Quite a number of our citizens visited the Florence, Ky., Fair, yesterday. A fine premium milk cow was purchased, at an enormous price, by B. Cavagna, of this city. The purchase was made before the exhibition took place, and Mr. C. had the pleasure of seeing her "carry off the ribbons."

REMOVED LOSS OF THE FRIGATE CONGRESS.—A distressing rumor prevailed in Philadelphia on Monday evening, to the effect that the frigate Congress, which recently sailed from that port, had gone down, with all on board. The rumor, however, is probably a wicked hoax, as it could be traced to no responsible source.

The residence of Mr. Wolf, on Eighth-street, between Walnut and Vine, was entered by a burglar at an early hour yesterday morning, by means of a ladder, and robbed of a pair of pants—the property of Mr. Hackenberg. Mr. H. was awakened by a noise in his room, when the scoundrel fled. Mr. H. informs us that his pantaloons pockets contained a number of keys, and several papers of little value.

Some of the members of the City Council are in favor of devoting the building now occupied by the Cincinnati Orphan Asylum, on Elm-street, to the amelioration of the condition of female prisoners now so miserably cared for. The resolution is pending in the City Council to notify the Trustees of that Asylum to deliver possession of grounds and buildings to the city. The subject is to come up next Wednesday night week.

Thomas Higdon, one of the contractors for street-paving, having a grievance against K. Paine, a City Commissioner, communicated the matter to the City Council last night, and that Board, informally, referred the subject to a special committee, viz: Marsh, Hollister, Kiersted, Mayor and Baum, who are to report whether the subject shall be formally brought before the City Council for further action.

For some time past attempts have been made to throw trains off the track of the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad. Application was recently made to Mayor Bishop by the officers of the road for assistance in ferreting out the villains. Detective Bill Raney was dispatched to Vincennes, and, by a telegram received yesterday by the Mayor, we learn succeeded in arresting two men in the act of throwing off a train. They were lodged in the Vincennes Jail.

The street cleaning awards were not disposed of by the City Fathers last night, other than two reports were offered from the Committee of Seventeen. The majority desire that the present system of contracting for street cleaning shall be continued; the minority desire that the City Commissioners shall have the work done under their special direction, and that a Superintendent in each of the three districts be paid $50 per month. The Board of City Improvements to employ hands, horses and carts.

J. H. Jovet, No. 65 West Fourth-street, has just received a superior assortment of linen thread for sewing-machines. Families, in want of the above article, would do well to call on Mr. Jovet.

A gentleman, whose name we could not learn, had his pocket picked of a wallet, containing some $40, while witnessing the operations of Omnibus Bailey's Flying Dutchman, night before last.

One thousand and twenty cases were disposed of, in the Police Court, during the month of August—the largest number ever disposed of, in the same length of time, since the Court was instituted.

A witness, in the Police Court, yesterday, in testifying as to the character and general reputation of a prosecuting witness, stated that "the only thing bad she could say of her, was, that she left her husband and took up with another man."

Thomas Lippenott was appointed Policeman of the Second Ward, yesterday, by Mayor Bishop, ex. C. Slater, discharged. A good selection. Mr. L. was a member of Mayor Thomas' force, and was a good and efficient officer.

John Pohman, the keeper of a liquor store on Court-street, between Main and Walnut, was tried in the Police Court, yesterday, charged with selling liquor on Sunday. As it was proved that the defendant kept a liquor store, and not a coffee-house, the case was dismissed.

A row occurred at a coffee-house, on Sixth-street, near Wood's Theater, about six o'clock last evening, in which a man named Samuel M. Clayton was pretty roughly handled. Clayton owns that some half dozen were on him at one time, and that he was fortunate enough to whip them all.

Quite a pretty girl, named Mary Simpson, was committed to the City Prison by Judge Lowe, yesterday, upon a charge of drunkenness. We call attention to the card of L. Byl & Co., in our advertising columns. Persons entrusting work to them may rely upon having the same performed punctually. Mr. Byl was for many years employed by our citizens as Street-sprinkler, in which capacity he gave entire satisfaction.

DOCTOR LEON vs. DOCTOR E. B. EALING.

Messrs. Editors:—In the summer of 1851 I was operated upon for a corn by Doctor Leon, or Lyon, who removed the corn by the use of a corn, and was relieved entirely from pain for about SEVEN YEARS, about which time severe pain was experienced. I then called on Doctor E. B. Ealing, who was then operating on Fourth, near Sycamore-street; having stated to him the mode of operation by Doctor Leon, he said "he had formerly been in his employ as an assistant, and left him to go it alone; that said Doctor Leon knew little or nothing of the profession, &c.," Doctor Ealing then operated upon the same corn, removing these points, or corns, like corn wood out of a wagon, until, as he said, he had removed sixteen, when Doctor Leon, after much patient examination, had found originally only three. Query: If the removal of three relieved all pain for seven years, how long ought sixing? Answer:—For life, so said Doctor Ealing. What was the fact? Why just six months, as mine are as painful as now, and have been for months past, as they were before being operated upon by Doctor Ealing. "These are facts, and facts are stubborn things." The public will draw their own conclusions. JAMES J. BUTLER.

SEWING-MACHINES.—Among the many sewing-machines presented for public consideration is that of Kelsey & Co. Having carefully examined this machine, we have no hesitancy in recommending it to the consideration of the public. Persons in want of a safe and reliable sewing-machine, should not fail to call on D. W. Harrington & Co., No. 30 West Fourth-street, and make a selection from Kelsey & Co.'s manufacture. These machines, we are assured, have never failed in one instance to give entire satisfaction; and as for merit, will compare with any other machine in the market.

We learn that quite a number of the friends of Mr. Slater, who was expelled from the police force by being engaged in the recent kidnapping case, blame Mayor Bishop very much for his decision in the matter. Mr. Slater called on us last evening, and wished us to state that he is sorry that His Honor should be blamed; that he thinks he done exactly right, although he claims that the whole matter was "set up" against him by others.

We would call particular attention to the advertisement of the Southgate House, to be found in another column. This house is situated in a central part of the city, convenient to all the railroad depots, telegraph offices, &c. Travelers would do well to give the Southgate a trial.

A gentleman, whose name we could not learn—a stranger in the city—had his pocket picked at an auction store on Fifth-street, last evening, of a purse containing some seven dollars in gold and silver. Strangers visiting our city would do well to keep a sharp lookout for light-fingered gentlemen.
