BIG REPUBLICAN RALLY

United States Senator Knute Nelson Addresses Republicans at Opera House.

MUSIC BY THE SIBLEY BAND

Speaker Discuss National and State Issues and Cautions All to Stand By Party Nominees.

Although the weather was rainy and disagreeable without, a crowd which taxed the full capacity of the opera house turned out Thursday night to hear United States Senator Knute Nelson speak.

As during the last season each local hunter will be allowed three deer, one moose and one caribou. Non-residents have the same privilege with the exception that they can shoot but two deer. Tags are issued with the license and by tying them onto the game the hunter can ship to any place in the state.

he band came up from Sibley at 7 o'clock and despite the fact that it was raining they played several selections on the street before going to the opera house. The band comprises sixteen pieces and its music was highly appreciated and helped greatly in making the rally a big success.

The crowd assembled and the speaking began about 9 o'clock. J. A. Town, an old comrade and friend of the senator, presided over the meeting and the speaker was introduced by him. Besides Mr. Town, Charles M. Crandall, Stelle S. Smith, Newton Fauske, Gust Swanberg, L. W. Abbott, E. K. Smith, S. J. McKenzie, and A. G. Lindgren of Adrian, and Charles Hamstreet of Rushmore were seated upon the stage with the senator.

Senator Nelson discussed the issues paramount in the national campaign, and gave a review of the prosperity which this country has enjoyed under republican rule and touched upon the protective tariff and policies that have been the direct course of the present prosperous condition of affairs in general.

His strange arguments were right to the point, and while the senator is not as flowery, in an oratorical sense, as many of the great men on the political stage, his manner of presenting facts takes well everywhere and it causes men to think. Many of his hearers were democrats and they were apparently deeply interested in his common sense talk.

Mr. Nelson also took up some of the state and congressional issues and urged republicans to stand by the nominees of their party. His speech lasted about an hour and a half.

The senator remained in town until 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, when he left for St. James, having been assigned to speak there in the evening.

Thursday night completed a week's tour through the state, and he will be in the state from now until after election.

BATCH OF BIG GAME LICENSES

County Auditor Pannell Receives His Quota from Game Commission.

County Auditor E. C. Pannell has received from the state game and fish commission, his quota of large game licenses, the season during which such game can be legally shot having opened October 15. There were twenty-five licenses in the batch received by the county auditor and it is thought to be sufficient to supply the number of calls that are likely to be made here, but the auditors in those localities where the game flourishes received a much greater quantity.

St. Louis county alone received over 3,000 of the total number of licenses sent out by the state department. It is expected that there will be good big game shooting there this fall. The deer season lasts twenty days, from Nov. 10 to 30, and the season for moose and caribou is from Nov. 20 to 30. The quail and partridge season opened October 15 and remains open for a period of two months.

As during the last season each local hunter will be allowed three deer, one moose and one caribou. Non-residents have the same privilege with the exception that they can shoot but two deer. Tags are issued with the license and by tying them onto the game the hunter can ship to any place in the state.

WEDDINGS AT ROUND LAKE

Misses Emma and Lillie Walker Made Brides at Double Wedding.

A big double wedding was celebrated at Round Lake on Tuesday when two step-daughters of H. C. Carstensen were united in marriage. The contracting parties were Miss Emma Walker and M. N. Reistroffer, and Miss Lillie Walker and John P. Biedorn.

The bridesmaid and best man for the first couple were Miss Laura Walker and W. A. Moeller, and the ceremony for this marriage was performed by the Rev. C. S. West of Round Lake.

The attendants of the second couple were Miss Lizzie Habeck and Gus Wese, and the officiating minister was the Rev. Gebhardt of the Evangelical Lutheran church at Spafford. The ceremony was performed in German.

Mr. Reistroffer is a young man of Round Lake, he having a position as clerk in one of the general stores there, and he and his bride will make their home in Round Lake.

Mr. Biedorn is a prosperous young farmer of that vicinity and he will take his bride with him on the farm.

The wedding of these two young couples was one of the largest that has taken place in that community in several years. The inclement weather interfered greatly with the affair and only about half of the several hundred invited people were present. The guests were largely German and in a social way all of them enjoyed the occasion immensely.

In the evening those who enjoy dancing assembled at the hall where they spent the time with Father Torsichore until the early hours of following morning. Addington's orchestra of Worthington furnished the music for the dance.

Vilsmeyer-Coleman Nuptials.

Patrick Coleman and Miss Mary Vilsmeyer were united in marriage at St. Paul on Wednesday, and left immediately for this city where they will make their home.

Mr. Coleman is the brakeman on passenger train number 10 and 15 running between here and Sioux City. He is a brother of Mrs. Fred Hurd, and has many friends here and among the railroad boys who will extend congratulations.

They have secured rooms upstairs in the Segerstrom residence and will begin house keeping at once.

