

WORTHINGTON ADVANCE.

WORTHINGTON, JUNE 28.

—The Indians are here.
 —Rooms over the ADVANCE are for rent.
 —All roads will give excursion rates July 4th.
 —Forepaugh's show is said to be a fake this year.
 —Boy wanted at this office to learn the printers trade.
 —Harry Allen will soon close his engagement with the ADVANCE
 —Watermelons, peaches and bananas at Loveless the Grocers.
 —Oranges, lemons, candies and nuts at Loveless the Grocers.
 —Boys buy your fire-crackers and fire-works at Loveless the Grocers.
 —The A. O. U. W. are putting the finishing touches on their building.
 —Mayor Shell was at Lemars last week. The June races had no attraction for him.
 —Mrs. Damon, Miss Mary, George and Albert, attended services at Round Lake Sunday.
 —County Supt. Maguire is to deliver the 4th of July oration at Adrian and it will be worth hearing.
 —Mrs. D. W. Chute is in Hamilton, Illinois looking after her farm. She will be absent several weeks.
 —Mrs. J. C. Goodnow and daughter of Pipestone paid their annual visit to Mr. and Mrs. Forbes last week.
 —I want you to get all the peanuts, all the candy and all the fruit for that girl of yours of Loveless the Grocer.
 —Roman candles, pin-wheels sky-rockets and nearly everything in the fire works line at Loveless the Grocers.
 —Old Huntington says wine and women improve with age. Generally women do not care to improve that way.
 —Dr. Clark and family are domiciled in the rooms over Day & Nichols. The doctor has his office in the front rooms.
 —Sells Bro's circus passed through this place on Sunday enroute for Sioux City with three heavily loaded trains.
 —Editor John King of the Adrian Democrat called Monday morning. He had been down to Sioux City for a few days.
 —Miss Nellie Shaw of Ottawa, Ill., daughter of Mr. Forbes' cousin, is here for a visit and will perhaps remain all summer.
 —Albert Damon is home from Cornell College, at Mount Vernon Ia., where he graduated with a class of 42, nearly at the head.
 —A drinking fountain is being put in at the east corner of the court house square, that the pedestrians may slack their thirst.
 —Rev. E. M. Lumm held services at Round Lake last Sunday. After the regular preaching services quite a number were baptized.
 —M. E. Fish will close his barber shop on Tuesday July 3rd from 1 to 6 p. m. and on Wednesday will not open at all after 1 o'clock p. m.
 —Capt. Chase, Mr. Shipman and Mr. Rogers, of Milford, Iowa, old friends of Jas. Nolan, were here last week on their way home from Council Bluffs.
 —Mr. J. Stewart, an old man, reports that Kickapoo Indian Sagwa has done more for him than any medicine he has ever taken.—Larchwood Leader.
 —Mr. Grimes, owner of the Worthington mills, was here the first of the week. He speaks highly of the Matteson Bros, who have leased the plant for five years.
 —Fred Mason shipped two cars of new hay last Saturday. Considerable new hay is being brought to town. It gives a little ready money at this dull season of the year.
 —Lawyer Cheney and his friend, Attorney Sutherland, were at Adrian last week. Mr. Sutherland formed a partnership with Judge Cory, and will practice law at that place.
 —Mr. Smith of Edgerton was here last week feeling the public pulse on the senatorial question. Before he left he was heard to remark: "D— if even the democrats dont favor Shell."
 —Andrew Daeden, one of Bigelow's prosperous young farmers, called Saturday and enrolled his name among the ADVANCE readers. He says only republican papers go with him now.
 —The Worthington Milling Co. has an ad. in this paper. Worthington people and the farmers of this section ought to pat themselves on the back, that the mills are in such excellent hands.

