THE BLUES HAVE GONE They Left by the S. A. L. Last Night TO ATTEND THE MARDI GRAS Their Sunrise Salute Yesterday Morning. Busy Packing. The Names of Those Who Went South. Washington's Birthday Observed.

The anniversary of the Natal Day of the illustrious Washington was fittingly ushered in by a salute fired by the Norfolk Light Artillery Blues yesterday morning. The firing detachment was stationed at the end of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk pier, and with the first tints of rosy dawn the iron mouths of their cannon thundered out a national salute in honor of the "Father of His Country."

The salute was continued to sixty-seven guns, one gun for each year of the Blues' eventful history. A general display of bunting was made all over the city in honor of the national holiday. The shipping in the harbor and many stores were decorated, and from the City Hall and THE VIRGINIAN building "Old Glory" floated in the breeze.

The schools, public and private, all gave holiday, and several business houses were closed, the banks, postoffice and other public institutions observing holiday hours. Salutes were fired from the navy-yard at regulation hours. The day was a busy one for the boys, and the packing, preparatory to their New Orleans trip, went forward at a lively rate. When night arrived the battery was ready for embarkation.

At 10:10 they left the Army headed by a drum corps and crossed the ferry to Portsmouth, where they boarded a special train in waiting. It consisted of eleven day coaches and Pullmans. Several ladies went down on the same train. A short stop will be made in Atlanta and the boys will reach the Crescent City on Sunday morning at 7:45.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE. Ready for Work. The Outlook Encouraging. A meeting of the Board of Directors was held yesterday at 12 o'clock m. for the purpose of completing its organization for the current year.

President Vicar presided, with fourteen members present, the attendance being larger than usual. The Board gave its attention especially to an increase of membership, so that its current expenses may be promptly provided for and the institution kept upon a solid basis for the continuance of its valuable work.

Several new members were elected and the interest manifested by its most active workers give assurance of a large increase at once. To fill a vacancy in the board Col. W. H. Taylor was nominated and duly elected. When our business men come to realize that this body is the only source for general and specific information in all lines of enquiry, it will be strange indeed if the membership is not doubled in a very few days.

Mr. Samuel R. Borum was, without opposition, re-elected secretary and superintendent, and the business of the Chamber will proceed with the same intelligence and direction which has heretofore marked and made it conspicuous as a purveyor of commercial and manufacturing "facts and figures."

AMUSEMENTS. "A JAY CIRCUS."—This is the name of a novel show which will be at the Academy on Wednesday evening next, and those who know anything about it say that it is brim full of fun from start to finish. "A Jay Circus" is a farce comedy and the specialties are introduced in the circus act. It is one of those attractions which makes one laugh and is always received with applause.

THE GLEE CLUB CONCERT.—The sale of seats for the Glee Club concert at the Academy of Music Monday, will begin this morning at 9 o'clock. The club comes to Norfolk after an absence of three years, during which time they have won for themselves the most flattering notices from the press and public of all the cities they have visited.

MINSTRELS.—Al. G. Field's Minstrels, whom everybody knows and likes, will be at the Academy on Tuesday evening next, and it goes without saying that a full house will receive them. KINNESS.—This delightful entertainment will be repeated at the Academy this afternoon at 2:30 for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick, and no one who can do so should fail to attend.

THE POLICE PATROL.—A top heavy house applauded "The Police Patrol" at the Academy of Music last night. The features of the so-called realistic production were the real patrol wagon, well trained horses and the specialties of Eddie Giguere, who appeared as Splitters, the Newsboy.

Death of Mr. George W. Black. The many friends of Mr. George W. Black are pained to learn of his death, which occurred at his residence yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. Black has been a sufferer from rheumatism for many years, but he was on the street on Thursday, apparently enjoying his usual health. Yesterday morning, however, he was found unconscious in bed, and at 4 in the afternoon he expired.

THE DOUGLASS RESOLUTION The North Carolinians Are Very Indignant. DENOUNCE THE LEGISLATURE Carolinians in Norfolk Feel that a Great Outrage Has Been Perpetrated. The Legislature Composed of a Hard Set of Men.

The action of the North Carolina Legislature in adopting the resolutions on the death of Frederick Douglass was the most disapproved topic on the streets of this city yesterday, and everyone had an opinion to offer on the conduct of the Old North State lawmakers, and the opinions of North Carolinians now in Norfolk were not at all complimentary to the men who voted to honor the memory of Douglass and refused to pay such honors to the memory of Washington and Lee.