An indictment was also brought in against Jutert Sohmer, charging him with grand larceny in the second degree.

The grand jury was discharged about eleven o'clock Thursday morning, and all of them lined up to receive their check for their service.

DEATH CLAIMS: LITTLE BABE

Son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Randolph Succumbs to Cholera Infantum.

When Mr. and Mrs. John S. Randolph for Brewster arrived home Saturday morning from a short trip to Worthington they were greeted with the heart-piercing tidings that their little son of about four months had closed his eyes in sleep forever. The sad occurrence took place less than a half hour before they reached home.

Friday night Mr. and Mrs. Randolph came down with a party of friends from Brewster to attend the play at the opera house and left their two little boys in charge of Mrs. Augusta Harthune, a lady of mature years and well qualified to take care of children, but during the parents' absence the infant was attacked with a severe form of cholera infantum, from which he went into convulsions and died in a short time.

A physician was summoned and he and the lady in charge did all they could to save the precious little one, but as the ravages of the swift reaper could not be overcome, life took its flight without any warning to the parents, and they knew nothing of the babe's illness or death before they arrived home.

The party came down from Brewster in the afternoon and after the play the time was spent with friends until the early morning train which is due here about 1 o'clock, but to add to the misfortune the train is said to have been somewhat late; otherwise they may have reached home before the grim reaper had finished his work. Under the circumstances the bereaved parents' feeling on arriving home can be better imagined than described.

Mr. Randolph is the publisher of the Brewster Tribune and during their two years residence in Brewster they have visited here at different times and formed many friendships and acquaintances among Worthington people who will join the Advance in extending condolence to the bereaved parents.

INDIAN LAKE.

Mrs. A. Samuelson of Arthur Iowa arrived last week for a few days visit with A. G. and Josie Anderson.

Nels Langseth and Oliver Thompson left Monday for Worthington where they will serve on the grand jury.

C. R. and Walter Saxon finished threshing last Thursday, they had fifty acres of barley that averaged thirty three bushel to the acre and their wheat yielded over twenty bushels an acre, that grades number two.

The ladies aid of the Baptist church will hold a sale and a social at their church parlors next Friday evening Oct. 21st, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Wallace Saxon left Tuesday for Worthington where he is drawn as a Petit juror on the present term of court. It is hoped by his numerous friends that by the time his courting days are over that he will be tired of bachelors life and will return to the way side farm. He will return with the one he has been waiting long and patiently for.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blixt gave a delightful party to about thirty young people last Friday evening who say it was one of the most enjoyable and up to date parties they have attended, will be remembered that a short time ago Mr. and Mrs. Blixt became the parents of their first born daughter and so pleased are the happy parents over her arrival that we doubt if the Czar and Czarina of Russia are more proud over the arrival of the heir to Russian throne than Mr. and Mrs. Blixt are.

O. Amundson left last Friday for his home at Elon, Iowa after a few days visit with relatives. Mr. Amundson expressed no little surprise to find the west which was thought to be the land of rattle snakes, prairie dogs, coyote and blizzards to be so well cultivated fenced and to possess so many beautiful graves, good orchards and crops and such an endless amount of hay as is found there and was more than pleased with his visit.

PIPESTONE WINS THE GAME

Worthington is no Match for Pipestone on the Gridiron.

Speaking of the Pipestone-Worthington foot ball game at Pipestone last Saturday afternoon the Daily Star of that place says: In this afternoon's foot ball game on the local gridiron the Pipestone high school team ran all over and all round the Worthington aggregation, and scored almost at will. The visiting team was badly outclassed, at no time in the game being able to hold the Pipestone boys for downs. It was so decidedly a walkaway for the home team and the visitors were so utterly powerless to check the onrush of their opponent that the first half was cut 6 minutes short and the last half 11 minutes short—the Worthington boys being hopelessly discouraged and exhausted and in the last half being eager to catch the train which was waiting at the Rock Island station to take them home. The game was played in a clear and gentlemanly manner throughout and was free from unpleasant features or serious accidents. One Worthington player was required to quit the game, his neck having been somewhat wrenched in the play, but it is not thought that he is badly hurt. The Worthington team reached the city shortly after one o'clock this afternoon on the Milwaukee and departed for home on a Rock Island freight immediately after the game. They are a gentlemanly lot of fellows, and won the respect of the Pipestone team, even though they proved such easy victims for the later upon the gridiron.

Thos. H. Prideaux who has been in the hospital at Mankato for several weeks receiving treatment for rupture is able to be out again. He is feeling full of life and is glad to leave the hospital. The operation was performed by Drs. Curran of Mankato and F. M. Manson of this city and was very successful in every instance. A letter was received here Wednesday from Mr. Prideaux in which he spoke of his intention to go to St. Paul to buy a stock of goods for the store at Rushmore. Mr. Prideaux's many friends here will be pleased to hear of his being able to leave the hospital and will be glad to see him home again.
