THE WORLD'S DOINGS.

By an explosion in the Ohio colliery, near Branchdale, eight miners were buried and killed. The blast of the mine was much damaged. The explosion occurred on the morning of April 21st about one half of the town of Kingsley, Kan., was destroyed by fire, including the entire business district. Loss $50,000.

The attorney general has affirmed the decision of the assistant attorney general for the postoffice department that regular purposes cannot be served through the mails at the rates charged for the same.

At Nashville, Tenn., 1000 shares of the revenue law approved by the United States Court, April 21. One hundred and seventy-five accepted Denver's largest, and all the rest will follow suit. The large number of witnesses summoned were dismissed.

A fire at Eureka, Nevada, on the night of April 19 and the morning of the 19th burned the lower portion of the town, houses, hotels, newspaper office, telegraph office, Masonic building and a great number of dwellings. Three hundred families are destitute, and 2,000 people are without shelter.

When the train which left Worthington with James Crall, accused of outraging Mrs. Thomas at Lickville, Md., reached Washington Junction April 17, fifteen or twenty men boarded it and after a desperate struggle, secured the train, and the accused was taken to the police station.

The Secretary of War has addressed a letter to General Sherman, directing, in case of a rebellion, that he should be ready to take the field at any moment.

A large meeting was held at Topoka, Kan., on the night of April 21st, to consider the proposed revenue law, and to elect delegates to the South. Gen. John Porter, of the South, presided.

HONOR AND SUBJECTS.

HONOR.
BY HARRIET McNEVIN KIMBALL.

SEASONABLE FASHION HINTS.

Fancy silk turbans are bound with gold cord.

The new latest fashions in deep colored figured borders.

The Gabrielle with a hood is the favorite style of domino.

Square mosaic pins are the latest styles of jewelry.

Colored mantles of very bright colors are worn with black dresses.

Chateaus for holding the fan are now out of date, and ribbon is substituted.

Black velvet neck-bands are ornamented with little shells, and embroidered in silver.

Braids or short curls down the back are worn with dressy evening or dinner costumes.

The latest fashion in France is to take tea in bonnets and gloves, and without any outside wrapping.

Canon-crape shawls are used to make hats, bonnets, overskirts, and when draped graciously effect a costume.

In the most modern sets of furniture no wood is shown, the frame being entirely covered with goods.

Black silk, camel's hair, cashmere, Henrietta cloth and nearly all black goods are the popular materials for street wear with American women.

A street or walking dress must be dark, short and unobtrusive in its general effect; while bright colors and laces should be worn with the house dress.

The latest wrinkle in fashionable clothing is the use of silk stockings.
One spool of silk costs $2.50, and it takes two or five spools to knit one pair.
