

SUFFOLK WINS A GAME

Of Football From the Trilby Team Representing the City of Norfolk.

A COUNTRY RESIDENCE CONSUMED.

Thanksgiving Day in Suffolk—Dr. Staley's Return to His Charge—A Fashionable German Enjoyed—The Survival of the Turkeys—Personal Matters Mentioned—Other Facts.

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Decorated canes, national flags and long orange and black streamers in the hands of an enthusiastic crowd this afternoon signalled Suffolk's first victory of the season at West End Park. The Trilby team, of Norfolk, were their opponents and the score was 26 to 0. The locals were in the lead throughout and developed considerable strength as a consequence of their previous experiences and recent systematic practice. The spectators were with them and lent cordial recognition to every meritorious play in the way of vociferous applause. The locals' victory was a sufficient return for the admission price and the game was enjoyed.

Norfolk won the toss and chose the westerly. The result of the game was pressed in the first five minutes of play, as the Suffolk's showed greater weight and superior skill. They kept almost constant possession of the pigskin and nearly every effort resulted in material gains. DeWitt Crowder, Land and Stith, of the locals, were especially noticeable for their parts in the victory, while the entire team evidenced great improvement since the last game. They made ten in the first and sixteen in the second half. For the Trilby Mack and Jeffries distinguished themselves in tackling, while Wright did good all-round work. The average weight of the locals was 138 pounds, while that of the visitors was about 130. The game was characterized in the main by the best of feeling, and the absence of slugging and other forms of brutality was noticeable. The teams lined-up like this:

COUNTRY RESIDENCE BURNED.—The residence of Mr. John L. Parker, at Cypress Church, last night took fire and was totally consumed. After being discovered the blaze made such headway that the family barely had time to escape with their lives. The furniture of the family was consumed. Nothing was insured except the residence, which was only partially covered. The details cannot be learned to-night, but a rough estimate places the loss at $1,500.

THANKSGIVING IN SUFFOLK.—Thanksgiving in Suffolk was very quiet and in many respects resembled Sunday. A dozen or more hunting parties left town and nearly every one who was not detained on business took some kind of an outing. The bank, post-office and most of the stores, including many bar-rooms, were closed.

DR. STALEY'S RETURN.—Dr. W. W. Staley, pastor of the Christian Church, returned to-day after an absence of three months, which he, in company with an organized party, spent in various parts of the Eastern Hemisphere. He will deliver descriptive sermons on his observations.

OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION.—The Old Maids' Convention, a farce comedy, by local talent, was to-night presented at the City Hall Theatre to a good sized audience. The participants acquitted themselves with credit and the performance evoked much laughter. The proceeds were for a charitable purpose.

COMING ATTRACTION.—Mr. R. F. Trevellick, representing Gorton's Minstrels, was in town this afternoon and arranged for the appearance of that attraction here on Thursday, December 5th. Theatre goers here are familiar with the merits of this combination. A large and fashionable german is to-night in progress in the new Armory hall. The attendants include a number of visitors from Norfolk, Portsmouth, and surrounding towns.

Miss Faye Caldwell, of Nova Scotia, formerly connected with the Ryland Institute, when in Suffolk, was here to-day renewing old acquaintances. She is en route to Little Rock, Ark., where she will engage in teaching.

Dr. R. B. Burgess, of Norfolk, was in Suffolk to-night as the guest of his brother, James U. Burgess, Esq. Union religious services were held to-day at the Christian Church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. F. Love, while Dr. W. W. Staley and Rev. H. H. Butler assisted in the exercises.

The mother of Mrs. John Hoffman is seriously ill at her home on North Main street. The turkeys which survived the crusade of General Hatchet to-day will have their Thanksgiving to-morrow. Miss Lucy Norfleet, of Saratoga street, left to-night to secure medical treatment at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore.

The directors and stockholders of the Nansemond Telephone Company will have an important meeting Friday afternoon in Harper & West's office. The discourse of the Rev. W. A. Barr at St. Paul's P. E. Church to-day was highly complimented, it being considered one of the strongest recently made in Suffolk.

Messrs. Chapman & Bowen, merchant tailors, have dissolved co-partnership, the former succeeding the firm. Mr. Bowen will engage with J. C. Felton, Esq.

A force is engaged in elevating the pavement along Bank street near the Presbyterian Church.

The barbecue of the Holland Hunting Club, Friday, was a jolly occasion and was richly enjoyed by all present. Richee Cahoon, of the Bank of Commerce of Norfolk, to-day visited his parents in Suffolk.

Rev. Duncan McLeod, pastor-elect of Western Branch and Colosse Baptist Churches, was here to-day visiting relatives. He will make Windsor his home.

Dr. L. Lankford, of Norfolk, was to-day entertained by Suffolk friends.

BRAMBLETON.

Rev. Mr. Moore, the new pastor of Queen Street M. E. Church, was taking in Brambleton yesterday afternoon in company with Rev. J. B. Merritt. The Local Board of Improvement meets to-night at 7 o'clock. A gentleman was made to feel very uneasy yesterday morning by seeing a number of little boys jumping on and off of the coal cars of a train passing the intersection of the Norfolk and Western with Lovitt avenue. It is a dangerous practice, and will hurt somebody yet, if persisted in. Scores and scores of persons got their Thanksgiving dinner at Festival Hall yesterday, and dinner just as good will be served to-day, and to-night the "Old Folks' Concert" by "Our Jewels," assisted by Mr. John C. James, will be an attractive feature. Admission only ten cents, and a pleasant time the audience will have.

It is said another car is badly needed on the Bank street line to Brambleton to give anything like proper service to the travelling public. The game brigade that left the city yesterday was loaded with arms and ammunition sufficient to make fur and feathers fly in all the adjacent counties.

The funeral of Mr. Floyd G. Ward, who died at his home, No. 37 Cecilia avenue Wednesday was held yesterday morning at the residence. The services were conducted by Rev. J. B. Hatcher, of the First Baptist Church. The interment was in Princess Anne county. Mr. Dixon Eckles, of Clay avenue, is now spending some time at Atlantic City, taking in the Exposition.

A masquerade party made many visits in the ward last night and added pleasant features to the programme for Thanksgiving day.

THE FANCY FOR FEATHERS.

They are seen Every where and are becoming to Almost Everyone. Feathers are everywhere. Combined with imitation jewels and jet they make most elaborate trimmings. Van-dyke points made of black ostrich plumes are strikingly effective, or light colored evening gowns. Small curly tips are used for outlining decollete bodices. In the stores narrow feather trimming is sold by the yard for expensive cloth costumes. It is applied to the bodice to simulate vest or to outline seams. Spangles are frequently combined with a feather fringe. Trimmings formed of feather pendants are another novelty. The pendants swing from a jeweled band, and outline a corsage beautifully. The newest satins for evening gowns have raised velvet flowers for the designs, and are wonderfully soft and beautiful. Feather bows are as popular as ever, and the latest novelty is made of tiny tips sewed on to a ribbon not more than three-quarters of a yard long, and finished at the ends with plaiting of chiffon edged with a feather fringe, or full ends of black lace edge.

"Aye! There's the rub!" And that ought to be enough in itself to seal the doom of bar soap. This rubbing with soap may get clothes clean, if you work hard enough, but can't you see how it wears them out? Follow the directions that come on every package of Pearline, and you'll find that you not only do away with the hard and ruinous work of rubbing—but that you save time, and actually get better results. At every point Pearline is better than soap. But the mere fact that Pearline saves the rubbing—that ought to settle it.

Beware Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled; if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back. 461 JAMES WYLE, N.Y.
