

LOCAL BREVITIES.

LADIES' TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION at 200 Vine street this afternoon.

The Chamber of Commerce Arbitration Commission meets this afternoon.

The Zoological Garden has been enriched by the addition of an elephant.

MAYOR JOHNSTON has postponed his visit to Urbana on account of the severe illness of his wife.

MR. GEORGE FREEMAN, of the Adams Express Co., was tried on Tuesday evening to Miss Emma Peabody, niece of Auditor Humphreys, at the residence of Mr. Mattoon on Barr street.

FRANKLIN AND STERNBERG have arranged for a single soula race on Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock.

The smiling face of Mr. Ben. Scott, the Coroner's clerk, last night indicated something, and it was—a bouncing girl of twelve pounds.

The Miami Medical College Alumni meets to-night at Dr. Stanton's, No. 610 Freeman street. Drs. Brown and Landtair will read some interesting papers.

CHARLES WOLF, a lad who resides with his parents on Mt. Auburn, was run over by an Auburn avenue car yesterday. One of his eyes was badly crushed, and he received severe injuries about the head.

Two small fires occurred last evening, one in a room at the Pulte Medical College about six o'clock, and the other about half past nine in a shed back of Greenwood's foundry on Clay street. A trivial loss was sustained in each case.

JOSEPH STEVENS, a molder at Chamberlain's shoe foundry, was burnt about his face with metal yesterday afternoon while making a casting. He was taken to his home in Milford. It is feared that he will be deprived of his eye-sight.

The engine attached to train No. 2 on the O. & N. R. H. was delayed at Culton's Station last night on account of the bursting of the boiler. Fortunately no one was hurt, but a large number of passengers were badly scared. The engine was obliged to walk to Storrs township for another engine.

An unknown man about forty years old, who boards on Walnut street, three doors south of Eighth, attempted to commit suicide about six o'clock yesterday evening by taking a dose of strychnine. He was taken to the hospital, where he soon recovered. The man would not impart any information concerning himself or the attempt on his life.

The funeral of James McCormick, the injured fireman, took place from St. Xavier's Church this morning, and was largely attended by friends, who followed in a long train of carriages behind the Volunteer Firemen's Association, headed by a band of music. The remains were interred at the new Irish Cemetery in the Warsaw pike with appropriate ceremonies. The first bell tolled at the engine-house as the procession passed.

The Chicago & South Atlantic railroad elected the following Directors yesterday afternoon: Thos. L. Jones, of Newport, Ky.; H. T. Hancock and W. Frost, of Lexington, Ky.; F. Dickey, of Boone county, Ky.; George Richards, of Scott county, Ky.; H. T. Harris, of Madison county, Ky.; John Dishman, of Knox county, Ky.; J. Stewart Johnson, of Frankfort, Ky.; Jeremiah Magallon, of Mercer county, Ky.; W. S. Raymond, of Monticello, Ind.; Robert Rae, of Chicago. The Directors subsequently organized by unanimously electing Hon. Thos. L. Jones President.

GEORGE MALBY held an inquest this morning on the body of a man named Francis Lewis born Youngstown, Ohio, who dropped dead about 6 o'clock A. M. on Fifth and Stone streets. The jury returned a verdict of death from heart disease. The deceased was 60 years of age, and a stranger in this city. In his pockets was found a railroad pass on the A. & C. G. R. R. signed Francis Lewis, and a subpoena from the Court of Mahoning county, O., for G. Danalis. He had a knapsack with him filled with provisions to last him a month, a photograph and $5 in money.

Park Music. The programme of music at Burnet Woods Park this afternoon by the Cincinnati Orchestra is as follows: Grand March—Geiselbrecht. Overture—"Comique"—Keler Bela. Waltz—"Little Lute"—U. G. Strauss. Selection—"Glorious"—Morandante. March—"Tambour"—Wagner. Polka—"Victory"—Strauss. Finale—Hermann.

Dan Rice. The equine wonders on exhibition at 176 Race street, or old Uncle Dan Rice's "latest edition," or, more properly speaking, addition to the show world, is nightly increasing in popularity and attendance. We would fain do justice to the public and the true merit of Uncle Dan's new show if we did not call special attention to this entirely new and wonderful exhibition. Last evening for about two hours Uncle Dan's "latest edition" and his brilliant success of every feature of his entertainment, called forth enthusiastic applause. No man, woman or child can fail to go away from the park filled with admiration and satisfaction at the display of near intellectual approach to man by the horses, goats and elks and a variety of other animals.

