

HELD UP ON MAIN STREET

A Mathews County Man Assaulted and Robbed.

A HIGHWAYMAN CAPTURED.

J. C. Thomas, of Mathews, Came to Norfolk to Buy Horses. He Was Entrapped and Harry Lash Got His Money. Lash Sent on to Grand Jury.

Mr. J. C. Thomas, of Mathews county, arrived here Thursday last to buy a horse and some materials for house building. Saturday afternoon while sitting in a stable talking about his intentions he was accosted by two young men, who said they had a horse to sell cheap, and asked Mr. Thomas to go with them to look at the animal. He left with them and when on Main street, near Newcastle, he says one of the men grabbed his hands, while the other went through his pockets and took $280.

Mr. Thomas says that when they got through robbing him they kuckeeked him down. The affair was reported to the police and Detective Snowden arrested Harry Lash, whom Mr. Thomas recognized as the man who held his hands. Justice Burroughs sent Lash on the grand jury for highway robbery.

RESISTING ARREST.

The Officer Exceeded His Authority and Used His Club.

A wagon owned by Mr. E. L. Simpson, of Norfolk county, and another vehicle in which was a lady, collided near the Old Dominion wharf on Saturday night. The lady was slightly bruised. The driver of the wagon went off, and when Mr. Simpson arrived Police Officer Ludy attempted to arrest him. The officer did not have a warrant and did not see the offence committed, yet he proceeded to arrest Mr. Simpson. A brother of Mr. Simpson interfered and the officer struck him with a club.

Officer Nelson came to Ludy's assistance and the brother was arrested. The affair was investigated by the Police Justice yesterday and the charges against Mr. Simpson were dismissed, the justice holding that the officer had no right to make the arrest. The Messrs. Simpson have not yet determined what action they will take against the officer. A suit against the city may be entered.

PAINFULLY BURNED.

A Little Son of Mr. S. W. Bowman Meets With an Accident.

A little son of Mr. A. W. Bowman, advertising agent for the Seaboard Air Line, was painfully burned at his father's home in Ghent Sunday afternoon, and had it not been for the presence of mind of the little fellow's father, would have suffered much. The story of how the child received his injuries would not interest the public half as much as the remarkable promptness with which his parents acted, for in less than two minutes he was in the hands of the doctor, and in a few minutes the little one cried out: "Papa, it don't hurt now; Quaratol has cured it."

Mr. Bowman is one of the several hundred people in Norfolk who keep Quaratol in the house for emergencies. It is useless and cruel to let your family suffer from any kind of injury when Quaratol will almost instantly afford relief. Mr. Bowman does not regret the 50 cents he paid a druggist for a bottle of Quaratol.

In the Corporation Court yesterday W. L. Corrow was sent to the penitentiary for two years for stealing a gold watch. Motion for a new trial will be entered later.

A noble prosecution was entered in the following cases: A. Jeffers, selling land without a license; Charles Robinson, petit larceny; Robert Stith, petit larceny (four cases.)

Peter Williams, colored, assaulting Meta Williams; continued to 13th.

Charles Nelson, white, assault; continued one day.

John Williams, colored, larceny; continued to 13th.

Will Austin, colored, firing a pistol three times in the street at corner of Mosely and Chapel streets last Friday; fined $22.75.

Grand Council Royal Arcanum.

The Grand Council Royal Arcanum of Virginia will convene in annual session on the 26th of March in Staunton. The Council has prospered during the past year. There are forty-seven subordinate councils in Virginia, with a membership of 4,600. The entire membership of the order is over 160,000. Since the order was organized, June 23d, 1877, over $30,000,000 have been paid out in death benefits.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well-known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says. "And have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by all druggists.

Coming In. New, beautiful and useful novelties for birthday and other gifts. Diamonds and watches can be found in greater variety at Frank H. Gale's than elsewhere. 152 Main street.

REVIVAL MEETINGS.

Meetings Being Held at Several of the Churches.

Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher, of Richmond, has returned to Norfolk to assist his son, Rev. E. B. Hatcher, in the revival at the First Baptist Church. Dr. Hatcher is an eloquent and able preacher and much interest is manifested in the meeting.

Rev. Dr. Lettlich of Tennessee, is conducting the revival services at the Granby Street Methodist Church. He has made a most favorable impression. There will be two services daily this week at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m. The latter being preceded by a half hour's song service. The meeting last night was very largely attended and there is evidence of a great awakening among the Methodist of this congregation.

