

LOCAL NEWS

E. Graff, of Elk, was in the city Friday.

Rev. G. G. Schmidt visited in Willmont last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thom, of Rushmore, were in the city yesterday.

Louis Volberding of Dewald, was in town Friday last doing trading.

A new lot of sailors, in all colors, received today at Gillett & Dempsey's.

G. W. Patterson has completed a large new barn on his farm north of town.

A little drizzling rain broke the drought that had prevailed since the town went dry.

Banker W. M. Evans returned this week from a visit to his mother at Gowrie, Iowa.

J. H. Blume has had erected a new tile and brick smokestack on his steam laundry.

John Thom, of Glencoe, passed through town yesterday on his way home from Rushmore.

Arjen Rust, a prominent pioneer of Summit Lake, transacted business in Worthington Tuesday.

M. Diefenbaugh, of Streator, Ill., was here the first of the week looking after farming interests.

Frank McFarland and Milt Libaire, of Adrian, were in the city Monday looking for driving horses.

The Ronan Bros. shipped a car of hogs from here to Chicago Sunday and another from Reading on Thursday.

Mrs. Mary Case of Owatonna, who had been visiting at Rushmore, passed through town yesterday on her way home.

The Ronan Bros. this week unloaded two cars of stockers and feeders, which have been distributed among the farmers.

The cisterns around town are following the fashion set on election day, and are going dry with remarkable unanimity.

Henry Janssen, of Ewingtown township, transacted business here Tuesday. He bought a fine new surry from the Smith Implement Co.

The telephone company is laying an underground cable from the central office to the junction pole at the rear of Peter Thompson's lot.

Luverne and Worthington play ball here tomorrow. Worthington now has a good ball team and the boys deserve the encouragement of good attendance.

Rev. G. A. Cahoon visited Brewster on Monday and Magnolia on Wednesday, where he held quarterly meetings for Presiding Elder Cowgill, who is now in Europe.

The track team of the Worthington High School is making a good showing under the direction of its captain, Charles Haggard. The boys expect to reach the pink of perfection for the meet to be held at Windom next month.

John Sahlbom, of the Albinson-Boberg Lumber Co., will leave tomorrow on a trip to the Pacific Coast, which will take him away from Worthington for a month or so. He will go out by a southern route and will visit Los Angeles and points north from there up to Seattle, and will return by a northern route.

E. M. Crosby returned last Saturday from Hot Springs, Ark., and on Tuesday afternoon resumed his run on the Rock Island, between Worthington and Lake Park. Mrs. Crosby is still at Hot Springs and will remain for some time. She is much improved in health.

Bill Jones, the worthless coon who has been hanging around Worthington for some years, was given his walking papers on Monday evening. He was suspected of bootlegging, but the authorities seemed to think it was cheaper to run him out of town than to prosecute him.

J. H. James, who last winter moved back to this city from Minneapolis, and later bought the Baxter place adjoining his residence, has completed some extensive improvements that add greatly to the appearance of that part of the city. Mr. James is one of those progressive and public spirited citizens who believes in beautifying the city and is setting a good example in that line.

Peter Reinken was down from Reading last Saturday.

R. H. Dieckhoff was home over Sunday visiting his family.

J. M. Kimmel, of Elk, was in the city last Saturday doing trading.

Horse Pasture—Woven wire fence—Dr. J. N. Gould, Worthington. 6-1.

Sheriff Henry Terhaar, of Jackson county, was in the city Wednesday.

Dr. Ray Humiston made a professional trip to Round Lake on Monday.

Mrs. Jens Christianson of Loraine was in the city Wednesday doing trading.

Fred Kiser was down from Lismore this week and spent some time looking for a wife.

Phil McCarvel, the bonanza farmer of Hersey township, was a Worthington visitor Tuesday.

Ted Ostrum, former day clerk at the Hotel Worthington was here over Sunday visiting friends.

