

LOCAL NEWS

Smoke the Quality cigar. Box trade a specialty.

F. J. Killpatrick of Adrian was in the city Monday.

W. E. Madison last Saturday shipped a carload of hogs to Chicago.

Marshal M. Finnerty of Ellsworth was a visitor at the county seat last Friday.

Miss May Stocklager of Boone, Ia., is a guest of Mrs. G. W. Lear for a few days.

Mrs. J. S. Seeley of Round Lake on Tuesday bought a driving horse from A. Oberman.

Attorney E. H. Canfield of Luverne had legal business in Worthington Monday.

A. Oberman held an auction sale of western horses last Saturday at the Omaha stock yards.

The ladies of Worthington and vicinity are invited to attend the clearance sale of hats at Miss Fahy's.

J. W. Pepple, of the train dispatcher's office at St. James, spent a few hours here Sunday visiting his parents.

The Rock Island road will give an excursion to Spirit Lake next Sunday. The fare for the round trip from Worthington is only 95c.

Hundreds of people will take their outing by camping at the Chautauqua grounds during the assembly. It will make as good an outing as one could wish for.

A. M. Renner, manager of the Western Implement Co., returned on Sunday from his trip to Boston, much improved in health. He says he had a very enjoyable trip.

Miss Fahy is having a clearance sale of summer hats and is offering some great bargains. Prices have been greatly reduced to clean up the stock. Don't miss this sale.

L. A. Fancher, the general manager of the Colman Lumber Co's., yard at Reading was in the city Monday arranging for accommodations for himself and family at the coming Chautauqua.

Mrs. A. C. Dickens, of Heron Lake was the guest of Mrs. Calvin Moon Monday. Mr. Dickens is a brakeman on the Sioux Falls line and is arranging to move his family to his place soon.

Dr. G. O. Moore, president of the Worthington State Bank, makes gardening something of a hobby, and usually has one of the best gardens in the city. He recently picked a tomato which measured 15 inches in circumference.

J. D. Wood, manager of the Peavy elevator made a trip into the country Tuesday. He says he drove a long way, an never saw small grain looking better. A fine hay crop has been secured and corn is coming on in good shape.

P. C. Miller, of Sioux City was in the city yesterday in the interest of the Interstate Fair, to be held there Sept. 10 to 15. He says they are going to have a bigger and better fair than ever before. The entries in the live stock exhibit will be larger than ever.

The Misses Salmonson, who have been visiting with relatives and friends in this city for the past three, weeks returned to their home at Laporte City, Iowa, Tuesday. They were former residents of Worthington and greatly enjoyed their visit among old scenes. The Advance acknowledges a very pleasant call.

At a meeting of the building committee of the city council held last Saturday night the contract for the erection of the new city hall was awarded to Sam Allen, whose bids were as follows: For building with tin roof, $5707; with shingle roof, $5600.25. The committee has not yet decided which kind of roof will be put on. The building will be of brick, 24x72 feet, two stories and basement.

Considerable consternation was created in the congregation of the Presbyterian church by the announcement made last week that Mr. Lanham would enter the lecture field, as many looked for his early resignation. This apprehension was entirely unwarranted, as Mr. Lanham has no intention of resigning as his work on the lecture platform will for some time at least, be incidental to his other work.

Hats cleaned at the Worthington Dress Club.—25c 7-27.

Mrs. E. M. Crosby is visiting friends at Sibley for a few days.

Col. J. A. Towa, transacted legal business at St. James last Friday.

Joe Houser of Elk township was in the city Monday doing trading.

J. P. Biltgen, has bought the Oliver residence property on 3rd avenue.

Miss Mildred Harding returned last Saturday from a visit at Rushmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hansberger returned last Saturday from their bridal tour.

Mrs. J. H. Wickman and children returned last Friday from a visit in Iowa.

Mrs. A. W. Bartlett, of Cambridge, Ia., is visiting at the home of Rev. J. S. Kies.

