

ITS SOLEMN DEDICATION

The Newly Erected Chapel of the Sacred Heart.

THE BEAUTIFUL SERVICES.

Performed Sunday Morning by Bishop Van de Vyver, of Richmond. Address by Father Cowardin, of Baltimore.

The Catholic Chapel of the Sacred Heart on West York street was solemnly dedicated to the service of God on Sunday morning by Right Rev. Bishop Van de Vyver, of Richmond.

At the appointed hour the services of dedication were begun. They were impressive and beautiful. The Bishop, dressed in full pontificals, with mitre and crozier, preceded by two acolytes, Masters Barry and Walton, and attended by two can-debearers, Masters Glennan and Carroll, followed by the Revs. Fathers McCarthy, Cowardin, Doherty and Lynch—in surplices—proceeded from the altar to the main entrance and thence round the church, blessing the exterior walls.

At the appointed hour the services of dedication were begun. They were impressive and beautiful. The Bishop, dressed in full pontificals, with mitre and crozier, preceded by two acolytes, Masters Barry and Walton, and attended by two can-debearers, Masters Glennan and Carroll, followed by the Revs. Fathers McCarthy, Cowardin, Doherty and Lynch—in surplices—proceeded from the altar to the main entrance and thence round the church, blessing the exterior walls.

It was a touchingly beautiful address. He congratulated the Bishop and the pastor and the congregation that another temple to the services of the Most High had been dedicated. He was gratified to be present—gratified that upon his native soil another temple to God had been erected for the glory and honor of God.

Just previous to the conclusion of the mass the Bishop administered the blessing and after the mass he ascended the altar and announced the limits of the parish, which embrace all the territory of the city west from the west side of the line of Brewer street, running north and south.

The church was decorated with evergreens and the altar beautifully adorned with flowers. There were Vespers and benediction at 8 o'clock at night. Both services were largely attended.

The mission services at St. Mary's will open next Sunday under the auspices of the Jesuit Fathers, O'Keane and Campbell, who are recognized as among the ablest of this order of the church in the United States. The order of exercises will be as follows: Morning—6 o'clock, mass and sermon; 7 o'clock, mass; 9 o'clock, mass and sermon.

A WONDERFUL WORK

Something of the Utmost Interest to Everybody.

MATTER WHICH EFFECTS ALL

It Means Less Expense and More Money. It is Just What All Persons Are Looking For—Probably the Greatest Discovery of the Age.

The greatest and most wonderful cataplasms in the world are those which have the strongest and most powerful effects back of them, which result from years of study by thinking men, and which are built upon a foundation so sure and firm that no possible emergency can weaken them. This is exactly the case with the subject in question. It has astonished the most learned men everywhere, and the greatest intellects of the age acknowledge its genuine worth and marvelous superiority. And what makes it still more valuable is the fact that it is something a large portion of the people need.

No other discovery in the world has proved so useful, has been the means of so much saving, and has so completely won the hearts of the people as Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Its irresistible power to cure has astonished the greatest physicians in the world. One great reason why this wonderful remedy has taken the highest place among all the medicines of the world, why people prefer it to all others, and have more confidence in it than any other, is the fact that Dr. Greene, himself, personally assumes the entire responsibility of his medicine.

There are many remedies of uncertain value with no one to vouch for them, no physician standing behind them with whom persons can consult in case the medicines fail to produce the desired effect. But here is one which is the discovery and prescription of the best known and most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York City, who is in active practice and stands ready at all times to answer any and all questions regarding his remedy and its effects. And right here is an other advantage. Dr. Greene actually requests all persons taking his wonderful remedy to consider themselves under his direct personal care and treatment and to consult him, free of charge, personally or by letter. He will carefully answer all letters, giving his advice and all necessary information.

The great and world-wide reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone, at any time, free of charge, gives absolute assurance of the sure and beneficial action of his valuable remedy. No other medicine in the world offers so many or such strong inducements, and no other can give such certain and powerful assurance by curing disease. These facts give everybody the utmost confidence in Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Use it. It will make you strong and well.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE STOWAWAY.—"The Stowaway," which will be presented at the Academy to-morrow evening, will doubtless draw a full house, as it should. It is a good play presented by a strong company.