—There will be quite a boom in the Marshall land office, of which our worthy townsman, C. P. Shepard, is receiver. By a recent decision by Hoke Smith Secretary of the Interior settlers on the Hastings and Dakota railroad lands must prove that they occupied the lands prior to Oct. 1st 1891. The proceedings will be in the nature of a contest. This will be a fat snap for attorneys as well as for land office officials.
 —Mrs. Robert Miller, wife of one of our prominent merchants, has been using the Kickapoo Indian Sagwa for over a week and reports that it has done more for her than she anticipated, the results completely surprising her.—Hills Crescent.
 —The salary of the postmaster at Adrian has been reduced from $1200 to $1100. Adrian is a progressive, hustling town and it seems strange that its postoffice business should lag.
 —Mrs. E. H. Reynolds is getting well of Rheumatism, she has at last found a cure in Kickapoo Indian Sagwa which never fails to cure rheumatism in its worst forms.—Ocheydan Press.
 —Mr. and Mrs. Ellis and daughter Ada, of Windom, visited Tuesday and Wednesday with the ADVANCE folks. They were on their way to Maine where they will spend part of the summer.
 —Mayor E. P. Johnson has been using Kickapoo Indian Sagwa for kidney complaint and says that it has made him feel better than he has for a year. He is now using the second bottle.—Ocheydan Press.
 —The Ladies' society, of the Congregational church, will give a social at the church parlors and grounds adjoining, on Tuesday evening, July 3d. All are invited.
 —The village council met as a board of equalization Monday and Tuesday. Tax payers who did not make a kick at the board should forever hold their peace.
 —C. A. Spencer, our blacksmith, is also using Kickapoo Indian Sagwa for dyspepsia and says he is getting well and feels better now than he has felt for a long time.—Ocheydan Press
 —Mr. Dayton made an overland trip to Tracy Wednesday. He left here at 7 a. m. and reached Tracy at 3 p. m.
 —Service in St. Johns Episcopal church on Friday evening of this week at 8 o'clock. All are cordially invited.
 Every Odd Fellow in this section is requested to meet at the A. O. U. W. hall next Monday evening, July 2d, at 8 p. m.
 —J. A. Anderson's store at Cokato was entered by burglars Sunday night, and a quantity of goods taken and damaged.
 —The ladies of the M. E. Church, will serve refreshments during the Firemen's Tournament on the 3rd and 4th of July.
 —All who are to take part in the Calathumpian parade July 4th, are requested to meet at the Worthington Hay Co's building.
 —The Sunday schools of the Swedish Lutheran church held a picnic at Tillandee's grove yesterday. All who attended had a good time.
 —Wilson Ayers, of St. Croix, Wis., cousin of the editor, was here Wednesday. He left on the afternoon train for Luverne to visit his sister.
 —The rain Monday night was a God send to this section. The crops were thirsty.
 —A prize of $10 will be given for the best representation in the Calathumpian parade.
 —Phillip Anton is gathering material for his new residence, which he expects to erect this fall.
 —Charley Peterson's children, we are glad to state, are improving, and will no doubt be out soon.
 —About 50 men are employed on the county buildings, and the force will likely be increased soon.
 —Tickets for the entertainment at G. R. A. hall next Monday night are for sale at Babcock's drug store.
 —P. E. Narey, sheriff of Dickinson county, Ia., was in Worthington Monday night, on his way to Sioux Falls.
 —Judge Wilson is attending court at Windom. The Judge's practice extends over a wide scope of country.
 —Fred Mason made a business visit to Heron Lake this week.
 The trial of Prendergast, for insanity, is in progress in Chicago.
 —Dr. Clark's residence and office is over Day & Nichols' jewelry store.
 —The new bakery is going into the store building back of Mr. Torrance's.
 —The g. o. p. has captured Denver.

