

Oldest, Largest and Best

WORTHINGTON ADVANCE

Subscription $1.50 Per Year

VOL. XXXVII

WORTHINGTON, MINN., FRIDAY, JUNE 12, 1908

NO. 37

New General Store

WITH New Goods! New Prices! New Location!

To the People of Nobles County:-

We take this occasion to announce that we have opened a new store in the Davis building, 2nd avenue at Worthington, and are displaying a choice stock of high class general merchandise consisting of Dry Goods, Clothing, Furnishings, Groceries, Footwear, Crockery, Glassware, Notions, Etc., Etc.

We wish to particularly impress upon the buying public the excellent quality of our goods and shall make prices that will appeal to the economical buyers. We invite the closest inspection of goods and prices.

We will buy all kinds of farm produce and pay the best prices.

Yours for Trade,

Barber & Keith

DAVIS BLDG., 2nd Ave. Phone 341.

Worthington, - Minnesota

Y. P. S. C. E. CONVENTION

Will be Held in Worthington, Tues., Wed. and Thurs. June 16, 17, & 18th

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavorers of the Windom-Luverne district will hold its annual convention in Worthington on the above dates.

An excellent program consisting of timely subjects discussed by able speakers and good music is being arranged by the various committees which are hard at work. There will be three sessions each day, morning, afternoon and evening at the Congregational church.

About 40 towns are to be represented here by nearly 50 delegates besides other visitors. On the first evening a reception will be tendered the visitors at the Presbyterian church parlors. Every effort possible is being put forth to make the convention a success.

Chautauqua Tickets

Season tickets will be on sale Tuesday, June 16th at same places as last year. Get your tickets before June 25th and save the advance in price.

Kinderfest at Round Lake

The people at Round Lake held a Kinderfest last Saturday, out at the lake, which was largely attended, and proved an enjoyable affair. A round of sports and other amusements were provided and a plentiful picnic dinner was served. Those who attended from this city report that a very pleasant time was had.

Epworth League Convention.

Below will be found the program of the Marshall District Epworth League Convention to be held at Worthington in the M. E. Church, on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, June 12-13-14:

FRIDAY EVENING. 7:30—Praise Service—Manly P. Thornton, Ad-rian.

8:00—Reception by Worthington Chapter—Address of Welcome. Rev. G. A. Cahoon, Worthington. Response. Frank Hopkins, Fairfax. Why Are We Here? H. M. Clark, Lakefield.

8:30—Sunrise Prayer Meeting. Dr. Cowgill, Redwood Falls.

8:30—District Cabinet Meeting. 9:30—Song Service. Miss Alice Leatherman, Redwood Falls. How to Develop Mercy and Help Work. Miss Edna Millerin, Pipestone. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Jackson Chapter.

9:30—Song Service. 1:45—Business Session.

Report of Leagues and Appointment of Committees. Privileges and Duties of First Vice President. Miss Ella M. Wright, Luverne. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Tracy Chapter. Mission of Music in the League. Miss Alice Leatherman, Redwood Falls. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Westbrook Chapter. How to Make Missionary Subject Interesting. Miss Dora Sell, Adrian. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Marshall Chapter. Of What Practical Use is the League to the Person from 12 to 20 Years of Age. Clinton B. Fiske, Heron Lake. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Lakefield Chapter. League Finances. Bruce Campbell, Brewster, Question Box. Rev. Cahoon.

SATURDAY EVENING. 7:15—Song Service. Miss Alice Leatherman, Redwood Falls. Uses and Abuses of Social Department. Miss Price, Tracy. Discussion. Led by Delegate from Windom Chapter. Deacons Work. Miss Clara Midcalf, Conference Deaconess. Reports of Nominating Committee. Election of Officers.

SUNDAY FORENOON. 10:45—Regular Church Service. Sermon. Dr. Frank B. Cowgill, Redwood Falls.

12:00—Sunday School.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON. 2:30—Praise and Song Service. Sacramental Service.

SUNDAY EVENING. 7:00—Ideal League Session. H. M. Clark, Lakefield.

8:00—Sacred Concert. Miss Myrtle Turner, Worthington. Lecture. Rev. Rol B. Tibbets: "A Live man Full of practical ideas for the Young People." Special Music Numbers by Worthington Chapter.

Out For the Assembly.

