

PROHIB OR CITIZENS?

What Kind of Ticket Will the Prohibitionists Support This Year?

THE LEADING PARTY MEN INTERVIEWED.

The Majority of them Say a Convention Will Be Called, But They Don't Know What Will Be Done—Talk of "Denls" and "Turn Downs" by the Management.

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a citizen's ticket at the coming municipal election?"

Is there a single person in Norfolk who can correctly answer the question? It is not reasonable to suppose that any Democrat can give the information, and as for Republicans—well, they have troubles of their own, without spending their time in guessing at conundrums propounded by others.

A Virginia reporter has made a determined effort to obtain information on the subject and the result is given below. The Prohibitionists interviewed are now being looked upon as the leaders in their party—several of them members of the Executive Committee. They are all well-known business men—men whose utterances even in political matters can be implicitly relied upon.

The replies to the question show that the recognized leaders of the Prohibition party are much at sea as to the future of their party as it is possible to be. Not one could tell anything. Each of them acknowledged that much, with one exception. This one exception frankly stated that he would not give the information if he could.

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a citizen's ticket at the coming municipal election?" This identical question was asked of each one and in the majority of cases the replies were written down and submitted for approval.

Mr. Zachary stated that Rev. Sam. Jones or Rev. Sam. Small would not be engaged to speak here during the campaign. Mr. Zachary was non-committal as to his party's policy. With him it was a case of "wait," but the replies are interesting to the political student. They are given just as they were asked.

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a citizen's ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. R. Y. Zachary, Chairman of the Prohibition party, said: "Wait until our convention meets and then see. I can't speak with authority myself."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a citizen's ticket at the coming municipal election?" Major D. Humphreys, an original Prohibitionist, said: "I know absolutely nothing about it. I hear that a convention will soon be held."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a citizen's ticket at the coming municipal election?" Capt. John L. Taylor, president of the Common Council, elected on the Prohibition ticket, said: "I suppose the Prohibitionists will support a citizen's ticket. I have so advised them."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. Luther Shedd, Prohibition Councilman and chairman of the Council's Finance Committee, said: "I don't know. I have attended no meetings. You had better ask Mr. Zachary."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. S. N. Brickhouse, Prohibition member of the Common Council and at one time a candidate for the Legislature on the Prohibition ticket, said: "I can't tell you, brother. We will settle that in a convention."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. H. B. Goodridge, Prohibition member of the Select Council, said: "You have asked me something I am not prepared to discuss just at this time. I think the next few weeks will develop the situation. The name of the ticket will be decided upon later. However, whatever the name of the ticket may be, the nominees will be selected without reference to party affiliations."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. J. W. Borman, Prohibition member of the Common Council from Brambleton, said: "That is a question I can't answer. I have not attended a meeting this year and know nothing whatever of political matters."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Mr. C. E. Sadler, Prohibition Police Commissioner, said: "I wouldn't tell you if I could. I would not trust any of your party, politically. There are some men in it whose word I would take as quick as their bond in business matters, but when it comes to politics I would not believe them under oath."

"Will the Prohibition party put a ticket in the field, or will the Prohibitionists support a Citizens' ticket at the coming municipal election?" Capt. John T. Bolton, Prohibition Police Commissioner, said: "Time will develop to settle the question."

While the Prohibition leaders profess less to know nothing as to what is going on in their own party ranks, rumor is busy making up a ticket involving numerous deals with Republicans and others and involving a "turn down" of some of the present officials. When asked about a contemplated "turn down" yesterday, one of the Prohibition leaders stamped it as untrue, stating that the spokesman in question had made a good officer. He also said that he knew of no deals on hand.

TO HAVE TROTTERING RACES.

Norfolk to Be the Centre of the Southern Circuit.

The project of the Eastern trotting-horse men to begin racing in Virginia and move North to Washington and Baltimore is meeting with encouragement.