—Henry Haggard and Ole Ellingson, two of our influential and prosperous farmers, made the ADVANCE a pleasant call this morning.
 —All who will take part in the Calathumpian parade July 4th are requested to notify Howard Durfee or C. H. Babcock as soon as next Monday night.
 —We are told that about half of Windom will attend the celebration here, July 3d and 4th, and there will also be large crowds from Ellsworth, Rock Rapids, Luverne and Pipestone.
 —The Worthington Milling company should receive the encouragement of every one in Worthington and surrounding territory. A good mill is of benefit to a community, and should be encouraged in every way possible.
 —The various fire companies that will take part in the tournament here July 3rd and 4th have adopted colors as follows: Worthington, pink; Windom, blue; Luverne, green; Rock Rapids, white; Ellsworth, red; Pipestone, brown.
 —Ed. Wolven has his pleasure boat in running order now. He is using a gasoline engine for propelling power and it is giving the best of satisfaction. Prof. H. B. Tibbetts was the controlling genius in putting the machinery in working order.
 —G. C. Cooley of Heron Lake, called Wednesday while in town on business. G. C. is a good democrat but he says he will make the suggestion that the party make no nominations this year—it won't do them any good, as they are doomed to defeat.
 —Our rustling friend, S. Kindlund, has a fence machine that, to us, seems to be a world beater. The fence is made rapidly and good, and at a low cost—only 60 cents per rod for a fence 4 feet high. Mr. K. has the agency for the eastern part of Nobles county.
 —The W. R. C. and the D. of H. and A. O. U. W. will serve meals July 3rd and 4th in the A. O. U. W. hall. The A. O. U. W. hall will be headquarters for the United Workmen, W. R. C. and their friends and it will be just the place to get a splendid meal.
 —Mr. Wasmer is moving his laundry into the building lately occupied by the ADVANCE, having leased it for a term of three years. He is also adding a lot of new machinery, to enable him to turn out work second to none. He has purchased an engine of Mr. Tibbetts.
 —"Master RALPH proved himself to be all that he was advertised to be, and that is saying a great deal for any artist. His is no studied conception, but is nature itself, and the originality of the boy's style and acting is decidedly refreshing."—Daily Courier, Evansville, Ind.
 —We regret to learn that Jeweler E. B. Nelson has decided to leave Worthington. He will go to California and engage in business. This move is taken on account of his younger brother, whose health is not the best. The good wishes of hosts of friends go with them.
 Mrs. C. H. Bailey, of Lake Park, says that she had rheumatism for about twenty years, has tried doctors and remedies without number but received no permanent benefit, until she commenced using Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and Indian oil about two weeks and is positive that it is a sure cure.
 —Mrs. Chas. Lewis speaks of the Kickapoo Indian Sagwa as follows:—Had been troubled with rheumatism, sick headache and heart burn for some time, have used one bottle of Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and am now entirely free from all the above named diseases and cheerfully recommend the medicine to you.
 —Minnie McDougle, grandchild of Mrs. Jane Dickinson, of Lake Park, has been very sick with rheumatism and two weeks ago she could not walk on account of the disease, but now has fully recovered. She and Mrs. Dickinson say that Kickapoo Indian Sagwa and Indian oil cured her.—Lake Park News.
 —On next Sunday evening, July 1st, at 8 o'clock, at the Congregational church, Rev. L. W. Chaney, of Northfield, Minn., will deliver a lecture, entitled: "The Search for a Man." Admission free, and all are invited to attend. The lecture is given under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church, the collection taken to be for its benefit.
 —"The gift of eloquence has come to RALPH BINGHAM by divine right. He is listened to not as a marvel but as a master; not as a child struggling to accomplish great things, but as a youth of genius to whom they come as naturally as did music to the little Mozart, or to a Hayden, or any other of the artists who were great from their childhood."—New York Herald.

