

Probably fair and cooler the next 24 hours.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

MELTON GLEN, Esq., has returned from his trip to California.

The mortality report for the month of July shows the number of deaths to be 200.

Mr. M. B. DAVIS, with Maddux Hobart & Co., arrived this morning from Hot Springs, Arkansas. His health is much improved.

JACOB JUNG, a painter residing at No. 1 Mulberry street, was seriously injured by a fall from a scaffold in Camp Washington yesterday.

ENST SCHILLING and Adam Seyfried, carpenters, made an assignment to-day to Charles Jacob, Jr., for the benefit of their creditors. Bond, $1,000.

WILLIAM WOOLNHAUPT, a lad thirteen years old, has been missing since last Sunday morning from his home on the southeast corner of Elm and Longworth streets.

Mr. JOE GRAHAM, the diver, yesterday removed the obstructions in the culvert under the track of the M. & C. road, below Eight street. The water is now rapidly flowing into Millcreek.

RAY C. B. HAIN, pastor of St. Martin's Church, at Sedamsville, celebrated his golden wedding yesterday. A handsome silver tea service was presented to the reverend by the congregation.

A LITTLE boy of G. H. Gillette, No. 120 Main street, near Clark, fell from a second story window, yesterday afternoon, alighting upon a cellar door, receiving, it is thought, fatal injuries.

THIS morning, about six o'clock, an express wagon and horse were stolen on Race street between Sixth and Seventh. The property belonged to John Harting, who resides on Villa street below Mulberry.

VENDERS of milk, who have not obtained a permit from the Board of Health, will, according to a resolution passed yesterday by the Board of Health, be arrested and prosecuted by the Milk Inspector.

RICHARD HURLEY, a man who has been on several occasions before the Police Court, was again arraigned this morning for stealing $4 from a man named Henry Orlett, at No. 67 East Front street, yesterday. He was sent to the Work-house for thirty days.

Mr. JOHN SIMMER, of Chicago, will deliver an address to-morrow night at Turner Hall Garden to the workmen of this city, with a view to the establishment of a general Socialistic Workingmen's Association in Cincinnati. The address will be in German.

ANOTHER slide occurred on the Cincinnati and Baltimore railroad last evening, in the vicinity of Gest street, and the trains are to-day running over the C. & B. road. The necessary repairs are, however, being made, and the trouble will be only temporary.

THOMAS ALIAS NORRIS LARKIN was arrested yesterday, and arraigned in the Police Court this morning on a charge of disorderly conduct. Larkin is the party who did the shooting night before last at the saloon on the corner of Betts and Cutter streets. He was found guilty and fined $5 and costs.

DENNIS MEGAN, mate on the steamer Sam J. Hale, while standing on the O. & M. track, near Riverside, yesterday afternoon, and watching a passing train, was struck by a switch engine and seriously injured in the head, besides having one leg broken near the knee and his right wrist dislocated.

CORDELLA WARD and another woman named Louisa Hopkins yesterday afternoon were drinking at a low saloon on Sixth street, between Plum and Central avenues. Some difficulty having arisen, Cordella called Mrs. Hopkins to her back door and assaulted her with a knife, cutting her in the head, face and hand. The wounds are pretty severe.

The Republican Anti-Inflation Club, of the Twenty-third ward, organized last night by electing the following officers: President, Henry Kessler; Vice Presidents—Dr. B. Stanton, C. F. Muth, John P. Loge and Arthur Hill; Secretary, Frank A. Crippen; Treasurer, S. B. Gries. The objects of the club are to advance the interest of the party—the only one to which we can look for the honest and economical administration of our affairs, State and National; second, to secure by all honorable means the election to office of men of known ability and integrity.

The Pullman Palace Car Company were victimized recently by one Charles R. Curtis, Cashier of the Cincinnati Division. Curtis left the city rather suddenly, taking with him the total receipts for one day, amounting to about $15,000. The authorities have kept the matter quiet, expecting that Curtis would be emboldened by their reticence and show himself up, which he did yesterday at Trenton, New Jersey, according to telegrams received by Assistant Attorney Merrill, of this city. Detective Craven has been employed to attend to the matter, and left this morning for Columbus to procure a requisition from Gov. Allen to the Governor of New Jersey.

The contract for the foundations of the Tennessee river bridge was awarded yesterday afternoon to McMahan, of Mountain, Virginia, and Condon, of Knoxville, Tennessee, at their bid of $181,200. The foundations and masonry, in twelve separate pieces, will include nine thousand four hundred cubic yards of work. These offer dams will be required to put down the foundations. Two pieces of the shore work will rest on rock foundations; the south abutment will rest on pile foundations. Piers No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7, and the rest piers for the draw span, will rest on solid rock. The material for the masonry will be of the best quality of limestone.

