LAST EDITION.

Probably fair or clear the next twenty-four hours. New York.

New York, Sept. 16.—At a meeting of the Bar held yesterday afternoon to honor the memory of the late Judge Woodruff, of the United States Circuit Court, addresses were delivered by Ex-Judge Bosworth, Hon. W. M. Everts and others.

President Jewett, of the Erie railroad, received a cable from London a proposition signed by bond and stockholders for reconstruction of the company, to place its finances on a sound footing and insure the success of the road. The proposition is to issue fifty per cent. more common stock at twenty-five dollars per share. By this issue and funding of coupons, eighteen million dollars would be made available for expenditures during the next two years in altering, improving and making additions to the line and paying off the floating debt. Subscriptions to the new issue would be made available during two years by providing for half-yearly installments. The parties making the proposition agree that by the new issue of stock and judicious outlay of money, the company will be placed on a sound footing.

The Presidency.

WHAT CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS HAS TO SAY FOR HIMSELF. NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A letter from Charles Francis Adams is published today, relative to the proposition by certain political friends that he should be nominated for the Presidency. He says: "I am sure it would be agreeable to me to undertake the work, but I have not gathered as I dare accomplish during my term of life. I see nothing there just now that promises happy results within a short time. Meanwhile I am writing history, or, at least, putting out of the reach of accidents the valuable materials which have been placed in my hands, and which I myself and gathered, I do not think I could be made more useful to the world in any other way."

Episcopal Conventions.

ILLINOIS ELECTS A BISHOP. CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—In the Diocesan Convention yesterday afternoon Dr. DeKoven, Seymour and McLaren were nominated for the vacant Bishopric. A letter was then read from Dr. Seymour withdrawing his name, which was read and a ballot was then taken, and resulted in a clerical vote of 22 for DeKoven, 80 for McLaren, 5 scattering. On the second ballot the vote stood on clerical vote: McLaren, 39; DeKoven, 14, with 7 scattering. The lay vote was McLaren 53, DeKoven 31, with 16 scattering. Dr. McLaren's election beyond a doubt, and was subsequently made unanimous. The result seemed to give general satisfaction, the friends of Dr. DeKoven yielding with good grace to the decision of the Convention.

A missionary meeting was held last evening by the Convention, and after signing the credentials of the Bishopric was adjourned. Dr. McLaren was born at Geneva, N. Y., in 1831, graduated at Jefferson College, Pa., in 1851, a very fluent speaker and ready writer. He was at one time editor of the Cleveland Plaindealer, and subsequently became a minister in the Presbyterian church, and spent several years in missionary work in South America. He was afterward located in Detroit, in charge of the West Minister Presbyterian church. In 1872 he was converted to the Episcopal faith, and confirmed as pastor within six months, and has since had charge of Trinity church, Cleveland. He is generally considered a very able man, and it is thought his election will be confirmed.

Out-Door Sports.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The match race between the yachts Madeline, of New York Yacht Club, and Mohawk, of the Brooklyn Club, for $1,000, came off yesterday over the regular course of the former club. The Mohawk being a considerably larger vessel, allowed the Madeline 7 minutes time. The conditions were that the race must be made in eight hours. The race was won by Madeline, with seven minutes to spare.

Ward, defendant.—Divorce.—The defendant will take notice that on the 10th day of September, 1875, the plaintiff filed his petition in the Clerk's Office of the Hamilton County Common Pleas Court, in the above case, charging the defendant with gross neglect of duty and willful absence for more than three years, and praying for divorce and other proper relief. Said cause will be heard in six weeks from date hereof. C. W. EARNST, Atty for Plaintiff. SEPTEMBER 16, 1875. 5614-47

DIED.

COLLEY.—On Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock, at the residence of Alexander Ogden, Spring street, Walnut Hills, Charles Colley, in the 8th year of his age.

Friends of the family are invited to attend.

Horse Management.

Horses should not be stabled in their feed. Work horses should be put out to pasture at night, but they should have their usual allowance of other feed. They have some lost flesh to make up. Scrape off the eggs of the bot fly from their fore-legs and shoulders with a sharp knife, or wash them off with warm water every evening. Three hours' rest at noon is not too much for the team while plowing. The lost time may be made up at morning and night. This arrangement is not a bad one for the driver as well. Give water often, and don't forget the handful of corn meal stirred into it. Colts may be taught to eat a little meal or bran, and to be handled freely. Careful attention and the gentlest possible treatment should be given to all young stock at this season.

Boating.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Evan Morris has issued a challenge offering to row any man in the world a five-mile race for two thousand dollars a side, the race to take place at Pittsburg.

Price Fight.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—A prize fight for $1,000 a side has been arranged between Chambers and an unknown, the fight to take place in October within five hundred miles of New York.

Fire.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A fire this morning in a five-story brick building, No. 87 Ann street, damaged the stock of several occupants to the amount of $75,000.

The Lumbermen.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—The Lumbermen have elected Hon. F. G. Thorpe President. Resolutions relative to the death of Henry S. Dow were passed.

The New York Democrats.

High Water.

GALVESTON, TEXAS, Sept. 16.—A large part of this city was under water last night, the effect of the unusual high water, and wind from the northeast. No great damage done, but some wharves are somewhat injured.

Tickets Please.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A number of General Passenger and Ticket Agents of the Southern railroads arrived yesterday afternoon, in the first through car ever run in a continuous trip between New Orleans and New York. They will proceed to Saratoga to the Semi-Annual Convention of the General Ticket and Passenger Agents' Association.

A memorandum was presented, showing the receipts since April 8 to be $290,158; expenditures, $268,500, and an additional sum of $24,778 advanced by the Atlantic and Pacific Company for important and new lines.

