The State Capital.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 9.—At the meeting of the Infirmaries Directors yesterday there were forty-three counties represented. The special object of the meeting was relative to making some better provision for the chronic insane of Ohio, now being cared for after some fashion at the various County Infirmaries. A special committee was appointed to memorialize the next General Assembly on the subject. Resolutions were adopted declaring the County Infirmaries not to be competent to give proper care to this class of unfortunate, and calling upon the General Assembly to make proper provisions for their support. An Executive Committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs. Levi Keenger, of Probler; Chas. Gosche, of Wayne; Jos. Smith, of Ross; Jacob Mathias, of Butler; George Herberling, of Harrison; B. J. Wells, of Portage, and F. A. Stearnes, of Scioto. The committee was authorized to call a State Convention, to be held in Columbus during the next session of the General Assembly.

DAYTON, O., Sept. 8.
We have in the far eastern portion of our fair little city an unorganized organization of young roughs, rowdies and disreputable men generally, from fifteen years of age and upward to manhood, who roam about that section of the city to the terror of all peaceful citizens, and who are known as members of the "Chain Gang."

Late Foreign News.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.—A congress of Republican Journalists is in session at Troyes, France.

The French army preliminary maneuvers commenced on the 10th inst., but the war maneuvers do not open until the 21st. There will be a grand engagement at St. Maximin.

The field artillery experiments are being continued at Okehampton, England, for the purpose of testing the comparative efficacy of various projects and to ascertain the damage likely to accrue to artillery material from artillery fire.

A congress of German Journalists, at Bremen, lately passed resolutions favoring the press law.

The French harvest is satisfactory, though inferior to that of 1874.

CARDINAL McCLOSKEY.
ROME, Sept. 9.—His Holiness received Cardinal McCloskey last evening. The Rector of the American College and the Cardinal's Secretary accompanied him. Two Cardinals and several prelates greeted him at the hall of the throne. He was immediately ushered into the Pope's private apartment, where His Holiness rose and embraced him. They remained together alone for half an hour. Upon leaving the Vatican the Cardinal was again complimented by the prelates. The date fixed for the holding of the Consistory is the 24th instead of the 9th inst. During the interview the Pope asked Cardinal McCloskey many questions and answered them in a friendly manner. The Cardinal subsequently visited Monsignor Antonelli.

FROM GREAT BRITAIN.
LONDON, Sept. 9.—A special to the Times says that Colonel Duncan reports that the King of Burmah received him courteously.

The Chinese authorities in London received a telegram notifying them of the appointment by the Chinese Government of two officials as Joint Ambassadors to Great Britain.

There is every reason to believe that this use of the engraved stone began with the Greeks, and from them was copied by their servile imitators, the Romans. It is every way a conventional and a natural one; and our grandfathers' custom of wearing their seals at the fob, as it was called, or hanging from the side-pocket, was a recurrence to old Assyrian usages, which did not long hold its ground.—Fraser's Magazine.