—By the Luverne Herald we see that Rev. Father Englebrecht has returned, and will stand trial at the September term of court. He is now in jail and will remain there until court convenes. It will be remembered that Englebrecht was indicted for rape; was released on bonds but before his case was called, fled the country. The gnawing of his conscience (if he ever had any) and the constant fear of being run down, no doubt, caused him to return and give himself up. He has a bad record and will no doubt get his just deserts. The Herald says: Englebrecht came to Luverne from Chicago and his transportation was furnished by some one connected with the police department. In conversation with a representative of this paper he said: I came back to give myself up and have my trial and I shall fight it out to the bitter end. I have my particular reasons for not coming back for trial last fall, and I have particular reasons for coming now. These will all come out during the trial. I was ready to come back the last term of court but I received a telegram and a letter from a certain party in Luverne not to come." Information of insanity in the case of Mr. Englebrecht was filed with the judge of probate by Rev. Father McDonough last Tuesday, and Drs. Kilgore and Gilbertson were appointed to make the examination. The examination was commenced Wednesday and adjourned for one week. Englebrecht's only companion at present is "Laughing Jack." He occupies his time in reading and smoking and appears as cheerful as ever. He ridicules the claim that he is insane.
 —The Detroit Free Press of June 15th announces the sudden death, from apoplexy, of Henry Allen Chaney, on the 14th inst. at his residence, in Detroit. Mr. Chaney was a nephew of the late Allen Chauch, and of Rev. L. W. Chaney, of Northfield, Minn., who is now visiting with friends in Worthington. The deceased was a prominent lawyer in Detroit. He graduated from the Michigan University in 1869, and was admitted to the bar in 1871. He was also distinguished as an editorial writer on the Detroit Tribune, and also as author of a digest of Michigan supreme court reports, a manual for notaries, and many articles in the law journals of that state. His father, the late Henry Chaney, was a well known and highly successful educator in Michigan. The deceased had just visited his brother, Dr. Willard Chaney, to obtain a prescription. The doctor accompanied his brother home, who said as he got out of the carriage, that he felt better, but he had hardly got over the threshold of his home, when he fell down stricken with apoplexy. He was nearly 46 years old and leaves a wife, two daughters and three sons to mourn his loss. He was a member of a Congregational church, and was universally esteemed as a man of profound learning and deep thought. A wide circle of friends lament his departure.—X.
 —Says Horace Greely Perry in her St. Peter Journal: At Worthington, Minn., an enterprising young woman is learning the drug trade and announces her intention of opening a store of her own as soon as she is registered. Pharmacy is nice, clean work for a lady and it would be advisable for more young women who desire to become independent to take it up.
 —The republican electors of the village of Worthington will meet in caucus at G. A. R. hall, July 3d, at 8 p. m. for the purpose of electing 15 delegates to attend the county convention. FRED HUMISTON, chm.
 —There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the agricultural society Saturday June 30, at 2 p. m. in the Recorder's office in Worthington for the purpose of making out the premium list for our county fair. J. B. GREEN, A. E. TUTTLE, Pres. Sec'y.
 —Ben. St. John, of Heron Lake, was here Wednesday evening, on his way home from Okoboji, where he has been rusticated for a few days. He says the crops around Heron Lake are looking fairly well.
 —Every citizen of Worthington should take pride in decorating his premises July 3rd and 4th. Hundreds of strangers will visit us on those days and we should be attired in our best.
 —During the storm Monday the Catholic church at Adrian was struck by lightning and damaged to the amount of $1000.
 —E. E. Salmon has purchased a new bake oven for his restaurant and will turn out some fine bread in the future.
 —Get your decorations early and have them in place.
 —Water melons are here, fresh tomatoes are here, and we are here. LOVELESS.

