

REFUTING OATES' STATEMENT

A Strong Card From Two Prominent Alabamians.

"THE DE FACTO GOVERNOR."

The Signers of This Card Deny That the Financial Condition of Alabama is a Good One. They Also Hold Col. Oates Responsible for the Trouble.

By Southern Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 18.—The following statement was given out to day:

ASTOR HOUSE, NEW YORK, MARCH 18, 1895.

To the Press of New York City:

The de facto Governor of Alabama, Col. Oates, has made public through the press certain statements regarding the financial condition of Alabama which we, in justice to a common sense of honesty, feel it a duty to refute. The reference one would have from his interviews, in which he states that the credit of Alabama is so good, would be that the State is in a peaceful and prosperous condition, this not being the case.

The facts are that under the preceding administration the Government of Alabama became in such straits that the then de facto Governor, Thomas G. Jones, recommended that the taxes be raised to meet the existing deficiency. He also, without authority of law, borrowed money to prevent a crisis. Since Col. Oates was seated de facto Governor by soldiers with forty rounds of cartridges buckled around their waists, his counted in administration has found it necessary to not only raise the tax rate, but also to provide a new and unjust revenue law to attempt to save the State from another impending bankruptcy.

If such conditions make the good credit of a State, that may exist for Alabama, but business men will deem it otherwise, especially when a great majority of the people of Alabama do not now recognize Col. Oates as the legally elected Governor of the State. Alabama's de facto Governor is engaged in playing a new and unique role. Usually people come to New York City to get business, now Col. Oates is here endeavoring to borrow the finances of Wall Street into purchasing Alabama bonds, when there is each year a growing deficit in the State treasury and when it is with effort that the people are restrained from open rebellion against the present fraudulent de facto administration.

County officials, who handle the State revenue, have been retained in office and protected from prosecution after it is a matter of common report that they are defaulters of public funds. Thus it is evident that those whose way into office is stolen by prostituting the ballot box, cannot be trusted with the custody of the people's money. Hence the great demand for ballot reform in the South.

M. W. HOWARD, Congressman Seventh Alabama District.

J. C. MANNING, Representative in Alabama General Assembly.

A PROPOSED MODIFICATION

A General Rearrangement of Georgia Central Securities.

CAPE FEAR AND YADKIN VALLEY

Savannah and Western Protective Committee Not Favorable to the Georgia Central. Plan Proposed Alliance of C. F. Road With R. & S.

By Southern Associated Press.

NEW YORK, March 18.—The proposed modification of the Georgia Central plan, whereby the Savannah and Western bondholders are to receive for each $1,000 bond $500 in new general mortgage 4 per cents, $250 in first preference incomes, and $250 in second preference incomes, is not acceptable to the Savannah and Western protective committee.

A member of this committee says that the terms are not as favorable as originally proposed and that it is doubtful whether the original proposition would be accepted now. It is believed that further modification will be necessary before the plan can be officially issued. Several houses who participated in the plan as first proposed have practically decided to withdraw from participation.

The belief is quite general that the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co., will eventually reorganize the property on terms more favorable to Southern railway interests.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 18.—The committee representing the first mortgage bondholders of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad held a meeting here to-day and completed final arrangements for establishing the claims of the first mortgage bondholders before the special master appointed by Judge Simonton at the hearing to hold at Wilmington, N. C., to-morrow.

This committee represents about $2,800,000 deposited under the terms of the first mortgage bondholders' agreement, out of a total issue of $3,050,000. The property has been operated by Gen. John Gill, of Baltimore, as receiver, since April 1st, 1894, and has shown satisfactory results, considering the times.

The bondholders hope to get a decree of foreclosure at the April term of court, and will probably buy the property in when it is offered for sale. The proposition to form an alliance with the Roanoke and Southern has, it is said, been favorably received by the security holders of both companies. Nothing definite in this direction can be done, however, until the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley foreclosure proceedings are disposed of.

KILRAIN--O'DONNELL.

The Fight to a Draw, Amid Wild Excitement.

By Southern Associated Press. BOSTON, March 18.—After an absence of four years from the ring, Jake Kilrain, of Baltimore, faced Steve O'Donnell, of Australia, better known as Corbett's sparring partner, for eight rounds to-night at the Suffolk Athletic Club.

The contest was declared a draw amid the wildest excitement, the like of which has never been witnessed in Boston. Kilrain had plenty of sympathizers, among them John L. Sullivan, who occupied a seat behind him. He urged his old time opponent on during the fight and it seemed to give Kilrain encouragement.

