LOCAL.

WORTHINGTON, MINN., OCTOBER 22, 1885.

CLUB NEWS.
The ADVANCE is furnished at $1.25 a year to Clubs of ten or more. Clubs of ten for six months $7.50 for each subscriber.

OFFICIAL PAPER.
The Worthington ADVANCE is the Official Paper of

Nobles County, Village of Worthington.

U. S. Land Office.
Parties desiring to keep posted in any public matter relating to Nobles County must have the ADVANCE.

For Curtains, go to Thayer's. 9-11
Allen, the Murray county prisoner, was taken to Murray county on Monday for trial.

Good work horse for sale. 8-12
Mrs. A. W. Allen was thrown from a wagon the other evening, by the shying of her horse, and somewhat hurt.

Pony mare 7 years old, for sale cheap. 8-11
S. CLIPPENGER.

The Nashville Students Jubilee Singers sang last night at Masonic Hall to a full house, and gave an excellent entertainment.

Court convenes November 3, one week from next Tuesday. Grand jurors are summoned to appear on the 3d, and petit jurors on the 4th.

Buchan's Photo gallery will be closed from Oct. 19th to 30th. 6-25

Michael Mead was brought from Luverne yesterday and lodged in jail, having been committed by Justice Barck charged with contempt of court.

American and Household Sewing Machines at Thayer's. 9-11

The undersigned hereby tender their thanks to the ladies and others who assisted them at their oyster supper.

WORTHINGTON BRASS BAND.
Holstein bull for sale. Inquire of Fritz Bros., sec. 6, Lorain. 4-11

The Langsthe boys threshed some sod flax the other day which turned out fifteen bushels to the acre. This is about the best we have heard of for sod flax.

A. Dillman brings us three potatoes from his farm on the Summit, which weigh six pounds and one ounce. They are about the size and shape of young pigs.

J. J. Hausberger informs us that he has received word that his Bent works at Baltimore, Ohio, were burned a few days ago. Loss about $5,000, and no insurance.

If you wish an Organ or Piano, Thayer can give you better prices than any one. 9-11

At the recent synod of the Presbyterian church for Minnesota, the fact came out that the church at Worthington was the banner church in the amount of contributions to foreign missions, etc.

Good boys wanted to do chores for this board and schooling this winter. Will hire next summer to work on farm. Chas. Harthun, Brewster. 7-2

A prairie fire started up in Elk Sunday evening and worked down between the Elk and Graham Lakes roads. Monday it kept people busy fighting for their stacks. Buchan and Oliver lost about thirty tons of hay.

Frank Kelley, formerly of the Orange City Herald, made us a pleasant call recently. He had been to Luverne to look the ground over with reference to starting a new paper at that place. It is a good field, and Luverne needs a good paper.

The members of the Worthington Library association have consented to place the books in the school library to be held in trust by the school board. All persons having any of the books are requested to return them at once to Prof. Wright.

Tuesday evening, October 27, Rev. Mr. Hartzell will be installed as pastor of the Presbyterian church of this village. Rev. Mr. Robinson, the former pastor, will preach the sermon. The charges will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Gage and Rev. Mr. La Grange.

Several tramps called at Dr. Barber's house the other day and asked for something to eat. Mrs. B. was away and the girls refused to give them anything. They went away but returned shortly afterwards and broke a pane of glass in the front door. A good many of these tramps need a workhouse badly.

The dance given by the Worthington String Band on Friday night was a success in every respect. The boys realized a handsome sum, and the dancers say the music was excellent.

The Brass Band gave the supper, also realizing quite a sum, and all agree that the supper was gotten up in the best of style. Prof. Merritt, the band teacher, is winning good opinions.

See card of W. F. Thayer, the Worthington furniture dealer, who sells everything in the furniture line, and also organs, pianos, carpets, sewing machines, coffins and caskets. Give him a call.

The cantata of Queen Esther will be produced in Worthington in about two weeks, under the auspices of Stoddard Post, G. A. R. Rehearsals will commence next Monday evening at 7:30, under the direction of Prof. Bixler. All singers who desire the instruction and who will kindly help the post in this undertaking, are requested to be present that evening in the post hall. Com.

The ADVANCE gave last week a very full report of the prairie fires and losses resulting, but one or two parties escaped the vigilance of reporters. In addition to those given, we learn from the Fulda Republican that Mr. Biessebach, of Bloom township, lost his barn and hay, and from the Adrian Guardian that Adam Stodler lost five settings of flax, his brother lost one setting of flax, Hockhouse lost house, stable and sheds. Also that an empty house belonging to John Kohler was burned in Willmont.

