

LOCAL NEWS

C. King, the Org merchant, was a county seat visitor Wednesday.

H. G. Kuehne of Elk was in the city last Saturday doing trading.

A. R. Beilkey, the Reading merchant was in the city last Monday.

John Wilson returned yesterday from his trip to Spokane and Seattle.

Miss McCue, of Belle Plaines, has taken a position in Hart and Co's store.

Miss Minnie Kiel, of Chicago is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. Kuehne in Elk.

Stewart Hart is making a trip through Iowa buying wool for the Hart Commission Co.

Banker R. J. Jones of Reading transacted business at the county seat between trains, last Monday.

Rev. W. A. Dennis and family of Luverne, arrived the first of the week to go into camp for the Chautauqua.

B. B. Austin, of Des Moines, Ia., is a guest at the Smallwood home. Mr. Austin is a nephew of Mrs. Smallwood.

Mrs. Theo Bahls and daughter, of Round Lake, passed through Worthington, Saturday on their way up to Minneapolis.

F. A. Tripp the Round Lake merchant passed through town Tuesday on his way to St. Paul to attend the state convention.

Mr. Frank W. Hill, Mr. Jack C. Hill and Mrs. R. Mahling were called home on account of the serious illness of their father Mr. G. W. Hill.

Did you see the eclipse of the sun Sunday forenoon? The moon passed across the lower half of the sun obscuring about a fifth of the luminary.

Tomorrow is the glorious Fourth, and its observance in Worthington will be marked by the opening of the Chautauqua, which continues until the 12th.

There will be a special service in St. John's Episcopal Church Sunday morning at half past nine, Rev. W. A. Dennis and Rev. W. H. Pond will officiate.

Remember the great musical attraction of the coming Chautauqua is the two concerts by the Innes great orchestral band on July 9th. Don't miss them. Single admission for the day will be 50 cents.

Chas. Pannell of Drinkwater, Can. is home on a visit to his parents, and will remain until after the Chautauqua. Mr. Pannell is engaged in the implement business at Drinkwater in partnership with his brother Clark.

Laurence Essa, the Ellsworth hotel man, was sent to the county jail for ninety days for drunkenness a few weeks ago, was bailed out last week on condition that he take the Keely cure.

County Superintendent Abbott went to Rushmore Saturday to confer with the school board in regard to making the temple of learning a graded school. It will open up as such next fall.

Geo. Wiedman, wife and daughter returned on Tuesday from their visit at Peoria. The head camp of the Modern Woodmen was in session at Peoria last week, and Mr. Wiedman took in part of the meetings and the attending festivities.

The coming Worthington Chautauqua promises to set a new mark in several respects. The program costs 50 percent more than last year and the attendance will correspond. The outlook for a splendid session is very flattering.

Tuesday July 7th will be Order of Eastern Star day at the Chautauqua grounds. All members and their families are expected to report at O. E. S. headquarters with filled baskets where a basket dinner and supper will be served. By the secretary.

On July 1st the Worthington Post-office was made a second class office the salary went to $2,000, and Postmaster Coughran is given an assistant and two clerks. Jas. Mott has been appointed assistant and Vergil Fellows and Ole Danielson, clerks.

Prof. Robt. Reed has drawn his first salary as a weather prophet. At the regular meeting of the Worthington Woodman Camp held on Wednesday evening $5 was voted him in appreciation of the fine weather furnished us for our picnic on June 24th. Reed generously turned the money over to the Royal Neighbors Camp.

Wanted—A buyer for a good tent. Harry B. Lewis.

Miss Ethel Patterson is clerking in Barber & Keith's store.

W. E. Oxford of Seward was in the city on business yesterday.

Mrs. E. J. Helmick visited in Sioux Falls the first of the week.

Chautauqua grounds July 4th at half-past one o'clock, p. m.

W. M. Evans returned Monday from a business trip to Gowrie, Ia.

Ernest Swanson and wife were in from route 5 yesterday doing trading.

Miss Opal Lehrs has returned from a month's visit in Minneapolis.

E. A. Tripp of Round Lake transacted business at the county capitol yesterday.

Col. J. A. Town is at Sherburne this week attending a G. A. R. encampment.

Mrs. Lee Shell entertained a party of lady friends at bridge whist Wednesday afternoon.

Born—On Monday, June 29, to Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Ledine, of Bigelow township, a daughter.

W. E. Moses of Northfield spent a number of days here this week looking after his hardware business.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Tilman of Clarion, Iowa, were visitors at the J. C. Williamson home a few days ago.