O'Donnell, although a much lighter man than Kilrain, did not show up to advantage, and he disappointed the spectators who expected to see a clever fighter. It was apparent, as soon as Kilrain stepped into the ring, that he had been drinking and was not in a fit condition to fight. His stomach was large and he was very fleshy. He had not lost any of his old time cleverness, and it was used to advantage.

At times it looked as though he would not be able to continue on his feet, as his wind was poor, but at critical times he rallied and showed wonderful strength. When the fight was finished Referee Sheppard held his decision for a few minutes while the 1,500 spectators yelled "Kilrain!" at the top of their voices.

When he called the contest a draw it met with the approval of every person in the hall. Kilrain weighed 220 pounds and O'Donnell 175. Neither man suffered any worse damage than being badly winded.

"WAS A WILLFUL INSULT."

A Ringing Cablegram From Ex-Secretary Whitney.

By Southern Associated Press. NEW YORK, March 18.—The following cablegram was received by the New York Times to-day from William C. Whitney, ex-Secretary of the Navy, in reply to a message sent him by Charles R. Miller, the editor of the Times:

"SAPLES, MARCH 18. To the Editor of New York Times: 'I reply to your dispatch as follows: In considering what should be done concerning the outrage perpetrated by the Spanish man of war in firing on the Allianca, one fact should not be lost sight of. It was deliberate and with full knowledge of the act. 'It is certain that no person in command of any war vessel in the world would be ignorant that the firing upon a merchant vessel of another power on the high seas in time of peace would violate the law of nations. There is not a subordinate officer of any man-of-war in the world who has not been sufficiently instructed to know that. 'It is, therefore, a case of a willful insult to the American flag and people. I do not recall to wanton an outrage as happening to my first class power in fifty years. An apology scarcely wipes out such an affront. 'The truth is we have happened to come in for a piece of the general brutality and ruffianism that hold Cuba. The thing is a relic of the middle ages. It is a disgrace to us that lies at our doorstep. 'It makes my blood boil, for one. Of course they will apologize elaborately and discipline the officers. But when we are looking toward him the general terrorism which holds Cuba down while they suck her blood, will have been substantially increased at our expense. 'You can gather what my opinion is. What the Government should do is another matter. The President in such matters is generally a safe person to follow, but as you ask my opinion, there it is. 'W. C. WHITNEY."

A RISE IN LEATHER.

May Cause Serious Loss to Shoe Manufacturers.

By Southern Associated Press. BOSTON, March 18.—A Haverhill, Mass., special says: Anxiety and uneasiness were pictured on the countenances of the local shoe manufacturers this morning as they rushed about in their endeavor to purchase sole leather at old figures.

The prices were recently advanced 2½ cents per pound, and the dealers notified their customers to-day that a further advance of 3 cents had been made, and there was almost a panic among the smaller shoe manufacturers in regard to the issuance of this notice. The manufacturers had been caught on the port side and the advance has caused them much worryment, as they had taken their orders at a small profit, and now the advance right in the middle of the largest business the shoe manufacturers have ever known at this season of the year, has swept away all their profits and they will have to manufacture their goods at a loss.

The leather dealers claim that the advance is due to the scarcity of hides and they predict that the end of the advance prices is not in sight. The local dealers have their stores well stocked with leather and will not be affected, but the advances in the prices mean much to the manufacturers.

THE FAIR ELECTION MOVEMENT

Discussing a Democratic State Convention. Gov. O'Ferrall's Embarassing Position. The Gold Brick Case Postponed. A Memorial Service.

Special Dispatch to the Virginian.

RICHMOND, Va., March 18.—The persons interested in the fair elections movement say their plans are working out most encouragingly, but they refuse to give out for publication any of the details of what has been done. It is stated that the next conference will not be held until after the elections in May. This has led some people to believe that it may be the purpose of the fair electionsists to test the constitutionality of the Walton bill before that time. Mr. J. Haskins Hobson refused to tell who is co-operating with him, but it is known here that Gen. Mahone has written him a letter pledging his support.

The matter of holding a Democratic State Convention this year is being very much discussed in a quiet way among the leaders of the party. Nearly all of them are opposed to a convention, and will use their influence to prevent the necessity of agreeing upon a platform. They say that while sentiment is so much divided as to currency it would be suicidal policy to bring persons of widely different views together to say what is best for the country. If there could be any guarantee that the platform would refer only to State issues then the party leaders would not oppose the calling of a convention.

