

The Golden Rule.

A SMART BOY will wear out his clothes much quicker than a dull one; it's a good sign--shows there's movement to him. You never know what will happen to a boy. Whatever it is, it generally happens to his clothes first. The result is, disaster to the clothes--boy all right. MORAL: When you buy boys clothes get the kind that things can happen to with the least ruin. Maybe there's trouble with the clothes, though not if you get them here. Ours will wear longer and better than most suits, even with hard usage, and they don't cost any more than the suits made of cotton, and sold as all wool. $4.00, $3.75 or $3.00 will buy a good suit for the boy and we will guarantee it to give perfect satisfaction.

W. R. S. ALUMNI

Persuant to call by the president a good per centage of the alumni met at Mrs. T. A. Palmer's last Sat. night and made the plans which are to set in motion this preparation for the swellest banquet the Association has yet given. The committees are all enthusiastic over the work laid out for them, the vigor with which they have already taken up their assignments shows that the High school graduates are among the foremost hustlers in the vicinity.

Committees are as follows--

Arrangement--G. Foster Moore, Roy Lewis, Sadie Lewis.

Program--Jennie Torrance, Prue Town, Grace Smith.

Music--Mrs. Palmer, Grace Smith, Sadie Lewis.

Reception--Lee Shell, Julia Hyland, Mrs. Carberry.

Picnic--Loren Clark, Manning Plotts, Roy Lewis, Geo. Hurd.

Invitation--Jennie Beckley, Arthur Rose, Carrie Allen, Russel Mobery.

Decorating--The class of 1901 with Miss Bliss as chairman. The banquet will be given by the ladies of the cemetery Aid Society in the A. O. U. W. Hall on June 7. The reception room and dining hall are to be beautifully decorated by the class of 1901 who will thus attest their well known artistic abilities and a new feature is to be added by the engagement of an orchestra to dis-course sweet strains during the progress of the festivities.

HORSE MEAT SOLD IN NEW YORK RESTAURANTS.

New York, April 24--Owing to the almost prohibitive price of meats, by reason of the beef trust, it is said on pretty good authority that horse meat is being sold at many of the small restaurants in this city. Equine roasts and 'steaks promise to be on the bill of fare there for some time to come as a natural substitute or the more expensive beef. As yet the substitution of the doubtful meat has been attempted only in the cheaper restaurants. It is asserted by one of the down town eating house proprietors that not one customer in ten or even more is able to detect the difference. "Commencing April 23 all roasts, steak, chops and cutlets will advance 5 cents until further notice." That sign is displayed today in many of the lower priced down town restaurant windows, the "further notice" idiom supposedly being when the meat trust takes off the screws. Anxious restaurant proprietors are looking for many protests from patrons for having to suddenly charged another nickle for each steak put on the iron.

THE GREAT DISMAL SWAMP.

Of Virginia is a breeding ground of Malaria germs. So is low, wet or marshy ground everywhere. These germs cause weakness, chills and fever, aches in the bones and muscles and may induce dangerous maladies. But Electric Bitters never fail to destroy them and cure malarial troubles. They will surely prevent typhoid. "We tried many remedies for Malaria and Stomach and Liver troubles," writes John Charleston, of Byesville, O., "but never found anything as good as Electric Bitters." Try them. Only 50c! Guarantee satisfaction.

BURNED OUT FOUR TIMES.

The following from a Litchfield paper regarding the misfortune of Mr. Carey, father of Mrs. W. H. Harrington of this place.

P. Carry, one of Litchfield's former merchants but for several years retired from business, was the victim of a bad fire Sunday morning about 1:30 o'clock. The residence owned by him and his daughter Mrs. Harrington took fire in some unaccountable way in a part of the building where no fire was used, and before the firemen could get in their work the building and contents were practically destroyed. The building was occupied by Mr. Cary and by the family of Mrs. Burr, a widow. The inmates did not discover the fire until it had attained good headway, and barely managed to save themselves. Mr. Cary had locked himself in so that the fire cut off his retreat, but was helped out by one of the Schultz boys next door. The firemen responded promptly to the call and soon had the flames under control, but not until the building was badly gutted. Some insurance was carried on the building, but nothing on the contents. The loss to the Burr family is severe one as almost everything they possessed was burned. This makes the fourth fire loss suffered by Mr. Carey in his business career. He carried on the general merchandise business here for many years in the early days of the town. The present fire is the second one at that building, there having been one several years ago which destroyed the barn on the premises and damaged the house. He had a large store building and stock of goods burned on the south side of the track between twenty-five and thirty years ago, and in Illinois some time previous had a stock of furniture and hardware burned.

No man more careful about fire lives than Mr. Carey, yet in spite of this he is made the repeated victim of the flames.
