Important Change of Street Railroad Security.

The following supplementary ordinance to the Street Passenger Railroad Ordinance was adopted last night:

SECTION 1. Be it ordained by the City Council of the city of Cincinnati, That any company or individual to whom the privilege has been, or may hereafter be granted, to construct and use a Street Passenger Railroad or Railroads, within the city of Cincinnati, shall have executed a bond and contract in pursuance of the fourth, sixth and seventh sections of said ordinance, and of the resolution making such grant, after they have completed their road and commenced running the same, may substitute for the personal security on such bond and contract, a mortgage to the city of Cincinnati on their road-bed and rolling stock; Provided, the same is then free from encumbrance; conditioned, that they will faithfully abide by and perform all the terms and stipulations of said ordinance and resolution, and in all respects comply with their contract already entered into with said city. The said mortgage shall be submitted to and approved by the City Solicitor, who shall endorse his approval thereon, and shall then be deposited with the City Clerk, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Recorder's Office of Hamilton County. That at the time said mortgage is deposited with the City Clerk, said Company or individuals shall pay him a sufficient fee for recording the same, and he shall then endorse on their bond and contract aforesaid the fact that a mortgage substituted by the individual liability of the sureties thereon, who shall thereupon be released, but the same shall remain in full force against the principals.

The News.

By a foreign arrival we have some news from the Continent. GARIBOLDI resigns, evidently dissatisfied; BUONCOMPAGNI becomes Regent of Central Italy. Governor CRANE replies to Gov. Wms, that Ohio will perform strictly all constitutional requirements, but will not allow armed invasion of her territory by searchers for fugitive slaves. The Harper's Ferry troubles are yet under discussion in the United States Senate. In the House, a Republican has charged on HORACE GREELEY some political conspiracy with Speaker DOUGLAS, and the discussion on the "Helper" book still continues, with heated blood almost to a collision between the debaters. A second ballot for Speaker was had yesterday. Mr. SHERMAN, the Republican, having received within nine votes of the number required for election. There is no hope for Cook or the doomed insurgents; they are all to be hung on the 16th.

Give Your Orders for the Penny Press.

This is a proper time to order the carrier to leave a copy of the PENNY PRESS at the business place or residence of any person in this city or suburbs. Congress is in session, and a condensed summary of its proceedings will be found in our telegraph column daily. Soon the General Assembly of Ohio will be in session. This budget of home and foreign news costs those taking the PENNY PRESS only one cent each day. Drop a note in Postoffice giving your address, or leave order at our Counting Room. Advertisers! Those hesitating to advertise should send in their favors. The circulation of the PENNY PRESS is large and increasing rapidly.

Council "Investigation" Report.

The City Council has laid upon the table the testimony and reports of a minority and majority committee appointed to investigate whether any member had received a bribe in reference to the Street Railroad routes. The hour being late on the introduction of the same, the discussion was protracted to midnight. Suspension of opinion is asked in reference to these reports, by the gentlemen charged, who have declared themselves undeserving of reproach. Both committees agree that no bribe was accepted; but the minority deems that some ill-advised conduct pointed out needs explanation. See report of the proceedings of the City Council.

Ohio Mechanics' Institute.

The result of the Seventeenth Exhibition of the Ohio Mechanics' Institute, of this city, did not meet expectation, financially, but it advertised our mechanics and manufacturers to the world, placing Cincinnati more firmly in her position as the emporium of art and handicraft. Less than $300 was secured, net receipts, into the treasury, from the Opera-house exhibition. The report is printed in pamphlet form, and can be procured of the Clerk.

"Wants"—"For Sale"—"To Rent," &c.

We have daily proofs of the advantages of advertising in the want column of the PENNY PRESS. A person wants a girl. A few lines making known that want we insert twice for twenty-five cents. Those who have failed, on several days search, to secure a suitable house have been successful by an advertisement at so cheap a rate. If you want a place, a servant, or a house, advertise in the PENNY PRESS.

XXXVth CONGRESS—1st SESSION.

WASHINGTON, December 7.

SENATE.—The Chair presented a report from the Secretary of the Senate, showing the progress made in the printing of the American State papers.

Mr. Clay gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to reduce the fishing bounties.

Mr. Powell, of Kentucky, gave notice of his intention to introduce a bill to abolish the banking privilege.

Mr. Mason's resolution to appoint a Harper's Ferry investigating committee, then came up.

Mr. Mallory said this resolution had been shown of all his moral effect by the covert opposition it had received; he was quite indifferent whether it passed or not.

