CONVINCED vs. SATISFIED

While in Europe I overheard two natives discussing the meaning of these two words. Sandy says: Hoot, man, they mean ain and the same thing. John differed with him and to prove his case, said: I am fully convinced that Dugal McDugal stole my cow, and I am not the least bit satisfied

Now it is very different here in Worthington. If you will call at our store and look over our Bedroom suits, Sideboards, China Closets, Buffets, Brass and Iron Beds, Carpets, Linoleums, Matting, Rugs, etc., you will be Convinced that we have the goods and prices that Satisfy

CHANEY & MACKAY

FURNITURE

WE SELL JAPALAC

W. F. Brown of Lexington, Neb., was a Worthington visitor this week.

Dr. John Conway of Minneapolis is here renewing old acquaintances. The doctor formerly practiced dentistry in Worthington.

F. A. Barlett, state superintendent of the American Sunday School Union, was in the city last Sunday and spoke at several of the churches. He remained a part of the week as a guest of District Supt. Rev. G. M. Bailey.

A MONSTER CELEBRATION

Arranged for Worthington on the National Independence Day.

Everything Points to A Big Time on July 4th.

The committees having in charge the different parts of the work of arranging a celebration for July 4th have nearly all discharged their duties and everything now points to the greatest demonstration of the kind ever held in Worthington. All the principal attractions have been secured and the minor details are being rapidly disposed of and when the day dawns the eagle will scream with an enthusiasm that will thrill the living and possibly startle the dead.

The event has been well advertised with flaming posters and other printed matter, and it will be strange if Worthington is not called on to entertain the largest crowd in its history.

The oration of the day will be delivered by ex-Attorney General W. B. Douglas of St. Paul, who gained national fame in the prosecution of the merger suits. Mr. Douglas is one of the foremost orators in the west, and his address will be a rare treat to all who hear him.

Music will be furnished during the day and evening by the bands of Sibley, Rook Rapids and Windom, all of them excellent musical organizations.

There will be two ball games during the day. Lake Park and Harold Lake will furnish two of the teams.

A long program of sports has been arranged, which will furnish amusement for the crowds during the day, and in the evening there will be a grand display of fire works. The appropriation for this part of the entertainment is large and the display will be the best ever seen in this section of the state.

Come to Worthington to celebrate.

ANOTHER JUNE WEDDING

Well Known Young People Joined in Bonds of Holy Matrimony.

Again the wedding bells have been ringing and two more hearts are made happy. Mr. Adolph Thome and Miss Mattie Bryan were united in the holy bonds of matrimony Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Bryan on Ninth street. Only immediate relatives and friends were present at the very pretty ceremony which was performed by Rev. G. A. Cahoon, pastor of the Methodist church.

Both the young people are well known and popular in the community. The bride has since graduating from our public schools been one of the successful teachers of this county, having taught at Bigelow the past two years. The groom is one of Luverne's young men who has made his home in Worthington for some years and a member of the successful firm of Harding & Thome.

Mr. and Mrs. Thome will reside at 319, eleventh Ave., where they will soon be at home to their many friends.

Married.

On Monday June 18, 1906, at St. Mary's Catholic church. Mr. George H. Allen of this city to Elizabeth Wood, of Ft. Dodge, Ia. The young people left for St. James, where they will make their home. Mr. Allen is the son of E. G. Allen of the Allen house, and is employed on the Omaha line as a brakeman and makes his headquarters at St. James. The Advance joins the many friends of the young people in extending congratulations.

YOUNG WOMAN SUICIDES

Rose Casper of Brewster Ends Life With Carbolic Acid.

Rose Casper, a young woman of 20, and a daughter of G. Casper, of Hersey, last Sunday committed suicide by taking a large dose of carbolic acid. No motive is known for the rash act. For the past year she had been employed more or less of the time as a domestic in the family of Alderman S. M. Stewart. About three weeks ago she went home to assist in the preparations for her sisters wedding. She, herself, was engaged and was to have been married in a few weeks.

The funeral was held on Wednesday from the family home.

Deaths.

Miss Katie Feit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Feit of the town of Elk, died last Friday at her parent's home, of consumption after a lingering illness, aged 26 years. The funeral was held Monday from the Catholic church in this city and was largely attended by friends of the family. Miss Feit was a popular young lady possessed of many admirable qualities, and her taking off by the great White Plague is a sore affliction to her parents.

An infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Garmar of Ewington, Jackson county, died last Sunday, aged one day. The funeral was held on Wednesday.

CHILDRENS' DAY

Observed at the Presbyterian Church with Pleasing Program.

Last Sunday was Childrens' Day at the Westminster Presbyterian church, and the occasion was duly observed with a program which took the place of the evening service. All who participated acquitted themselves in a most creditable manner and the exercises were greatly enjoyed by the large audience present. The following is the program rendered:

Song by the school.
Scripture Reading.
Prayer.
Song by the school.
Flower Drill.
Song of the Grass.

Song by the School.

HAGENBECK CIRCUS

With Famous Trained Animals to Be Here July 5th.

With a modern three-ring circus constructed around his famous trained wild animals, Carl Hagenbeck, of Hamburg, Germany, is coming to Worthington Thursday July 5th. Two performances and a street parade will be given. Hagenbeck entertained the tented amusement field at the close of the St. Louis world's fair. He is associated with John H. Havlin, the Cincinnati theatrical millionaire; Frank R. Tate, of the Orpheum vaudeville circuit, and C. Lee Williams, a former St. Paul resident, who has been interested with Hagenbeck for fifteen years.

