King of Servia Will Rule With the Aid

of His Army. Vienna, Nov. 20.—The resignation of the Servian cabinet and King Alex-ander's mandate to General Marovics to form a new ministry are generally taken here to foreshadow a military dictatorship in Servia. The king's next move, according to general expectations, will be the indefinite adjournment or dissolution of parliament. He will then attempt to govern as an absolute monarch, supported only by his army.

This startling outlook lished verification in the Weiner Allegemaine Zeitung, which says the foregoing action is probably on account of King Alexander's determination to check the designs of the anti-dynastic Radicals. The resignation of the late cabinet occurred. on Tuesday last in consequence of a vote in the skupshtine, which was construed as indicating a lack of confi-

General Marovics received the king's command during the day to a ministry. The skunshtina wanted M. Pasics, a former Radical, as premier, but as he is a well known enemy of the Obrenovics dynasty, the king naturally did not select him. The nomination of General Marovies was
