The coming of the Tavary Grand English Opera Company to the Academy next Monday and Tuesday 0393009999999999999

Academy next Monday and Thesday is the one topic of discussion in local musical circles. The appearance of Madame Tavary in this city is awaited with considerable interest. She is surrounded by unquestionably one of the strongest grand English opera organizations ever heard in this country. The company opened its season in Brooklyn, appearing in succession in all the leading cities. In every instance it has been an impossibility to secure a seat after Thesday of the engagement. The sale of seats has been phenomenal. The repertoire consists of operas that are always received with pleasure in this city, and better judgement could not have been shown in their selection. The supporting company embraces a list of principals rehowned both in of principals renowned both in America and Europe. The arrangement of operas is as follows: Monday, "Il Trovatore;" Tuesday mattnee, "Carmen," and in the evening, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I' Pagliaci."

Piles.

Piles is so common that every other person you meet is troubled with it more or less. It seems to be a little thing and usually gots little attention. It may not be serious at first, but it makes a man sick—makes him nervous, cross, irritable—unfit for business. It robs him of sleep, takes his appetite—cuts down his flesh—and yet he is careles about it.

will cure Piles. It will cure other things, too, but it is particularly good for Piles. It stops the itch and the ache at once. It may take several days to wholly allay the inflammation and reduce the swelling, but it will do it—sage. Has done but it will do it-sure. Has done it in innumerable cases. Never has
