

Vant Brunt Drills Work where Others Fail :-

We have just received our spring stock of Sur-reys, Road Wagons and Buggies.

J. D. & W. I. HUMISTON.

Wheat'O

The Popular Breakfast Cereal!

HAVE YOU TRIED IT?

Newton S. C. Milling Co.,
Newton, Iowa.

Gentlemen: Our experience in the sales of your Wheat'O Breakfast Food has been very satisfactory. The demonstration given by you at our store proved beyond any doubt that you have one of the best breakfast cereals on the market. No merchant having a cereal trade can make a mistake in having this cereal on their shelves.

Yours Truly,

H. PETER LEWIS MERCANTILE COMPANY.

The following are among the leading firms who carry a full supply of Wheat'O and recommend it to be the most satisfactory breakfast food that can be used:

H. E. Torrance & Bro., General Merchandise..... Worthington
Swedish Mercantile Co., Dry Goods, Groceries..... Worthington
Harry B. Lewis, Staple and Fancy Groceries..... Worthington
C. L. Peterson, Dry Goods, Notions, Groceries..... Worthington
H. Peter Lewis Mercantile Co., "The Big Store"..... Worthington
Chas. King, General Merchandise..... Rushmore, Minn.
S. B. Bedford & Co., General Merchandise..... Worthington
J. G. Bronk, General Merchandise..... Rushmore, Minn.
A. M. Becker, General Merchandise..... Adrian, Minn.
P. Geyerman and Sons Co., General Merchandise..... Brewster, Minn.

The Secret of the Success of Wheat'O

Is the delicate and natural nutty flavor which all relish. It is a health food and nerve builder.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. M. Walker returned Tuesday from a trip to Sheldun.

Dr. C. B. Adams, of Estherville was in Worthington Tuesday.

Thos. Oppen has secured a farm near Hardwick, South Dakota.

B. G. LaGrange left Tuesday for a real estate trip in Clay county.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Lyon, Sunday, April 1st, a son.

O. H. Roch came out to his Round Lake farm from Chicago Tuesday.

Miss Nellie and Ritta Kannal have recently purchased a handsome new piano.

Rev. D. C. Holmes went to Bigelow Tuesday. He expects to return to Chicago Friday.

U. F. Hansberger has supplied the Young Men's Club, in the Patterson block with an organ.

Mrs. E. E. Ventenier's father and mother returned to their home at Fairmont, Tuesday.

Information is given us that O. K. Oppen's entire family is down with the mumps, at Owatonna.

B. Miller, claim agent of the Burlington was in town Tuesday looking after the company's interest.

Miss Josie Olson, who has been visiting Miss Ida Saxon for three or four weeks returned to her home at Brewster Monday.

FOR SALE!

Harness from $3.00, for a single harness up to $50.00 for a double harness.

—0000—

I have the largest stock of harness ever made in Worthington!

Come in and see!

REPAIRING neatly and promptly done.
PURE NEATSFOOT OIL is the best for leather.
KILBOURN'S HARNESS DRESSING is for buggy harness.

HARRY HUMISTON.

Swedish - Mercantile - Co.

"Keeps the Pot Boiling" in the way of :: :: ::

Low Prices and Good Goods

It is surely an advantage to know that everything shown you is the newest and best, and that the PRICE IS ALWAYS RIGHT!

ARE

YOU
KEEPING POSTED

GUS. SWANBERG, M'GR.

For asparagus roots and strawberry plants go to L. H. Beckly. tf

Mrs. L. H. Beckly and daughter went to Sheldon Monday for a visit.

A boy or girl desiring to learn to set type will find a good opportunity by enquiring at this office.

J. A. Darling returned Monday night from Vernon Center where he has been spending the winter.

Miss Julia Fondness, of Heron Lake is visiting her cousins, Carl Oppen and family here this week.

A. J. Kannal and crew went to Brewster Tuesday to complete the painting of the large hardware store there.

For deep well work call on or address Chas. Glatly Worthington, Minn.

Dr. Andrews, of Mankato, was in town Sunday.

J. P. Peterson, county treasurer, is very sick with pneumonia.

Mr. Fell, of Round Lake, spent Sunday with W. A. Mosher. Mr. Fell says there is a large amount of building progress for that village this year.

WANTED—Honest man or woman to travel for large house; salary $65 monthly and expenses, with increase; Position permanent; inclose self addressed stamped envelope. MANAGER, 330, Catton bldg., Chicago. 20-16

Miss Wise, who is teaching at Fulda is spending her vacation at the home of Conductor Jones.

It is reported that inflammatory rheumatism has now affected the left arm of Mrs. Hovey and that she is in a very bad condition.

Geo. Kistner and family, of Waterloo, Iowa, passed through here Tuesday on their way to Brewster to take up a permanent residence there.

