Street Commissioner, B. F. Thurber, 200

Against License, 220

The trustees receiving the largest number of votes are counted as elected.

While this may be the rule, yet a voter usually compares man with man, and would not think of scratching the third candidate on one ticket and voting for the first candidate on the other ticket instead.

The election was very quiet and orderly, and no challenged votes.

While there was one less vote cast this year compared with last, we have more voters, and a large number who did not vote can be counted.

A large proportion of them are no license votes too.

The heads of both tickets were badly scratched, voters changing candidates, but Pannell won out.

Considering there being as temperance work done this year the number of votes cast against license is very encouraging, and had they got all of their votes in, the result might have been changed, but the majority would have been small, however they have made a gain in electing two members on the council and a treasurer.

The W. R. C.

Will hold their next tea at G. A. R. hall, at 6 o'clock on Friday March 30. All are invited. Supper 10c. Mrs. R. H. Belknap Sec.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to extend our most sincere thanks to the Order Humility for their liberal donation to our Army. Capt. Parkhouse and wife.

Jake Stoven has his new barn nearly completed. He will begin work on his residence as soon as spring opens up. The location is a good one and will be a favorable addition to Rushmore.

Al Dougherty, who purchased the James property will re-model the house somewhat before moving in.

H. C. Constable is making many needed repairs on the old Hollis' house, changing and replastering it throughout.

J. H. James, who is buying grain for Douglas in Worthington, spent Sunday in Rushmore. Miss Mollie Prideox of Adrian visited over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. J. H. James.

Wood and Bryden received a car load of buggies Monday. This looks as though some one intended to ride in a more up to date vehicle than he has heretofore been accustomed to.

Fraak Kerr now devotes his entire time in the shoe and harness store with E. S. Whippy. He has rented the Geo. Smith property and will move to town as soon as the house is vacated.

Geo. Smith expects to have his house at Reading completed in about two weeks when he will move his family to that place.

The vote to see whether Rushmore will incorporate will occur one week from Tuesday. The announcement having been posted thirty days. A few are opposed but there is very little doubt but that the majority are in favor of incorporation.

J. H. Bryden left Monday night to attend the State Prohibition convention to be held at Minneapolis. J. H. has shaken the old Republican party which he has stood by for many years and is now a staunch Prohibitionist, and departed with a firm resolve to get the woman's suffrage plank more thoroughly planted in the platform which he represents. Mr. Bedford, the second delegate from the president.

Invite Them.

W. W. Loveless, county superintendent of Sunday Schools, has received a letter from the State Secretary, Mrs. Holbert, saying that an invitation from Worthington would be considered, if extended, for holding the State Association meeting here in 1901.

The number of delegates usually in attendance at these conventions, are not quite so large as the C. E., but they represent more territory. A meeting occurs about the middle of next month when the location for 1901 convention will be determined. Last fall an invitation was extended to the C. E. and if we could take care of them there is no reason why we cannot take care of this association.

There is considerable time yet it would be well to be talking and considering the matter. They will probably be invited by many other towns and they cannot all win. While one was lost yet this one might be secured, and it is believed by all that such a convention would be a benefit to the town, at least it is worth working for. If any great benefit comes to a town it must be brought in.

Congregational Church. The pastor will preach on "Christ's Method for Practical Reformers." The evening service will be omitted.

A New Firm.

Hurlbert Bros. sold their cigar establishment Wednesday to R. V. O. Bartlett, of Adria.

We very much regret to see the boys go out of business here and hope they will decide to re-engage in some business, or at least remain in town. They have always enjoyed a good patronage which was brought to them by the excellent grade of goods made.

Mr. Bartlett is not a stranger to us but nevertheless will be welcomed and his family also. The reputation of Hurlbert Bros. cigars is extensive and is being extended every day.

Mr. Bartlett expects to move here about the first of next month. For his manufacturing rooms he will occupy those used by Hurlbert Bros., but they will be entirely rearranged and set up. He will begin operations from this point just as soon as possible, but it will take about a month to get ready.

Rushmore, did not go. Said he didn't see what trouble the gentleman wanted to get him into by getting him appointed to go as a delegate to said convention.

The flocks of geese and ducks which came north last week made a great mistake as several flocks were seen winding their way southward again, when the northern blasts struck them, a few days after arriving.

Several farmers in this locality were seeding during the pleasant weather. They state the ground was in excellent condition, better perhaps than it will be later when spring rains begin, and as long as the grain does not sprout no seed or time will be lost.

Several copies of the Topeka Daily Capital have come to Rushmore during the week. The paper taken a stand for itself apparently carrying out the plan Mr. Sheldon lays out in his book. It does not deal with exciting subjects, and will therefore not take the eyes of some, but as Mr. Sheldon says: "It may not be what the newspaper reader wants, but what he ought to have. Whether it will be a success in the future, time will tell, but for the present fame, it is unequalled in the newspaper world for each daily devotes not only its cartoons, but several columns each issue, commenting on the minister and his special edition. Having the largest daily circulation of any paper in the world, it will undoubtedly set many people to thinking, and deep thought is what makes material changes, not only in the mind and body but also in the machinery of the world.

How many daileys in Minnesota would devote two columns of a Sunday edition explaining the progress of a poker game and an eighty thousand dollar lack pot? We can look for wheat to rise to $1 per bushel.