We learn later that R. C. Dana had about fifty tons of hay burned on section 31, in Hersey.

For I am declined into the vale of years," she said a little sadly, "but I needn't do more than mind it since I can get Salvation Oil for 25 cents."

PERSONAL.

Attorney Rohrer is in Murray county attending court.

J. E. Hammerberg has returned from a visit to friends in Iowa.

Mrs. C. W. Bullis has gone to Delavan, Wis., to spend the winter.

Judge Wilson is absent at Currie attending the Murray county court.

Mrs. Fred Parker, of Superior City, is visiting father and mother Thompson.

John A. Seely, of the Edgerton Enterprise, was in town Tuesday and made us a call.

Guy C. Fellows leaves this week for Eagle Lake for the winter. He has rented his farm in Elk.

Burt Day, of the Jackson Republic, was in town yesterday helping to get things on land, and made a 25-minute call.

Arthur Crandall, wife and child, of LeMars, Iowa, are visiting with that gentleman's friends in Worthington this week.

Senator A. M. Crosby dropped in the other morning and made us a pleasant spot cash call. We are pleased to learn that Mrs. C. has recovered from a recent attack of diphtheria.

Mrs. S. Simonton and son, Mr. Edward Simonton, of Sauk Centre, Minn., arrived here on Thursday, and will spend a short time visiting an officer, Mr. I. J. Coons, and family—Bancroft, (Neb.) Journal.

Miss Carrie Ogle left last Tuesday morning for Minneapolis, where she goes to attend a course of study and the coming winter. Her father accompanied her to that city, returning to-day.—Mankato Free Press.

Mrs. Clara Peterson has been very low. Her mother's recovery from and for a time it was necessary to close the restaurant. We are pleased to say she is a little better, and hopes of her recovery are entertained.—Windom Citizen.

Rev. E. R. Lathrop expects to move his family to their new home in Worthington in the early part of next week. His departure from Luverne will occasion general and profound regret. Probably no pastor who was ever loved here so long and so warmly as this one. There are many who consider the change in the pastorate at this place an injustice and there are many also who can not be easily reconciled to the change. However, there may be reasons for it which the public are not aware of, and though we regret the necessity of losing Mr. Lathrop and his family, there is now no use in protesting.—Rock County Herald.

The "Old Commoner," as the friends of Thaddeus Stevens, the distinguished congressman, were fond of calling him, once wrote to a fellow member who was suffering from indigestion and kidney disease: "Try Miller's Herb Bitters. I believe it will cure you. I have used it for both indigestion and affection of the kidneys, and it is the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs I ever saw."

The Minnesota Loan and Investment company has begun preparations for the new bank building, 210 1/2 Broadway street and Third avenue. The new building is to be moved at once to the rear of the lot, and the foundation is to be laid this fall for the new building. It will be all brick, 30x50, two stories above basement, and will be the first building in the town with a regular basement. The basement and first story are to be for the use of the Bank of Worthington and the Loan and Investment company, and the upper story will be for offices.

On Monday, Mr. Wysong finished brickwork on the new bank building, and the new project of the new building is to be moved at once to the rear of the lot, and the foundation is to be laid this fall for the new building. It will be all brick, 30x50, two stories above basement, and will be the first building in the town with a regular basement. ## A CENTENARIAN.

B. R. Prince hands us a copy of the Salem (Mass.) Gazette of September 23, which contains an account of the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of his aunt. The paper itself is a curiosity, for under the heading in the left-hand corner, it says: "Established: Weekly, 1768—Semi-weekly, 1769."

Of Mr. Prince's aunt, who has reached the remarkable age of 100 years, the Gazette says:

Mrs. Sarah (Prince) Osgood, wife of the late John W. Osgood (who died August 16, 1883), was born in Salem September 23, 1783, and therefore reached the great age of 100 years today. Her home is with her son, Geo. Prince Osgood on Chestnut street, Salem, but for the last four years she has resided with one of her daughters, Mrs. Mary Osgood, in the city of Boston.

And when asked by a member of the family at Wenham, where she has received visits to-day in a very quiet manner from a few of her friends, among others one of her Chestnut street neighbors, who has already passed some way beyond the age of 90, Mrs. Osgood is the daughter of Capt. Henry and Sarah (Millet) Prince. Her father is said to have had the honor of being the first American to carry his country's flag into the bay of Manila.