A. J. Hunt, formerly editor of the Signal was in town Tuesday. His lease having expired, the proprietor, C. M. Davis has assumed the editorship.

Rape Clover and Millet seed for sale at J. D. & W. I. Humiston.

A dance was held at the Brazel residence Monday night. Some uninvited guests were informed that their room was more acceptable than their company.

Thos. Egan a sub-contractor on the Burlington came in here Monday night with three men on his way to Wilmont to build camps for the crews that are expected here Monday. The construction on the extension will be commenced just as soon as possible.

W. J. Long, who has been appointed roadmaster of the Sioux Falls lines in place of H. Grahn, having resigned. Mr. Long will take hold of the work Friday April 6. He was here Tuesday. Mr. Grahn is undecided as to what he will do just at present.

Buchan is making beautiful stamp photos.

Rev. Schmidt went to Lakeside Monday.

Oliver & Madison drove to Ewington Sunday.

Mrs. Collins and sister went to Estherville Monday.

Mrs. Albert Forstenberg is very sick with malarial fever.

J. H. James contemplates building a new house on the property he recently purchased.

R. A. Elzay is expected here the first of this week with several cars of his grading outfit.

Rev. C. F. Bronson has rented the new house of Sam Allen that is now being constructed.

Hon. W. H. Gray, of Luverne passed through here Monday on his way home from California.

Fred Bloom and wife, of Des Moines, Ia., arrived Saturday for a visit with his brother Elije and Al.

Persons who made pledges at the Presbyterian church can pay them to Hart Douglass in his office over post-office.

Julius Moll left Monday afternoon to accept a position in a tailor shop at Paulina, Ia. He may move there later.

Mrs. Emma Sibley returned Monday from Sioux City. She reports having a very pleasant visit while there.

Mr. Robinson and wife and Mrs. Ewing, of Winnebago City, cousins of W. C. Barton, attended his funeral at Ewington Sunday.

Miss Sophia Sterling is now employed in H. E. Torrance & Bro.'s Big Store, Mrs. Aucutt having severed her connection with the firm.

A rail in the side track along the Swedish Mercantile Co.'s elevator turned Monday morning and let an engine off the track into the mud.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church conducted the services at that church Sunday evening. Mrs. L. M. Bliss presiding. The program was interesting and many compliments were given the leader, Mrs. Bliss, for the admirable manner she conducted the meeting. The collection amounted to $1.82.

O. C. Northrup, of Round Lake was in town Saturday.

W. P. Jenkins went to St. Paul the latter part of the week.

J. J. Bingham has been secured as sexton for the Presbyterian church. John will make a good one.

W. G. Trux, of Mankato, representing the Union Mutual Life Insurance company was in town Saturday.

J. H. James has purchased the Covey property on 3rd ave., adjacent to G. Morrison.

J. D. & W. I. Humiston unloaded a car of plows and part of a car of cultivators Friday.

S. Bates, of Dewald, township expects to leave in about ten days for Washington to make his future home.

Wm. McLean was on the streets Saturday the first time for about two weeks, being laid up with some trouble of the head.

Mrs. G. W. Wheeler, mother of J. R. Wheeler, returned to her home at Fringhar, Friday after a visit here with relatives.

Douglass and Albion have unloaded another car of western horses here. They are said to be better than those heretofore shipped in.

Mrs. Underwood, of Egan, S. D., and Mrs. Ewing, of Richland Center, Wis., came here Saturday to attend the funeral of their brother, W. C. Barton.

Will Reese, formerly an operator here and now with the Omaha Co. at LeSueur, and a nephew of James Walker, came down Saturday to attend the funeral of W. C. Barton.

Joe. Lowe was before Squire Hobson Monday morning for some little difference that occurred at a recent meeting of the O. of H. charged with disorderly conduct. He pleaded guilty and was fined $5, and costs, amounting to $7.45.

John Sahlborn went to Minneapolis Saturday to his child that is in the hospital there. He reports the child is getting better which the family's many friends will be glad to hear.

Fred Wall went to Heron Lake Friday forenoon to meet his wife, returning on the afternoon train. They will live in the house near Albion & Boberg's lumber yard, vacated by R. H. Belknap.

A party was tendered James Gibson at the home of H. M. Palm Friday by the C. E. choir for his faithful services. He was presented with an elegant tie and a fine scarf-pin. Refreshments were served and a pleasurable time enjoyed.

Mrs. E. W. Coughran and daughter returned home Friday afternoon. In addition to a pleasure trip they came over to have some dental work done by Dr. J. R. Conway. This speaks well for the doctor when people come here from a town like Sioux Falls for dentistry.

