

The Worthington Advance.

VOLUME VI.

WORTHINGTON, NOBLES COUNTY, MINNESOTA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1877.

NUMRER 9.

SUMMARY OF THE GENERAL NEWS.

Gov. Tilden's Speech.

Gov. Tilden was serenaded in New York on the night of the 27th. In his speech he said: "If our British cousins find it difficult to get a supply of food we have a bountiful supply, and a continent in which are vast areas of fertile soil adapted to the use of agricultural machinery and connected with the centres of trade by great rivers, vast internal seas, and 75,000 miles of railroads, why cannot British workmen have cheap food? Our farmers would trade and our carriers facilitate this commerce. Commercial exchanges, it may be remembered, involve inequality. We must reform and moderate our barbarous revenue system and no longer legislate against works of humanity or the benefactors of God. Tilden endorsed the Democratic State ticket, and said: "This election has relation to national politics, in regard to which you expect that I should make some observations. You are aware of the result of the contest in 1876. [A voice: "You were robbed."] Tilden, excitedly: "I did not get robbed. It was a robbery of the dearest rights of American citizens, the right of free government, the right of the people to govern themselves and change their rulers at will. If the American people lie down and consent to sacrifice the integrity of their control over their own government, they will commit a wrong, not only against themselves, but the people of every other land. Ourselves, I protest; nothing I swear, before the assembled people of America: I swear that the government of America will be restored to the people according to the ideal of its founders."

The Joint Electoral Committee.

Senators Bayard, Thurman and Morgan have been agreed upon as the Democratic members of the committee authorized by the resolution of Mr. Edmunds, adopted last week, to take into consideration the state of the law respecting the ascertaining and declaration of the result of the elections of President and Vice President of the United States. The committee will consist of four Republicans and three Democrats, and will act in conjunction with a similar committee from the House.

Grant's Reception in Paris.

Gen. Grant, in Paris on the 26th, received a visit from a large number of American, and well-known Frenchmen, including Leon Say, President McMahon, when receiving Gen. Grant the day before, said he was much gratified to make the acquaintance of so illustrious a soldier. He offered to open all military establishments to his inspection and to furnish means of viewing everything concerning military affairs. Gen. Grant accepted the offer with thanks.

Removal of the Indians to the Missouri.

The removal of Indians from Red Cloud Agency to the vicinity of the Missouri river, finally completed on the 25th. They were escorted by Capt. Lawson's and Lieut. Cummings' companies of the Third Cavalry. No dissatisfaction was evinced by the Indians; on the contrary, all moved harmoniously. The march will be a long and tedious one, probably occupying a month. Spotted Tail will not move for a few days.

Gambetta's Speech.

Gambetta, in a speech at Chateau Chiron, violently denounced the government's electoral maneuvers, declared that but for fraud and robbery, 400 Republicans would have been returned. He made a bitter attack upon the empire and Bonapartists, but spoke in a very conciliatory tone of other parties and predicted an eventual alliance between them and the Republicans, when present passions had time to cool.

Attorneys General Devise, writing from Washington, excusing himself from active participation in the State campaign, says: "I learn with surprise and regret that many of the Republican officials hesitate either to speak or vote, alleging as a reason the terms of their recent civil service order. In distinct terms that order states that the right of officials to vote and express their views on public questions, either orally or through the press, is not denied, provided it does not interfere with the discharge of their official duties. If such gentlemen choose not to vote, or not to express or enforce their views in support of the principles of the Republican party, either orally or otherwise, they at least should not give a reason for such a course which is not justified by the order referred to, and which is simply a perversion of it."

Enfortunate Constitutional Provision.

A syndicate of eminent financiers in Europe have proposed to loan the State of Louisiana $12,000,000, with which the State must call in and pay off her present debt at par with interest to the date of retirement. The State must then issue the same amount of bonds to the syndicate, bearing five per cent interest and payable in forty-five years. Under this arrangement the State would have to pay only about $500,000 per annum on account of principal and interest, instead of $800,000 now required to pay interest on the State bonds. It is believed, however, this proposition cannot, under the constitution and present State laws be accepted.

French Politics.

Members of the Senate belonging to the Left in a manifesto urging electors to continue their efforts at second ballots for deputies and elections for councils general, declare it to be their conviction that the present cabinet will not face the meeting of the chambers, but will only return to office long enough to preside over the elections for councils general.

Grading to Commence on the N. P. R. R.

At a late meeting of the directors of the Northern Pacific railroad, it was determined to commence the work of construction beyond the Missouri river without delay. Gen. Stark, vice president, has just returned from Bismarck, where he has made arrangements for immediate work this fall, and a corps of laborers will cross the river at once to commence grading.

An Embassier Sentenced.

Lewis Meyers, treasurer, and J. S. Smith, auditor of Anglaise county, were arraigned on the 27th at Wapakoneta, Ohio, charged with embezzling $47,000 of the county funds. Meyers pled guilty, and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. Smith was committed to jail in default of $10,000 bail.

Mexican Complication.

The State of Sonora has seceded. Diaz shows an inflexible determination to extradite the criminals on the Rio Grande, believing extradition necessary to preserve national decorum. Several regiments of infantry and cavalry have marched for the border. The Lordists are actively organizing to cooperate with Escobedo on the Rio Grande.

A Land-Grant of Huge Proportions.

An Ottawa despatch says a treaty has been completed between the dominion government and Blackfoot Indians, by which the Indians cede fifty-one thousand square miles of territory to Canada.

SPOTTED TAIL AND RED CLOUD AGENCIES TO THEIR TROUBLE LOCALITIES.

Gen. Crook anticipates no trouble whatever. He says in regard to the abandonment of the frontier posts, that camps Robeson and Sheridan are the only posts to be abandoned this fall. He thinks troops will be retained at most of the posts on the Union Pacific, at Forts Laramie, Fetterman, McKenny, and camps Brown and Stambaugh for many years.

ENFORTUNATE CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION.

A syndicate of eminent financiers in Europe have proposed to loan the State of Louisiana $12,000,000, with which the State must call in and pay off her present debt at par with interest to the date of retirement. The State must then issue the same amount of bonds to the syndicate, bearing five per cent interest and payable in forty-five years.
