

FROM POINTS AROUND.

[REPORTED SPECIALLY FOR THE STAR.]

DAYTON, KY.—A meeting was held at Eamer's Hall, Saturday night, to select delegates from the Jamestown District to the County Convention, which meets at Alexandria today to nominate a delegate to the Legislature.

Mr. Frank Ream purchased a cottage some days ago from one Casper Asperhausen and paid him the cash, $675. After the purchase it was discovered that there were taxes still due and standing as a lien against the property.

A delightful moonlight excursion will be given on the steamer James M. McArthur to-morrow (Tuesday) evening.

Members of the School Board might profitably spend the first three days of this week in ascertaining the views of the people on the question of affording school facilities for the children of the city; and if they still have any spare time on their hands, they should not be slow to take advantage of the law under which he is sworn to act.

BELLEVUE, KY.—At the primary meeting held on Saturday night, in the School-house, Mr. M. V. Grant was elected as delegate to attend the Democratic Convention, to be held at Alexandria today.

DILLSBORO, IND.—A match game of baseball was played here between the Athletics, of Louisville, Ky., and the Atlantas, of this place, resulting in favor of the latter by the very neat score 7 to 1.

FARIS, KY.—Thieves made a raid on Mrs. J. J. Ireland's chickens one night last week, and stole all she had, from the oldest to the youngest.

On Monday morning, while standing on the railroad bridge crossing the road in Houston, Miss M. J. McGee had one of her fingers cut off when she stepped on the water pipe on the abutment of the bridge.

Last Friday night, an attempt was made to effect an entrance into Mrs. Kitty Brown's residence through a window, but the noise aroused some of the inmates, and the would-be burglar ran off.

Dr. W. H. Downey, the President of the Paris Spotters' Men's Society, was returned from Lexington, where he was in consultation with President Brennan on a business relating to the order.

HAMILTON.—Saturday was the hot day of the season thus far. Col. Campbell's speech at the meeting Saturday night was well received and heartily applauded.

The extreme heat did not prevent a good attendance at the different churches yesterday. Our citizens seem to have the stay-at-home fever this season. Why is it?

The following committees were appointed at the Saturday night meeting to investigate Graham's report: First ward—Thomas Moore, Jacob Schiarr and Wm. Anderson.

Second ward—Captain Morgand, H. Beardsley, Alfred Thomas, O. Q. Parrish and Andy Dangleider.

Third ward—John M. Long, John W. Carr, Asa Schuller and Thos. Howell.

Fourth ward—H. H. Krieger, Asa Cain, Wm. Wacker, John Scnelly and Dr. S. M. Griffin.

Ever since the publication of Special Examiner Graham's report in relation to the doings of the School Board, much talk and excitement have existed, which culminated in the call for an indignation meeting Saturday night in the courthouse yard.

A committee of five citizens from each ward were appointed to examine into said report and report next Saturday night.

The following is the ticket nominated by the Democratic Nominating Convention: For Representative, Col. James E. Neal and Jacob Kohn; for Clerk, Jarvis Barrett; Probate Judge, B. F. Thomas; Sheriff, Marcellus Thomas; Treasurer, H. H. Jones; Prosecuting Attorney, J. E. Campbell; Commissioner, John Weisenburger; Inferiary Director, Celadon Symmes; Coroner, Wm. Spencer.

The street railroad ordinance will be brought up in Council to-night.

These useless offices can be abolished at the expiration of the term for which the present incumbents were elected.

The Kentucky Gazette says that "Mr. Stoll, the Republican candidate for Representative, is a harmless young man."

A special term of the Common Pleas Court was appointed to be held next Wednesday, and continue four days.

Some prominent persons in order to neutralize the influence of THE STAR in Kentucky, accuse its agent here of being a Radical. Such is not the fact.

Private theatricals are becoming quite fashionable as a source of amusement among our enlightened people.

On Friday night an accident occurred at the Press office, which delayed the printing of the American Citizen one day, and prevented the publication of the Daily Press, on Saturday morning.

The will of Washington Sears, executed May 26, 1874, after being warmly contested, was admitted to probate in the County Court Tuesday.

A meeting of the Commissioners of the Chicago & Charleston railroad was held on Saturday, at the Pines Hotel, for the purpose of electing officers and other business connected with the enterprise.

CIRCLEVILLE.—The funeral of Mr. G. B. Recker, of Deerereek township, took place yesterday. It was attended by a very large audience.

The corner-stone of the new Masonic Hall is to be laid in a few days. The hall is to be of brick, four stories high, and will be an ornament to the town and an honor to the Masons of this city and vicinity.

The crusaders were on the street last evening, and held services at the depot, which were witnessed by a large number of people.

The storm of Friday night was the most severe in its nature of any visiting this place for some time past.