The meetings at McKendree Methodist, Brambleton, and Colley Memorial Presbyterian, Atlantic City, are progressing well. The revival meetings at Freemason Street Baptist Church yesterday were well attended, notwithstanding bad weather, and Dr. Boughton delivered two impressive and able discourses. There was one profession of religion last night. The meetings to day will possess unusual interest. There will be a Bible reading at 4 o'clock and the Doctor will preach at 7:30 to-night.

Notice is given that, on March 1st, 1895, a small bell buoy, black, was moored in sixteen feet of water on the easterly edge of the shoal making off from Plum Beach, Western Passage of Narragansett Bay, in place of Plum Beach Shoal buoy, No. 1, black spar, discontinued on same date. Dutch Island Lighthouse, S. by W. Most northerly of The Brothers, off Conanicut Island, E. by S. As the bell buoy is not numbered, the numbers of the following named buoys have been changed to preserve the proper sequence. James Ledge, from 3 to 1; Quonset Point Shoal, from 5 to 3; Warwick Narrows, (west), from 7 to 5; Coniment Middle Ground, from 9 to 1. The Lighthouse Board gives notice that the automatic steam fog siren at Execution Rocks light station, Long Island Sound, New York, is temporarily disabled. Repairs will be made as soon as possible.

DR. HOWERTON CALLED. A Brilliant Young Preacher From Arkansas.

The First Presbyterian Church has extended a call to Rev. Dr. J. R. Howerton, of the Second Presbyterian Church, Little Rock, Ark. Col. Geo. Tait and Messrs. Strudwick, Bagnall and Santos were appointed a commission to prosecute the call. Dr. Howerton is 34 years of age. He was educated in Tennessee, served a church in San Antonio, Tex., was professor in the Tuskegee, Ala., Institute, and from there went to Little Rock, where he has been for six years.

HE WAVED EXAMINATION. The Case Will Come Up at the May Term.

The case of Commonwealth vs. Mr. Rutland, the husband of the woman who died at Dr. Jackson's office, was called yesterday by the Police Justice. Mr. Small appeared as counsel. He waved examination and was sent on to the grand jury at the May term of the court, with Mr. Goodson as surety in a bond of $500. Dr. Jackson's case will also come up at the May term.

A National Building and Loan Association has been organized in this city with the title of Southeastern Building and Loan Association, officiated by the following gentlemen: James G. Gill, president; H. H. Hodges, first vice-president; Thomas J. Nottingham, second vice-president; E. D. White, secretary; R. W. Whitehurst, treasurer; Wool & White, attorneys; V. Brevard, general manager. The plan of the association combines the features of building and loan and life insurance, the association securing for such of its members as desire it life insurance.

Water Drowned. Sunday morning about 3:30 o'clock, while the steamer Morgan City was between Atlantic City and Lambert's Point, the first mate, E. E. Percy, of New York, who was engaged in fastening a rail over one of the hatches, slipped back and rolled overboard. He was drowned before assistance could reach him. Mr. Percy is spoken of by all who know him as a genial, whole-souled gentleman. This was his third trip on the Morgan City, she being under charter by the Merchants' and Miners' Transportation Company.

Execution of Officers. The annual meeting of the Savings Bank of Norfolk was held yesterday and the following directors were elected: Geo. W. Day, Washington Taylor, Geo. Chamberlain, H. M. Nash and Wm. W. Chamberlain. The old bank officers were re-elected.

To the contrary notwithstanding, it has been demonstrated that "high grade" goods at the lowest prices in the city are to be had at "The Casket." The best grades of watches, diamonds, jewelry, silverware, etc., are to be found at 158 Main street, and for high price, you will say high grade and low prices prevail at "The Casket."

Quicksilver in Largest Quantities. At Burrow's drug store; also bug poison made from corrosive sublimate and alcohol; strongest article warranted to destroy bedbugs and also to prevent for entire year. Only 25c a pint.

Fred. Douglass memorial services will be held at St. John A. M. E. Church this evening at 8 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Elliott, of North Carolina, was in the city yesterday and visited the meeting of the Baptist preachers.

S. Q. Collins, yesterday transferred to Mrs. Walter G. Fearling house and lot No. 96 Yorkmouth street, for $4,000. A mad dog was killed by Detective Snowden at the corner of Princess Anne avenue and Church street yesterday morning.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Presbyterian Church conducted the meeting at the Union Mission last night. Mr. J. Frank East, ex-Police Justice, occupied a seat on the bench in the Police Court yesterday with Justice Burroughs.

