IN COURT YESTERDAY

An Unusual Plea Offered by a Colored Man As an Excuse for Stealing a Robe.

A YOUNG MAN'S SAD PLEA FOR MERCY

The Negro and the Brick—Constable Carmine, of the County, Fined for Assault—A Test Case Settled—Cases in the Corporation Court—Deed of Bargain and Sale.

Yesterday was almost a blank day in Court circles. Justice Burroughs had only three or four cases on his docket, besides drunks.

There was no business transacted in the Corporation Court, excepting the trial of a negro man, who had appealed warrants of no interest to the public, and the Court of Law and Chancery was not in session. There were no suits entered or marriage licenses issued. Altogether there was a dearth of court news.

STOLE A LAP-ROBE.

It is not an unusual thing for a wife person accused of theft to lay the blame on a drink, and say that they would not have committed the offense if they had not been under the influence of liquor. It is seldom, however, that a negro resorts to that plea. They usually deny the charge or accuse some one else. When St. Austin, a dilapidated and formerly looking negro, was arraigned in the Police Court yesterday on the charge of stealing a lap-robe, valued at $13, the property of Mr. James Thayer, from that gentleman's studies on Plume street, the negro broke down completely, acknowledging the crime, and pleaded to be let off on the ground that whiskey did it; that if he had not been drunk he never would have committed the act. Justice Burroughs did not think that the evidence proved Austin to be sufficiently intoxicated as to render him irresponsible, and His Honor sentenced him to four months in jail.

YOUNG GRIFFIN GUILTY.

It is seldom that an intelligent, refined looking, and well dressed a young man is arraigned before the Police Court on the charge of theft as was young William Griffin before Justice Burroughs on yesterday. The young man wore patent shoes, a fine, well-cutaway coat, and was dressed throughout, as if he stood before Justice Burroughs to answer the charge of stealing an overcoat valued at $20 and a research pipe valued at $5, the property of Mr. E. W. Saunders, who resides in the stables of McHenry & McCallister on Union Street. The prisoner pleaded hard with Justice Burroughs to be given one more chance, and that he would never fall into temptation again. He stated that he had relatives on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and would leave the city and go to them if given the chance. His Honor was undoubtedly touched by the young man's pleadings and promises, and but for his high regard for the Commonwealth, he would perhaps have granted the young man's petition; as it was, he expressed sympathy for the young man, but told him that it was his duty as a judge to uphold the law, and he must sentence him to four months in jail. His Honor suggested to the young man that he might appeal to the County Court, and it is understood that he has since retained Mr. Julius T. Saunders to see what can be done for his release before Judge Hancock.

THE NEGRO AND THE BRICK.

An attempt to hit another negro with a brick because he put him out of Mr. John Jones' saloon on Church street, caused the arrest of a colored boy named William Jackson on Thursday and to-day he is in jail in default of his fine. In the Police Court yesterday Mr. Jones testified that Jackson came into his place on Thursday, and being a minor, Mr. Jones ordered him out of his place. Jackson refused to go, however, and Mr. Jones, aided by his colored porter, proceeded to put him out. Later on Mr. Jones was about to enter his saloon, having come from the residence part of the house. He detected Jackson standing by the door with a brick in his hand. Mr. Jones demanded to know what he intended to do with the brick, whereupon the negro informed him that he did not intend to hurt him (Jones), but he proposed to break somebody's head. Believing that the boy intended to commit an assault Mr. Jones grabbed him and called an officer, who took him to the station house. Justice Burroughs fined him $2.75 yesterday, in default of which he went to jail.

CONSTABLE CARMINE GUILTY.

The most interesting case tried before Justice Burroughs yesterday was the warrant under which Mr. J. S. Carmine, one of the County Constables, was tried for assault on Mr. John A. Lesner, Jr. A large number of witnesses were in court, among them Judge D. Tucker Brooke, and most of the evidence was in favor of Mr. Lesner. Attorney W. A. S. Taylor, of Loyall & Taylor, represented Mr. Lesner, and Mr. Carmine conducted his own case. Mr. Lesner testified that Mr. Carmine had threatened against him on account of his having cut a street down near the Constable's house, and that as he was about to enter the ferry boat last Tuesday, he met Mr. Carmine, who demanded to know why he continued to cut the street down and injure his property; that without waiting for a reply, Mr. Carmine struck him over the head with a cane, and fell as he struck him. Judge Brooke and other witnesses saw the cane in the air and saw Mr. Carmine strike the boy. Mr. Carmine struck the first blow. Mr. Carmine testified that he spoke to Mr. Lesner about the matter and that Mr. Lesner thereupon struck him in the face, said he was the first blow. Justice Burroughs thought the testimony proved that Mr. Carmine was the aggressor and fined him $12.75, which the Constable paid.