H. G. Beekley, of the Herald, spent several days in Minneapolis on business this week.

Quality and Middle West are the most popular 5c cigars in Worthington. Smoke no others.

Mrs. Herman Stephens and son of Chicago are here visiting her mother Mrs. J. P. Biltgen.

Low Salstrom of Bigelow and Mr. Christenson of Chicago were visitors at the Biltgen home last Sunday.

Peter Cedergreen and wife of Boone, Ia., are spending a few weeks on their farm in Bigelow.

Mrs. M. P. Kennedy and daughter Helen visited here over Sunday with her daughter, Miss Ella Kennedy.

Alma Conner and Eva Feinfied, day operators at the telephone central, spent Sunday with friends at Adrian.

G. W. Patterson was exhibiting on the streets on Monday a stock of grass measuring over 8 feet in length.

Mrs. W. M. Evans, spent the week camping at Round Lake. Mr. Evans joined her as soon as he was released from the coroner's jury on Tuesday.

Mr. Lawrence Bates, Mrs. Wm. Fulton and Mrs. Chambers, of Sioux Falls, are here on a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Lear, at the Worthington.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harden, left last Monday for Rochester, where Mrs. Harden will submit to a surgical operation. Her many friends will hope for a favorable outcome.

County Supt. L. W. Abbott and family visited at Ellsworth over Sunday. They drove over there and back, and stopped at several places on the way. They report a pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sprouse and the latter's mother, Mrs. E. A. Peterson returned last Sunday from Andover, Ill., where they had gone to attend the funeral of Mr. E. A. Peterson.

Mrs. G. W. Billington of Spring Green, Wis., has been visiting her sister Mrs. J. N. Dodge the past three weeks. She leaves Worthington Friday morning for an extended visit with her daughters in Iowa and South Dakota, expecting on her return to her home in Wisconsin some time in Nov. to again visit her sister at Worthington.

Rev. Edwin W. Lanham returned last Tuesday from Iowa City where he spoke at the Chautauqua on Sunday afternoon. He reports that Iowa City is having a successful assembly and although the program is not nearly so strong as that of the Worthington Chautauqua it is giving the best of satisfaction. Mr. Lanham speaks very highly of Judge Wade and Rev. Hawks, whom he heard while there.

Prof. Thos. Shaw of the state experiment station accompanied by an assistant, was here last Saturday on a tour of inspection of the farms which entered in the contest instituted by President Hill of the Great Northern Railway, announcement of which was published early in the spring. There were two entries from here, G. F. Moore and D. M. Holland. While Prof. Shaw could give out nothing definite as to the outcome of the contest, he highly compliments Messrs. Moore and Holland on the appearance of their farms.

J. A. Jacobs of Brewster was in the city Monday.

Ed Brink of Ransom was in Worthington Monday on a trading trip.

Frank Rothe of George, Ia., is here on a visit to his brother G. W. Rothe.

Dr. F. E. S. Wilson of Olathe, Kan., has spent a couple of weeks here visiting at the home of his brother, Judge G. W. Wilson.

Mrs. I. P. Fox is at Red Wing for a few days visit. From there she goes to Lake City to join Sergt. Fox, who is in camp with Co. F.

Frank Saxon spent the greater part of the week canvassing in Murray county for the Nichols & Sheppard Co., manufacturers of threshing rigs.

Tom Fletcher of Dewald township on Wednesday got his only arm tangled up in a hay stack and seriously injured, and will be laid up for a long time.

A Democratic county convention will be held at Adrian on Aug. 25, to elect 11 delegates to the state convention which meets at Minneapolis Sept. 4th.

You can wear a new suit every week if you join the Worthington Dress Club. Rates $1.50 per month including shiners; phone 159 and goods will be called for and delivered. 7-27.

For sale—A threshing outfit, consisting of Reeves separator with wind stacker and Advance 16 horse power engine. Used three seasons and in best of condition. Inquire of Larson Bros., Hersey township.

