

SUFFOLK LOCAL.

Mr. Harry Yeoman and bride, who eloped to Gatesville Saturday and returned from thither to Suffolk, left Sunday afternoon for the home of the groom's father, near Chukotuck.

Col. Peters, of the National Guard of Tennessee, was in the city in the interest of the grand interstate drill and encampment to be held at Memphis May 11th to 21st.

He met the officers of the several companies and placed the matter before them. We trust that the Norfolk Blues and at least one or two of the rifle companies will go to Memphis, as it is an opportunity that they cannot afford to miss.

PUT ON RECORD.—Yesterday being an anniversary of Mrs. E. W. Beale's birth it was celebrated by a family reunion.

Besides those of her children residing in Suffolk, there were present Mrs. W. G. Farrar and daughter, of Portsmouth, and Mrs. R. T. West, of Waverley.

POLK MILLER IN SUFFOLK.—Polk Miller at the City Hall Theatre last evening gave one of his realistic dialect recitals, with banjo accompaniment, and interesting character sketches.

Mr. Miller is a genius in his line and can more accurately depict the provincialisms and peculiarities of dialect and racial character of the ante bellum colored man than any person before the public.

RAILROAD TRAIN vs. OX CART.—The passenger train on the Atlantic and Danville road collided with an ox cart a few miles west of Suffolk yesterday morning.

Mr. Daniel Old died at his home, in South Norfolk, Sunday night at 10 o'clock, after a lingering illness, of a complication of diseases.

Mr. Charles Blivens is reported quite sick at his home, on Berkley avenue.

Rev. Dr. George H. Ray preached with great power at the Chestnut Street M. E. Church Sunday morning and evening.

When the citizens of Berkley assemble in mass meeting to consider the betterment of the town's present financial condition, they will not consider annexation, unless the invitation is extended her officially.

THE TUG PENWOOD, Capt. Fooks, which left here March 6th for Trinidad, Cuba, with the tug Alaonti and two steel barges in tow, has arrived at Watling's Island with the loss of one of the barges.

The dolphin of piles from which this fixed red light was shown, in nine feet water, on the east side of the channel, at the end of Burnt House Pier, Thames river, has been carried away by ice.

Press Club Meeting.—A meeting of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Press Club was held yesterday afternoon in the club's rooms with a good attendance.

The Bed Bug Poison sold at Burpov's drug store. Warranted the strongest article made. Only 25 cents a pint. A brush given to apply it.

Theater Hats. The New Jersey legislature has followed the lead of the New York legislature in throwing out an anti-high woman's hat at public amusements bill.

By the way, it seems to us that the far too high woman's hat ought not to be worn in church any more than at theater or concert.

The loveliness of a lovely woman in the street, or in her carriage, or in an elevated train, or in a trolley or horse car may, however, be enhanced by the wearing of a hat that is as high and as ornamental as she pleases or as her purse will justify.

A roar of applause greeted Susan B. Anthony in the National Woman's Council as she advanced from the wings to the front of the stage, where the footlights suddenly blazed out with all their force.

Her bearing was dignified, graceful and unconscious, as calm and commanding as a Greek goddess, with nothing of the masculinity and aggressiveness generally supposed to be the qualities of the leaders and advocates of equal suffrage.

My, my," she exclaimed good humorously as the gas flared up again, "I can't stand this. Let the lights be turned off. Anything but the footlights."—Washington Post.

A SEA CAPTAIN'S STORY

What a Grand Old Sailor Told a Press Reporter.

HIS SECRET OF LIFE

What He Has Seen and Found in Nearly Every Port of the Globe and the Value He Has Received.

I met a happy old sea captain at the Barge Office yesterday, and had a pleasant and profitable conversation with him. I think he had traveled to all quarters of the globe, for he mentioned Sitka, Stockholm, and Rio Janeiro, in addition to all the principal seaports of the world.

But you should have seen me a number of years ago. Why, even a pale-faced cabin boy looked healthy compared to me then, Commanding a ship is no easy task, and I suffered from rheumatism, debility, and, it seemed to me, many of the ills that we hear so much about.

Naturally I was interested and urged him to tell me his secret. Speaking very deliberately, he said: "I have found that by care and the use of just the right thing, I can preserve my health and prolong my life almost indefinitely.

What I found that by care and the use of just the right thing, I can preserve my health and prolong my life almost indefinitely. Indeed, I think I have discovered the secret. No matter where I go, I carry it with me, and I tell you that in whatever port I stop, I can always find it.

What I found that by care and the use of just the right thing, I can preserve my health and prolong my life almost indefinitely. Indeed, I think I have discovered the secret. No matter where I go, I carry it with me, and I tell you that in whatever port I stop, I can always find it.