Mr. Aycock referred to the action of the Massachusetts Legislature, on the 24th of December, as showing their sympathy for Brown.

The debate in the Senate continued until after five o'clock, when it adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Kellogg rose to a question of privilege and caused to be read an article from the New York Tribune. He wished to show the false position Mr. Greeley holds to the Republican party.

sell Illinois, and Missouri too. He (Kellogg) knew it and could prove it. He never loved a traitor.

The idea was to make Mr. Douglas Senator; to re-elect him, and it was done. Mr. Douglas, in the mean time, declaring that he was a Democrat. When the battle had been fought, Mr. Greeley did say that Mr. Douglas was a Free-Seller good enough for him. He (Kellogg) had not the knowledge or recollection that he signed the recommendation for the Helper-book. He never saw it. There is not a man in his district who would trample on the constitutional rights of the South.

Mr. McClelland replied that if such a consultation occurred, how came his colleague (Kellogg) to know it? If the consultation was private, he, as an individual, would have scorned to reveal what was said. It was strange that such a charge should now be made after it was known that Mr. Greeley had endeavored to defeat Douglas's re-election, employing unscrupulous means; money, too, to that end was raised in New York.

Mr. Kellogg, in reply, said he was not at the conference, but what he had stated was the fact.

Mr. Duell offered a resolution, which was adopted, inviting the clergymen of the city to open the House with prayer.

Mr. Morris, of Ill., wanted to know from his colleague his authority for the statement alleging an agreement between Douglas and Greeley, such as had been charged.

Mr. Kellogg did not think proper to make the declaration.

Mr. Morris replied if he had been in private conversation this was the first time he had heard that charge. He believed there was not a iota of truth in it. Mr. Douglas was elected by the Democracy of that State, which had adopted him as its son. He said a few more such scenes as those of yesterday, and we should hear the crack of the revolver and see the gleam of the burnished blade.

The debate was continued until a late hour, when a second ballot was taken, as follows: Sherman 107, Babcock 88, Gilmer 22, seat-er 14. Necessary to a choice, 116. House then adjourned.

Five Days Later from Europe—Arrival of the Edinburgh.

New York, December 7.—The steamship Edinburgh arrived this evening with Liverpool dates to the 23d ult., and Queenstown to the 24th ult. It is reported that arrangements are progressing for mails direct for New York from Queenstown.

Dr. Barry, the Catholic Bishop of Savannah, died recently at Paris.

The father of the child, Mortars, has arrived at Paris, and is prepared to make a determined demand before the Congress of the great Powers for the restoration of his child.

Gen. Garibaldi in his proclamation announcing his retirement from the army of Central Italy, complains of the underhand machinations against him. He says he will resume his services the moment Victor Emmanuel calls to arms. He recommends the Italians to rally around the King of Sardinia.

The Spanish movement against Morocco is progressing slowly. The treaty ratifications have been exchanged at Zurich. Nothing formal is known with regard to the European Congress, but the 9th of December is spoken of as the time fixed for the meeting.

The ship Espanador, from Shields for New York, has been abandoned at sea. The crew were saved. The ship Athlon, from Liverpool for Galveston, has also been abandoned at sea, with six feet water in the hold.

Liverpool, November 23.—Sales of cotton for three days, including 2,000 bales for speculation and export, amounts to 15,000 bales. The prices closed with little inquiry and prices weak, with a political decline of 3/4.

The advices from Manchester are favorable, prices showing an advancing tendency, but closing quiet.

Breadstuffs exhibited a declining tendency and all descriptions are slightly lower. Richardson & Spence quote flour dull at a decline of 6d@8; wheat also dull at 1d@2d decline per quarter. The circulars do not give the quotations.

Provisions dull. Beef is heavy, owing to large arrivals. Pork dull and sales unimportant. Lard quiet. Bacon quiet. Tallow is low of sale but prices are unaltered.

France.—Napoleon has consented to Buoncompagni's becoming the agent of Central Italy.

The Guanoes Bordeaux Journal has been seized for publishing a letter falsely attributed to the King of Sardinia by Armeas Falcognac.

Corier des Demanche has received a warning for an article written by the Count de Haussonville.

ENGLAND.—It is stated that it is the intention of the Government to limit the intended reform bill to a mere extension of franchise, and that the question of franchise and mode of taking votes are either to be deferred or made separate measures.

The ship Duke of Wellington, bound from Liverpool to Bombay, was burned at sea Nov. 11, off Cape Finisterre. All hands took to the boats, and were picked up after forty-eight hours exposure.

