DECORATION DAY

Exercises Carried Out According To Program--M. E. Church Packed to the Doors.

Attorney Canfield Delivers Splendid Address--Soldiers Graves Decorated.

Decoration day dawned bright and clear, not a cloud being visible during the morning hours, and the day turned out quite warm. This was a delightful change from the day before, during which a cold drizzling rain fell most of the time.

The M. E. church where the exercises were held, was packed to the doors, every available seat in the spacious building being occupied. The following is the program of the exercises.

- Prayer.....Rev. Walker
Music.....'The Flag of Freedom'
High School Boys' Chorus
Music a Through Fast Rolling Years
b Sweet Memories we Revere Today
Tenth Room Chorus
Lincolns' Gettysburg Speech.....
Leslie Luehrs.
Music.....Recessional
Mixed Quartette.

Mr. Canfield's address was a splendid effort and was highly appreciated by all who heard it. Mr. Canfield recounted briefly the settlement of this continent, the founding of the nation and the causes that led up to the civil war.

After the exercises at the church the G. A. R. Post and Relief Corps took carriages, and escorted by the Co. F. proceeded to the cemetery, where the ceremony of decorating the graves of departed soldiers was impressively carried out.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., presented that time wore play to a large audience on Monday evening in their tent which was pitched at the foot of 2d avenue. The company is a large one and gave a fairly creditable performance although not up to the standard of this company in former seasons.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON.

Preached by Rev. J. E. Evans of Bagley Wis., at the Presbyterian Church.

The baccalaureate sermon was preached before the graduating class of the High School last Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church by Rev. J. E. Evans of Bagley, Wis. Mr. Evans took for his theme, 'The Hitherto and The Henceforth' and his sermon was very instructive and elevating and should be of great help to the graduates if they will take its lessons to heart.

The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with plants and flowers, and both the auditorium and Sunday School room were filled to the last seat. A special choir rendered several selections of choice music.

A unanimous and urgent call has been extended to Mr. Evans by the Congregational church of this city, which he now has under consideration, and will in all probability accept at an early date. He is an earnest and forceful speaker and the church will be fortunate in securing a minister of his qualifications.

RARE MUSICAL TREAT.

Take your bible; read the book of Esther thus becoming familiar with the history.

Come promptly at 8 o'clock that there may be no interruption after the service begins.

A free will offering will be taken for the benefit of the choir fund.

POLICE COURT NEWS.

Busy Time in Judge Dow's Court on Several Days of This Week.

On Monday Andrew Peters, a blacksmith of Lismore, was arrested and arraigned before Judge Dow on charge of assault and battery. He pleaded guilty and paid a fine of $5 and costs of $9.15.

Frank Koessler, the complainant in the case against Peters, was arrested on Tuesday on a charge of larceny. When first arraigned he plead not guilty, but a few hours later he changed his plea to guilty and was given 30 days in the county jail. It appears that Koessler stole some from the blacksmith Peters, who, when he found it out, administered corporal punishment to the culprit, the latter had Peters arrested. Koessler's arrest on charge of stealing followed, and he is now boarding with the county for thirty days.

On Tuesday morning Albert Zollmer and N. J. Bank of Adrian, were given a preliminary examination before Judge Dow and held to the grand jury in the sum of $500 each. They are charged with gambling. C. M. Crandal appeared for the state and G. W. Wilson for the defendants.

Ex-Policeman Henry Twitchell was arrested last Thursday evening by Sheriff Fauske on a charge of drunk and disorderly. He demanded immediate hearing, plead guilty, and paid a fine of $10 and costs. After leaving the court room he assaulted the sheriff. He was again arrested and was arraigned before Judge Dow on Friday morning and his hearing set for June 4th. This escapade of the ex-policeman has caused much comment.

Campbell Bros. Shows Coming Saturday June 9th.

The Campbell Bros. Shows, now consolidated, will exhibit at Worthington afternoon and evening at the usual hours. These shows this season are twice their former size and are now the acknowledged leading amusement institution of America. Circus day will open with a stupendous street parade at 10 a. m.

The Harrisburg (Penn.) Daily Tribune says: 'The Campbell Brothers came to us strangers but from now on we are friends. They are from the wild and woolly west, but they can give some of their eastern competitors pointers on how to conduct a big show. Harrisburg circus patrons were surprised and bewildered. Everything was first class, it was the best ever seen here, in fact it was immense. The tents were packed in the afternoon and even the threatening weather did not keep city folks from filling all the seats last night. The Campbell Brothers will always be welcome here. They are gentlemen in the truest sense of the word.'

Wanted, a girl. Apply to P. T. Geyerman.

READ THE LABEL.

Some of the Alum Baking Powders Offered by Grocers.

As is well known, the laws of most States require all baking powders made from alum to show that fact on their labels.

It is not always that the manufacturers comply with the law or if they do in a technical way, the terms used are not intelligible to the average consumer. For instance 'basic aluminum sulphate' is nothing more or less than 'alum.'

The following list of baking powders containing alum is made up from the official reports of the Food Commissioners or from the report of the U. S. Agricultural Department at Washington, or other equally reliable authority:

- Baking Powders Contain Alum:
I. C. } Contain Alum
K. C. }
Jacques Mfg. Co., Chicago
PALACE } Contain Alum
Palace Baking Powder Co., St. Paul
CAMEO } Contain Alum
Cameo Baking Powder Co., Chicago
BON BON } Contain Alum
HOTEL }
Grant Chemical Co., Chicago
ATLAS } Contain Alum
Reid, Murdoch & Co., Chicago
CHAPMAN'S } Contain Alum
CHICAGO YEAST }
Chapman & Smith Co., Chicago
SUPERIOR } Contain Alum
Superior Baking Powder Co., St. Paul

The housekeeper should bear in mind that alum costs but two cents a pound while cream of tartar costs thirty. The quality of the powder is therefore usually indicated by the price
