There has been gr at changes in the price of Cotton Goods within the last 60 days. Everyone knows this. It is a matter of general information. By all odds however, the most important changes have been made within the past 30 days. What these recent changes have been, is known only to the actual buyers.

Trading has been entirely confidential. Consessions not offered to merchants who were already loaded with stock or worse, with contracts made last fall and winter. Now we are one of the fortunate ones. Our Spring Goods just coming in and bought at late decline in prices and we are prepared to give our customers the benefit of our purchases.

Come in and investigate our prices. Its a saving to you of many dollars. We want to call your attention to a few of our goods and prices.

A Produce Problem

Mr. Cash Buyer:

Did you ever stop to think that not long ago some of our neighboring towns were paying 25c for EGGS and selling them for 18c and less. Now at any time you could have bought these eggs at 18c cash and traded them at these same stores at 25c per dozen. Does this look right? If prices are the same.

Mr. Produce seller. Do you believe a merchant that has got his goods marked at an honest let live price can afford to pay you from 3 to 7c more on a dozen of eggs or a pound of butter than he gets out of it and treat the man right who brings him the cash. Do you believe that the merchant will pay a premium for his clerks to take up their time counting eggs and weighing butter when there is customers with money, waiting. We don't. We have ONLY ONE PRICE to all, marked in plain figures, and our price must stand against all competition for CASH or PRODUCE.

We pay or try to pay the very top market price consistent to the price we have to have on our goods. Bring us your produce, your eggs, your butter and get more merchandise for them than any where in the country. The price is not always an indication of getting full value when it comes to produce.
