Under the new laws a farmer can ditch his land and run the water over on his neighbor and the only recourse the neighbor has is to run the water onto the next fellow, and so on until it is emptied into a running stream. A man can do all the ditching he wants to on his own land so long as he don't change the course of a running stream, and no one can stop him or collect damages.—Ex.

Heron Lake News: Tuesday night some one broke into H. W. Robson's hardware store, and lifted about $20 worth of razors and knives. Nothing else was missed. Entrance was made to the building by cutting a hole in the back door, in the same manner Jeppeson's saloon was robbed some three years ago. The work is no doubt that of a local artist.

Fulda Republican: The Rural Mail Carriers from Fulda received orders from Washington last Saturday instructing them to start on their daily trips at eight o'clock in the morning on and after Aug. 12th, 1907. With a 29 mile trip to make everyday rain or shine, hot or cold, wind or snow and short winter days coming an early start is most favorable for the carriers and seems to be satisfactory to about 90 per cent of the patrons.