W. H. Healy, of Des Moines, was in the city over Sunday, a guest of his sister, Mrs. M. E. Wheeler.

A miniature cyclone waltzed up 10th street Tuesday noon. Aside from kicking up a lot of dust it did no harm.

Lee Darling had his nose broken last Saturday afternoon, at the fair grounds, by being hit by a batted ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Larson, of Elk township, are rejoicing over the arrival of twins at their home one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Nance left on Tuesday afternoon for Sioux City, where they will spend some days visiting relatives and friends.

The ladies of St. John's Episcopal church will hold a sale of bedding plants in the Wilson building, next to Harry Lewis', beginning May 1st.

Sunday School is being held in the Central school, Loraine township, every Sunday morning at 9:45. All are invited. Beulah Dring, Superintendent.

H. H. Hughes, of Jackson, was in the city Tuesday representing the American Registry Co., and Great Eastern Accident Co. He wrote a large number of accident policies while here.

The Sibley High School ball team was accompanied to his city last Saturday by a bunch of rooters that had much to do with reviving the failing hopes of the visitors at the end of the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wilson, of Worthington township, are celebrating the advent of twins at their pleasant farm home east of town. Mr. Wilson is a model farmer and citizen in full accord with Roosevelt's idea of race preservation.

Mrs. E. K. Smith returned home Saturday last from a ten days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. T. Branigan, at Edna, Iowa. She was accompanied home by her sister, Miss Inez Branigan, who has been spending the week here and will return to Edna Saturday.

Mrs. Hattie Bassett, of Rushmore, last Friday took Mrs. A. Brandt of this city to the Soldiers Home at Minnehaha Falls, where the latter expects to remain for some time. Mrs. Brandt has reached a very advanced age and lately had become quite feeble.

During house cleaning every woman has an immense amount of extra washing to do just at the time when it is the most trouble and bother. Why not send it all to us and save yourself this work and bother? Phone or postal will bring our wagon.—Blume's Steam Laundry, 'phone 123.

Cream separator to trade for good cow.—I. F. Kelley.

Found—Hay knife. Can be recovered at this office.

G. W. Patterson made a business trip to Sioux City Wednesday.

For Sale—Seed corn. Behren's, two miles northwest of Worthington. 5-3

Harness maker Schlitz was on the sick list a couple of days the first of the week.

Banker James Montgomery and E. Latourell, of Willmont, were visitors in Worthington Monday.

Manley P. Thorton, Adrian's leading legal light, transacted business at the county seat last Monday.

Miss Grace Watson, sister of Mrs. R. L. Morland, died on Wednesday of this week at her home at St. Paul.

John Surrat, grandfather of Mrs. A. Dickens, of this city, died Wednesday at his home at Heron Lake.

Mrs. Seline and children returned this week from a visit of several months at their old home in Sweden.

I. Fosberg, the Bigelow blacksmith, is spending 30 days a Hotel Fauskee, to recover from the effects of a too hilarious celebration.

Rev. Edwin W. Lanham will preach the anniversary sermon to Odd Fellows next Sunday morning at the Presbyterian Church.

J. J. Parsons has sold his residence property in this city to Christ Hogan, and will leave shortly for Oklahoma, where he will try his fortune.

$1150 in monthly payments buys a six room house, all finished in hard pine, four blocks from school. Pay as low as $20 per month. Property well worth $2000.—I. F. Kelley, Nobles County Bank Block.

Owing to illness of Rev. Edwin W. Lanham was last Sunday unable to discharge his duties as pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian Church, and there was no morning or evening service there.

Luverne Journal: J. A. Town, Esq., of Worthington, came over to attend some professional matters before Judge Brown Saturday evening, and as he so seldom sees a real live own he concluded to remain here over Sunday. That is right, Colonel, come again when you take a notion of being good.

At a meeting of the commissioners of Jackson county last week the contract for a new court house was let to Charles Skooglum, of St. Paul. The building will be built of white stone, and will cost $98,480, including basement, heating plant, electric light wiring and everything else except the furniture.