—Entertainment, musical and literary, at G. A. R. hall Monday evening, July 2d. Ralph and Ruth Bingham will surprise and delight their Worthington audience with an original, novel and unique program. Ralph Bingham, the most remarkable character on the American platform, monologist, humorist and violinist, and Ruth Bingham, late organist of All Saints Evangelical Lutheran church, of Philadelphia, an accomplished and skilled elocutionist and musician, have appeared in 75 principal cities of the United States. Below is a sample program:

 —The ADVANCE requested some Fourth of July verses from our local artists. Here's the result:
 They and where he moaning lies
 And in his bed they tucked him
 He tried to celebrate the day
 And never knew what struck him.
 —Ray Mumiston.
 The freedom of the banded states,
 By flowing blood achieved of yore,
 To day the small boy celebrates
 By shedding supplementary gore.
 J. A. Town.
 I am afraid that boy of mine
 Is but a stupid little dunce;
 He's played with powder all day long,
 And hasn't burned his fingers once.
 —Mitt. Mann.
 He stole the old man's toddy jug
 And filled it full of powder;
 And now his pretty little mug
 Is all chopped up like chowder.
 —Geo. W. Wilson.
 —Sugar cured hams 12 1/2 cts. per lb. at the City Meat Market. (2w)
 Township Caucus.
 The republican voters of Worthington township will meet Saturday, June 30th, at 2 o'clock p. m., at J. A. Town's office, for the purpose of choosing three delegates to the republican county convention, to be held July 6th, at Worthington.

 DIED.
 BABCOCK.—June 26, 1894, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Babcock. The sympathy of our people is extended to the parents in their bereavement.
 ROSE.—At Worthington Minn., on Saturday morning June 23, Fannie Belle Rose, aged 14 years, 2 months and 8 days, and on Tuesday morning, June 26th, Grace Alice Rose aged 6 years and 6 months; both of diphtheria.
 This is three times in two months that death has laid its icy hands on this household and taken away a loved one. Belle, was a bright intelligent girl whose smiling face and winning ways endeared her to all who knew her. She was a member of the Y. P. S. C. E. and died trusting in her savior. She will be greatly missed by her many friends, and especially in the home where she was the life and sunshine.
 Grace, the youngest of the family, was a tender, loving child whose presence since the death of her parents, has been like a ray of sunshine to that lonely home and her loss will be deeply felt by those who loved her. This family has the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction, especially the elder sister who has shown such a noble spirit and christian character during all their afflictions, and has so tenderly cared for the sick and dying, and may she be abundantly rewarded in that land where there will be no more parting.
 Grieve not over the loss of your loved ones. They have only just passed on before. The boatman has taken them over. They are safe on that beautiful shore.
 When the trials of life are over,
 And your toll and earth's work done,
 At the gate in the beautiful city
 They'll be waiting to welcome you home.

 Teacher's Training School.
 The Teacher's Training School for Nobles county to be held in the High school building, Worthington, beginning July 16, 1894, at 9 o'clock in the forenoon and continuing four weeks. This is the first school of the kind ever held in the aforesaid county, and we sincerely hope that a spirit of helpfulness and encouragement will come from all quarters, as it is a matter which should concern all classes. The school is not intended for teachers alone, but for those who are looking forward to a place in our ranks.
 The object of the school, briefly stated, is to improve the condition of the common schools of Nobles county, and the same will be under the supervision of the County Superintendent, to whom all communications concerning the school should be addressed. All the common branches will be provided for, including civil government and school law.
 High and special branches will receive some attention, providing satisfactory provisions can be made. There will be an abundance of work most interesting and valuable.
 It is our earnest desire to receive the names of all those who are going to attend as soon as possible, so kindly send in your names immediately. I ought to have on file one hundred names by the first of July. Do not leave your county to attend another school, your duty lies here.
 Our school is located at one of the most beautiful summer resorts of Southwestern Minn., a place well fitted for recreation and study. Our instructors are among the best in the state, therefore we see no reason why you should not attend your home school.
 Engage your boarding place at once. We know that the people of Worthington will render all the assistance possible along this line. Teachers, if you do your duty and show a lively interest Worthington will have the Summer School of Southwestern Minnesota.
 All communications asking for information will be promptly answered. No tuition is charged for admission into this school.
 Bring your text books.
 THOS. B. MAGUIRE,
 County Superintendent.