The Luverne Bowling team got away with the Worthington team in the contest Friday. Messrs. Rose, Ramage, Bittner, Maxwell and Mackay composed the Worthington team. In the evening the Luverne people placed two fresh men in the game which gave them an advantage. Five games were played, Luverne winning by forty pins.

Mrs. Wilson Aull and son Wilson left Monday morning for Minneapolis.

The week of self denial with the Salvation Army closed last Sunday, over $60 was raised for missionary purposes.

M. J. Barber has purchased the Jos. Lowe property adjoining W. Agard's new residence. Mr. Lowe will move his house out onto his farm. It is expected that Mr. Barber will erect a residence there.

U. F. Hansberger sold John Hardin a handsome new piano last week.

Carl Palm went to Minneapolis Saturday night to purchase a car load of furniture.

M. E. Kannal of Iowa, brother of A. J. arrived here Saturday to assist his brother in the painting and paper-hanging line.

Dr. P. T. Geyerman who has been in a hospital in St. Paul has located in Worthington going into partnership with Dr. Dolan. Mr. Geyerman is well and favorably known in this vicinity and with his ability will undoubtedly have deserved success.

Landlord Doolittle, of the Worthington Hotel has placed a large sphenonium in the office. The instrument stands about six feet high with corresponding proportions. The music rendered is very entertaining. The popular landlord never loses an opportunity to entertain his guests.

Officer Bryan was among those fortunate in receiving a prize at the Bosco entertainment Saturday night. He drew a package of wheat-o and left it at the Western House until he could take it home. While it was there the boys opened the package pouring out the contents, filled it with bran and salt. The package was taken home and the wheat-o prepared, but Matt does not take it to very well.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Made from pure
cream of tartar.

Safeguards the food
against alum.

Alum baking powders are the greatest menaces to health of the present day.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

If you want to buy farm or town property, I have good bargains all the time. M. E. LAWTON. tf

Ray Humiston went to Ellsworth Monday.

Arthur Palm, of St. James, spent Sunday here.

W. E. Oliver and E. A. Tripp made a trip to Round Lake Monday.

Mrs. Haines, of Rock Rapids, is a guest of Mrs. A. N. Wetherell.

Misses Alma Anderson and Ida Clarke returned Saturday night from Adrian.

W. B. Hibbard has been informed that his mother's condition is improving.

Miss May Johnson, of Sibley, came up Sunday to attend the wedding of her brother Chas. Johnson.

The M. W. A., lodge at Slayton took into the order thirty-six members last Thursday evening.

A lamp becoming inflamed on the outside created a little excitement in Eastman residence Sunday night.

For Sale—A 34x34 Eastman film kodak, 24 exposure film. In good condition. Inquire at this office. dwlf

Mrs. C. C. Booth returned from the hospital at St. Peter Saturday, having fully recovered from her affliction.

Mrs. Nellie Wilson and children, of Worthington, visiting her parents, O. W. Fish and family this week.—Fulda.

For sale—A 16-horse power engine of the Advance make. Anyone wishing to buy or trade other property, call on or address A. James, Worthington, Minn. 33tf

Olaf Lauberg, of Bigelow, has rented his farm in order that he will be able to investigate investment opportunities.

J. M. Havinga left with his family Saturday for Greteaga, Iowa.

Twenty-one members were added to the Presbyterian church Sunday. Nineteen on profession of faith and two by letter.

It is reported that Mrs. N. A. Call now at St. Peter, has nearly regained her former mental condition. The many friends of the family will hope that the report is true.

Branigan's large store is being handsomely papered and painted which makes it much, pleasanter and permits the showing of his large stock of goods to better advantage.

Married—Charles Johnson and Effie Suttle, Sunday April 1st, Rev. Carl A. Anderson officiating. The ceremony took place at the Okabena house witnessed by only a few friends and relatives. The couple went to Allendorf on a visit after which they will return here and make their home in Worthington.

John Nelson is on the sick list.

G. W. Brant is reported very sick with pleurisy.

G. W. Van Laven is visiting in Estherville, going there Thursday.

The 11 year old boy of Chris Kuntz had another sick spell, but is better now.

Palm Bros., are making a cutting table 5x9 for Mrs. Jones. This is a table of an unusual size.

Dan Shell and daughter Majorie went to Sioux City Friday afternoon.

T. Gillett went to St. James Friday to work a few days in Dispatchers office.

Roadmaster Robinson has rented the Ludlow house occupied by F. R. Durfee.

"Easter Millinery Opening"

Wednesday, Thursday and Friday,
April 4-5-6.

Finest Line of Pattern Hats ever Exhibited in Worthington....

Our trimming department is in charge of MISS FAHY who gives special attention to all orders.

Yourselves and friends are cordially invited.

MRS. ETTA WEBB

Gerald Sharp has received from Luverne one of the famous O. I. C. brood sows.