Mr. Edwin F. Naulty, who engineered the New York Herald special through the South Sunday, paid this Virginia a visit last evening.

Miss C. Newman, who went North to purchase S. Newman's spring stock of millinery, has returned with all the latest novelties in the millinery line. Rev. L. G. Broughton, D. D., of Roanoke, is in Norfolk to assist Rev. Dr. Wharton in the revival services at the Freemason Street Baptist Church.

Rev. Dr. Tudor preached a splendid sermon Sunday night at the Cumberland Street M. E. Church, his subject being "Paul on Mars Hill." There were three penitents at the altar.

The Norfolk City Guard will have their annual target practice at Ocean View Thursday, and will also enjoy an oyster roast while at the view. They will have a group picture taken before going.

Mr. Henry Myers returned yesterday from Blacksburg, where he and Maj. A. Myers have been attending Master Geo. Myers, Maj. Myers' youngest son, who has been quite ill. Maj. Myers has not yet returned.

The thirtieth organ recital will be given at Christ P. E. Church this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Miller will be assisted by Miss Elizabeth A. Taylor, soprano; Miss L. Williams, contralto, and Mr. W. B. Nicholson, tenor. This recital is given at night by request.

HUNTERSVILLE.

Mr. Earnest Wescott, of Franktown, Northampton county, Eastern Shore, Va., who was a visitor in our midst, has returned home.

Little Miss Ruby Brittingham, of Outen street, wears the gold medal this week for scholarship last week in the public school of this town.

The cantata, "A Trip to Europe," was enjoyed by an appreciative audience at Third Baptist Church last night. Having begun work on the streets it is hoped the authorities will keep it up until all the bad places and impassable holes in the streets are well repaired.

The Alpha Literary Club met at Misses Savage's, Central avenue, Friday last. Mr. M. G. Lennon, acting president pro tem, called the club to order. After the regular routine of business had been transacted, the club was in a most pleasant manner entertained by instrumental solos by Misses the Lewellyn, of Ghent, and Miss Savage, of Huntersville, which they duly appreciated. Upon motion the club adjourned at 10:45 p. m. to meet with Miss Annie Bell, 19 Washington avenue, next Friday at 8 p. m. and discuss "Loughfellow" as topic of the evening.

Funeral of Miss Cecelia Hendren. The funeral of Miss Cecelia Hendren took place from St. Mary's Catholic Church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. Father John Doherty officiating. The interment was in Portsmouth.

The Best for the Family. MACON, GA.—"I have found Simmons Liver Regulator the best family medicine. I have used it in indigestion and biliousness, and found it to relieve immediately. After eating a hearty supper, if on going to bed I take a dose of it, I never feel any bad effects of the supper."—Ovid G. Sparks, ex Mayor.

BRAMBLETON.

The ladies of the Brambleton W. C. T. U. will meet at the residence of Mrs. Geo. Watson, No 14 Marshall avenue, at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. The walls of the new public school building, at the corner of Maltby and Corrow avenues, are completed.

Mr. R. V. Spratley and family, of Lambert's Point, have made their residence at No. 220 Brambleton avenue. Miss Minnie Ansell, of Norfolk county, is visiting the family of her uncle, Mr. Willis Cherry, 220 Granville avenue.

Rev. W. W. Royall, D. D., preached two sermons of signal ability at McKendree Sunday and delivered a lecture on China to the Woman's Missionary Society yesterday at 4:30 o'clock.

Rev. W. F. Watson is carrying on revival meetings at Spurgeon this week, aided by Rev. Mr. Martie.

Rev. Dr. Hall admitted six to membership Sunday and preached to large congregations. The meetings are still in progress at McKendree, with a number of conversions and accessions to the church, under the earnest and impressive sermons of Rev. Dr. Royall.

A large concourse of people attended McKendree at 3:30 p. m., yesterday to pay a last tribute to a bright little boy, Rev. J. T. Mastin preaching the funeral of Herbert F. Parker, who died at the residence of his parents, Mr. Joseph G. and Mrs. Mary E. Parker, No. 207 Brambleton avenue, Sunday.

