The News, Personal, General and Political, Concisely Recorded.

STRICKEN WITH APOPLEXY

Mr. Julian Now Better. The Stay Law. The Daily Caucasian is No More. Printers Greatly Disturbed. Penitentiary Farms. Revenue Bill Considered.

Special Dispatch to the Virginian. RALEIGH, N. C., March 11.—Saturday night at a late hour Representative D. R. Julian, of Rowan, made a strong speech in the House against the fusion bill to amend the charter of Salisbury. When he returned to his hotel he did not feel well and yesterday morning he had an apoplectic attack. It was for some time thought he would die. He is much better and left for Salisbury this afternoon.

Representative Etheridge has pneumonia. The Stay Law bill has passed the Senate but not the House.

Mr. D. Carson Murray, who was for many years steward of the penitentiary, died at his home here of pneumonia.

The printers here are greatly wrought up by the action of the Legislature in transferring the public printing to Winston. Edwards & Broughton, who have for two years done half the printing, to day discharged fifteen compositors.

The Daily Caucasian, Senator Marion Butler's Populist paper, makes its last appearance Wednesday.

Alfred W. Haywood, Esq., one of the leading attorneys in this city, will surrender most of his legal business here in order to go to Haw river, where he will aid his father-in-law, ex-Gov. Thomas M. Holt, in the management of the latter's great cotton mills.

The fusionist caucus has decided that a farm in the East and one in the West shall be provided for the convicts, of whom there are now some 1,300 able bodied.

In the Senate Saturday the revenue bill was considered in committee. An amendment was adopted reducing the tax on cigarettes to 5 cents per 1,000 and putting a tax of one-half of 1 per cent, a pound on plug tobacco, this to apply to dealers only. A license tax of $10 on dentists was imposed. An amendment to the machinery act was adopted, providing for listing property and collecting back taxes on it when such property shall not have been listed or shall have been listed and shall have escaped taxation.

A resolution was adopted that the Senate remain until the calendar is cleared.

The House passed the bill appropriating $2,000 for repairs and improvement at the white Institution for the Blind here and $7,000 for new buildings at the colored Institution. Bills passed to establish a whiskey dispensary at Hickory. To amend the charter of Raleigh. To incorporate the Elon, Osepipe and Altamahaw railway. To allow unincorporated insurance companies to do business upon depositing $20,000 with the State. To appropriate $8,500 annually to the Soldiers' Home. To appropriate $7,500 annually to the Agricultural and Mechanical College for new dormitories and heating apparatus.

IN WARWICK COUNTY.

Interesting Dots of Newport News and Surroundings.

Special Dispatch to the Virginian.

Newport News, March 11.—A very pretty home wedding will be solemnized this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride on Twenty-seventh street, when Miss Edith Michie, a popular young lady of this city, will wed Mr. John Mattingly, also of Newport News. It will be a quiet affair and only the immediate relatives will witness the ceremony. The Rev. Francis Ribble, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, will unite them in the holy bonds. The house will be elaborately decorated in potted plants and flowers. The bride will wear a handsome tailor-made gown of blue and brown crepon and will carry bride roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mattingly will leave on the 4:30 Chesapeake and Ohio for a Northern tour, and after their return will reside at the Gloucester. Both have many friends here and elsewhere, and they were the recipients of a large number of elegant and handsome bridal presents. Among those who came over to attend the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. Tilley, of Berkeley. Marye & Boynton is the title of the new firm of general insurance and real estate which has just begun here, and which is composed of two of our most popular citizens, Mr. Marye was formerly of the firm of Braxton, Chandler and Marye, and Mr. Boynton, of the firm of W. S. Boynton & Co.

Last night a large party comprising the young friends of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Bailey assembled at Col. C. B. Braxton's at 5:30 o'clock and proceeded to Mr. Bailey's residence in a body. It was a most enjoyable party and a farewell tribute to Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, who will shortly move North to reside. A handsome present of cut glass was presented to the party as a souvenir, after which delightful refreshments were served. Many regrets were expressed relative to giving up Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, who have for so long been identified with the city, and who have contributed largely to the pleasure of the young people here and elsewhere.

Rev. Francis Ribble, of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, spent yesterday in Norfolk.

