Billiousness a condition characterized by a disturbance of the digestive organs. The stomach is debilitated, the liver torpid, the bowels constipated. There is a loathing of food, pains in the bowels, dizziness, coated tongue and vomiting, first of the undigested or partly digested food and then of bile. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets allay the disturbances of the stomach and creates a healthy appetite. They also tone up the liver to a healthy action and regulate the bowels. Try them and you are certain to be much pleased with the result. For sale by all druggists.

JOHN PALMER.

A Pioneer Citizen of Blackhawk Township is Laid to His Eternal Rest.

The obsequies over the remains of the late John Palmer occurred at the Brethren church in Hudson at 2:30 Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. L. Gittin, of Waterloo, who took for his text the twelfth verse of the eighth chapter of St. John and preached from it a brief but most profound sermon on God's gift of Christ to the world. Mr. Palmer's friends were everybody who knew him, and they turned out in such numbers to pay a last tribute to his memory by their presence at the funeral that the capacious church was entirely too small to accommodate them. Interment was in the local cemetery.

John Palmer died at 11:30 o'clock Friday night, May 10, 1901. He had been afflicted for the past two years or more with a cancerous affection on one hand, but it has only been the last few months that it has given him any trouble. Then he went to Chicago and later to Marshalltown and treated with specialists, but the only effect these doctorings seemed to have was to spread the diseases throughout his entire system. Since returning from Marshalltown, only a few weeks ago, he rapidly grew worse and his suffering became so intense that it was necessary to keep him under the influence of opiates a greater portion of the time.

Mr. Palmer, while still remaining on his farm, which lies four miles north of Hudson, had not actively worked it for several seasons. He had reuted it piecemeal to different parties, usually some of his neighbors, but this spring he commenced the erection of a new residence just across the lane from the old one. There it was the intention of he and his wife to reside in their old age, turning the old house and farm over to a tenant. But the hand of death altered the plans and cellar and foundation only will remain as a monument to the last ambition of the man.

Mr. Palmer was a native of England being born in Devonshire, June 14, 1831, being a son of John and Joanna Palmer. He was second of thirteen children. The eldest, William H. died in Mount Vernon township; Silas, Ella and Hattie are living in Chicago; Thomas died in New Zealand and Mary Ann, Elizabeth and James are living in England, Steven died in Chicago and three others are dead.

Mr. Palmer was reared a farmer, receiving a fair education in the English branches. To better his condition in life and to build for himself a home he came to America embarking at Plymouth in a sailing vessel for Quebec, and after seven weeks' voyage, landed May 29, 1853. On July 18 of the same year he was married to Louisa Jeffrey who came to America in the same vessel with her husband. After reaching America Mr. Palmer found employment as a farm hand at $12 a month. He remained in Canada three years, engaged in farm work, brick making and chopping cord wood, carefully saving his earnings with a view of getting a home in the United States. In 1856 the couple started for Iowa, taking a steamboat on Lake Ontario, there being no railroad there at that time, making the journey from Chicago with one horse and a spring wagon. Mr. Palmer reached Waterloo in May of the same year and bought a few lots in the new village and 80 acres of land outside of town. Trial came upon the young couple. Sickness rendered Mr. Palmer unable to work and in the spring of 1857, having spent most of his property, he went to Butler county and pre-empted 130 acres of land. That county was new. Neighbors were scarce and market so distant that life seemed intolerable. In 1862 he disposed of his land, realizing only 90 cents an acre, and returned to Blackhawk county, for two years running the old Worthington farm. In 1864 he bought 80 acres in section 14, which is a part of his present farm. After that his fortune changed and he became one of the most prosperous farmers in this section.

Mr. Palmer has been a life long republican, casting his first vote for Abraham Lincoln. He never sought official honor, but had been given positions of honor and trust by his fellow citizens. For many years he has been justice of the peace and a member of the school board. He has been on the board of directors for the Farmer's Mutual Insurance company of this county, and has held other offices. He and his wife were reared under the ministrations of the church of England (Episcopal) and were always in sympathy with the church of their youth. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer were the parents of eleven children, seven living and four dead. The living ones are John residing in Wright county; Silas, in Lake Park; Mrs. Libbie Mishler and Thomas A., of Worthington, Minn.; Samuel, of Chadron, Neb.; Ernest, of Osage; and Mrs. Hattie Kuehne, of Gladbrook. All were present at the funeral.

Mr. Palmer was a man of the strictest honesty and integrity. He was fond of his children and was possessed of a kindly and cheery nature. His absence will be keenly felt in the community.—The Hudson Record.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkley Hall, Springville, Ala. This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Married.

John Whalen and Minnie Mohr, Wednesday, May 22, Rev. Carl A. Anderson, of the M. E. church officiating.

The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's parents near Reading witnessed by a few friends and relatives. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. They will reside on the farm there. The Advance joins their many friends in extending congratulations.