Friday night was cold and disagreeable, however fifty-three people found their way to the school house where one of the most interesting programs of the winter was carried out. Considerable business was brought before the society, bills were audited, and election of officers took place. An entire new set of officers being elected: Pres. W. S. Still; V. P., Mrs. Bronk; Sec. Chas. Boddy; Treas., Mable Bedford; Sergeant-at-Arms, Claud Barron; Program Com., S. F. Wood and Burr Ludlow. On account of the revival meetings to be held the society adjourned to meet at the call of

The Close of the Union Meetings and Dr. Wills Farewell.

The Union Meetings at the Presbyterian church culminated Sunday evening in the largest gathering and most impressive service of the entire series. Dr. Wills delivered a strong sermon on the question, "What shall I do with Jesus." A large number of persons all over the great congregation rose to express their desire to become Christians, while ten or a dozen took their stand before the pulpit in token of their allegiance to Christ. On Monday night at the farewell service Dr. Wills gave his thanks to the ushers, the choir, and other workers for their faithful efforts. The local pastors in succession spoke of their appreciation of Dr. Wills, and his work and its results in increased co-operation among the churches, the blessings of professed Christians and the bringing of many into the Kingdom of God.

High School Notes.

Mariam Price returned Wednesday after several day's sickness.

The Olympic Society held a meeting recently to elect a president on account of the resignation of Frank Bryden, who was account of the resignation of Frank Bryden who was elected to that office at the beginning of the term.

John Mosher was elected to take his place.

Ella Wood was taken into the society at this meeting.

Dr. Wills gave an interesting address Wednesday on some of his experiences in life.

Harris Darling was the only outsider who heard the lecture.

The high school received a beautiful picture for the best attendance for last month.

The high school received an invitation last week from Sibley to attend the athletic contest to be held there May 26. Rock Rapids, LeMars, Lake Park and Spirit Lake, all from Iowa, are also supposed to take part.

M. E. Church Notices.

The preaching services morning and evening at the M. E. church will be omitted next Sunday that we may attend the dedication services of the new Presbyterian church. Junior League and Senior League will take place as usual. Carl A. Anderson.

Elk.

Ed. Reins, of Pflugston, was seen in our midst one cool evening last week.

Lawrence Dobeiner, of Fulda, was in Elk, buying stock last week.

John Loomer, of Summit Lake, has moved on the Benedict farm of this place.

G. C. Fellows was re-elected town clerk again at our election. Mr. Fellows is an old hand at the business and well deserves the office.

Chas. Lass was re-elected chairman of the town board. He is also an old hand at the helm.

John Nelson was re-elected as a member of the board, this is his second term.

Gust Erickson was elected as the third member of the board. He is a new man on the board, but the voters may rest assured that Gust will do his duty in handling the town's affairs in an honest, upright way.

Gardner Estes was selected for the tenth term as treasurer. This is surely evidence enough that he is a good man.

Geo. J. Engel was elected for assessor. He is a new man at the listing helm, but we think Geo. will do his duty in an honorable way.

Mr. and Mrs. Heuerman entertained a large number of friends last Sunday.

Geo. Butcher, of Worthington was seen in our vicinity several days last week visiting relatives.

Dr. McCrea, of Fulda, was in Elk last Saturday on professional business.

Louis Ipson has been in Kansas looking for a place to locate. We have not heard his decision yet.

Bigelow Items.

As the north bound freight pulled out Saturday night some boys were playing around the depot and caught on the cars to have a short ride. Archie White, a son of L. A. White, fell and had his arm cut off between the hand and elbow. Parents should not allow their boys to play around the depot as it is a dangerous place. The people of Bigelow extend their sympathy to the bereaved family. The boy is resting nicely at this writing.

There has been a dressmaker and milliner shop started in the old Bank building by parties from Ocheyedan. Success to them.

J. A. Fialka, was on the sick list the last part of last week, but is be about again.

The councilmen held a meeting at the lumber office Saturday night.

Just arrived a car load of building rock at the Fialka, Lampert Lumber company's yard, parties wish rock should see them.

Some of Bigelow's young people gave Mr. and Mrs. Klessig and family a surprise party last Thursday evening. All report a splendid time.

Miss Maud Glazer, who has been working for Mrs. A. J. Strommer, left for Sheldon Sunhay, where she intends to spend a few weeks of rest.

Rushmore.

Spring? not yet.

Wind? plenty.

W. Barran and Lena, are around again after being confined for two weeks with the mumps.

Corn seems to be a scarcity in these parts.

The free state traveling library here is a great success, from thirty to forty of the books being out all the time. Rushmore did well in getting one of these, as only fifty were put out in the entire state.

Those farmers who still have hay to sell are lucky, as the article is in great demand and the price well up.

Rev. Mr. Feather preached at Wilmont last Sunday.

Beginning with Tuesday revival meetings will be held in Rushmore, continuing two weeks.

Thursday night C. J. Fox departed for Fairbault with his son Charlie, where the latter will receive treatment in the school at that place.

It was rumored last fall that the Rock Island road was to run a branch through or near Rushmore early this spring. As yet we have heard nothing of it.

Geo. Muner, who has been confined to his room the greater part of the winter is in a very critical condition.

Mrs. J. H. James entertained about twelve of Rushmore's young people last Saturday night in honor of her sister, Miss Mollie Prideox.