F. C. Brace is displaying today a new line of the greatest jewelry sensation of the day. Watch his window.

Joe Ullrich, one of the prominent farmers of the town of Worthington was in the city on business Wednesday.

Read F. C. Brace's advertisement elsewhere then go and see his line of jewelry novelties made from genuine coin.

T. H. Creever has accepted a position in Goff & Deen's grocery store, where he will be pleased to greet all his friends.

Mrs. Wm. Barton and daughter Susie of Zion City, Ill., visited a few days at the A. F. Dring home this week.

Rev. C. O. Swon returned Tuesday from Chicago, where he had spent two weeks attending the synod of his church.

G. W. Patterson is on a business trip in the northern part of the state and is expected to be absent until the first of the week.

Will and Ed Ullrich returned on Wednesday from their claims at Haswell, Col., and will remain here until after the threshing season closes.

John Lochmer, wife and son, returned on Wednesday from their visit to Texas, Oklahoma, Illinois and Indiana, and report having had a very pleasant time.

The latest and entirely original creation in jewelry is made of genuine coins, in copper, nickel and silver, in brooches, stick pins, charms, etc. Brace has a fine display of them at his store.

A. M. Hagerman of Loraine township was in the city on business on Wednesday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Hagerman says the crops are looking fair in his section of the county considering the weather.

During the chautauqua the banks will close at noon on every day except Saturday. Other business houses have been requested to close at six o'clock, in order to allow the employes an opportunity to take in the evening sessions.

The Revs. C. C. Pollit and W. H. Knowlton will start on their fourth annual missionary journey on July 15th. They will visit Worthington and adjacent points on dates as follows: Fulda, July 20th; Slayton, July 21st; Pipestone, July 22d; Jasper, July 23d; Worthington, July 24th.

Three months free tuition and a written guarantee of a position to all students who enroll for our combined course during August. More than 5000 Toland graduates are now employed. Many of them are among the highest salaried clerical help in the United States. Send for our catalogue and read what Toland graduates and their employers say. To intelligent people we offer the most positive proof of excellence ever offered by a school. Address Toland's Business School, Sioux Falls, S. D.

Market Report.

Corrected to June 26.

Oats..... 3 9c to 40c
Flax..... 1.05-1.08
Corn..... 65c to 75c
Barley..... 38c to 45c
Wheat, No. 2..... 87c to 90c
Eggs..... 12c
Butter..... 18c-20c
Hogs..... $5.10-$5.40
Hay-tame..... $6.50-$7.50
Hay-wild..... $4.00-$5.00
Cows and Heifers..... $2.00-$2.50
Stockers and Feeders..... $3.00-$3.50

Fred Trunk was in town Wednesday doing trading.

Harry B. Lewis has put up a new awning in front of his store.

C. E. Sims was out surveying on L. S. Kenney's farm this week.

The Grand has been closed for six weeks on account of the hot weather.

Mrs. Emma Wills of Round Lake was a Worthington visitor on Tuesday.

Miss Edith Bear is assisting in the telephone central during the chautauqua.

G. C. Borst, of Dalls county, Iowa, is here on a visit at the home of A. Oberman.

For rent—5 room cottage, 2 1/2 blocks from State Bank. Enquire of Mrs. J. P. Biltgen.

Ernest Sterling went to Minneapolis Wednesday, where he will spend a few days visiting his sister.

Wanted—Man and wife to run farm this summer. Apply to Wm. Malcolm, Bigelow township. 7-3

Mrs. Hattie C. Thom and daughter Grace, of Omaha, are here on a visit at the home of her brother, E. K. Smith.

G. W. Patterson, R. L. Morland and F. L. Humiston left on Tuesday for St. Paul to attend the state convention.

Positions guaranteed all students who complete our combined course. Catalogue free. Toland's School, Sioux Falls, S. D. 7-31

The Lemon Club met at the home of Miss Emma Geelson, Wednesday evening July first and a very enjoyable time is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred North returned last week from Loran, Wyoming, where they have resided the past year. Mr. North will seek employment in this section again.

A. T. Latta has decorated the front of his dry goods store with a number of handsome polished brass signs. Mr. Latta is one of the most progressive business hustlers in the county.

J. E. Moberg who was confined at the Worthington hospital for five weeks, with an attack of pneumonia, is able to be around town again. He will remain on the invalid call for several weeks yet, however.

Mrs. E. K. Smith on Saturday and Tuesday gave the last two of the series of 11:30 breakfasts which have been the society event of the week. All functions were well attended and proved very enjoyable affairs.