IF YOUR BACK ACHE, Or you are all worn out, really good for nothing, it is generally debility. Try BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. It will cure you, cleanse your liver, and give you good appetite.

As Good as a Sunbeam. Abby Smith, the oldest woman in Connecticut, died last month near Norwich, aged 113 years. For more than 100 years she had worked in country homesteads, a faithful house hand, who toiled as hard as ever a woman could. It was not until she was 110 years old that she ceased to be able to support herself and do all her household duties and chores. She was a sprightly, clean built, cheery faced, helpful old lady, who by turns trotted into one house and then another among "the neighbors," "jest her help 'em on with the work," and her coming there was as good as a sunbeam twinkling in at the windows after dull and cheerless weather.—Norwich Letter.

The Vogue of Artificial Flowers. For a number of years artificial flowers were entirely out of fashion. Hats and bonnets were trimmed with ribbons or with ostrich feathers. Many manufacturers of flowers were ruined by this long continued freak of style. They have their revenge today, when their products never were in so high favor. They are worn at present not only on headgear, but also as profuse garniture for evening gowns. Many women have light frocks adorned with tiny bouquets that dot the whole skirt. The floral collars and collarettes, the blossom bedecked tiny mufflers, all assist in disposing of thousands of these fragile trappings at this end of the century.

Mrs. Tree's Costumes. Some of Mrs. Beerholm Tree's costumes are worth talking about. One of her most striking gowns is of lemon yellow, with deep magenta train and pinkish velvet flowers and leaves brocaded on the left side. The low bodice is edged with a deep flounce of white lace, and she wears pale yellow gloves and a big yellow fan. Equally original is a rich white moire skirt striped with perpendicular lines of black. Over this is a coat bodice of carnation red velvet, with pink lined tails and pink tulle waistcoat. The bonnet that finishes this daring outfit has outspreading bows of black velvet and a bunch of pink roses.

Will Show the Way. In Boston, at the last state election, out of 143,000 assessed voters, only 87,000 registered and only 68,000 voted. The woman voters for school committee in the same election numbered nearly 12,000, and 90 per cent of these voted. In view of these facts the Boston Advertiser remarks that "it has been the custom of the opponents of women to insist that 'if woman suffrage were granted not half the women would vote.' The same proportion already holds good for men." When women vote, the men who now stay at home will go to the polls, and "rallying committees" will be unnecessary.

Mrs. Morton's Dresses. Mrs. Morton, the "first lady" of New York state, has great talent in dressing, and it is a sign of it that she has recently taken to wearing Princess of Wales collars with her full dress toilets. She is still a handsome woman, her complexion fresh beneath her silver gray hair, but her throat is no longer the throat of a girl, and she has no need of unduly impressing the public with this fact. The Princess of Wales invented this deep, close fitting necklace to hide a scar on her neck, but it is useful for softening various defects.—New York Letter.

She Has a Valet. Well known women, such as Lady De Grey, Lady Rosslyn, the Dowager Lady Dudley, Lady Florence Bourke and Lady Wolverton, have taken to bicycling in costume de rigueur. Apropos of "bikes," a young lady recently arrived at a country house, says Vanity, her impediments consisting of a pair of guns, a set of golf clubs, a bicycle, a maid and a valet, the latter being required to act as a loader, to rub down her "bike," varnish her boots and act as caddy on the golf links. Of a verity this is the coming woman with a vengeance.

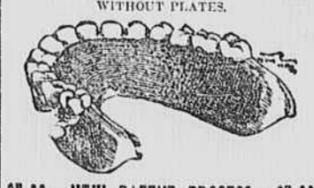

The Old Friend And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons' Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do. It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

WHY? WHY are so many persons blind to their own interests? A little thought will often save great trouble. WHY will women do so many imprudent things and then suffer when there is no need of it? WHY will men become careless and overdo when by care they can avoid it all? WHY will people permit headaches, lassitude, debility, strange pains and broken health when all can easily be escaped? WHY, in fact, will men and women suffer when they can become healthy and prolong their lives by the use of Warner's Safe Cure? WHY will people foolishly experiment with inferior things when this best known and only reliable remedy is so easily within their reach? WHY, when you know these things, reader, do you delay? There is no time like the present.