THE TEST CASE SETTLED.

The test case as to whether the ordinance prohibiting a person under eighteen years of age from driving a public hack, cart or wagon through the streets of Norfolk, applies to such vehicles as horse-drawn wagons, etc., was decided to-day by Justice Burroughs, finding Mr. Nixdorf, the manager of the Troy Steam Laundry, $2 and costs, the amount specified in the ordinance, for allowing a 17-year-old colored boy to drive the wagon. Justice Burroughs construed the law to apply to all such vehicles as were subject to a license and engaged in business that related to the public.

MINOR OFFENSES.

William Griffin, white, larceny; four months in jail.

William Jackson, colored, breach of the peace; fined $2.50 and costs.

Frank Lamar, white, breach of the peace; dismissed.

J. S. Carmine, white, assault; fined $12.75.

William Whitehurst, Joseph Brady, John W. Shields, Charles Williams, Frank Lamar, D. J. Behan, white, drunk; fined $2.75 each.

Isaiah Elliott, colored, drunk; fined $3.75.

When the case of the C. F. Maltby Company vs. William Stevens, to recover the sum of $50.34 was called in the Corporation Court yesterday, Judge Martin presiding, Judge Hancock being interested in the case, after hearing the evidence and argument, judgment was rendered for the plaintiff for $11.36.

In the Corporation Court yesterday the suit of B. F. Twiford vs. W. E. Brooks & Co., being an interpleader on the part of Twiford to recover certain goods and chattel in the market, which in the suit of J. Thomas vs. Brooks & Co., a verdict was rendered for the interpleader and the levy released.

DEADLY SNAKES

SEVEN DIFFERENT DEADLY POISONS. A SURE AND CERTAIN ANTIDOTE.

The poison of the rattlesnake is no more deadly and venomous than some that we make in our bodies.

Poisoning are the poison generated in the body itself and their deadly qualities are those of arsenic, morphine, strychnine, etc.

The details of numerous murder trials and text books on Toxicology teach us these facts.

Then there are the poisons that result from the imperfect digestion of our food.

From only partial oxydation of the blood elements.

From the waste and breaking down of our muscles, bones, brain, and nerves.

Besides these are the disease germs of Typhus, Typhoid, Scarlet Fever, Gripe, Small Pox, Malaria, Diphtheria, and the like.

The very air we breathe is full of these germs.

The water we drink teems with myriads of them.

We are beset from within and without, and as if not content with all this, we ourselves add nicotine and alcohol to the deadly list.

What is it then that prevents our sickening and dying from these poisons?

Our Kidneys. They are the scavengers and sewers of the body.

God gave us two, so that if one kidney was injured the other could still carry on the work.

On perfect action of our kidneys depends, not only the purity of our blood, but the healthy and free action of every other organ in the body.

Once let them falter in their work, let the poisons and impurities collect and the seeds of a thousand ills spring into active growth.

Nature, the great Mother Healer, has a remedy for every ill to which man is heir.

The simple Asparagus shoot beckoning like an angel from the bosom of the earth, holds the secret of perfect Kidney Health locked up in its roots and stems.

He holds the greatest of all remedies for the kidneys when weak, sluggish, or diseased.

CONGRESSMAN TYLER'S WORK.

He is Endeavoring to Get the Warships and Other Things.

Congressman Tyler is hard at work, as will be seen by the following special from Washington in yesterday's Richmond Dispatch:

"Congressman Tyler made a round of the departments to-day, and did some effective work. He first visited the Navy Department, where he went not only as the representative of the Second District, but also of his colleagues in Congress and the General Assembly of Virginia. He had an interview with Secretary Herbert, during which he presented the resolutions passed by the Legislature requesting the Virginia delegation in Congress to urge upon the Secretary of the Navy the facilities at Newport News for shipbuilding, to endeavor to secure the contracts for the two new battleships for the yards there, and to have one of them named the 'Virginia.'"

"Mr. Tyler very forcibly presented the advantages of Newport News, which the Secretary was somewhat favorable, and after a lengthy conference, during which the plans of all the builders were discussed, he left Mr. Herbert with the assurance that he claims of Newport News would be favorably considered in connection with the contracts to be let for the two battleships."

"Mr. Tyler next visited the Secretary of War Lamont, and asked permission for the construction of an electric road from Hampton through the Government reservation to a point to Back Neck, where it is proposed to build a new summer resort. The Secretary said he would look into the matter and give an answer in due time."

"Mr. Tyler then went to the Post-office Department, and had an interview with the Postmaster-General regarding a separate postoffice for Berkeley, which is a suburb of the city of Norfolk, but so situated as to require a postoffice of its own. Mr. Wilson took the papers, and said he would do all in his power to give the Berkeley folks good mail facilities."
