

STOCKS TAKE A JUMP.

The Liveliest Opening on the New York Exchange For Many a Day.

THE TARIFF BILL DID IT.

Brokers Receive Orders From Customers Not Seen Since Last Summer's Panic.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Operators at the Stock Exchange enjoyed the liveliest opening they have had for a long time.

Foreigners Take Hold. The foreigners have already taken hold and their purchases are largely attributable to the weakness of sterling and the cessation of gold exports.

Brakers say they are receiving orders from customers whom they have not seen since the panic of last summer, and business on the Consolidated as well as on the Stock exchange was exceedingly lively.

Fast Time at Terre Haute. TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Aug. 15.—Three world's records were broken on the opening day of the Terre Haute Fair association races.

Bank President Suicides. EL RENO, O. T., Aug. 15.—J. M. Beacom, president of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of Watonga, 30 miles west of here, disgraced by his son inextricably involving the affairs of his bank, committed suicide by shooting.

Killed His Wife and Himself. KALAMAZOO, Mich., Aug. 15.—L. W. Brainard shot and killed his wife at Vicksburg and then killed himself.

Trying to Settle a Strike. CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—Representatives of the great packing firms of Armour, Swift and Morris are in consultation with President Taylor of the National Butchers' association with a view to a settlement of the butchers' strike.

John Quincy Adams Dead. QUINCY, Mass., Aug. 15.—Hon. John Quincy Adams died at his home at Mount Wollaston.

Mercher Dying. MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—Ex-Premier is very low and is not expected to live until morning.

ELUCIDATED BY HOLDEN.

Why the Populist Party is Not a Party of Reform. EMPORIA, Kan., Aug. 15.—E. J. Holden, formerly president of the Citizens' alliance, and author of several works on the financial question, has a new work in progress here, advance sheets of which were seen by an Associated Press reporter.

Bad State of Affairs Warns. He claims that the non-partisan Farmers' Alliance movement was betrayed at the Cincinnati convention into a partisan clique of hunters after office, and this, in spite of the protests of Polk, Powderly, Beaumont and other true reformers.

A publishing company has been organized here to advocate the new movement, and a new weekly paper is to be issued shortly which is to be the official organ.

KAFFIRS IN REVOLT.

Slaughtering Settlers and Burning Homesteads in South Africa. CAPETOWN, Aug. 15.—The Kaffirs in North Transvaal are in open revolt.

They have blocked the road from Murchison, have burned homesteads and captured cattle. The Kaffirs are now besieging the headquarters of the resident officials and the government buildings at Agatha. Troops have been hastily dispatched to the scene.

WARNING TO JAPAN.

Powers Will Not Allow an Attack on Peking. LONDON, Aug. 15.—The correspondent of The Daily News at Vienna states that Great Britain, France and Russia have agreed jointly to interfere in case the Japanese attempt to attack Peking.

Cozey Will Be There.

CLINTON, Ind., Aug. 15.—The Populists of the Eighth congressional district are preparing for a great demonstration at the Cayuga fair grounds next Saturday. General J. S. Cozey will be present, and Mart Rankin, the Populist candidate for congress, and other prominent orators.

Fire Chiefs in Session.

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—Representative fire engineers from all parts of the United States assembled here in annual convention, with James Foley, chief of the Milwaukee fire department, presiding. The convention will be in session for the balance of the week, and after adjournment many of the delegates will take a trip through Canada.

Another Pine Suit.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 15.—Attorney General Childs has begun suit against Albert H. Powers and Anthony J. Dwyer of this city. The complaint simply brings suit for $40,000 for 5,000,000 feet of pine logs cut upon government land in Itasca county which was valued at $8 a thousand.

Elevator Burned.

STEWARTVILLE, Minn., Aug. 15.—The Lambert elevator at Simpson burned at 6 p. m. consuming the coal house, one box car and 3,000 bushels of grain. The fire is supposed to have been incendiary.

She Leaves Millions.

Seven Buildings Burned.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 15.—Works No. 1 of the United Salt company, on the shore of the lake at the foot of East Madison avenue was completely destroyed by fire, seven large wooden buildings being consumed. The loss is $150,000 and the insurance is $120,000. The works will be rebuilt within 30 days.

Accepted the Concessions.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The members of the board of trade, by a vote, decided to accept the concessions offered by the elevator men in settlement of the difficulty existing between them and the general membership.

Dragged to Death.

WILLMAR, Minn., Aug. 10.—Martin Bredson, a farmer living some three miles east of here, was kicked and dragged to death by a horse. In leading the horse he tied the halter to his arm. The animal shied, jerked Bredson over and then galloped with him over the fields and through two barbed wire fences. Death ensued before medical aid could be had.

Packing Houses Running.

OMAHA, Aug. 15.—All the packing houses are running almost their full capacity and many men were turned away who applied for work. The packers say that a great many of their old men showed up for work and those who were needed were taken back and the others were paid off and told they would be sent for if wanted.

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

Four Workmen Instantly Killed in a Wyoming Quarry. SALT LAKE, Aug. 15.—A Tribune special from Cheyenne, Wyo., says: A most frightful accident, resulting in the death of four men and the serious injury of four others, occurred at the McShane camp, in Granite canon, on Tongue river.

A blast of 800 pounds of giant powder was put in and after the smoke had cleared away a number of workmen were engaged in removing the rock and dirt that had been loosened by the explosion. Without warning a huge pile of rock from the overhanging cliff

RAILBOAT CAPTURED.

A Report That a Large Excursion Party Was Wrecked. WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 15.—A special to The Evening Journal from Bridgeville, Del., says:

As the boat that took an excursion party from Seaford to Dels Island camping meeting was starting on the return trip Sunday afternoon, news was received that a sail boat had been capsized in the bay, owing to bad management, and all its occupants, 23 in number, drowned. The boat left before the report could be verified.

Early Grain Shipments.

DULUTH, Aug. 15.—The first car of new wheat, which came in Saturday from near Fargo, was 10 days ahead of last year's first car, and earlier than any previous season. Though the crop is very spotted grain men here believe that 150,000,000 bushels is not out of the way for the yield of the three states, and they expect Duluth to handle a third of it.

Indian Teachers' Institute.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 15.—The first session of the Indian school teachers' institute opened at the capitol at 2 p. m., with a very fair attendance, though it is expected that the number present will be largely increased. An address of welcome was made by M. J. Costello and brief responses were made by members of the institute.

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

The French board of pardons refuses to mitigate Santo's sentence. The National Colored Democratic league is in session at Indianapolis.

Ex-President Harrison is quoted as saying he is out of the presidential race. The Omaha has started to rebuild its roundhouse at Minneapolis, employing an extra large force of workmen.

Police Justice Quigley of Brooklyn, fined a carriage driver $50 for deliberately running down a bicyclist.
