PROHIBITIONS!

Read what HUGH HARRISON, Your Candidate for Governor in 1898, Says.

To the Editor of The Journal.

Your editorial of this evening, "Some Plain Talk," impels me to publicly declare myself upon the issue of the day, if, perchance, you may value my opinion as having the slightest weight with some voter who may be hesitating as to his duty at this most critical time.

Though not an active worker in the cause of prohibition since the campaign of 1888, my views on the subject have undergone no change and I have regularly voted the "straight prohibition ticket." On the principle that each individual is bound to seek not what is merely good but what is best, I had about decided to vote for Mr. Levering when I heard Mr. Bryan at the Exposition. That speech, a more careful reading of the platform on which he stands, and a glance at some of the papers urging his candidacy, convince me that I am bound by both the good and the best, by good politics and the best ethics, to vote for that which transcends all other principles and without which all other reforms are impossible—our country, a government founded on the honor and intelligence of the people.

Mr. Bryan may personally be a most amiable gentleman, but in their lust for office he and his supporters have pursued such methods as appeal to the worst elements in the community. He has doubtless many well-meaning followers, but with them are ranged all the forces of anarchy, sectionalism, class hatred, repudiation, discontent and envy. This fearful situation is no accident, his platform, his speeches, his managers, his news organs, are responsible for it. On the other side we find the industrious and self-reliant, and almost unanimously the intelligence of the country, lawyers, doctors, college professors, clergymen of all denominations, businessmen and manufacturers, and, the greatest factor of all, nearly the entire secular and religious press.

Never was the duty of the voter so clear and simple. The nation's peace, honor and prosperity demand the election of Mr. McKinley.

—HUGH HARRISON.

Minneapolis, Oct. 22.

Our County Candidates.

Only a few more days remain for the voters of Nobles county to choose the various candidates for county and legislative honors. The republicans present the only complete ticket nominated by any one party, that were nominated without any political chicanery juggling or jobbery on the part of any person. The choice of each candidate for their respective offices were made because of their fitness to honestly and conscientiously discharge the duties of the office and not because of any fancied strength they might possess to draw votes from any faction of any other party. How with the other ticket before you? It is the result of a whole days work of the bosses of the so-called Democrats and Populists—juggled with candidates to determine who would get the big end of the ticket, and then, the ticket was not completed but was left to the county committee to fill vacancies.

Hon. Daniel Shell, Ole O. Holmen and A. S. Dyer, for representatives, are three of a kind that are hard to beat. Mr. Shell has served two terms to the satisfaction of his constituents. This service qualifies him for more effective work in the next session. His favorable mention as next speaker in the assembly is a testimonial of his popularity and fitness for the office. He is a man with an army of faithful friends who will stand by him at the polls next week and in so doing will make no mistake as no faults have been found with his past service.

Mr. Holmen has also served this district faithfully for two terms, without complaints of any description. He and Mr. Dyer are spoken of as gentlemen having the highest esteem of their respective counties and thoroughly conversant with the needs of the people. These three candidates should be elected by a good majority. Indications point to this result from other counties so let Nobles county do her share towards their election.

E. A. Tripp, for County Auditor, is well and favorably known throughout the county. He has served as County Commissioner in a way that is without fault, and in token of their esteem the party saw fit to honor him with this office. The office of auditor is one of the most important, in fact the most important in the county, and care should be taken in selecting a man for this office. Mr. Tripp is possessed of all the necessary qualifications to properly conduct the affairs of this office and is entitled to your support.

J. P. Peterson, for County Treasurer, has served the county well and without a complaint. He has always been a painstaking official and there is probably no man in the county more popular than Mr. Peterson. Of his election there is no doubt, but he is worthy of your earnest support, which is the highest compliment that can be paid any man.