It is stated that King Victor Emmanuel had refused to withdraw the nomination of Buoncompagni. The French Government has now yielded, and he is to be the Regent of Modena, Parma, and Bologna, and also of Tuscany. If the authorities there will receive him, a regiment of the Bologna brigade have taken the oath to Victor Emmanuel, and are to wear the uniform of the Piedmontese Army.

M. Desambrois has been appointed Sardinian Ambassador to Paris.

A manifestation was attempted at Bologna, on the announcement of Garibaldi's resignation, and a small number of persons were arrested, when the rest disappeared.

The memorandum of the Tuscan Government tells the European Powers that the Congress orders the restoration of the Grand Duke. They will resist to the last, and if attacked, they will, though sure of defeat, do their best to repel force by force.

LIVERPOOL MARKETS.—Sugar firm; Coffee firm; Rice steady; Potatoes quiet at 27 1/2d.

LONDON MARKETS.—November 23.—Wheat dull and buyers demand a reduction; Sugar firm at a partial advance of 6d; Coffee firm. Prices of tea are weak and there is little inquiry, some circulars quote a decline of 1/4d.

The wool sales were well animated and firm.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.—November 23. American securities are in improved demand. Consols are quoted 95 1/2@96 1/4. The Paris Bourse is dull but prices of three per cent. rentals closed steady at 79 1/2c.

THE LATEST.

LONDON, November 24.—Later dates from India have been received by the Overland Mail, but the news is not important.

Nona Sahib is reported as dead.

Spain continues chartering English steamers for the Morocco war.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, December 7.—The following is the conclusion of yesterday's (Tuesday) House report:

Mr. Stevens believed the discussion already had, ought to convince every body that his point of order was correct and proper; namely, that until the House was organized it was not competent to entertain any question except the election of Speaker. At a motion to adjourn he did not blame them for the language of intimidation or reading God's creation from turret to foundation. [Laughter.] It was right in them, for we revere of the North and are not affected by it; he gave them credit for it, for their remarks were to operate on timid men.

Mr. Crawford, of Ga., here rose excitedly, and interrupted Mr. Stevens. Said something about the Union meetings at Castle Garden and in the North. He was loudly called to order, while others applauded his remarks, which were nearly altogether unintelligible, owing to the confusion which prevailed. Members from all sides rose to their feet, and others crowded to the area near Stevens and Crawford. The greatest excitement prevailed, and at one time it was feared there would be a collision.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois—"The time for generosity has passed, order must be enforced." After a few moments the members seated themselves; several gentlemen proposed an adjournment.

Mr. Garrett—"This discussion shall not be stopped, and there is no power in this House to stop it." (Applause.) Adjourned.

River News.

St. Louis, December 7.—M.—The river is about stationary at this point, with seven feet water to Cairo, and full from shore to shore of running ice. Navigation above is suspended, but below the exception of the Alton packets, but below the ice does not offer any very serious impediment to the passage of boats.

At seven o'clock this morning the mercury marked two degrees below zero, something lower than it has fallen for two years. The very cold and apprehensions may reasonably be felt that the river will close or below this point.

Pittsburg, December 7.—M.—River fourteen and a half feet by the pier-mark and rising. Weather clear and cold.

LOUISVILLE, December 7.—P. M.—The river is rising rapidly with ten and a half feet water in the canal and seven feet water on the falls. The large boats for the first time this season are ascending the falls to-day. The weather is very cold. Two inches of snow fell yesterday. The mercury now indicates ten degrees above zero.

Gov. Chase to Gov. Wise.

RICHMOND VA., December 7.—Gov. Wise laid before the Legislature to-day a letter from the Governor of Ohio in reply to one of his. Governor Chase says Ohio will fulfill every constitutional obligation to other members of the Union, but can not consent to the invasion of her territory by armed men, even for the purpose of pursuing and arresting fugitives from justice.

Ohio State Agricultural Society.

COLUMBUS, December 7.—The State Agricultural Society met here to-day, and elected the following gentlemen as members of the Board: Henry Perkins, of Tazewell County; John Heber, of Fairfield; I. M. Trimble, of Highland; N. S. Townsend, of Loraine; and F. C. Jones, of Delaware.

No Hope for Cook.

RICHMOND VA., December 7.—The Legislature unanimously passed resolutions approving the sentence of Cook and the other prisoners, and refusing interference.

Santa Fe Mail.

St. Louis, December 7.—The Santa Fe mails of the 7th and 14th have reached independence. But few Indians were seen, and those were friendly.