Political Pickings. A Hayes and Young Club was organized in the Ninth ward last night as follows: President, Gustav Hof; Vice Presidents, Major A. M. Aten, Dr. H. N. Reid, M. Kennedy, Charles G. Broadwell, Wm. L. Torrence; Secretaries, W. M. Davis, Geo. W. Woodruff; Treasurer, Robert Allison; Finance Committee, Col. E. Markert, Lewis Seaton, A. C. Sand, Dr. W. H. Murray, John W. The Grottoes, Cascades and Lake under Brilliant and Varying Colors. ALL THE GRAND DEPARTMENTS UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE.

To correct an erroneous impression, the Commissioners announce that the price of admission for the Grand Floral Subscription Day, FRIDAY, September 24, will be as usual, 25c. Tickets for sale at the Exposition; also at Merriam's Drug Store, Fourth and Main; Hawley's Bookstore, 164 Vine; Yorston's Drug Store, Twelfth and Central avenues; Waffenschmidt's Drug Store, Twelfth and Elm.

Bold Daylight Robbery.

The residence of Fred. Layton, Esq., on West Ninth street, near Freeman, was entered by a thief yesterday afternoon, and silverware to the amount of $50 was carried off. None of the family were at home at the time with the exception of the nurse girl, Mattie Mautz, to whose courage and presence of mind her employers are indebted for the protection of their property. The thief had in his possession at one time silverware and other valuables to the amount of over $300.

Hearing an unusual clatter up stairs Mattie went to see what the trouble was, when she encountered the villain and had a square look at him. She describes him as a tall man, with long sandy hair and whiskers, dressed in dark pants and vest, a straw hat and a short coat with a greenish cast. With comfortable presence of mind the young girl called for Mr. Layton to come with his pistol. Of course, Mr. Layton didn't come, for he wasn't there. But the robber wasn't sure of it, so he departed in haste. But in doing so he made such a scattering of his booty that Miss Mautz is inclined to think he was drunk—as among other things he got away with some ale which he found in his rambles.

A valuable lace shawl was found on the roof, pantaloons and shirts, together with a lot of Maximilian and silver trade dollars, were found in the back room; a fine silver sugar bowl was checked down the vault, and a set of handsome fruit spoons in a morocco case thrown in the clothes-basket. Another piece of solid silverware was washed out of the closet. The thief succeeded in getting away with a large silver pie-knife in a morocco case, and a silver sirup cup and saucer, all valued at $50. The thief effected an entrance by the front cellar window. The family are inclined to think that he had a confederate. When he made his exit out the back gate an express wagon, containing an old black chest and driven by a colored man, which had been standing in the back alley close to the gate, was driven rapidly away. This morning as Mattie was coming from her home to Layton's she recognized the same colored man, and looking him to Miss Mautz, who at once decided that he was not the robber. He is still in custody, however. Diligent efforts are being made for the capture of the thief.

Base-Ball.

The Browns, of St. Louis, and the Philadelphia, played the seventh game of the championship series yesterday afternoon at Ludlow Park. About five or six hundred persons were in attendance. The game was very one sided, the Browns appearing to have everything their own way from the start. The score was as follows:

Innings.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Browns.....3 0 2 0 0 0 0 0 5 Philadelphia.....0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 1

Passed balls—Miller, 1. Earned runs—Browns, 1. Philadelphia, 1. Umpire—Dennis Mack, of the Stars. Time of game, two hours.

The Red Stockings play the Blue Stockings to-day at the Cumminville ground. The Walnut Hills Club, with the veteran Con Howe at their head, is fast losing up as one of our crack amateur clubs. To-morrow they play the Blues of Gammanville, and as both sides are about evenly matched the result is very uncertain.

This afternoon the Unions of Urbana play the Stars on the Covington ground.

The following marriage licenses were issued since our last report: Henry Stock and Bertha Renga. Andrew Popp and Lizette Geisler. John A. Whitaker and Eliza Smith. John A. Whitaker and Rosa A. Moore. J. Leslie Miller and Rachel P. Wood. Henry Van Maere and Mary F. Huntington. Julius Denninger and Gertrude Rauscher.

BARNUM'S HIPPODROME.

BARNUM!

THE ONLY HIPPODROME IN AMERICA!

And Great enough in its Magnitude to Overshadow with Canopy any TEN SHOWS ON THIS CONTINENT!

P. T. BARNUM'S

GREAT ROMAN HIPPODROME!

SCHOOL OF Japanese, English, French and American Equilibrists, SPORTS OF ANCIENT GREECE & ROME, & HISTORICAL PAGEANTS OF THE WORLD

THE BARNUM UNIVERSAL EXPOSITION COMPANY, Proprietors, P. T. BARNUM, President.