Circleville boasts that she manufactures more buggies and has more good-looking girls in proportion to her size than any town in Ohio.

Farmers in this vicinity are complaining that the weather is likely to prove a failure. The wheat has been so seriously damaged by the rain, that, in many cases, it is hardly worth cutting.

The sacral concert at Turner Hall was well attended last night.

John Taylor, a negro residing on Second street, near Scott, was drowned last night about 8 o'clock, at the foot of Madison street, while bathing.

A buggy in which were seated a gentleman and lady was overturned last Saturday evening on Madison street opposite the Clinton Hotel, and the occupants thrown out.

Lieutenant Andrew Stevenson, of the U. S. Marine Corps, is in the city, on a visit to his father, Senator J. W. Stevenson.

Oliver Smith, jr., has left the city on a tour East.

Endora Locker has filed a suit for divorce from Charles Locker in the Chancery Court, on the grounds of cruelty and neglect.

Col. John Gray, who for some time has been seriously ill, is improving.

An old man named Garrish and his wife, also very aged, for a long time have lived on Second street, near the Glass-works, in very destitute circumstances.

A small fire was also noticed in the new Catholic school-house, about 12 o'clock last Saturday night, but was extinguished by the firemen, without turning it into an alarm.

Base-Ball.—The Eagles and Ludlows will not play to-day as announced, on account of the sickness of several players belonging to the Eagles.

Henry Cross, Pat Fitzgerald, Martin Morris, John Hunda, Michael Maher, Thomas Morris, Daniel McCarthy, John Day, Thomas Morris, and others; P. Benson, continued to 24th inst.

Miscellaneous.—Robert Kelly, paid larceny, dismissed; Michael Kennedy, same, continued to 24th inst.; Mary, charged with larceny, continued to 24th inst.; Missie Wolf, harboring a felon, continued to 24th inst.

A game of base-ball between the Eagles and the Pacides took place at Peazeburg Flats on Sunday, the score standing 12 to 22 in favor of the Pacides, as usual.

A horse attached to a grocery wagon took flight on Pike street this morning. The mad career of the excited animal was stopped before any serious damage was done either to the wagon, man or beast.

NEWPORT.—The Thespian Dramatic Club has elected the following officers for the ensuing six months: Joseph T. L. Henry, Manager; C. F. McHenry, President; John K. Thomas, Secretary; H. C. Boyd, Treasurer.

At the Democratic primary meeting Saturday night the following delegates were elected for the Convention to be held at Alexandria to-day for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Legislature, in the First District: Col. Spence, Dr. W. Thompson, John Bruton, John Reif, Frank Edgar, O. W. Davis and R. D. Hayman.

No meeting in the Third District, Highland District—Frank Burton and John Giltry.

Bishop McIntyre, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, delivered an excellent sermon at the Taylor street Methodist Church last night.

Daily market will be held at the City Market House, corner of Bellevue and Clinton streets, at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

Messrs. Howard & Clendenning have completed the painting of the Licking bridge, and the structure now presents a fine appearance.

Mr. Herman, while engaged in tinning a roof of a house on Southgate alley, fell a distance of 20 feet to the ground below, and broke his right arm, last Saturday.

Robert Jones, while attempting to cross the Licking river in a skiff, last Saturday, in company with Robt. White and another man, was drowned at the foot of Tibbatts street, by the overturning of the skiff.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

Colonel T. L. Conant, river editor of the Evansville Courier, is in the city, stopping with Captain Bachelor at the Walnut-street House. Mr. Conant is en route to White Sulphur Springs.

Boats Leaving To-day—Louisville, United States: Leaving Tuesday—Pittsburg, Hudson; Kentucky: Leaving Tuesday—Evanville, Evansville, J. D. Parker; New Orleans, Indiana, State of this river.

Pittsburg, July 19.—River stationary; 4 feet 3 inches. Thermometer, 60. Wind, northwest. 10 to 11 miles and rising.

Parker's Landing—18 inches and rising. The water is very muddy.

Evansville—10 inches and rising. Cairo—28 feet 10 inches and rising. St. Louis—24 feet and rising.

Arrivals and Departures.—The Hudson from Wheeling, and Eureka from Kentucky river, arrived. The Light House Tender No. 1 departed for Parkersburg with an excursion party.

Capt. Charlie Miller has abandoned the trip to St. Paul with the Mary Hanson, owing to the loss of the engine.

C. T. Dumont is to build the machinery for Capt. O. P. Shinkle's new boat, which is to be completed for the Cincinnati and New Orleans route.

Captain W. P. Ripley, of Portsmouth, has sold the Iron Duke to the Campbell's Creek Coal Company.

Captain M. R. Harvey paid $7,000 for the Regt. Excelsior items.—The Haven passed on to St. Louis yesterday with three passengers.

The Brilliant came in from Fomery with a large tow of miscellaneous freight.