Ed. Ferdon is cutting cottonwood trees on Dan Shell's farm west of town to saw it into lumber. Ed. has ordered a portable sawmill of the Smith Implement Co. for that purpose and expects to commence the work as soon as the outfit arrives.

John Saxon and his wife and daughter have moved to Worthington after thirty years of farm life, and are going to leave the farm to the younger members. It always gives us great pleasure to see people who have endured the early hardships become able to live in ease and comfort in their declining years.

Anent the Woodman Picnic to be held at Luverne in June, the Herald of that place says: A meeting of the Woodmen Picnic executive committee was held Wednesday evening for the purpose of hearing reports of the various sub-committees as to the progress of the work. Reports were had from all committees and gave indication that the work necessary and possible at this time is being prosecuted with all possible diligence and with good prospect of definite settlement of the matter of securing carnival and other proposed attraction features in a few days.

WANTED—Painting and paper-hanging. Leave orders at Chaney and Mackay's.—Jos. Mackay.

For Sale—25 registered Hereford bulls, of breeding age.—G. W. Patterson.

The Slayton Jubilee Singers will appear at the Presbyterian Church May 2nd.

O. F. Johnson and family, of Reading, left today over the Omaha for Seattle, Wash. They go by the way of St. Paul, and will visit at several points on the way. Geo. King, of Org will accompany them.

Mrs. Della Granis, of Lakefield, was a guest of Mrs. J. H. Peterson last week.

The Worthington Gun Club went to Luverne yesterday to participate in shooting contest.

Born—Thursday, April 25th, 1907, to Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Bishop, a 11 pound daughter.

Misses Mamie and Flossie Hogan, who had spent a month visiting their uncle at Turtle Lake, Wis., returned on Tuesday. Their sister, Maud, who had been living there, returned with them.

LOST—One sheep. Finder call up this office.

FOR SALE—16 Duroc Jersey brood sows. Good stock. Fauskee Bros., phone S 1, L 1. 4-19.

Cattle Wanted to Pasture.

I have a pasture of about 600 acres all enclosed with three and four wires, known as the Abbot pasture, located at Indian Lake. Large percent of grass is bluegrass and clover. A fine grove on the east bank of the lake. The terms for season: $2 for yearlings, $2.25 for older ones, $3.50 for colts. The stock will be salted and looked after. A. A. Abbott, R. 56, Route 2, Worthington, Minn.

CARPETS AND CURTAINS

We Have Them. You will Need Them at House Cleaning Time

China and Japanese Matting
20c 25c 30c 35c

Carpets
35c 40c 50c 65c

Large Rugs
$15 $16.50 $20 $22 $25 and up to $50

Lace Curtains
75c 85c $1.00 $1.25 $1.35 $1.50 up to $7.50

Ruffled Muslin Curtains
45c 50c 65c $1.00 $1.25

A. T. LATTA

The Foundations of Merchandising Success

Are, First: Good Quality. Second: Right Style. Third: Proper Fit

This week we call your attention to our Gents' Furnishing Department

Our $1.00 Dress Shirt for Men cannot be excelled.

Our $1.50 and $2.50 line of Hats are little the best shown for the money in the city.

Talk about neckties. Yes, we have them. You never saw the like to sell for 25c and 35c.

WE SOLICIT YOUR PATRONAGE

HUB MERCANTILE CO

The Main Road

In fortune making stick to the main road. Of the men who hunt for fortune by the short cut, through speculation, a large percentage lose out. The main road may be a little dusty and and not picturesque, but it's a sure winner. You can't get lost, and there is no danger of stepping off at the end.

Farm Loans

Savings Department

G. W. PATTERSON,
President

C. T. TUPPER,
Cashier

WALL PAPER
Rugs Rugs
Lace Curtains
Furniture
at CHANEY & MACKAY'S

WALL PAPER
Rugs Rugs
Lace Curtains
Furniture
at CHANEY & MACKAY'S