W. C. GUP, General Manager. S. H. HURD, Superintendent and Treasurer.

Chartered by the Legislature of Connecticut, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000. The purpose of this organization is to aid Mr. Barnum in obtaining the object of his life-long ambition, viz: To elevate, purify and refine the character of public entertainments; to make them merit the support of the moral and religious classes; to blend instruction with amusement, and to essentially promote "Object Teaching." The various exhibitions which the company will produce in Europe and America will be unprecedented in extent and perfection.

CINCINNATI 4 DAYS ONLY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 28, 29 and 30,

ON LOT ADJOINING LINCOLN PARK.

Two Grand Performances Each Day at 2 and 8 P. M. Doors open an hour previous. The Great Hippodrome's first and only tour through the West, stopping only at the principal and central points to which excursion trains can be run. Thousands of people turned from the doors at almost every exhibition, unable to obtain admission. No such success was ever achieved, and any other entertainment of its magnitude will never again be seen in this generation. Resplendent with all the pomp and glory of Caesar's era.

Incurring Stupendous Cost, and Without a Parallel in any Age. It has elicited hundreds of columns of voluntary commendations from the religious and secular press of New York, Boston, Philadelphia, and other cities, and the plaudits of nearly 10,000,000 satisfied auditors of the past year, all agreeing such predominant success was never before achieved on the face of the globe. An Amphitheater holding 15,000 people, which costs from $1,000 to $2,000 to build at every station, and a Racing Track one-fifth of a mile in length; acres of wide-spread canvas, with the largest seating capacity in the world.

AN ARMY OF MEN, WOMEN and CHILDREN, Hundreds of Through-Bred and Imported Horses. Gilt and Gold-embroidered Chariots and Tableaux Cars, Solid Silver and Jeweled Armor, Glittering Paraphernalia, and the most elaborate, brilliant and expensive Wardrobes ever beheld.

HISTORICAL PAGEANT OF THE CONGRESS OF NATIONS. Producing a grand succession of intellectual surprises, embracing the following changes, equivalent to a stiff in full view of the Royal Courts of the whole world: Magnificent rival of the sports of Ancient Greece and Rome, with all the exciting races, and many realistic pictures of the olden times; Hurdle Races, Flat Races, Elephant Races, Camel Races, Chariot Races, Pony Races, Monkey Races, Ladies' Races, Roman Standing Races, and Indian Life, or Chase for a Wife, presenting Leonch's Tribe of Wild Indians and Mexican Rangers in scenes incident to savage life; Mrs. D. Astoria, Satsuma, and Little II Right, and Lazzelle Million and Master Lazzelle in a trio of acts—Vision of the Hours; Grand March of the Amazons; Ballet Divertissement; Grand Operatic Shows, &c.

In consequence of the injury that would result to the magnificent wardrobe if exposed on the sports of Ancient Greece and Rome, with all the exciting races, and many realistic pictures of the olden times, the procession will consist only of the superb liana of Music, on foot, followed by the bloued race horses, ridden by jockeys. The Magnificent Congress of Nations, with its elegant gilded chariots and gorgeous court scenes and paraphernalia, will precede each exhibition in the vast amphitheater.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY!

A Grand Display of Fireworks will occur on Monday Evening, September 27, in front of the immense Amphitheater, adjoining Lincoln Park, and at 4 o'clock P. M. the same day a gratuitous

BALLOON ASCENSION

Will take place, under the supervision of a distinguished aeronaut, when persons will be invited to make an air voyage. Arrangements are now completed for the transportation of the entire Hippodrome to Europe, where it will be open in London on Christmas next. As the expenses of this stupendous establishment aggregate near TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS DAILY, it is impossible to stop for exhibitions at the smaller towns. EXCURSION TRAINS can be arranged for and run at such hours as will accommodate the public, carrying passengers to and from the Hippodrome at greatly reduced rates.

Free Admission to all who purchase the Life of P. T. BARNUM, Written by himself, down to the present period of 1875, with nearly 1,000 pages and 50 full-page illustrations, reduced in price from $3 50 to $1 50. For sale within the great Hippodrome. Uninformed ushers to attendance.

Admission, 50 cents; Children under nine years, 25 cents; Reserved Seats Extra. Every facility will be offered to the public for procuring tickets in the wagons on the lot, but to accommodate such as prefer to avoid possible delays in obtaining them at the customary small advance, a few tickets will be left at J. E. HAWLEY'S Bookstore, No. 164 Vine street.

Remember the Roman Hippodrome is not a Circus, and that every objectionable feature has been removed, so that the clergy and moral classes can safely attend without fear of being annoyed by the coarse jests, immoral apparel and repulsive displays.

NOTE.—The many thousands feet of lumber from which the Amphitheater is erected in every stand will be offered for sale at public auction, on the Hippodrome grounds, the day after the exhibition. The lumber is valuable for building and other purposes, in most cases answering as well as new.