A youth thus passed away at the tender age of 11 years and 6 months. He was one of the brightest and most popular boys in the community, loving and dutiful at home, obedient and studious at school and pious and attentive at church. The floral designs offered as tributes of affection were numerous and beautiful. One worthy of special mention was that given by his schoolmates of Brambleton public school, Mrs. Sue Clark, rector. Many hearts are grief stricken in sympathy with the devoted parents in this bereavement of their son, their last surviving child. The following were the pallbearers: Eddie Graham, Robert Bugg, Willie Bradley, Henry Mercer, Nat Tatem, Willie Drury, Edgar Webster, Eddie Knight, Willie Howard and Robert Moore. Interment was in Elmwood.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Colley Memorial Church is thronged from night to night. The meetings are full of interest. Never has one preached in Norfolk who excels Mr. Gales in wealth of power and pathos. There were twelve men and women who took their stand for God last night and many men ask for prayer. The services continue at 4 and 7:30 daily.

The college prayer meetings will be as follows to-day: Mrs. Auselm, Front street at 10 o'clock; Mrs. Ewell, River-view avenue, 10 o'clock; Mrs. Burgess, Herndon avenue, 9 o'clock.

The Ladies Aid Society will hold a called meeting this afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Norton, Campe avenue, at 3 o'clock.

Owing to the meetings this week at Colley Memorial Church there will not be any service to-morrow night at Asbury M. E. Church.

There was a meeting held at the Central Avenue Baptist Church Sunday at 3:30 p. m. for the purpose of reorganizing the Young People's Working Union. The following officers were elected: President, O. O. Morse; vice president, F. E. Hansell; secretary, George F. Gale; treasurer, Miss Minnie Beach.

Rev. T. A. Hall preached his fourth anniversary sermon at Central Avenue Baptist Church. Seven persons were received for membership.

A generous contribution. Mrs. J. Hood Wright, of New York, whose husband was a partner in the firm of Drexel, Morgan & Co., upon visiting the Railroad Young Men's Christian Association Building, at Clifton Forge, Va., and observing the workings of the institution, has signified her intention to send $300 a year through Mr. M. E. Ingalls, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio and under whose direction the Clifton Forge Association became a reality, to be used for the purchase of books for the library. This gift is made in memory of her late husband. This voluntary gift is a ringing testimonial to the value of this department to work among railroad men, and will lead others who have the means to use some portion of their wealth in similar benevolences.

Sunday School Association. The monthly meeting of the Methodist Sunday School Association was held Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with the Queen Street School.

The reports from the different schools for February were read and Chestnut Street School, Berkeley, showed the largest percentage of attendance, Asbury the largest percentage of punctual attendance and Granby Street the largest contribution per number. These were declared the banner schools for the month.

Rev. J. G. Lennon, of the Huntersville Church, delivered an address, Subject, "Little Children."

The next meeting will be held at Cumberland Street in April.

The People's Cyclopedia. A work that should be in the hands of every intelligent person; should occupy a place in the library of every family. What an eminent educator says of it: Dr. John J. Tigert, Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., says: "I have examined The People's Cyclopedia sufficiently to become convinced that it is one of the very best books of ready reference on the American market. It embraces a larger number of titles than any other similar publication; it is particularly full on topics of interest to Americans, and presents the fullest and freshest statistics. For use in the family and the office I am persuaded The People's Cyclopedia has no superior. I have purchased a set."

THE DAISY ROLLER MILLS

Completed and Ready for Business.

AN IMPORTANT TRADE FACTOR

Will Do an Export Business as Well as Sell to Home People. The Mills Will Have a Capacity of 1,200 Barrels Per Day. To Run Day and Night.

The Dairy Roller Mills, No. 275 Water street, is one of the most complete flour manufacturing mills in the South and will be an important factor in Norfolk's trade. The building is located at Higgins' wharf and is a brick structure 70x70 feet and four stories high. It is filled with the latest improved machinery, which at heavy expense was secured from Nordyke & Moran, of Ludlowopolis.

The plant has a capacity of 1,200 barrels per day. In the corn mill there are six pair of burrs.

The firm has every facility for doing a large business, and will run night and day. Wheat and corn from the West and South of the best grade will be used.

This company, of which Mr. Frank L. Grandy is president, Eugene Ives, secretary and treasurer, and H. E. Owens general manager, expects to export a large quantity of their goods and already have received orders from abroad, but the trade will, in the main, be with the cities of Virginia and the Carolinas.

The firm is composed of enterprising men, alive to the best interest of the city and when pushing their private affairs will not forget the general trade of the port. These gentlemen have three brands, The Daisy, Daisy Belle and Flood Tide, which they feel confident will place Norfolk in the front rank of flour manufacturing cities of the East.

When so many people are taking and deriving 1 1/2 ft from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it yourself. It is highly recommended.