Herman Nelson, of Slayton, candidate for assembly from Nobles-Murray district was in Worthington between trains Tuesday calling on a few of his acquaintances and getting a line on the situation. Mr. Nelson is a retired farmer, and a wide-awake, intelligent, and genial man, who has every appearance of being a vote getter. We understand that he is in line with the people on the live issues of the day, and it looks to us as tho he would make a first class representative. He is said to be very strong in Murray county, and will rapidly make friends where ever he goes in this county. Mr. Nelson promised to come down to the Chautauqua to camp in order to get acquainted with our people.

Little Victor Hurd is a victim of the measles.

JUNE WEDDINGS

Dan Cupid Does a Rushing Business in Mating Lovers

June opens up with quite a rush of weddings' showing that the old, old story is ever new, and that Nobles county young people are quite susceptible to the arts of little Dan Cupid.

PETERSON-NELSON.

On Thursday June 4th, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Nelson in Indian Lake, occurred the marriage of their daughter Miss Helma Henrietta, to Mr. Charles O. Peterson, of Bigelow township. The ceremony was performed at 11 o'clock by Rev. C. O. Swan of this city. The bride was attended by Miss Chloe Anderson and Miss Bertha Peterson and the groom by Hjelmer Peterson and Albert Nelson. An elaborate wedding dinner followed, to which guests to the number of about 80 sat down. The afternoon was spent in celebrating the happy event.

The bride received a large collection of gifts, testifying to the esteem in which the young people are held. They are popular and prominent young people of the neighborhood in which they live and have a large circle of friends, whom we join in extending congratulations. They have gone to house keeping in the new house on the grooms farm and have already taken up the duties of life.

LEWIS-MONTGOMERY

Miss Ada M. Montgomery and Roy V. Lewis were married at 11 o'clock, Wednesday morning, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Montgomery, Rev. G. B. Wilder, pastor of the Presbyterian church officiating. The marriage was a quiet home affair, for only forty relatives and intimate friends were present in the parlor, where the vows were spoken, the color scheme was pink and white, colors which predominated throughout the house. Miss France d'Argent sang 'O Promise Me,' As Mendelssohn's was played by Mrs. G. A. Lincoln, Misses Ruth Montgomery and Mildred Loveless, stretched white ribbons to the improvised altar. The bride was gowned in white basiste over white silk, trimmed in cluny and valenses lace, and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Florence Lewis, a sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink shadow silk over pink silk. Mr. Lewis and his best man, Mr. Gustave Bachman, awaited the bride at the altar. After the service a dainty wedding breakfast was served in the dining room. The bride's going away gown was of light brown, trimmed with dark brown silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the 2 o'clock train for Minneapolis and Crookston where they will spend a short honeymoon. After August 10th they will be at home at St. Hilaire, Minn., where Mr. Lewis is established in the practice of law, and has already acquired a lucrative business. The young people have a host of friends here and at Wilmont who join in extending congratulations.

MOSHER-AUSTIN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Mosher was the scene of a very pretty home wedding on Wednesday, June 10th, when their daughter, Stella May, was married to Leslie M. Austin. At 10:30 the bridal party took their places under a bower of smilax and white flowers where the service was read by Rev. Grant Wilder of the Presbyterian church.

The bride has been reared to womanhood in Nobles County and has been one of our most successful school teachers for the past four years.

The groom is a former resident of Worthington and is now a business man of Mountain Lake.

After a fine wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Austin left on a short wedding trip after which they will be at home to their many friends at Mountain Lake, Minn.

ANTON-RATHLISBERGER

Charles Anton, one of the prominent and popular young farmers, living south of town, was married on Wednesday, June 10th, at Iona, to Miss Rose Rathlisberger, of that place. The service was read by Rev. G. G. Schmidt, of this city, and took place at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a large assemblage, many of whom were from Worthington and vicinity. The usual festivities followed. The bride received a large collection of presents. Mr. and Mrs. Anton will visit at Iona until the 15th, when they will go to housekeeping on the groom's farm south of town. The Advance joins the many friends of the young people in extending congratulations.

FOURTEEN CONFIRMED

Interesting Service at the Lutheran Church Last Sunday

At the morning service at the Swedish Lutheran church last Sunday the rite of confirmation was conferred on a class of 14 young people as follows: Bessie Margaret Larson, Winnie Lorinda Larson, Alpha Josina Ekdahl, Alice Myrtle V. Cedarblade, Dolphie Vicloeia Anderson, Arthur LeRoy Gustafson, Victor Alexander Steinman, George Frithiof Anderson, Alma Eleanora Sjolholm, Selma Frideborg Nelson, Gertrude Victoria Johnson, Esther Marie Noren. The service was most interesting and was largely attended, the building being filled to the doors.

Children's Day Exercises.