Mayor W. E. Madison and family last week moved into their handsome new residence, which has just been completed. They have a handsome and well appointed home in which to enjoy life, a fact on which their many friend take pleasure in congratulating them.

Gov. Buchtel has promised to give a prelude to "The Conference of the President with the Governors." This will be an exceedingly valuable feature of the program at our Chautauqua as the question is of vital importance to the nation, should be understood by every citizen, and from an educational and business standpoint, is a subject which should receive earnest and serious consideration.

There has been but little rain in this section the past week and the crop condition has greatly improved. Small grain is looking good, corn is coming on fairly well, although as yet we have had no corn weather. Those who take stock in long range forecasts can console themselves with the fact that Rev. Hicks predicts a hot and dry July, which should be favorable for corn.

Those of our readers who desire practical training for business, either bookkeeping or shorthand, and the assurance of a high-salaried position should write to Toland's Business School, Sioux Falls, S. D., for catalogue and information about special rates to students who enroll, now, for the fall term. This school positively guarantees positions to all students who excel, and the fact that Mr. Toland now has more than 5,000 students holding first-class positions makes his guarantee unquestioned. A postal card will secure the catalogue. Send for it today. 6-26-7-3.

Peter Johnson of Indian Lake, was in the city on business Thursday.

A. Oberman went to Anoka the first of the week to attend the wedding of his son, Ora.

Harry Hobson and family have been visiting Mrs. Hobson's parents at Round Lake this week.

Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Dodge and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Suddaby spent Sunday with friends at Round Lake.

O. G. Grundsten made a trip to Minneapolis the first of the week to consult a medical specialist.

The Hart Commission Co. has shipped several carloads of wool to Philadelphia and Boston the past week.

Dr. J. N. Gould is sporting a robust boil on his left cheek, which greatly mars his Adonis-like countenance.

Chas. Saxon, one of the substantial young hustlers of Indian Lake, was at the county seat on business yesterday.

J. M. Bergland and wife returned to their home in Illinois yesterday, after a visit at the home of Ernest Swanson, on route 5, and other relatives.

Mrs. C. R. Meezer arrived last Saturday from Illinois, to join her husband, the new superintendent of the electric plant. They will live in the W. G. Ramage residence.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Rew returned this week from a visit of several weeks in Iowa. Mrs. Rew had spent several weeks at Colfax Springs, taking the water cure.

Miss Vick will leave the first of the week for Jackson to visit her father for a few weeks before going to Chicago to take a course at a summer school.

Fraternity Lodge No. 101, A. F. & A. M., on Monday evening conferred the 3d degree on J. E. Salstrom of Bigelow and Dr. Nassa, of Brewster. The ceremony was followed by a banquet.

Union preaching services will be held during the two Sundays of the Chautauqua for the benefit of those who desire to attend. The service next Sunday morning will be held at the Presbyterian church, and the evening service at the Methodist church.

YOU MUST SEE

My Swell New Line of

GENUINE COIN

JEWELRY NOVELTIES

Consisting of Broaches Stick Pins, Charms, Etc., Etc.

It is something new and the greatest sensation of the day.

On Display Friday, July 3.

F. C. BRACE

Subscribe For The ADVANCE

Underwear

No matter how particular the customers may be, we have the Underwear that will fill the bill, in fit, price and wearing quality

Ladies Jersey Ribbed Vests, Prices range per garment	10c 15c 25c and 50c
Ladies Jersey Ribbed Union Suits.....	30c and 50c
Childrens Underwear all sizes sleeves and sleeveless, prices range from	10 to 50c per garment
Mens White Cat Underwear, cream color balbriggens, per garment.....	$ .50
Mens fine Austrian Wool, natural color, per garment.....	1.00
Mens Union Ribbed, per suit.....	1.00

HUB MERCANTILE CO.

WORTHINGTON, MINNESOTA.

A SIGNIFICANT FACT!

ALL GOOD PRINTING

COMES FROM THE

ADVANCE PRINTERY

Call us up when in need of

Letter Heads	Note Heads	Wedding Stationery
Bill Heads	Statements	Society Stationery
Envelopes	Business Cards	Fancy Pamphlets
Visiting Cards	Folders	Hand Bills
Auction Bills	Legal Blanks	Ect., Ect.

Large Stock of Good Paper Always on Hand. All Late and New Type Faces. First Class Workmen.

Telephone 137

THE ADVANCE

Worthington, Minn.