Ren. McCartney, for Sheriff, is considered to have the strongest opponent of any man on the ticket and there is not a man in the county possessed of any better qualifications than Ren. McCartney against such opposition. He is a young man with all the ambition and energy of life required to successfully fill the office. He is possessed with good judgment where quick action is required, and should there be any work to locate and overtake criminals, Ren. McCartney is the man that can ferret them out. He makes friends with every one he comes in contact with and can be depended on in that capacity and will likewise make a faithful and judicious officer. He is worthy of every vote printed (5600) and should be compelled to perform his official duty to your discomfort it will be in a courteous manner and you will never have a pain of regret for casting your vote for him.

A. G. Lindgren, for Register of Deeds, is a very popular man all over the county. He has served the county well in the capacity of commissioner, at all times looking after its affairs as he would his own which have been successfully conducted. This office is an important one and requires a competent and painstaking officer, as any errors would cause confusion with no end of litigation to straighten matters out. Mr. Lindgren's past record is sufficient recommendation that he is the right man to support for this office and is worthy of your X.

C. M. Cory, for Judge of Probate, was an excellent selection. He has held the office for one term, winning the esteem of all parties with whom he came in contact. Legal ability and great care must be exercised in this office as its duties pertain chiefly to the interests of widows, and the settlement of estates and interests that require careful looking after at all times that justice be done all parties interested. The fidelity he has displayed in the trust imposed upon him entitles him to a further endorsement at your hands and you can do no better than to retain him in office as probate judge for the coming two years.

C. M. Crandall, for County Attorney, was another selection of one of those men full of energy and ability. He is possessed of a good legal mind, excellent judgment in all business matters and is eminently qualified for the position for which he aspires. In the election of Mr. Crandall the people will have an attorney who will devote his best abilities to the transaction of the duties of that important office without neglect, fear or favor. It is quite essential that a county attorney be a resident of the county seat where his services are most frequently required. By electing Mr. Crandall the office will be filled with the desired holder. Place an X opposite his name.

M. S. Smith, for County Surveyor, requires no recommendation from any one. He is fully qualified and ably performed the duties of the office.

John Ireland, for Superintendent of Schools, has a very strong opponent. By his own exertions he has secured a good education and has been a successful teacher. In voting for Mr. Ireland you will be voting for a man that will be a credit to the county office as he possesses the essential qualifications.

H. M. Palm, G. A. R. Block and F. D. Lindquist are men in their vocations. They have rendered the county the best possible service every way.

No better men could be selected for this office. Give them your vote and the county affairs will be judiciously conducted.

A ticket has never been placed before the people with the names of candidates that are more intelligent or respected citizens. Not a word can be truthfully spoken against them of either a public or private nature. These candidates were the unanimous call of the convention of the people and no scheming was resorted to in securing the nomination of a single candidate. They are all conservative republicans, patriotic men, desirous of promoting the interests and welfare of their neighbor and the whole country at large. Give them your solid vote and the affairs of the county will be safely guarded until their successors are elected. Place an X opposite the name of each candidate.

Growing Children

One-third of all the children die before they are five years old. Most of them die of some wasting disease. They grow very slowly; keep thin in flesh; are fretful; food does not do them much good. You can't say they have any disease, yet they never prosper. A slight cold, or some stomach and bowel trouble takes them away easily.

SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites is just the remedy for growing children. It makes hard flesh; sound flesh; not soft, flabby fat. It makes strong bones, healthy nerves. It changes poor children to children rich in prosperity.

Book about it free for the taking. (37) No substitute for Scott's Emulsion will do for the children what we know Scott's Emulsion will do. Get the genuine. For sale by all druggists at 50c. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

County Commissioners Meet.

The Board of County Commissioners met pursuant to adjournment, members present: H. M. Palm, A. G. Lindgren, B. W. Pope and R. O'Hearn. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Petition of Fred Doeden et al for the location of a highway, commencing at the S. E. corner of section 36-102-40 and connecting with the public road running north and south through sections 26 and 35, 102-40, was considered, and action was deferred until the following day, when the Board arranged to view the proposed location.

Petition of C. DeGus to be set off with his lands, the e/2 sec, section 16, town 104, range 39, from school district number 4 to school district number 31, was ordered for hearing on Nov. 9, 1896, at one o'clock p. m.