Following is the program to be rendered at the Presbyterian Church Sunday morning, June 14, at 10:45: Song School. Welcome Speech. Melville Manson. Primary March and Song. Recitation. Erma Gibson. Recitation. Edna Sterling. Recitation. Clarence Albinson. Recitation. Miss Hasting's Class. Lullaby Song. 11 Little Ones. Song. Girls Chorus. Recitation. Mildred Sterling. Recitation. Lucile Dieckhoff. Song. Primary Department. Recitation. Genevieve Fauskee. Recitation. Lee Little. Recitation. Agnes Boberg. Recitation. May Albinson. Song. Miss Sterling's Class. Recitation. Erma Tripp. Remarks by Superintendent. Song. Infant Duett. Song. School. Benediction.

Drowned in Well

A 3 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson, who live near Round Lake, was drowned in an open well Tuesday afternoon. The child was missed and a search instituted with the result that the body was found in the well. It is a very sad accident and the parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their affliction.

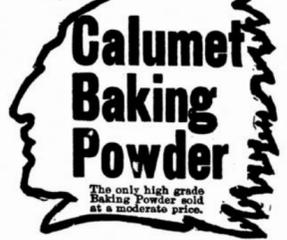

New General Store

Mr. M. J. Barber and Mr. F. L. Keith have formed a partnership to engage in the general merchandise business, and have opened a new store in the Davis building on 2nd avenue. The building has been remodelled and renovated and they have ample accommodations for their large and varied stock. Mr. Barber is an old and respected resident of Worthington and was formerly engaged in the hardware business here, consequently is well known to our readers. Mr. Keith had been in the employ of Hart & Co. for a year and has demonstrated that he fully understands merchandising.

Notice

My wife, Mary O. Lahym, having left my bed and board without cause or provocation, all persons are forbidden to harbor or trust her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting. Willard Lahym.

Always the Same

LOCAL NEWS.

Mrs. J. S. Frink is visiting her parents at Luverne.

H. A. Stricker of Windom was in the city Wednesday on business.

J. S. Frink is attending a gun club shoot at Sioux City this week.

E. A. Tripp came up from Round Lake Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Torry is here on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Ray Humiston.

Mrs. Harvey Rew is at Colfax Springs, Ia., taking treatment.

For screen doors and windows call at Tutthill & Co's. lumber yard.

C. J. Smallwood made a business trip to Chicago the first of the week.

Mrs. Howard Durfee is out again after a three week's siege of illness.

Earle Beede of Pipestone is here on a visit to his uncle, L. W. Abbott.

Judge J. A. Town attended court at Windom the latter part of last week.

C. C. Dessem is building a new porch on his residence in Clary addition.

Joe Bizans returned to Minneapolis Tuesday after a short visit with his parents.

Mrs. S. M. Stewart Monday afternoon entertained a few lady friends informally.

Dr. J. N. Gould made a trip to Austin and Fairmont this week to investigate tile factories.

Mrs. Wm. Chaney left last Saturday for Rochester to spend a few weeks visiting her parents.

R. H. Dieckhoff returned today from a three week's trip and will visit his family over Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Glasgow went to the twin cities Wednesday to replenish her stock of millinery goods.

Mrs. W. M. Evans and Miss Jeanette Clark went to Sioux City Wednesday on a shopping trip.

Miss Margie C. Cabott of Heron Lake, is visiting her friend, Miss Marion Dieckhoff for a few days.

R. R. Smith, of Minneapolis, is down on a visit with his son, Nult, and grandsons, Stelle and Robt.

John Tryan has moved his barber shop from the second to the first floor in the Darling building on 2nd ave.

Mes. M. F. Nichols and J. P. Vail are attending the state convention of the W. R. C. at Minneapolis this week.

The Congregational Missionary Society met with Mrs. T. A. Palmer. The subject under discussion was Japan.

The W. C. T. U. has been reorganized by 23 members, and will meet this afternoon with Mrs. R. H. Dieckhoff.

The Euchre Club was entertained on Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. F. M. Manson. Refreshments were served. A pleasant time is reported.

Mrs. R. H. Dieckhoff on Tuesday afternoon entertained the Art Embroidery. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant session was had.

Rev. Loenner, of Greeley, Neb., was here a couple of days on a visit at the home of Mrs. Olson. Rev. Loenner was on his way to South Dakota.

The Worthington Plumbing Co. has secured the contract for the plumbing and heating of W. C. Thom's new residence at Rushmore.

Mrs. J. F. Ulrich and daughter Augusta left on Tuesday for South Elgin, Ill., where they will spend a month visiting relatives and friends.