The Sampson Hornor and Rover have arrived at Pittsburg.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

The loss at Catheyburg by the floods is estimated at $70,000.

POTATOES.—The market is simply supplied and there is only a moderate demand. No. 1, $1.50 per bushel for good to prime in store.

POULTRY.—Live chickens are in fair demand, with moderate receipts, and the market is quiet. Old hens, 30¢ to 35¢; young, 25¢ to 30¢.

SUGAR.—The market is firm, and there has been an advance in price. New Orleans is worth 10¢; refined yellow, 9¢; white, 8¢.

TALLOW.—The market continues firm with moderate receipts and fair demand at 8¢ for pure country and 8 1/2¢ for city refined per lb.

Wool.—The trade is light. Buyers seem to be holding their hands off at present, and the market continues firm. The receipts are generally large.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Wheat.—The market is quiet and there is a fair demand at $2.00 per bushel for common to fair quality.

Byring at par to 1-30 premium, and selling at 1-30 premium.

There is a fair demand for money to-day, but supply is not abundant.

There is a limited local demand for Government bonds to-day. The prices here are about 1/2 margin below, and selling at New York quotations, which to-day are as follows:

U. S. Bonds, 100 to 105; 5 to 10; 10 to 15; 15 to 20; 20 to 25; 25 to 30; 30 to 35; 35 to 40; 40 to 45; 45 to 50; 50 to 55; 55 to 60; 60 to 65; 65 to 70; 70 to 75; 75 to 80; 80 to 85; 85 to 90; 90 to 95; 95 to 100; 100 to 105; 105 to 110; 110 to 115; 115 to 120; 120 to 125; 125 to 130; 130 to 135; 135 to 140; 140 to 145; 145 to 150; 150 to 155; 155 to 160; 160 to 165; 165 to 170; 170 to 175; 175 to 180; 180 to 185; 185 to 190; 190 to 195; 195 to 200; 200 to 205; 205 to 210; 210 to 215; 215 to 220; 220 to 225; 225 to 230; 230 to 235; 235 to 240; 240 to 245; 245 to 250; 250 to 255; 255 to 260; 260 to 265; 265 to 270; 270 to 275; 275 to 280; 280 to 285; 285 to 290; 290 to 295; 295 to 300; 300 to 305; 305 to 310; 310 to 315; 315 to 320; 320 to 325; 325 to 330; 330 to 335; 335 to 340; 340 to 345; 345 to 350; 350 to 355; 355 to 360; 360 to 365; 365 to 370; 370 to 375; 375 to 380; 380 to 385; 385 to 390; 390 to 395; 395 to 400; 400 to 405; 405 to 410; 410 to 415; 415 to 420; 420 to 425; 425 to 430; 430 to 435; 435 to 440; 440 to 445; 445 to 450; 450 to 455; 455 to 460; 460 to 465; 465 to 470; 470 to 475; 475 to 480; 480 to 485; 485 to 490; 490 to 495; 495 to 500; 500 to 505; 505 to 510; 510 to 515; 515 to 520; 520 to 525; 525 to 530; 530 to 535; 535 to 540; 540 to 545; 545 to 550; 550 to 555; 555 to 560; 560 to 565; 565 to 570; 570 to 575; 575 to 580; 580 to 585; 585 to 590; 590 to 595; 595 to 600; 600 to 605; 605 to 610; 610 to 615; 615 to 620; 620 to 625; 625 to 630; 630 to 635; 635 to 640; 640 to 645; 645 to 650; 650 to 655; 655 to 660; 660 to 665; 665 to 670; 670 to 675; 675 to 680; 680 to 685; 685 to 690; 690 to 695; 695 to 700; 700 to 705; 705 to 710; 710 to 715; 715 to 720; 720 to 725; 725 to 730; 730 to 735; 735 to 740; 740 to 745; 745 to 750; 750 to 755; 755 to 760; 760 to 765; 765 to 770; 770 to 775; 775 to 780; 780 to 785; 785 to 790; 790 to 795; 795 to 800; 800 to 805; 805 to 810; 810 to 815; 815 to 820; 820 to 825; 825 to 830; 830 to 835; 835 to 840; 840 to 845; 845 to 850; 850 to 855; 855 to 860; 860 to 865; 865 to 870; 870 to 875; 875 to 880; 880 to 885; 885 to 890; 890 to 895; 895 to 900; 900 to 905; 905 to 910; 910 to 915; 915 to 920; 920 to 925; 925 to 930; 930 to 935; 935 to 940; 940 to 945; 945 to 950; 950 to 955; 955 to 960; 960 to 965; 965 to 970; 970 to 975; 975 to 980; 980 to 985; 985 to 990; 990 to 995; 995 to 1000.

