

TUB TRUTHS.

A DROP of ink will color a whole glass of water. It is an inch of yeast which makes a pan of bread rise, and a single cake of soap containing unabsorbed alkali can ruin a hundred times its cost in laces and fine embroidery. After all, it is wise to take such risks with common soap? Of course you can get along without Ivory Soap. So can a wagon without axle grease—but it goes hard.

Mr. Green and his sister, who have been working for the Scott boys this past summer and fall, expect to leave about the last of the year. Their home in Worthington, and they expect to move back there they leave here. They were out to church last Sunday. On Wednesday the 12th, we had a wedding in a Ransom; a very quiet one, it is true, but as full of interest to those concerned as if some proud prince of the blood had led his fair lady to the altar. At the home of the bride's parents in this town, Thomas Thompson and Minnie Fremming joined their fortunes for life, and a host of friends are ready to congratulate them and wish them all possible good fortune. The young people are highly respected, are industrious and thrifty, and their success in life would seem to be assured. May good fortune ever attend them. Word came through Mrs. G. W. Ferrin of Sioux City that her mother of Springfield Missouri, is dangerously ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Wood is well known to many of our people and visited in this vicinity last summer. Mrs. Wood health has been failing and it is feared her present sickness may be very trying for her.

That Cough Hangs On You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce la grippe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body. SCOTT'S EMULSION will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system against further attacks. If you are run down or exhausted you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.
