt nothing against each other, who remain quietly in their homes will not be molested. Nothing will be taken without payment, and does not wish the Christian population to rise, this would only result in disorder and useless bloodshed, but Christians who wish to take part in the war can come to the Russian army where they will be given arms and uniforms, and be regularly enrolled in a special division commanded by Russian officers under the strictest discipline.