There is a desire to begin the season early and this cannot be done in a Northern climate. Norfolk is the city selected for the opening meeting. Should this venture be successful a new departure may occur in training. The Hamlin are now in Selma, Ala., and Ed. Geers is enthusiastic over the winter preparation in the South. It is more than likely, should the Hamlin string have a successful season, that one will follow his example. Let the Norfolk meeting be moderately interesting and there is no doubt that it will be the winter headquarters for Northern trotters. Then this may be a greater boon to the Virginia farmer than he is now aware. Owners of thoroughbreds have found out that it is one of the best States for stock farms in the Union, and it is known in Virginia that Eolus is now the king sire, and where Merello was raised. Let the trotter once become popular at Norfolk and in the near future Virginia will become as famous as the blue grass regions.

When Byron reeled off a mile in 2:25 1/2 at Buffalo, back in the '70s, he was the first horse raised in Erie county to do the trick. Then followed the famous Hamlin and Jewett farms, and today the trotting-horse industry in Buffalo is valued in the millions. The big farms give employment to many hands and the farmers have, in a measure, been benefited by the enterprise of Hamlin and Jewett. So it must be in Virginia, for it is now obvious that the value of prices is advancing, and that at the prices now obtainable it pays to breed them. The Southern movement will have a tendency to keep eastern trotters on the Atlantic coast until the beginning of the grand circuit, so that the Western contingent will have the home field pretty much to themselves. The great concern ground will be Kentucky late in the fall. This Southern field will make early preparation necessary. Perhaps Cleero J. Hamlin's old idea of preparing his horses in two divisions, one for spring and the early summer campaigns, and the other for the grand circuit, will be adopted.

After the call of the delegates Major R. G. Banks nominated as temporary chairman and Captain H. B. Nichols, and as secretary Dr. Bowen, colored.

Captain Nichols thanked the convention for the honor conferred and said he was glad to be present with the loyal Republicans. He congratulated the City Committee elected in 1894 upon their stamina. The other side had been asked to make charges against the present committee, but they had refused to do so.

On motion the appointment of a committee on Credentials and the temporary officers were made permanent.

Amid prolonged cheers Mr. Bowden announced and said that at least nine-tenths of the Republicans in this city desired William McKinley, of Ohio, as their next President, and that they would not consent to be bulldozed. He said that every district in the State, he would send McKinley delegates to the National Convention. He then offered the following:

Resolved, That the delegates here elected be instructed to support for delegates to the National Republican Convention only those who are favorable to the nomination of the matchless gentlemen, who, above all others in the field, represents Republican principles, the predominant issues of the pending campaign, protection, reciprocity and honest money, Hon. William McKinley, of Ohio.

The resolution was adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. Bowden moved to appoint a committee of five to nominate delegates, but withdrew it to allow Major R. G. Banks to eulogize Mr. Thomas Lowery. Major Banks said that Mr. Lowery had offered to get out of the way if either of several well-known Republicans was named.

He went over the troubles existing and said the delegates to Newport News and Staunton sent by this convention would be seated. He then offered the following:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the removal, without cause, of Thomas Lowery, the duly elected chairman of the Republican party in Norfolk and seven out of ten precinct chairmen, by the State Executive Committee, is a most flagrant assumption of authority, and being entirely unwarranted by party law, we shall continue to give him and his associates our loyal support until their term of office expires.

On motion of Mr. Bowden, the following committee was appointed to nominate delegates: George E. Bowden, W. H. Thorogood, Thomas Lowery, W. H. Trower and P. C. McMullen. The committee retired.

The following Committee on Resolutions was then appointed: Matt. N. Lewis, A. Aronheim, W. H. Harrison, W. H. Mason and J. J. Rowan.

This committee also retired, but soon returned as chairman of the committee was called for a speech. He deplored the fact that instead of having a united party it was a disrupted and dismembered party.

The Committee on Resolutions then made its report, endorsing the resolutions previously adopted and directing to vote for George E. Bowden as delegate to the National Convention.

The Committee on Delegates reported as follows: Delegates to the State Convention—G. E. Bowden, R. G. Banks, W. H. Harrison, H. B. Nichols, Thomas Lowery, W. H. Barnard, W. H. H. Trice, A. Aronheim, George O'N. Palmer, H. L. Page, Claud West, W. H. Thorogood, M. N. Lewis, Dr. J. J. Bowen, James Hall, Jos. Freeman, Attorney Geo. S. McMullen, Landon Jessup, Geo. S. Brown, J. James Pennington, W. H. Bowden, Thomas Harbour, R. B. Webb and J. J. Rowan.

