SURPRISED.

Rev. and Mrs. Muehlhausen the "Victims" of a very Happy Social Event.

The flock of the Rev. Muehlhausen on Thursday evening of last week gave him and his family a very successful and enjoyable surprise party.

The event was in the nature of a farewell party, as Mr. Muehlhausen has filled this appointment as long as the regulations of his church permit, four years, and he leaves next month for conference, when he will be sent elsewhere.

The evening was pleasantly spent in social intercourse, and at a late hour dainty refreshments provided by the self invited guests were served. As a token of the high esteem in which they are held Mr. and Mrs. Muehlhausen were presented with a handsome mahogany music cabinet and a beautiful Brussels rug.

Those present were:

GUTTERSEN IN THE FIELD.

Will Contest with McCleary for Congressional Honors in This District.

The last issue of the Lake Crystal Union contains the following announcement by the Hon. Gilbert Gutteresen. This announcement clears the political atmosphere in this district as there is now an avowed candidate against McCleary, and the chances are there will be only one. The issue is clearly drawn between the two candidates. McCleary believes himself greater than his constituency and represents the tariff fattened monopolies of the east. Gutteresen proposes to represent the district to the best of his ability.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I hereby announce my candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congressman from the Second Congressional District of Minnesota, subject to the approval of the voters of said District at the Primary Election to be held September 18th, 1906.

Believing that a large majority of the voters of this District favor, as I do, a conservative revision of the tariff, the placing of nearly all trust made articles on the "Free list", the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people, and the passage of a National Pass law prohibiting giving or accepting free passes by all Legislative, Executive and Judicial officials, unless the giving of such passes by all common carriers be made compulsory. I shall make these issues the principal part of my platform, which I purpose discussing more fully with the voters of the District in the near future.

Very Respectfully,
Gilbert Gutteresen.

Biographical Sketch.

Gilbert Gutteresen is a native of Minnesota, being born at Fremont, Winona county, from which county he moved to Butterut Valley, Blue Earth county, in 1878, where he was engaged in farming and where he for several years, had charge of a co-operative general store and creamery. In order that his children might receive the advantages of a better school, he moved to Lake Crystal, where he now resides.

Mr. Gutteresen has held several positions of trust, among which may be mentioned town clerk, Justice of the Peace, and Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, of the township of Butterut Valley, Blue Earth county, Minn. He also taught several terms of school while living in said township. He was elected engrossing clerk of the House of Representatives in 1889 and served as a member of that body in 1893, 1895 and 1899, each time being elected by a substantial majority although, in the election of 1892, both of his Republican colleagues were defeated.

In February 1900, Mr. Gutteresen was appointed by Postmaster Gen'l. Smith as special agent in the Rural Fee Mail-Delivery Service, serving in this capacity until his resignation on March 31, 1906. He is, and has been since its organization, the president of the First National Bank of Lake Crystal.

The Auditorium Project.

An element was injected into the auditorium project the latter part of last week which will simplify the matter, greatly if it goes through, which now seems to be reasonably assured.

It developed that Mr. Jas. Ramage has been considering the matter of building an opera house, and last Saturday he met the committee of the Men's Club to discuss the subject. The committee proposed to secure Mr. Ramage a substantial bonus, by the advance sale of seats for the opening night, if he will build the opera house. Mr. Ramage is now in Minneapolis looking up plans for such a building.

Sterling Bros'. Opening.

The Sterling Bros. opened their new clothing store to the public last Saturday, and their establishment was crowded all day by their friends and acquaintances who came to inspect their stock and wish them success in their new departure.

The firm opened up an entirely new stock of up-to-date goods, and carry a large line in clothing and furnishing goods, hats, etc. In fact everything carried in any first class clothing store. That the firm will do a profitable business from the first seems assured. They are good business men, pleasant and genial to deal with and have a large circle of friends and acquaintances throughout the eastern half of Nobles county. The Advance joins their friends in wishing them success.

Sunday's Great Work.

The following clipped from the Austin Daily Register of last Saturday will be of interest to many of our citizens.

Princeton, the banner town in the history of Rev. Sunday's evangelistic work is that no longer. Austin, Old Austin, who had no use for Sunday nor his methods; Austin, who received with pleasure any vilification of the great evangelist, and in its heart of hearts dreaded his coming, has succumbed to the God given power of that wonderful man, and yet at the first invitation received with arms opened wide the truth that they have been listening to for the past two week.

Ninety conversions is the record for the first night. Just think, Princeton, with 64 surpassed Burlington with her 21 and Austin sees old Princeton's hand and goes her not one, but nearly 30 better. A third more. It was a great night. A great night for the evangelist, but a greater one for Austin.

The sermon. It was a strong one, was overshadowed by the great power of the spirit working in the hearts of men at its close. It was a sight the like that has never been seen in Austin. Ninety converts, they ranged from men with iron gray hair, an old soldiers, to bright young school girls, and from well dressed people to youths with no signs of worldly riches in their attire.

Done by Dunn.

April 3rd., the Republican State Central Committee done as Dunn directed, that is, held a meeting.

It selected Duluth as the place for holding of the next Republican State Convention. Dunn was there and it was done by him.

The time for holding the convention was set for June 13th., which is very early and at that time of the season when the republicans of the southern part of the state are most busy with their businesses and farming. This was done by Dunn.

It was generally intimated that they would have had an earlier convention, but concluded that this was the earliest possible date that they were certain that the frost would be out of the ground in the arctic region about the head of the lake. Undoubtedly some point farther north would have been selected had the railroad accommodations permitted but "Jim Hill roads lead to Duluth."

It is self evident that Bob Dunn is still in the saddle and that in spite of his being left at the pole in the election of 1904, that he is "only disfigured, but still in the ring." From general appearances it seems that this Dowie of Minnesota Republicanism is determined to dominate, if possible, the party's councils.

His slogan is "Harmony," "Harmony," "Harmony". But he sings the blessed rhyme of peace to the same old tunes of rant and defiance that characterized his every utterance in the campaign of 1904, but then he is as defiant and arbitrary as a Judge Hamilton.

Is the Republican party of the state of Minnesota again to be done by Dunn?

The earnest and live issues of this day are understood and known, and are the rights of the people in preference to the interests of corporations. A fair and square deal for everybody. The test of the political parties, purity in politics. In candidates, character and ability before ambition and selfishness. Neither greed or graft. Men in touch with the people and not those touched by politicians. Equality not privilege. All these must be respected and observed should the party make a success.

Within the Fold.

At the morning service at the Presbyterian church last Sunday a class of seventeen persons joined in full membership. Another class of seven was baptized, and joined the church on probation.