U. S. Bonds, 100 to 105; 5 to 10; 10 to 15; 15 to 20; 20 to 25; 25 to 30; 30 to 35; 35 to 40; 40 to 45; 45 to 50; 50 to 55; 55 to 60; 60 to 65; 65 to 70; 70 to 75; 75 to 80; 80 to 85; 85 to 90; 90 to 95; 95 to 100; 100 to 105; 105 to 110; 110 to 115; 115 to 120; 120 to 125; 125 to 130; 130 to 135; 135 to 140; 140 to 145; 145 to 150; 150 to 155; 155 to 160; 160 to 165; 165 to 170; 170 to 175; 175 to 180; 180 to 185; 185 to 190; 190 to 195; 195 to 200; 200 to 205; 205 to 210; 210 to 215; 215 to 220; 220 to 225; 225 to 230; 230 to 235; 235 to 240; 240 to 245; 245 to 250; 250 to 255; 255 to 260; 260 to 265; 265 to 270; 270 to 275; 275 to 280; 280 to 285; 285 to 290; 290 to 295; 295 to 300; 300 to 305; 305 to 310; 310 to 315; 315 to 320; 320 to 325; 325 to 330; 330 to 335; 335 to 340; 340 to 345; 345 to 350; 350 to 355; 355 to 360; 360 to 365; 365 to 370; 370 to 375; 375 to 380; 380 to 385; 385 to 390; 390 to 395; 395 to 400; 400 to 405; 405 to 410; 410 to 415; 415 to 420; 420 to 425; 425 to 430; 430 to 435; 435 to 440; 440 to 445; 445 to 450; 450 to 455; 455 to 460; 460 to 465; 465 to 470; 470 to 475; 475 to 480; 480 to 485; 485 to 490; 490 to 495; 495 to 500; 500 to 505; 505 to 510; 510 to 515; 515 to 520; 520 to 525; 525 to 530; 530 to 535; 535 to 540; 540 to 545; 545 to 550; 550 to 555; 555 to 560; 560 to 565; 565 to 570; 570 to 575; 575 to 580; 580 to 585; 585 to 590; 590 to 595; 595 to 600; 600 to 605; 605 to 610; 610 to 615; 615 to 620; 620 to 625; 625 to 630; 630 to 635; 635 to 640; 640 to 645; 645 to 650; 650 to 655; 655 to 660; 660 to 665; 665 to 670; 670 to 675; 675 to 680; 680 to 685; 685 to 690; 690 to 695; 695 to 700; 700 to 705; 705 to 710; 710 to 715; 715 to 720; 720 to 725; 725 to 730; 730 to 735; 735 to 740; 740 to 745; 745 to 750; 750 to 755; 755 to 760; 760 to 765; 765 to 770; 770 to 775; 775 to 780; 780 to 785; 785 to 790; 790 to 795; 795 to 800; 800 to 805; 805 to 810; 810 to 815; 815 to 820; 820 to 825; 825 to 830; 830 to 835; 835 to 840; 840 to 845; 845 to 850; 850 to 855; 855 to 860; 860 to 865; 865 to 870; 870 to 875; 875 to 880; 880 to 885; 885 to 890; 890 to 895; 895 to 900; 900 to 905; 905 to 910; 910 to 915; 915 to 920; 920 to 925; 925 to 930; 930 to 935; 935 to 940; 940 to 945; 945 to 950; 950 to 955; 955 to 960; 960 to 965; 965 to 970; 970 to 975; 975 to 980; 980 to 985; 985 to 990; 990 to 995; 995 to 1000.

U. S. Bonds, 100 to 105; 5 to 10; 10 to 15; 15 to 20; 20 to 25; 25 to 30; 30 to 35; 35 to 40; 40 to 45; 45 to 50; 50 to 55; 55 to 60; 60 to 65; 65 to 70; 70 to 75; 75 to 80; 80 to 85; 85 to 90; 90 to 95; 95 to 100; 100 to 105; 105 to 110; 110 to 115; 115 to 120; 120 to 125; 125 to 130; 130 to 135; 135 to 140; 140 to 145; 145 to 150; 150 to 155; 155 to 160; 160 to 165; 165 to 170; 170 to 175; 175 to 180; 180 to 185; 185 to 190; 190 to 195; 195 to 200; 200 to 205; 205 to 210; 210 to 215; 215 to 220; 220 to 225; 225 to 230; 230 to 235; 235 to 240; 240 to 245; 245 to 250; 250 to 255; 255 to 260; 260 to 265; 265 to 270; 270 to 275; 275 to 280; 280 to 285; 285 to 290; 290 to 295; 295 to 300; 300 to 305; 305 to 310; 310 to 315; 315 to 320; 320 to 325; 325 to 330; 330 to 335; 335 to 340; 340 to 345; 345 to 350; 350 to 355; 355 to 3