Delegates to the District Convention—Capt. H. R. Nichols, W. H. Thorogood, M. N. Lewis, Thomas Lowery, George E. Bowden, Jos. Freeman, W. H. Sparrow, R. G. Banks, W. R. Trower, C. P. Fitchett, A. Miller, Thomas E. Barbour, A. Aronheim, W. H. Barnard, Wm. J. Wheeler, R. B. Webb, Attorney E. Foster, Wm. Parker, Dr. J. E. Bowler and John Lee.

DISTRICT AND STATE CONVENTIONS.

Delegates Elected to Each of These Bodies by the Followers of Mr. Lowery, Who Still Claims the Chairmanship of the Republican Party in Norfolk—Orderly Convention.

The Bowdenites were jubilant last night. They held their City Convention, elected delegates to the District and State Conventions, and declared that they would be seated. They were especially happy over the fact that the Lamb faction had recognized the call of Mr. Lowery for the precinct meetings on Thursday night, had participated in them and were beaten. This, they think, is sufficient to secure the seating of their delegates.

The convention last night was held at Samaritan Hall, on St. Paul street. Every delegate elected on Thursday night was present. About one half were colored. They were, perhaps, the most orderly Republican convention ever held in Norfolk. Every measure introduced was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Thomas Lowery, who still claims the city chairmanship, called the meeting to order, and told the delegates that it was called under instructions from the State and District Committees. He stated that sixteen delegates and eight alternates were to be elected to the District Convention at Newport News, and the same number to the State Convention at Staunton.

After the call of the delegates Major R. G. Banks nominated as temporary chairman and Captain H. B. Nichols, and as secretary Dr. Bowen, colored.

Captain Nichols thanked the convention for the honor conferred and said he was glad to be present with the loyal Republicans. He congratulated the City Committee elected in 1894 upon their stamina. WEATHER REPORT.

Forecast and General Conditions For To-day.

Washington, D. C., March 21, 1896. For Virginia—Fair weather; slowly rising temperature; southwesterly winds.

For North Carolina—Fair and warmer; westerly, shifting to southerly, winds. The coast storm has moved slowly during the past twenty-four hours, advancing to the mouth of the St. Lawrence. An area of high pressure is central on the Gulf coast, embracing the lower Mississippi and Ohio Valleys, the South Atlantic coast and the general districts.

Lower temperature prevails in the Atlantic coast districts and the lower Lake Regions. Fair weather is indicated for Saturday in all districts except the Northwest, where there will be an increased cloudiness and probably snow.

Low temperature is indicated in New England, higher temperature in the Middle and South Atlantic States. A cold wave will be experienced in the Northwest, probably extending to the upper Mississippi and Missouri Valleys by Sunday.

NORFOLK BASEBALL TALK.

The Arrival of Fred Schmit, The Exhibition Game To-day.

The crack pitcher of the Norfolk club—Mr. Fred Schmit—arrived in the city last night, and will be out at the park with the rest of the boys to-day.

The exhibition game with the Klideses, of Franklin, will begin at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon. Manager McFarlan will manage the Norfolk team, and the rest in all probability change his pitchers around, so that the public will have an opportunity to see them work.

Of course to-day will not be a good one to judge their work, but enough can be seen to prove to the public that Manager McFarlan has been just as careful in the selection of his "pitchers" as he possibly could be, and only those generally known to him as good men were signed. The rest of the field, both in and out, will be about as stated several times in the columns of The Virginian.

Manager O'Brien and Assistant Manager Sands, of Georgetown University baseball team, were in Norfolk yesterday, making arrangements for the Yale-Georgetown game, which is to be played on April 8th at River View Park, Hampton. The Yale team will arrive at Old Point for their Southern trip on Friday, April 2d, and the game with Georgetown will be the last game of the trip. This inter-varsity contest is attracting a great deal of attention in this section, and also in Washington and New York, chiefly on account of the high standing of both colleges in the baseball world.

Yale's team will be made up, for the most part, of new men, and the only shaky position is that of catcher, for which few available candidates have presented themselves. Trudeau, who made a big reputation in the box last year, will be the chief twirler this year for Old Eli. Georgetown had the honor of beating Yale last year and the year before, and Yale will work hard this year to win back her lost laurels.

