Erie Litigation--A Much-Wanted Bank Robber--Rapid Transit--The Cincinnati Conference--That Telegraph Amalgamation.

New York, Sept. 1.--An injunction has been claimed restraining the Treasurer of the Erie railroad from paying the half yearly interest on the consolidated mortgage bonds, due to-day, September 1st. It is announced that the interest on the second and third mortgage bonds will be paid, the date of payment to be made from to-day.

There were habeas corpus proceedings before Judge Love in the Court of Common Pleas for the release of Geo. Fuller, with many aliases, who was arrested on a requisition of the Governor of Vermont. The charge against him is that he was one of the gang who recently robbed the Bowe bank of $13,000.

It transpires that Fuller is wanted in Delaware to serve five years in the Penitentiary, and the Warren of Sing Sing, New York, claims that Fuller owes nine years in that prison as he was sentenced to ten years for robbing the Watertown Bank and escaped at the end of one year.

At a meeting of the Rapid Transit Commissioners an estimate was presented of the cost of constructing a road which gave $435,000 per mile as the figure. The Chairman of the Invention Committee of the Cincinnati Conference says the farmers and mechanics have arranged with the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad Company to send members from St. Louis to the Cincinnati meeting, and return at half fare, good for the month of September. Members are to procure their tickets at the Planters' House and Union depot, St. Louis.

A meeting of the Directors and Trustees of the Atlantic and Pacific Telegraph Co. was held yesterday to consider certain propositions made by the Western Union Company looking to a consolidation of the two companies. Among those present were Jay Gould, Sidney Dillon, W. J. Syms and others. The session was not of long duration. The details of the negotiations have not been made public. It is believed, however, that all negotiations have been broken off, and the attempt of the W. U. Co. to absorb the Atlantic and Pacific has proved a failure. It is understood that two distinct propositions were made to the Atlantic and Pacific Co., both of which were rejected. One of these proposals received but one affirmative vote, and the other was rejected without the call, the members refusing to entertain it upon any consideration. One of the propositions, it is stated, was that the Atlantic and Pacific be consolidated with or leased to the Western Union upon a basis of two millions and a half capital, the Western Union to pay eight per cent. interest thereon and guarantee to keep the lines of the Atlantic and Pacific Company in good working order.

Fatally Wounded. LATONIA, Ont., Sept. 1.--Last night about 9 o'clock a man named Steel stabbed Thomas Jackson while attempting to arrest him. Jackson is fatally wounded.

All Quiet. SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.--The excitement has entirely subsided, and a better feeling prevails. The statements by prominent Directors of the Bank of California that the affairs of the bank are in a much better condition than was anticipated, with the prospect of its resumption of business with a new capital, does much to restore confidence.

Heavy Robbery. PITTSBURG, Sept. 1.--The pawnbroker shop of H. W. Cimentotti, 100 Smithfield street, was last night robbed of goods valued at $7,000.

Astor House Reopened. NEW YORK, Sept. 1.--The Astor House, which has been undergoing repair and rotting for several months, has been completed, and was opened this morning for the inspection of guests.

A Watery Bonanza. CHICAGO, Sept. 1.--A furious rain storm struck Southern Wisconsin, Sunday night, doing considerable damage to stacked grain, and washing away railroad tracks, bridges, &c.

These Evaporating Hoppers. KANSAS CITY, Sept. 1.--A gentleman just returned from North-western Missouri reports the hatching out of millions of grasshoppers in districts visited by the pests last June, on their northward journey.

The Prize Ring. YONKERS, New York, Sept. 1.--The prize-fight between Tom Reegan and Jacob Croaker took place opposite here yesterday. The men fought 'at catch weight, according to rules of the London Prize Ring, and fought for four hundred dollars. The principles, with a large crowd, left on a boat and landed at the Palisades. Fourteen rounds were fought in forty-five minutes, when Reegan, who was terribly punished, refused to fight any longer, and Croaker was declared the winner. Both pugilists were badly punished.

The New Jersey Treasury Trouble. TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 1.--The committee appointed to investigate the affairs of State Treasurer Sooy are in session, to-day. As yet there are no new developments beyond the fact that it has been discovered that there are $28,000 in the name of Holy Bank for which Mr. Sooy has no credit on the books of the State Treasury. The State, however, is credited on the bank books with this deposit. A number of experts are engaged in overhauling Sooy's books. The result of the examination will be made public after all the accounts are in. Mr. Sooy is in a comfortable condition to-day, having recovered from his nervous prostration.

The Kansas Corn Crop. LAWRENCE, Kas., Sept. 1.--The rains of the past two days have settled the fate of the corn crop in Douglas county. A farmer brought to this city samples of corn that beat all yet. This corn was planted since the grasshoppers left, and it has wonderfully developed. The ears are thirteen inches in length, and there are eighteen rows of full round kernels of sixty kernels to the row. Hon. Alfred Gray, Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture, has, perhaps, the best facilities of any man in the State for knowing the actual condition of the crop. His estimate is that Kansas will have a surplus for exportation of not less than 5,000,000 bushels.