THE HEALTH OFFICER was, yesterday afternoon, in the meeting of the Board of Health, instructed to invite an early meeting of the Board of Improvement and Beverage Commission, to agree upon a virtual course of procedure for the purpose of repairing damages and averting the dangers arising from the late overflow of Millcreek bottom. The report of the Health Officer on Millcreek was submitted. It advises the adoption of some measures to guard against the dangers that will arise from the dampened walls of houses and unwholesome cellars, and from the refuse matter gathered from the gutters, streets, water closets, dwellings, slaughterhouses and manufactories, and deposited in the bottoms by the backwater.

At the Gibson. The following are the prominent arrivals at the Gibson House: Mr. C. H. Niles, St. Louis, Mo.; M. H. Deane, St. Louis, Mo.; Geo. Curran, Madison, Ill.; J. W. Johnston, Louisville, Ky.

McGEHAN'S MURDERERS. Have They Been Arrested? A dispatch has been received in the city saying that a man was arrested at Laporte, Indiana, yesterday, who had confessed to a connection with the murder of Tom McGehan, at Hamilton. No particulars were sent and names given, but our dispatches from Hamilton this morning state that nothing is known of the affair there. The friends of McGehan's family have for some time been working on a clue by which they thought they would find the murderers. Whether the arrested man is one of the suspected parties is not known.

Marriage Licenses. The following marriage licenses were issued since our last report: John C. Homer and Virginia Ball. James M. Mitchell and Lizette Weaver. Henry Collins and Rebbecca Grimsley. Richard Butler and Kate Flynn. Joseph Butler and Mary Scharppear. Rome Ruble and Ginny Poor. Thos. McMan and Maggie Quinn. Salvanus Howells and Ann James. Michael Tunney and Ellen Keating.

Building Permits. The following permits were issued since our last report: J. Hellstern, 3-story brick at 652 Vine street, between Mary and Liberty; estimated cost $2,500. Kitting and Egan, frame shop east side Linn, between Richmond and Court; estimated cost $300. John J. DeHan, six two-story brick houses on northeast corner of Cutter and Melanhton, estimated cost, $7,000. Conrad Bohstner, addition to frame at 508 East Front street, estimated cost, $200. W. Lefere, addition to two-story frame, on Washington street, between Boone and Engine-house, estimated cost, $250.

TROUBLE AT READING. The Furniture of the Council Chamber to be sold on an Execution. In the early part of last autumn, Conrad Appel, a resident of the quiet little town of Reading, cut down a large cluster of weeds that were growing rank in an alley in the vicinity of his premises. This, in the opinion of Mayor Holinkamp, of Reading, Mr. Appel had not quite a right to do, and he accordingly had Mr. Appel arraigned before him, found him guilty, and sentenced him to the Work-house.

This proceeding on the part of the Mayor, however, met with a reverse on the part of Appel, and he at once appealed the case for final decision to the Court of Common Pleas. In last July the matter came up in the Courts, and the proceeding of the Mayor of Reading was held to be beyond his jurisdiction. The case amounting altogether to $30, was accordingly assessed against the Mayor by the Common Pleas Court, and the execution of the Court to pay said costs was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Brown to collect. The bill for $30 against the Mayor was then submitted to the Board of Common Council of Reading, and it was ordained that the same should be paid.

Mayor Holinkamp, however, refused to countersign the order for the $30, and then the whole matter was supplemented by Deputy Sheriff Brown, who levied upon the property of the Council Chamber of Reading and advertised the same for sale.

The bill will probably now be paid, and thus prevent the necessity of the honorable Councilmen of Reading holding their next session of Council in an empty room, and sitting upon the floor instead of the usual soft-cushioned chairs.

A Wild Humour. The Austin (Texas) Statesman says: A gentleman arrived from Marcos yesterday, and brought the news of the capture of a wild boy a few miles from that place. The boy was first discovered wallowing in a pond of shallow water, and when approached he broke like a quarter-horse, running about a mile before he could be overtaken by men on ponies. Riding up near, the boy was lassoed, when a fierce contest ensued, the strange being striking, kicking, and also, and apparently being frightened almost to death. Finally he was overpowered, tied, and taken to the house of the man who first discovered him. His body was covered with hair about four inches long, and from size and appearance he is supposed to be twelve years old. He is unable to talk, but possesses reasoning power, and now follows his captor about like a dog.

Figaro reports this conversation between two Paris artists: "How are you getting along?" "Oh, very well. I net now 15,000 francs ($2,400) for a head and 30,000 ($4,800) for a full-length portrait." "Those are my prices also." They walk on a little farther. "How many orders have you got at these prices?" "Not one. And you?" "Not one either."

It may be prudent for students and others who propose pending their vacations in pedestrian excursions through the country to take certificates of character along with them. They will be found useful in case the bearers of them should be arrested as "tramps."