George Mahoney, who stands premier among college pitchers, will defend the reputation of Georgetown this year, and the Norfolk baseball enthusiasts will take advantage of this opportunity to witness a game between these two strong teams. A large crowd of students and alumni of Georgetown are coming down to witness the game, and Yale's nine will be accompanied by the Yale Glee and Banjo Club.

Made Pastor Pro Tem.

The Richmond Dispatch of yesterday says: "The committee to secure a pastor for the Baptist Church in Fulton has made arrangements with Rev. W. S. Leake, by which he becomes the pastor pro tem. of the church, and he will begin his work there Sunday, filling the pulpit at his former residence."

Mr. Leake's position as city missionary holding weekly services every day in the evening at the large shops and factories, has gained for him many friends in Fulton, as also in other sections of the city. He preaches at noon every Wednesday at the Central Works, where he is highly esteemed. Mr. Leake was formerly pastor of the Grace Baptist Church in this city.

THE PRIMARY RULES

The City Democratic Committee Names the Day For the Primary Election.

ELECTORAL BOARD TO MAKE RULES.

But They Must Be in Conformity to the Legalized Primary Law—April 21st the Time Set for the Nomination of a Council Ticket—Work Wanted For the Navy-Yard.

The City Democratic Executive Committee last night named the days on which the candidates who are to run the gauntlet of the Democratic voters of Norfolk are to perform that feat. Councilmen will be nominated at ward primaries on Tuesday, April 21st, and the municipal ticket on Tuesday, April 28th. The meeting was held last night at the office of Mr. A. P. Thom, City Chairman, and the following was adopted:

Resolved, 1st, That a primary election for the purpose of selecting the candidates of the Democratic party for the salaried elective offices, which are to be filled at the ensuing municipal election be, and the same hereby is ordered to be held in the city of Norfolk on Tuesday, the 28th day of April, 1896, under such legal rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Electoral Board to be chosen under an act entitled: An act to regulate the holding of city and ward primary elections in the city of Norfolk, Va., approved March 5, 1894, provided that no candidate receive a majority of the votes cast on the said 28th day of April for the office for which he is running, a second day's primary election will be held in like manner on Thursday, the 30th day of April, 1896, to decide between the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes at the first day's primary for any such office.

Resolved, 2d, That all persons proposing to be candidates for salaried elective offices at such primary, shall hand in their names to the Democratic Executive Committee on or before Saturday, the 13th day of April, 1896, accompanied by an affidavit, as required by Sec. 5, of the said act.

Concerning the nominations for Councilmen the following was adopted: Resolved, 1st, That ward primaries for the election of the candidates of the Democratic party for Councilmen be, and hereby are, ordered to be held in the various wards of the city of Norfolk on the night of Tuesday, the 21st day of April, 1896, under such legal rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Electoral Board chosen under an act entitled: An act to regulate the holding of city and ward primary elections in the city of Norfolk, Va., approved March 5, 1894.

Resolved, 2d, That the polls be opened at 7 a. m. and closed at 11 p. m., except that they shall not be closed before midnight unless all qualified voters present shall have voted.

Resolved, 3d, That all persons intending to be candidates for Councilmen at such ward primaries will hand in their names to the Democratic Executive Committee on or before the 14th day of April, 1896, accompanied by an affidavit as required by Sec. 5, of the said act.

The following resolution was also unanimously adopted: Resolved, by the Democratic Executive Committee of the city of Norfolk, Va., That we earnestly appeal to our Senators and Representatives from this State, to exert every effort to secure for the navy yard in this city a fair proportion of the work of construction of new vessels for which this yard is well fitted, and which our mechanics are well qualified to perform; and to prevent, if possible, a further perversion of the eight-hour law, which was passed by Congress as a fit recognition of our laboring population.

Best of All To cleanse the system in a gentle and truly beneficial manner, when the Spring time comes, use the true and perfect remedy, Syrup of Figs. One bottle will answer for all the family, and costs only 50 cents; the large size, 75 cents. The genuine, Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company only, and for sale by all druggists.
