CURRENT TOPICS.

Eggs imported from Chicago have been the last summer been eaten at Dublin breakfast tables, and good American butter been sold at 8d. per pound.

Shrike trees have been burned in America in log heaps, which, cut into vevers, would sell for more net cash than the whole farm where it grew.

It is thought the shipments of machinery out of St. Louis the last year will considerably exceed the sales of any other year in the history of that city.

Kosuth has issued an appeal for subscriptions to his promised memoirs. The veteran warrior, now in his 78th year, has been forced to undertake this task in order to earn money, since he lives entirely by the product of his pen.

The owners of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road lay stress on the fact that by the way of the Pacific coast territories of their road, Guaymas, the distance from New York to Australia will be but 6000 miles, while by way of San Francisco it is 7400.

The celebrated Towney collection of sculpture, for which parliament paid $100,000, has remained for twenty-five years in the cellars of the British Museum, and has only been viewed during that time, by lantern light, by a few people who insisted on seeing it.

NATIONAL DEBTS.—Little importance until the French revolution; they now amount to about $28,000,000,000 mostly owned by European States for loans incurred by dynasties and in which common people had no voice. These debts stand as a barrier to now a cause of poverty.

OFFICIAL STATISTICS show that two-thirds of the ordinary expenses of the Government are paid by taxes on Wines, Liquors and Tobacco. During the last fiscal year nearly $11,000,000 was paid by the consumers of these luxuries for the support of a Government which spends for its own maintenance, outside of debt charges, $150,000,000.

The Philadelphia Trade Journal, as another proof of the improved condition of the iron trade, gives the fact that conditions were lately posted in Kensington mills, amounting to a general increase of wages equal to about six and a half per cent. for all hands. This is the second advance within three months, the first being ten per cent.

A FEMINE brigand infests the neighborhood of Cautauzo, in Calabria, and alarms the weather inhabitants by burning farms, carrying off cattle and levying contributions. She is a beautiful girl, who was betrothed to a bandit, and on her lover being killed in a skirmish, she took possession of his carbine and swore on his body to be revenged, the band acknowledging her as his chief. Such, at least, is the assertion of the Loudon Graphic.

THERE are eight newspapers in the United States which claim to be over one hundred years old. Below are the names of the papers and the dates when they are said to have been established: Annapolis (Md.) Maryland Gazette, 1745; Portsmouth (N. H.) Gazette, 1758; Newport (R. I.) Mercury, 1758; New London (Conn.) Gazette, 1763; Hartford (Conn.) Courant, 1764; New Haven (Conn.) Journal, 1767; Salem (Mass.) Gazette, 1768; Worcester (Mass.) Spy, 1770.

The natives residing in the neighborhood of Monrovia, Liberia, until lately were accustomed to visit the city dressed very much in the style of our first parents.—Mayor Leota, a civilized immigrant from the United States, issued a proclamation to the effect that the men should wear breeches and the women a gown to the knees, or they could not attend market. The decree is now observed, but in the rural regions the primitive custom of the fathers of the republic remain in vogue.

A PROVIDENCE dispatch says: "It is authoritatively stated here that ex-Senator Sprague, who has been for some weeks engaged in taking private depositions for use in a divorce suit, which he shortly contemplates bringing against his wife, became satisfied that he could produce no substantial proof with which to sustain his former allegations against Mr. Sprague, and instructed his lawyers to proceed no further in the matter. A reconciliation between the husband and wife, is looked for as the eventual result of this.

LAST spring the five children of M. B.
Corbin of Colorado, promised to earn money enough to pay for an organ for their father, who has been for some weeks
ly contemplates bringing against his

Irish relief fund instituted by the Duchess of Marlborough amounts to $180,000.

The Texas negroes, lately arrived at Oswego, Kansas, are camping in the woods and many are suffering from destitution and exposure.

The government of Mexico, has ordered the celebrated castle of Chapultepec to be refitted for the reception of Gen. Grant and party. The castle is about 1000 feet above the city, overlooking the entire Mexican valley and the City of Mexico. A house is also being prepared in the city to enable the party to alternate between the town and the country.
