STREETCARNIVALCO

Cosmopolitan Co Makes Good Impression at Pipestone.

The Cosmopolitan Carnival Company does not close its Pipestone engagement until 11 o'clock on Saturday night, thus giving those of our people who have not yet visited the several shows ample opportunity to see them all, and we want to say right here that none need be afraid to visit any of the entertainments given under the carnival management.

The free shows are all good and are given just as advertised, while the tent exhibitions are the best ever presented at the prices, 5 and 10 cents. Mr. Snyder has something over 100 persons in his aggregation, and a more gentlemanly and lady like lot of show people never visited our little city.

Everything around the big show works like clock work—in fact it seems more like one huge family than like scores of people gathered from all parts of the country. There is no drunkenness, no swearing and no offensiveness around the shows, and we honestly believe that many of our people who were a week ago strongly against the carnival idea, have been converted and are free to admit that it is quite an extensive show after all—especially when managed as the Cosmopolitan Company is.

Mr. Snyder now has ten shows under his control, so it can be seen that all its cost to "go down the pike" and see everything is considerably less than one dollar—less than charged by many companies for one show. Among the most striking novelties presented during the week are the Cycle Whirl—truly a dare devil act—and the Ferris Wheel. The Glass Blowers and the Electric Theatre are both having deserved business, while the Trained Animals and the Statue turning to Life shows are doing well. The merry-go-round has enjoyed one grand round of business, while the little "Peter, the Great," has been admired by hundreds. The High Dive is also given twice daily to large crowds, and there always seems to be something attractive about a "Bosco" snake den—in fact as we said before there is variety enough so that all a person has to do is to "pay your money and take your choice."

CARNIVAL ALL RIGHT.

The writer has for some time been prejudiced against street carnival companies, especially when they come into a town and ask for bonus in addition to charging admission fees, but in Luverne and Pipestone where the company that will show here, has been, they seem to fill the bill from an entertainment standpoint. The following from the Luverne Herald: "The street fair and carnival has come and gone. After a continuous round of fun for a solid week—fun in which young and old alike participated, the end came at a late hour Saturday night. And then, as might well be expected, a sigh of genuine relief went up from the people of Luverne, for the strain upon their nerves had been greater than even they themselves realized. Nevertheless, the week has been one of rare enjoyment and all were satisfied with the results. "From every standpoint the carnival was a success and the event is one which will long be pleasantly remembered by the people of Luverne and Rock county. Throughout the entire week not an objectionable incident occurred in the conduct of the affairs under the management of the company and the entertainments were fully in keeping with their promises."

The following are some personal interviews published by the Luverne Herald.

Wm. Jacobson: It seems to me that the carnival was a pretty good thing, especially for those who can not get away and see different places and things. It helped break the monotony and besides was a good advertisement for the town. And as far as the shows were concerned they were all good and all anyone could expect for the money. I believe that the carnival was a good thing for the town.

John Connell: I believe that the carnival was a splendid thing for the town. Besides living things up in the town it gives the people in the country an opportunity to come to town and have a good time and this is just what is wanted. I believe that something like that helps a town wonderfully in every way. And the shows were all good, too. There was nothing to criticize either in the entertainments or the general management.

Jay A. Kennicott: As far as the carnival itself is concerned it seems to me that it was all very good. The shows were all good and clean and everything passed off in such good order that it seems to be all that can be asked. The object of the thing was to have a good time and everybody certainly had it.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Opening session of the W. C. T. U. convention of Dist. No. 5 was called to order by Mrs. Jencks, of Pipestone, at 2:30 P. M. on Wednesday. She read the 87 Psalm and prayer.

This was followed by roll call and the appointing of committees. Mrs. Jencks, district president, then gave a report of her year's work on the district.

Mrs. Ramage then gave an address of welcome to the visiting members and delegates on behalf of the union. Response was made by Mrs. Jencks.

The paper "What has the W. C. T. U. done for women" was read by Mrs. Dike. Followed by remarks by Mrs. Scoville, State President.

Mrs. Gilmore, of Pipestone, sent papers on Training of Children, which were read by Mesdames Murdoch and Davis. An interesting discussion followed. Meeting then adjourned until 8 p. m.

Evening session. After music addresses were made by Rev. G. A. Cahoon, of the M. E. church Rev. McIntosh, of the Congregational church and Mrs. Scoville, the state president. All of which was very interesting and instructive. After the speaking all repaired to the church parlors for a social hour. The time was very pleasantly spent in social converse and refreshments were served by the Union. 85 present.

MARRIED.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Coughran. The contracting parties were Russell S. Williams, of Virginia, Minn. and Florence L. Whiting, of Wellsbro, Pa.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with roses, palms and wild flowers. After the ceremony, at which the Rev. C. K. Bidwell officiated, the bridal party repaired to the dining room where a five course wedding breakfast was served. The dining room was in charge of Mrs. Coughran assisted by Pearl Tupper, Marjorie Shell, Mae Tupper and Josephine Coughran.

The groom is a prominent young business man of Virginia and the bride, who is a cousin of Mrs. Coughran, has been a very successful teacher in the public schools of Tracy, Minn. for the last four years.

After the wedding breakfast the whole party accompanied the happy couple to the depot where they took the north bound train at 9:47 and departed, amid showers of rice, for an extended wedding tour through the northern part of the state.

Their baggage was appropriately labeled, the trunk bearing a number of placards on which such inscriptions as "Just Married," "How happy we will be," "Two hearts beat as one," were printed. Some of their friends at the depot furnished refreshments which were attached to the trunk. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Rew, Mrs. Franck, Miss Linder, of Lake Preston, S. D., Rev. C. K. Bidwell, Misses Tupper, Shell and Raymond Hawley.

STOLE STRAWBERRIES.

Saturday W. Raynolds had some groceries and strawberries stolen from his buggy which was at Hurd's livery. Sheriff Fauske was notified and he found the men on the lake shore. They gave their names as Frank Williams and William Hackett. The trial will be held Monday or Tuesday.

CHAMBERLAN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION.

Mr. J. W. Turner, of Truhart, Va., says that Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets have done him more good than anything he could get from the doctor. If any physician in this country was able to compound medicines that would produce such gratifying results in cases of stomach troubles, biliousness or constipation, his whole time would be used in preparing this one medicine. For sale by F. M. Hickman.