A few days ago Gov. O'Ferrall was placed in a most embarrassing position. It was on the occasion of the visit of the committee from the Massachusetts Legislature. The Governor was not aware that one of the members of the body was a colored man when he invited them to call at the Executive Mansion at 2 o'clock. He met his white colleagues just as they were entering the mansion and went along with them into the parlor where the Governor and Mrs. O'Ferrall were in waiting. It is needless to say that His Excellency was shocked. Mrs. O'Ferrall, of course, withdrew at once. A nice lunch had been prepared and when the Governor invited the committee to partake of it, why, the negro went along too. The presence of the colored member was so unexpected the Governor had little time in which to consider as to what he should do under the circumstances. The most of his friends think he did perhaps the best thing.

The case of Frank L. Smith, alias Parker, the man of gold brick fame, was called for trial in Henrico County Court this morning, but on account of the sickness of Mr. L. O. Wendenburg, counsel for the prisoner, it was continued until the 15th of April. Mr. Wendenburg has the grip. Mr. Hill Carter has been associated with Mr. Wendenburg. Withers and all the other witnesses were on hand.

Mr. Peter A. Sublett, one of the oldest and best known commission merchants of Richmond, died here yesterday, aged 63 years. Mr. Sublett had nothing but a horse when he came out of the war. He was the head of the big commission house of Sublett & Cary, his partner being Col. Miles Cary. Mr. Sublett was quite well off, and was a most liberal contributor to charitable enterprises. He leaves a wife and daughter.

Rev. Dr. J. J. Hall, of Norfolk, delivered a splendid sermon last night before the Baptist Young People's Union, of Leigh Street Baptist Church, and Rev. E. B. Hatcher, of Norfolk, filled his father's pulpit here. St. Patrick's Church was packed yesterday morning and night, on the occasion of the religious services in honor of Ireland's Patron Saint. Father Wilson, of Fredericksburg, delivered the panegyrics. The banquet was held to-night.

A memorial service will be held next Sunday at the First Baptist Church, at 4 p. m., in honor of the memory of Dr. Broadus, Dr. Hatcher will preside. Dr. Hiden will speak of Dr. Broadus as a scholar and preacher; Prof. Harris as a teacher; Dr. Landrum as a Christian and Prof. Thomas will tell about the closing scenes of his life.

Anti-Vigilance Rustlers Commit a Very Brutal Crime. By Southern Associated Press. BRITTE, Neb., March 18.—Mrs. W. E. Holton, living in Reyna's town county, near Brooksburg, was outraged and hanged on Thursday last and her body was discovered yesterday. The crime is supposed to have been committed by rustlers of the anti-vigilance committee, who suspected her of giving testimony which would lead to the conviction of some cattle thieves.

Her body was found lying in a room with a rope around her neck, and there were evidences that she had been outraged also. Sus was living alone at the time, her husband having been sent to the insane asylum. This is the section of the State near the scene of the recent Bascom tragedy. There is great excitement and talk of lynchings. No arrests yet.

By Southern Associated Press. RICHMOND, Va., March 18.—At a meeting to-day of the Confederate Memorial Literary Society, letters from three of the Confederate Generals appointed by Mr. Charles Broadway Rous, of New York, to select a site for his proposed Confederate museum, were read. From these and other papers before the meeting it was evident that the matter would crystallize at the reunion of the United Confederate Veterans in Houston, Texas, in May, and Col. John B. Cary and Judge George L. Christian were appointed a committee to attend the reunion and urge that Richmond be the site.

SAYS HE FIRED FOUR GUNS.

He Says the Steamer Was Not Two Miles Off the Cuban Coast. The Allianca First Raised a British Flag. Did Not Wish to Hit the Steamer.

By Southern Associated Press.

HAVANA, March 18.—The commander of the Spanish cruiser Conde de Venadite reports that on March 8th, while cruising off the eastern coast of the island, he sighted a steamer heading for Hayti Point. The steamer's course was to the northeast. The cruiser hoisted a flag and the steamer replied by raising an English flag. The cruiser signalled the steamer to stop, but without effect. As the steamer proceeded at full speed the cruiser first fired two blank shots and then two solid shots. The commander says he did not desire to hit the steamer but merely to cause her to leave to. He asserts that the steamer was but one and a half miles off the Cuban coast when the firing occurred.

The authorities here have ordered that a full inquiry be made into the commander's acts. Judging from Capt. Crossman's story nobody can doubt that the steamer in question was the Allianca which was fired on by a Spanish cruiser on March 8th. Nothing has been heard here to confirm the rumor that the gunboat Alsedo has sunk an American schooner. The rumor is regarded as utterly unfounded, in fact.