A very large per cent. of the business men of Norfolk are natives of North Carolina and are proud of their State. The VIRGINIAN talked to a number of them about the action of the Legislature in passing the resolution of respect and adjourning in honor of the death of Fred Douglass. The North Carolinians of Norfolk are disgusted. One gentleman said he saw Fred Douglass several years ago in Washington, and he was satisfied that he was more of a gentleman and a patriot than the white renegades who had refused to pay proper respect to the memory of Washington and Lee.

Another prominent North Carolinian said, "My grand old State is in disgrace and will be denounced from one end of the country to the other. I am sorry for it, but what could we expect when such a class of political roughs have charge of the affairs?" There is one consolation, North Carolina will have enough before this unholy coalition lets go her throat to teach her a lesson. A gentleman of influence in Norfolk, also in Carolina, said: "The Legislature has made a nice record, which the country will appreciate, see? They elected Butler and Pritchard to the United States Senate to take the places of Ransom and Jarvis. The honor, the character and the worth of the State were with Ransom and Jarvis. Now they have set aside Washington and Lee, the more strikingly to illustrate their affection for Douglass. So far as the negro goes, I do not think Crews can be much inferior to his white associates. They are all of a kind—a sorry kettle of fish. This resolution is a good thing. The people will rise in their might and drive out these filthy pothouse politicians, or North Carolina will be a second Haiti."

SHE TOOK A MUD BATH. This Woman Didn't Want to Become a Trolley Victim. "Stop the car! Stop the car!" shouted a small boy to Motorman George Holmes, of electric car No. 28, opposite the Norfolk and Western depot last night about 9:30 o'clock. The car was on its way to Brambleton and contained many passengers.

Without waiting for anything further the motorman turned on the current and, as suddenly as it had stopped, the car started ahead. In a moment the car had reached the trestle and the Conductor Hanson saw a woman floundering in the water and screaming like a Carmanche Indian. The conductor and motorman and several passengers climbed down, secured a hold on her hands and rescued her from the mud and water in which she was standing to a depth of three feet. She was colored and was sent to her home, on Culvert street, before her name was secured.

MUST REMOVE OBSTRUCTIONS The Street Inspector Makes a Proclamation. The Street Inspector, after obtaining the opinion of the City Attorney yesterday, that no one has a right to obstruct any part of the street by placing thereon goods for sale, issued the following notice: "Whereas, no person has a right to block the sidewalks or streets in any manner whatsoever, except in taking in and putting out goods, and the City Attorney having given his opinion that the streets may be so cleared, the Street Inspector hereby notifies and respectfully requests all persons not to block the sidewalks, and to remove all obstructions now on the same, subject, in failure thereof, to the penalty prescribed by law.

"All swinging signs not ten feet above the sidewalk must be removed." STILL AT WORK. The Company Much Encouraged Over Reaching Water. Mr. Healy, the engineer of the Ray Artesian Well Company, was seen by a representative of THE VIRGINIAN last night and said he had gotten rid of the quicksand and he thought he had struck mother earth. He has gone down 900 feet and is much encouraged. He believes he will yet find the water promised.

IN MEMORIAM. Departed this life on the 12th of February, 1895, GEORGE T. DENNEY, of Hertford, N. C. Born in Harrisburg, Pa., but for many years a resident in that Southern city which he loved so dearly, aged 60 years. Thus one by one our old landmarks are disappearing; thus one by one our old veterans of the Lost Cause are passing over the silent river. Few of us are now left to answer the roll call. Quite a number of his old comrades in arms met to pay their last respects to his remains. He was born to the glory of those who had stood shoulder to shoulder with him in battle. He was of a good disposition and his ever ready wit and humor made him a universal favorite with old and young. His hospitality and kindness were unbounded, and rarely did a friend pass his home without partaking of the former or receiving the latter. He was of a bold and fearless spirit, never obtrusive, but quick to resent an insult. Though a victim of a cruel malady, yet by his industry he carved for himself an honorable living. He was ever ready to contribute to a good cause, and he was ever ready to receive one. Though offered a quiet and peaceful home, and one devoid of labor, by his noble son Mr. George T. Derby, of Norfolk, Va., where he could pass the evening of his life in rest, his proud and brave spirit refused to accept of it, and he preferred each day by honor his lot to be in camp. His neighbors and friends will long miss their old and cheerful charm. He was married three times, his last wife surviving him. May God and we be merciful to the widow of our dear old friend.