Chas. Fulton of Sioux Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Cobb, Rodney Cobb, Mrs. Brace, Mrs. Fitzgerald of Muscatine, Ia., formed an automobile party that spent Sunday as guests of the Lears at the Hotel Worthington.

Rev. Dungan, the efficient Congregational pastor is at Spirit Lake, where he will probably spend his vacation and take in the Worthington Chautauqua. It cannot be that the lake is an attraction as we have better lakes here.—Fairmont Independent.

We are now making ice cream for the retail trade and can supply your wants at 90 cents per gallon.

Worthington Creamery Co.

Miss Agnes Thompsett, of Luverne, is here on a visit at the home of her brother Adolph.

Mrs. G. A. Cahoon and children are home from their vacation trip. They were accompanied on the return by Misses May and Lucy Featherstone, of Red Wing. The young ladies will attend the Chautauqua assembly.

Reuben Oakes, of Minnetonka, arrived Wednesday and will spend the time until Sept. 1, visiting his sisters, Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. Gould, when he goes to Bigelow to take the principalship of the schools.

Send your orders for ice cream made from pure cream, to the Worthington Creamery Co. They are supplying the retail trade at 90c per gallon.

The Biggest Little Thing

in banking is the Savings Department. The aggregate economy and self-denial represented for each dollar of a Savings Deposit is much greater than on funds accumulated any other way.

Respect and Regard.

While our Savings Deposits are less in amount than those of other branches, we appreciate what it means to save, save, SAVE—Our depositors in that branch of the business are therefore entitled to our highest respect and regard for the work they are doing.

The Right Place

to keep your valuable papers, notes, deeds, wills, insurance policies, is in one of our double-locked Safety Deposit Boxes. These rent for $1.00 per year (only 8 1/2 cents per month. Can you afford 2 cents a week to have papers kept safe?

The Citizens National Bank
C. T. TUPPER, Cashier
G. W. PATTERSON, President

WE'RE PREPARING FOR FALL

Many Dept's are Filling up Rapidly.

Furs, Flannelettes, Blankets, Comforts and Dress Goods are here. When at the store don't fail to see them. "Seeing is believing."

If unable to visit our store send for samples of the material you want. Compare our values with others—it will show you of our large outlet and constantly increasing business. The new CLOAKS will soon be here. Don't buy until you see the largest line ever shown in Worthington.

The "Why" and "Wherefore"

The garments we sell will fit and hang right after months of wear, and

The Style Will Be Correct.

If you want a garment in which the quality is unquestioned BUY IT OF US.

"DRY GOODS HEADQUARTERS"

A. T. LATTA

Did You ever talk your head off?

Is it not a fact that a man can do that very thing and then accomplish nothing? He can tell what a wonderfully good store he has, what large, new, clean stocks; what grand, unparalleled bargains, and people apparently pay no attention to your lamentations. Why? Because there is something lacking in the makeup of the goods.

The Hamilton-Brown Shoes

are without question the best fitters on the American market today. Try Some on

American Gentleman, vici Kid and box calf	- - -	$4.00
American Lady, blucher, welt and turn	. . .	$3.50
Picnic, blucher, Mackay sewed and ind. turn	- . .	$2.50
American Lady, vici Oxford, welt	- - -	$3.00
Picnic, vici Oxfords, turn and int. turn, from	-	$1.25 to $2.25

HUB MERCANTILE CO

That Job of Printing

If it be an Auction Bill, remember we turn them out as cheaply as anyone and give you a free notice. The notice, having a large circulation, is worth as much as the bills.

If it be Wedding Invitations or Announcements, Reception Cards, Calling Cards or Private Stationary, the Advance has the proper type and stock for doing the work to conform to the latest styles.

If it be Business Stationery of any kind, bear in mind that our stock and assortment of type is the largest in the county and we will guarantee to please you on every job.