The Bear River Murder--Banquet. ST. JOHNS, N. B., Sept. 1.--A Bear River telegram says: Robbins, before being taken to jail, acknowledged murdering his wife. The negro, Irvine, acknowledges completely long before and after the murder. He knew before the burning that others were planned. Mrs. Irvine also acknowledges the same, but says she kept her silent. She feigns insanity. Both have been committed for trial.

Sergeant Hunter, the St. John's representative of the Wimbledon team, was entertained with a complimentary supper by the New Brunswick engineers last evening. Quite a number of failures are pronounced to-day, but none of importance.

Indian Agent Gibson in Trouble. TOPEKA, Kan., Sept. 1.--The investigation of Agent Gibson at the Osage Indian Agency has concluded so far as the taking of oral testimony, and the Committee have adjourned. Lawrence to make their report. The evidence against Gibson is very damaging, and his removal will no doubt be recommended.

He has made a practice of having vouchers signed in blank, and then filling them up with large sums, and of buying up vouchers at a heavy discount. The Chief of the Osage tribe was the principal complainant. The attempt of the committee to extend the investigation relative to charges of irregularity against Superintendent Hoag, failed because witnesses kept out of reach.

From the Black Hills. SIOUX CITY, Sept. 1.--Swearing and William Johnson have arrived here from the Black Hills. They came by way of the U. P. R. to Omaha from Cheyenne. Swearing says Major Howard, agent of Spotted Tail, took fifteen to that place, showed them how to wash out gold, and advised them to retain possession of that country, and see the Government for $50,000 dollars for not keeping the miners out of the Hills. Major Howard threatened to arrest any miners coming out of the Hills by any route except Laramie and Cheyenne. They bring fine specimens of silver and gold. They had several samples at the Omaha Smelting Works. The gold quartz which they left there is the average of what exists in the Hills in great quantities, and yielded $1,700 per ton, the silver $250 per ton.

Governor McCreary's Inauguration. FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 1.--The ceremony of the inauguration of Governor Jas. B. McCreary took place at Frankfort yesterday, amid a vast concourse of citizens and visitors. A large procession, both civic and military, conducted him to the State-house, where the retiring Governor, Leslie, delivered his valedictory. Governor McCreary's inauguration was warmly received. He was sworn into office by Judge Lindsay, of the Court of Appeals. Mayor Taylor made a speech, after which he presented Governor Leslie with some complimentary resolutions, finely engrossed and handsomely framed. Rev. Green Clay Smith, in behalf of the Good Templars, presented Governor Leslie with a silver service, accompanied by elegant compliments. Leslie responded in fitting terms.

Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton being upon the grand stand was called on for a speech by Hon. Matt. Adams, who declined to make a lengthy speech.

It is believed that Colonel J. Stoddard Johnston will be retained as Secretary of State, and that Chas. H. Bronston will be Assistant. In all probability the resolutions, finely engrossed and handsomely framed, Rev. Green Clay Smith, in behalf of the Good Templars, presented Governor Leslie with a silver service, accompanied by elegant compliments. Leslie responded in fitting terms.

The grand ball in honor of the new Governor at the Capital Hotel last night was a brilliant affair.

His appointment, unless a mere caprice, is proof that the Sultan is determined to maintain the system which has produced the present outbreak.

SCOOPED. "One by one the roses fall." This time it's the young and handsome foreman of the steam press-room, Mr. W. G. Chamberlin, who on Monday night, at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. J. C. White, on Maple street, was united in marriage to Mrs. Mary E. Muselman. The hearty good wishes of the whole concourse go with the brave hearts who have launched their bark on life's tempestuous waves. Let us float! The STAR will be issued, as usual. No cards, no beer, no nothing.

'Tis sweet to hear the honest watch-dog's bark Bay dog-mouthed welcome as we draw near home; 'Tis sweet to know there is an eye that marks our coming, And looks brighter when we come! -- Or words to that effect.

THE COUNTY DEMOCRACY.

Their Convocation at Robinson's Opera-house To-day.

The streets in front of Robinson's Opera-house were crowded this morning for two hours before the time set for the Convocation to open. Every ward in the city was represented, both by its delegates and by large numbers of outside parties, who either had friends who were to come before the Convention or were solicitous on their account.

Tickets of admission were in demand, but it was thoroughly understood that none except the delegates were to be admitted to the lower part of the house. The tickets were issued to the delegates from the box-office, and every one not holding tickets was rigidly excluded until the delegates were seated, and after that time access to the more elevated portion was admitted to the balconies. The house was admirably arranged, sections being allotted to the different delegations.

At ten o'clock the delegates were admitted to the hall, and took their seats with the utmost quietude. Some little amount of dissatisfaction was observable among the country delegates, they having been assigned seats in the dress circle, while the city delegation was misplaced in the parquette.

The steamer Faraday has succeeded in reaching the break in the direct cable, and the completion of the work established communication between Ireland and America is shortly expected.