The circus uses three trains of sixty cars, has four hundred horses and one thousand employes, and is opposing the circus trust. With the Hagenbeck animals it features one hundred Hindoo men, women and children in a new East Indian conception called a Perabera, and three hundred arctic performers.

TWO HAPPY COUPLES

June Wedding Business Picking Up Some Around Brewster.

Between the hours of ten and eleven o'clock Tuesday morning Rev. Father Sherman, of Worthington, performed the ceremony which united for life Anthony W. Weinandt and Miss Alice McCall, the affair taking place at the Catholic church.

The groom was attended by the bride's brother Michael, who was formerly his partner in business. The bridesmaid was Miss Kate McCall and little Miss Bridget acted as flower girl.

The witnesses of the event included only the relatives of the contracting parties, and these were afterward entertained at the home of the bride's mother in this place. Among the guests present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Beaton and daughter Alice and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sullivan, of Heron Lake, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Connor, of Sioux Valley, Mrs. N. Weinandt and Miss Julia McCarvel of Worthington.

In the evening the Brewster band gave the wedding party a pleasant little serenade, and at its conclusion the boys were invited in to partake of the wedding feast.

The groom was formerly engaged in the meat business here and also acted as chief of police for some time. He has many friends in this locality who congratulate him upon the step he has taken. The bride has grown to womanhood in Brewster and vicinity, and for a number of years has been a successful teacher in the rural schools of Nobles and Jackson Counties, as well as a respected and popular member of our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Weinandt left yesterday for Mankato, where they will reside during the summer, Tony having taken a position in a meat market at that place. In the fall he expects to return to Brewster to run his threshing rig.

On the same day that the above mentioned parties assumed their perpetual partnership a similar scene was enacted at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Caspar three miles northwest of town, their daughter Ida having been joined to Nicholas Kaufman by wedlock's holy bonds. The officiating clergyman was Rev. Hayenga, of Sibley, Iowa. The bride's sister Rose attended her as maid of honor, and Tillman Kaufman, brother of the groom, was best man.

A large number of relatives and friends were in attendance at the wedding and reception, and the band went out to live up affairs for a short time in the evening.

The happy couple came to town the following day, and commenced housekeeping at the Kaufman residence.--Brewster Tribune.

Masonic School.

Thos. Morris of Crookston, Grand Master of the state of Minnesota, last Friday evening visited Fraternity lodge No. 101, A. F. and A. M., of this city, when he held a school of instruction. A very profitable session was the result, which was followed by a banquet.

O. E. S. Picnic.

The local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star held their annual picnic on Wednesday of this week in the Masonic hall. It had been intended to hold it in the park, but a heavy shower shortly after noon prevented this. The picnic was attended by the members of the Star and their husband. A very enjoyable time was had.

Conductors to Picnic.

The conductors on the Omaha and Rock Island railroads are endeavoring to arrange for a joint picnic to be held at Worthington at some date in the near future. Worthington enjoys a favorable location and natural advantages for affairs of this kind that are beginning to attract attention.

PITCHFORK TILLMAN

Brief Sketch of Our Leading Chautauqua Attraction.

Eronous Popular Conceptions of Distinguished Southerner Dissipated.

Senator Tillman of South Carolina, who is one of the chief speakers at the Worthington Chautauqua to be held Aug. 6th to 14th, is one of the most sought after men on the American platform and every one within a radius of 100 miles of Worthington should make it a point to hear him. We are pleased to give the following sketch of Mr. Tillman, which dissipates the erroneous popular conception of him:

When Tillman first came into view as a public man the impression spread abroad that here was an uneducated, uncouth, brawling Southern farmer, who aspired to rule his State. This was one of the earliest misinterpretations of the man that was circulated over the land. Benjamin R. Tillman came of one of the most intelligent, an it might be said aristocratic, of the old South Carolina families. When he was a boy before the war he had for a governess and tutor the sister of Chester A. Arthur, who afterwards became President of the United States. The Tillman family lived in luxury until the war swept away its property in slaves and left it nothing but depreciated land. The present Senator, on that account, did not go to college, as nearly all the rich Southern youth did before the secession, nor did he study law. He became a farmer on the ancestral estate, and there he stayed literally a tiller of the soil, until the great political uprising of the farmers of the West and South took place in 1890. Mr. Tillman, however, during the twenty-five years of his steady farm life was an eager student of books and affairs, such as became the brother of a prominent fourteen year congressman, the cousin of perhaps the leading lawyer of the Alabama bar, and a near relative of other Tillmans who became respectively a professor at West Point, a district attorney in Tennessee and a United States minister in the diplomatic service.

R.R. SHOP MEN PICNIC.

Will be held at Worthington Next Saturday--Large Crowd Coming.

The picnic of Sioux City and St. James shopmen of the Omaha railway to be held here next Saturday promises to be one of the best attended events of the kind ever held. The grounds in the city park are in first class condition and every thing that can be done by local people to make the occasion enjoyable has been done. A good band has been secured for the day, and a dancing pavillion has been erected in the park for the accommodation of the visitors. It is to be hoped that the picnic will be so successful that the railroad boys will decide to make Worthington the permanent location of their annual outing.