Miss Annabel Kendlen returned to Sheldon Thursday after a week's visit here with parents.

There is a rumor afloat that Pipestone will soon be able to count a wholesale grocery house among her business institutions. — Pipestone Star.

Messrs. Cunningham and Ned Jones and Misses Penney and Watson went to Sioux City Thursday night to see one of Shakespeare plays, "A Winter's Tale," played there.

James Ramage and James Mackay and wives, Fred Rose, Fred Bittner and Willis Maxwell went to Luverne Friday morning to take part in the Bowling contest there.

W. B. Hibbard returned home Thursday, Mrs. Hibbard remaining for a week or so. It is his mother that was sick instead of father. She was not much better when he left, being affected with heart trouble.

The young peoples' aid society of the Evangelical church met at Rev. Schmidt's Thursday evening, and after the close of the meeting they were given a rousing sleighride by Frank Schmidt and Henry Eriech.

It was reported that Mrs. Lawrence, who lives a few miles in the country, horses were affected with some disease. Veterinary J. N. Gould was called and examined them and pronounced them all in a sound condition with no indications at all of any kind.

F. R. Patterson went to St. James Friday afternoon.

F. C. Turner went to Sioux City Thursday afternoon.

W. E. Madison's mother went to Sibley Friday afternoon on a visit.

Chas. Rogers, of Kansas, has been visiting J. W. Pepple during the past week.

Rena and Clifford Feathers, of Adrian, came over Thursday to visit their grand parents, R. Pradeaux.

Mrs. Lambert's funeral was held Friday afternoon at the Congregational church, Rev. Dickerman officiating.

Miss Stella Rowland who has been visiting two or three months in Adrian and vicinity stopped off here Friday for a visit with Miss Clara Pradeaux on her way home to Eau Claire, Wis.

Glen Hedberg returned home Friday from Adrian.

Ronan Bros., shipped a car of hog so Chicago Saturday.

Tonsorial artist Steadman, of Ellsworth, was in town Friday.

Henry James and wife went to Garden City Saturday for a visit.

E. A. Tripp was out on a fox hunt Friday capturing a fox and a jack rabbit.

Miss Alma Cale came home from Adrian, Friday night to spend Sunday at home.

Wilson Ager shipped one of his O. I. C. hogs to M. N. Hutton, Clarinda, Ia., this week.

Morland's Benzoin Lotion applied to the face and hands before going out in the cold effectively prevents frostbite or chapping.

Mrs. M. J. Barber is organizing a class of little girls to be known as the "Little Helpers." They will wear badges with the motto: "I will try." The class is composed of girls from different churches so far as this point is concerned. The object is Bible study, learning to sew and other work that will interest them Saturday afternoons when they have nothing else to do.

G. C. Fellows was in Friday and says he has moved into his new house which replaces the one recently destroyed by fire. He desires to extend to his friends and neighbors his sincere thanks for the kindly assistance rendered him in the re-building. He also desires to recommend Joe Joynson and A. P. Darling as house plasterers as they have all the ideas of an excellent artist and only require a little practice to become experts.

Mrs. A. N. Cheney,

Cordially invites the public to attend her

..Easter Opening..

at the Millinery Parlor formerly occupied by Mrs. O'Connor, commencing—

Thursday, April 5th, 1900.

and continuing through the week preceding Easter.

A. H. WHITE, CONTRACTOR & BUILDER

Having returned after two years' absence am now prepared to give figures on all kinds of carpentry and masonry work. If you have no plans can draw them.

WILL FURNISH MATERIALS IF DESIRED.

Call at residence, Clary Add., opposite C. J. Smallwood's residence.

Having secured the services of a corps of first-class masons am prepared to figure on all kinds of masonry.

Worthington, Minn.

INTERESTING FIGURES IN WALL PAPER.

Interesting to your pocket book as well as to the eye.

Over 75 combinations to select from.

R. L. MORLAND, Druggst,

WORTHINGTON.

SOMETHING NEW

5c-THE OKABENA CIGAR-5c

A Fine Medium
Smoke. ***

...Sold by All Dealers in Town...

WE ALSO MAKE THE

"Skipper" Cigar,

[Always the same, good and mild.]

THE OKABENA CIGAR COMPANY,

R. V. O. Bartlett, Mgr.

Worthington, Minn.

W. M. E. DEYOE Real Estate DEALER, Worthington, Minnesota.

you wish to sell your farm, buy or rent, call and see me

Office over Bank of Worthington

I HANDLE SOUTH DAKOTA LANDS

FOOD

prepared with

Calumet Baking Powder

is free from Rochelle Salts, Alum, or any injurious substance. The highest grade baking powder made, or sold at a

MODERATE
PRICE.

MAKES
HEALTHFUL
FOOD

BEST
BECAUSE PUREST

NON
SO
GOOD