THE PASSING SHOW.—An important list of high class players will be seen Friday in the gorgeous extravaganza, "The Passing Show." Aside from the cast, there is a mammoth singing chorus and dancing ballet, which combined numbers one hundred persons. It is said to be the most gorgeous production of its kind this country has ever known.

"TWO COLONELS."—The "Two Colonels," a comedy in four acts, written by Mr. William Richard Goodall was presented at the Academy last evening for the first time in any Southern city, and is a credit to this young author.

The comedy tells a beautiful story of the friendship of two men, who, one from Vermont and the other from Virginia, went out to fight in the war between the States. If one wore the gray and the other wore the blue, they were still staunch men, brave and true. It so happened that at the battle of Chancellorsville, Col. Andrew Sloan was desperately wounded and was on the eve of being killed by a Federal soldier, when Col. Whitaker, of the Union forces, interferred and saved his life.

From that moment a band of friendship sprang up, which continued for years. In addition to its war incidents it is a love story, told of stalwart men and beautiful women. The scenes are laid in Vermont and Virginia, with one act in New York city, and this is heroic, but the smiles and tears are far more beautiful in the country homes of the two Colonels, and it is there one enjoys the heart interest of Goodall's romance. The piece was put on the stage with realistic effect, and was handled by a good company. The Col. Sloan of Mr. Frank Mordant, of Virginia, was a capital interpretation. The same may be said of Mr. Walter Thomas Ralph Whitaker, while the Clara Thornton of Miss Edith Orace was most charming.

Miss Crane is not only a fine actress but a most beautiful woman. Miss Georgia Wells as Charlotte was also exceedingly clever. In fact the characters were all well drawn and happily cast, and as the same play will be repeated at a matinee this afternoon and again at night, all will have an opportunity of seeing them.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICES

A Union Meeting at Cumberland Street Church.

PRAYER AND PRAISE MEETING

The New Year Ushered In. Half Hour of Song Service. Experience Meeting. Appropriate and Able Sermon by Dr. Tudor.

The congregations of Granby Street, Centenary, McKeudrey, Queen Street and Cumberland Street Methodist Churches united in observing the beautiful and impressive service of "Watch Night."

At 10 o'clock Rev. Dr. Tudor, the pastor of Cumberland Street Church, preached a beautiful, eloquent and earnest sermon, entirely appropriate to the occasion. "Watch and pray evermore" he impressed upon his hearers, and the solemnity of the services attending the delivery of his effort was such as to indelibly impress upon his hearers the great truths made clear in his discourse—an effort well worthy even Dr. Tudor.

At the conclusion of the sermon, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered, and during the quarter hour preceding midnight, the most impressive service of self-consecration to the work of God was solemnly assumed by many.

Last night Delia Erby was arrested and lodged at the station-house for striking her husband on the head with the keen edge of a hatchet. The man's head showed an ugly gash, which was dressed by Dr. Spaight.

The man himself has been charged with assault upon his wife, and he has before been convicted upon the same charge, having once beaten her with a gas pipe.

There are eight regular life assurance companies besides the Equitable organized under the laws of the State of New York which are now in active pursuit of public patronage, the combined "admitted" surpluses of which on the 1st of January last amounted to $36,357,356.55. This amount includes the surpluses of the two companies next in size to the Equitable. The admitted surplus of the Equitable alone is over EIGHTY-ONE AND A HALF per cent. of the total surpluses of the other eight New York Companies.

When it is understood that surplus is not only the measure of financial strength, but that from it alone can dividends be declared, the pre-eminent position of the Equitable on the vital points of security for the assured and the cost of assurance becomes apparent. THE EQUITABLE LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY of the United States is the STRONGEST and LARGEST Life Assurance Company in the world. A. MYERS, M'n'gr., Norfolk, Va.