The Indianapolis Exposition.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 15.—The Exposition parade to-day is very fine, embracing the prominent business houses of the city. The procession was nearly four miles long. The show at the Exposition, however, is yet very meagre, the finest being the floral display, at which but one firm in the city competes.

The Colorado Election.

DENVER, Sept. 16.—In Denver and Arapahoe counties the Democrats elect one Councilman, a Representative and Treasurer, the Republicans carrying the balance of the ticket. Only three counties are known to have gone Republican, though the Republicans claim the whole Territory.

In the three principal mining counties the majority of the Legislative ticket is Republican, the other offices falling to the Democrats. Owing to disabled telegraph lines, there are yet no reports from Heurist and Los Animas counties, and the extreme southern counties, where a heavy Mexican Democratic vote is usually polled. They will not be heard from for two or three days, they being one hundred miles from the telegraph.

Late Foreign News.

AN ENGLISH NOBLEMAN INSULTED. NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—A Paris special says the nephew of Lord Thonet was grossly insulted by the Paris police yesterday. He and his wife and two children were arrested, charged with insulting a woman's pocket in an omnibus. They were stripped and indecently examined but nothing was found on them. The case has been placed in the hands of the English Embassy.

THE INSURRECTION WEAKENING.

A Vienna dispatch says the insurrection shows signs of weakness. The insurgents keep to the hills, but they will be dislodged in the coming winter, when their present stronghold will be untenable.

A VICTORY FOR ALPHONSO.

MADRID, Sept. 16.—Advices just received by government, announce that troops have occupied Oyarzun and captured the Carlist governor and made many prisoners.

DISASTROUS FIRE.

IMPORTANT CONFERENCE.

PARIS, Sept. 16.—Thiers and Gambetta held a lengthy conference yesterday, and agreed on a common programme for the next session of the Assembly.

SUMMARY.

LONDON, Sept. 16.—A Madrid correspondent of the Times summarizes the circular of the Papal Nuncio to the Bishops as follows: The Nuncio claims the fulfillment of the Concordat which forbids the exercise of any non-Catholic creed; requires the transfer of the superintendence over education to the clergy, and pledges the co-operation of the secular power in suppressing heretical teaching and literature. He says one of the causes of the civil war is the way in which religious unity has been misunderstood by previous governments. For these reasons, and in view of these consequences, the Holy See believes it self strictly obliged to present these observations to the Government. The Times correspondent adds: "No doubt the presentation of this audacious claim, at a time when a Liberal Cabinet has just been installed, implies a threat that if the Government reject the blessing of the Church it will be definitely transferred to Don Carlos, and peace retarded in every possible way."

THE ST. LOUIS STAKES.

The great race for the St. Louis stakes at the Doncaster September meeting was very exciting, and was won by Origin of Lace Weaving.

Some one tells this charming love story in regard to the introduction of lace weaving into Brussels. A poor young girl named Gertrude was dying for love of a young man whose wealth precluded all hopes of marriage. One night, as she sat weeping, a lady entered her cottage, mysterious, saying a word, placed in her lap a cushion, with its bobbin filled with thread. The lady then, with perfect silence, showed her how to work the delicate patterns and complicated stitches. As daylight approached the maiden had learned the art, and the mysterious visitor disappeared. The price of the maiden's lace soon made her rich, on account of its patterns, and she was able to marry the object of her love.

Many years after, while living in luxury, with her numerous family about her, she was startled by the mysterious lady entering her comfortable home, without saying a word, placed in her lap a cushion, with its bobbin filled with thread. The lady then, with perfect silence, showed her how to work the delicate patterns and complicated stitches. As daylight approached the maiden had learned the art, and the mysterious visitor disappeared. The price of the maiden's lace soon made her rich, on account of its patterns, and she was able to marry the object of her love.

So the next day Gertrude went forth with her cushion and bobbin in her hands. Going from cottage to cottage she offered to teach the art she had so mysteriously learned. Yet after all, it may be doubted whether the art introduced by the mysterious stranger and her pupil has proved a blessing to their countrywomen. True, it has saved them from starving, but a compassionate male traveler of our acquaintance says that, after seeing their strained eyes, intense looks and pinched features, he regards lace weaving as a curse rather than a blessing, and does not envy the heart of the woman who, having seen and known as he has, can consent to wear lace or in any way to encourage its manufacture.

A Sister's Love.

Who can tell the thoughts that cluster around the word Sister? How ready she is to forgive the errors, to excuse the foibles of a brother! She never deserts him. In adversity she clings closely to him and in trial she cheers him. And when the bitter voice of reproach is poured in his ears she is ever ready to hush his harsh tones, and turn his attention away from his painful notes. But let him move in a flowery path she hangs clusters of smiles about him. In watching his favored career and listening to his eulogy, she feels the purest satisfaction. The cold grave can not crush the affection for him. It outlives her tears and sighs. An angel, who often wanders to the spot where he reposes, with the fragrant rosebud and creeping honeysuckles, and plants them on his tomb.

And who will dare to affirm her love perishes when she fades away from earth? May it not live far off in the glorious land—and live on, increasing in fervor and intensity, during the endless ages of eternity?

Among the local manufacturing enterprises of our city, is that of the manufacture of pure wines from our own product of grapes, is gaining ground rapidly and becoming an important feature of our industries. To Messrs. Ogborn & Co., of 24 Water street, this enterprise owes much of its success. This firm has taken especial interest in the manufacture of native wines, and the production of the pure juice of the grapes grown in this region. The extent of their manufacture is something enormous in itself, and furnishes employment to a large number of hands at all seasons of the year. The grapes are gathered from all sections of the country, the large proportion, however, being grown on the Company's vineyard, at Kelley's Island.

A UNION meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society will be held this evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock, in the Third Baptist Church.
